A Commission presented by the Rev. Archibald Durrie, was referred to Ministers Levi Parsons, D.D., and French W. Fisher, with Ruling Elder W. H. Cole, as a Committee on Elections. The Committee presented the following Report, which was adopted:

Mr. Durrie is certified by the Stated Clerk and Moderator of the Presbytery of Bismarck as having been appointed by the unanimous consent of the Presbytery, as a substitute, in the place of the Rev. Edson C. Dayton and Rev. J. O. Sloane, the Principal and Alternate elected, neither of whom was able to attend. The Committee recommend that, in view of all the circumstances, Mr. Durrie be enrolled as a Commissioner, but with the understanding that this case shall not be regarded as a precedent.

The Rev. Samuel A. Mutchmore, D.D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, was chosen Moderator, and the election was made unanimous.

On the nomination of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, the Rev. Edward T. Swiggett, of the Presbytery of Cincinnati; the Rev. William S. Young, of the Presbytery of Los Angeles; the Rev. J. Wilford Jacks, of the Presbytery of Geneva, and Ruling Elder Henry W. Lambirth, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, were chosen Temporary Clerks.

The General Rules for Judicatories, appended to the Constitution, were adopted as Rules of Business for this Assembly.

It was Resolved, That the Moderator shall be expected to report on Friday morning the names of the members of the following Committees:

Bills and Overtures, Judicial, Polity, Freedmen, Education, Ministerial Relief, Mileage and Finance, and in addition, the Chairmen of the other Standing Committees.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 A.M., Friday, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 17, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and united in the celebration of the Lord's Supper, in accordance with the recommendations of the Committee of Arrangements.

FRIDAY, May 18, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The following additional Commissioners were reported, and their names enrolled: Minister—James B. McBride, of the Presbytery of Iowa City; Ruling Elders—Edward C. Barrows, of the Presbytery of Hastings; J. D. Cameron, M.D., of the Presbytery of Lake Superior; Henry R. Brown, of the Presbytery of Holston; W. J. Delbridge, of the Presbytery of Trinity; Nathan Williams, of the Presbytery of North River; S. A. Rockwell, of the Presbytery of Waterloo; D. A. McManigal, of the Presbytery of Palmyra; W. A. Caldwell, of the Presbytery of Choctaw.

The Stated Clerk reported the Docket, which was read and approved.

The Records of the Synods, and all papers and overtures from the Presbyteries, were called for and put in the hands of the Stated Clerk.

The Moderator announced the Standing Committees as follows:

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Special Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by the Chairman, the Rev. John S. McIntosh, D.D., was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee appointed to take charge of The Church at Home and Abroad would very respectfully submit their Report for the year. We bespeak most earnestly generous consideration, but thorough examination of our work. We realize that in the conduct of the magazine and the prosecution of its interests we have been honored by having committed to us a most important trust. It has been our dutiful and steadfast aim to acquit ourselves so that we may deserve the approval and the confidence of the Church, and to win these we have given without reserve our time and our best thought. The task allotted to us has proved somewhat harder and more perplexing than at first we had supposed; but our experience during these past years has made us familiar with the difficulties to be met, and we believe and rejoice to state that in not a few particulars we have learned to meet and overcome them.

During the past year we have been pleased and encouraged to discover, from frequent and emphatic testimony, that the magazine of our Church has been commending itself very decidedly to an enlarging band of appreciative readers. Suggestions and judicious criticisms were freely made and have been always welcomed, and they have greatly helped your Committee in our efforts to improve our pages. Never have these grateful and encouraging testimonials been so numerous and emphatic, and from so widely separated quarters. This fact shows beyond question that within the circle of our constituency, the magazine has taken stronger hold than ever of our more careful and critical readers. While we are perfectly willing to have every fault pointed out and would be most frank to acknowledge them, we hold ourselves bound to affirm to the General Assembly, and in the strongest terms, that marked advances during the past year have been made in the attractive features of the magazine. No part of the periodical has won wider, more generous and deserved praise than the pages entitled "Gleanings at Home and Abroad." These really golden nuggets are regularly and eagerly quoted by contemporary journals, and even by daily newspapers. The special articles that have been furnished by special contributors have been of exceptional interest and many of permanent value, and never have our editorial correspondents given us more timely and often inspiring articles than those that have appeared within the past six months. To the Chairman of your Committee have come voluntary and emphatic testimonies, borne by leading members of other Churches, regarding the high degree of excellence attained by us. Manifestly the arrangements by which the Boards of our Church have become closely linked with the editorial work of the magazine, are approving themselves by their results as both wise and fruitful.

Our Circulation.

The average monthly circulation of the magazine is 18,542 copies. The excellence of our monthly, and its acknowledged improvements, justified us in anticipating a greatly increased subscription list, and we believe that we should have reported such had not the unparalleled financial depression of the past twelve months prevented this advance. Every one knows how church treasuries have suffered and contributions to Boards and charities have been diminished; yet we have lost but a small proportion, and our balance sheet for the year stands as follows:

An Abstract of "The Church at Home and Abroad" Account, Showing Deficiency.

Balance against the Church, December 1, 1892,		$1,266 44
Expenses for the year,		20,064 26
Amount due subscribers,		1,112 64
		$22,443 34
Receipts,	$18,705 29
Assets,	3,316 44

Average monthly circulation, 18,542 copies.

The deficiency, which amounts to only $421.61, would not only have disappeared entirely had it not been for the financial strain, but it would actually have been replaced by a surplus. We have $362 of unpaid advertisements for 1893, and there are many overdue subscriptions. These debts are good, but the hard times make it difficult to collect them. These payments would have wiped out all deficiency and have shown a balance to our credit. We congratulate ourselves and the Assembly on such a showing in such a year. The Business Superintendent informs the Chairman of your Committee, that the assets shown in our balance sheet have been rated at an unusually low figure because of the depression of the times, and that a larger proportion of these assets have been realized, since the above business statement was prepared, than he had estimated.

Advertising Pages.

Mr. Richard S. Dey, our advertising manager, sends this abstract of report:—The year 1893 was not a good advertising year. The Church at Home and Abroad, along with other periodicals and other lines of business, felt the general depression. One of the first effects of depression in business is a curtailment of the amount of money usually expended in advertising. Nevertheless, the magazine did not publish less advertising than in former years, but more. If business had been ordinarily good, the effort put forth and the growing favor of the magazine among advertisers must have resulted in a greater gain than eleven per cent., which is the rate of increase in 1893, over any former year. We expect to report an increase for this current year. The collections towards the close of 1893 were very slow, and some $362 still remain due.

Business Manager.

To enlarge the circulation and promote the general interests of the magazine, we resolved a few months ago to seek for an active and enterprising man who would devote his whole time to this enterprise. We have made a temporary arrangement with a gentleman who has had considerable experience and shows certain aptitudes in this line. After the trial of a few months now running we shall better be able to judge of his fitness for this task. Meantime he gives good promise of usefulness, both in the editorial and the business departments.

Plans and Methods Discussed.

In no former year have we given more time and serious thought to the whole large question of the magazine:—The aim and purpose of the Assembly in consolidation; the pressing wants and desires of the several Boards represented; the possibilities of such a periodical in our Church; the wants and demands of the various sections of our Church; and the many and often conflicting suggestions how to meet these desires in the best ways and in accordance with the commands and powers given to us: all these subjects have been carefully studied.

The question of a newspaper edition has been at three successive meetings thoroughly discussed. Conferences were held by your Committee with representatives from the Synod of New York in regard to this matter, and more particularly with the Rev. W. H. Hubbard and Rufus S. Green, D.D. The whole subject of a cheap edition and a different form of presenting the missionary intelligence to the members of the Church was patiently and exhaustively studied. This plain, stern fact confronted us all the while: that we had no authority from the Assembly to undertake work of that kind, even had we been convinced that it was the wisest thing to attempt such an experiment; and hence we felt that it was our duty to continue in the path approved by successive Assemblies, and carry on our work as we had been instructed. During this discussion, it became very clear to us that many in our Church preferred the magazine to the newspaper form of presenting information regarding our missions and the other activities of our Church. At the same time we learned and upon good testimony that there was a demand for a cheaper way of conveying missionary intelligence. As this subject is coming before this Assembly upon overtures from several Presbyteries, it is not necessary to discuss it further in this Report. There may, perhaps, be room for both the magazine and the newspaper.

The feasibility and desirability of having a semi-monthly of some fifty pages has also been carefully considered by your Committee. Several advantages seemed to attach themselves to such a scheme:—The possibility of giving special prominence to a special Board in a distinct issue; the more frequent communication of missionary intelligence; the closer touch with the Church at large; the opportunity of making our magazine the official bulletin of the Church for all notices of an official kind—and various other apparent advantages. But after long and mature deliberation, we do not hesitate to say that it is our strong and unanimous conviction that the present form is the most desirable, and will, we believe, most fully satisfy the demands, and most worthily maintain the dignity, of our great Church and her noble missions.

In laying our Report before the Assembly this year, we think it wise and right to report very fully and frankly these various ideas and plans which we have had under discussion. It will at least appear that we have not been lacking in attention to the desires of our Church and the wisdom of changes in our magazine. In addition to this we desire to know the mind of the Assembly; and we seek instructions.

But with equal frankness we would state some of our own convictions:—That the magazine should be continued as a united presentation of the whole and varied work of our Church; that the magazine form is generally preferred to any other; that whatever the Assembly may approve and order, even should a newspaper edition ever be approved, our magazine should certainly be continued; that our magazine has this year taken firmer hold than ever of the confidence and appreciation of our most thoughtful and critical readers; that with returning material prosperity our subscription list will be certainly enlarged; that with generous consideration and sympathetic support our columns will continue to maintain our present high standard, and to improve more and more; and that the magazine may be easily made to serve not only as the missionary intelligencer, but also as the official bulletin for the whole Church.

OUR RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. That the Committee be reappointed and be directed to report to the next Assembly.
2. That the same powers be continued to the Committee.
3. That the same instructions be issued as in previous years, or such new and additional instructions as the Assembly may approve.

All which is respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Committee.

JOHN S. MACINTOSH, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Church Unity presented its Report, which, together with a minority Report, and a dissent from the Report of the Committee, were received and placed upon the Docket.

The Special Committee on the Coöperation of the Churches presented its Report, which was read, received, and referred to the Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 P.M., and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 18, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance presented its Report, which was received and the resolutions adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance would respectfully report that in reviewing the past year there is occasion for gratitude to God and encouragment to continued efforts for the maintenance of His holy day.

The awakening of public sentiment in many parts of the land in favor of proper legal safeguards to protect all classes in the enjoyment of their weekly Sabbath rest, and also the increased study of the divine precepts pertaining to the holy Sabbath, especially by multitudes of the youth of our land, are hopeful indications.

The expressed convictions of a large majority of our American people against opening the World's Columbian Exposition on Sunday have been approved by a recent decision of the highest court of Illinois. The cause of Sabbath Observance has thus been signally vindicated, under the providence of God, and in such a manner as renders it morally certain that no similar attempt of such colossal proportions will ever be repeated in America to destroy the sanctity of the Lord's day.

An International Congress of Sunday Rest was held in September last, at the Columbian Exposition, in connection with the series of Congresses. Preliminary arrangements were made by a Committee, of which W. W. Atterbury, D.D., Secretary of the New York Sabbath Committee, was the Chairman. An Advisory Council was appointed, composed of prominent men in Europe and America interested in the cause. Delegates were also chosen by various Sabbath associations in the United States, Canada and Europe. Interesting and able papers were read, by representative persons, on the physiological, social, industrial, political and religious aspects of the Sunday question. The special relations of the Sunday rest to wage-earners of all classes were duly considered. The paramount importance of correct religious views upon this subject was freely discussed by representatives of different denominations, and a volume has recently been published, under the direction of a Committee on Publication, containing many of these valuable papers and addresses.

A higher appreciation of civil laws, wisely administered, designed to preserve the Christian Sabbath as a day of rest and worship, (a better understanding of the harmony existing between the Sabbath code as revealed in God's Word and man's highest interests in all his relations, individual, social and civil;) a deeper sense of God's love in providing the Sabbath rest, and a firmer conviction of the universal obligation of the human race to observe God's command respecting His holy day are some of the beneficial results which will surely follow this International Congress on Sunday Rest.

Important questions, however, that relate to the preservation of this institution still confront us. The Sunday secular newspapers, the attractions of Sunday amusements, the unnecessary Sunday postal service, the organized saloon power, and the subtle influence of foreign habits antagonistic to the Sabbath, are among the perils that demand increased vigilance and concerted action on the part of those who prize the Lord's day. Never was there greater need of prayer for the Divine help, in view of the growing tendency on the part of those who profess and call themselves Christians to spend the hours of the Lord's day in secular pleasures and pursuits: and never was there more pressing need of prayer that the selfish competition of trade and greed of gain may not be permitted to rob those who earn their daily bread by their daily labor, of their sacred right to rest and worship.

The present is an age of social agitation, a time when all divinely ordained institutions are tested even to their very foundations. The holy Sabbath especially is in great danger. Many who bear the Christian name have admitted the secular spirit into the home and Church on the Lord's day; some have suffered habits of self-indulgence to impoverish their religious nature; in some cases the excitements of worldly pleasures have dissipated serious thought, while in not a few God's holy Word is no longer relished on account of the preoccupancy of the Sunday secular paper.

We may well ask: "What is the right course of action in attempting to counteract these evils?" If we believe that the Sabbath is a bulwark that shields our Christian civilization against anarchy, and that every influence tending to weaken the power of the Sabbath over the public conscience endangers our civil institutions, we ought to use all lawful means without delay to rescue this day from destruction.

Your Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly reaffirms its belief in the divine authority and universal and perpetual obligation of the Sabbath.

Resolved, 2. That we lay upon the individual conscience the responsibility of personal example in keeping the Lord's day, by avoiding whatever tends to desecrate it, such as the buying, reading and supporting in any manner the Sunday secular newspaper, unnecessary Sunday travel, amusements foreign to the spiritual purposes of the day, social entertainments that dissipate serious thought and needless self-indulgence during its sacred hours.

Resolved, 3. That we call upon all the members of our churches and upon all friends of the Sabbath to use their influence in every lawful way to prevent such legislation as would weaken civil enactments passed with a view to protect the Christian Sabbath as a day of rest and worship.

Resolved, 4. That we view with delight the intelligent interest of Sunday-schools and young people's societies in the proper observance of the Lord's day, and would also heartily commend all Sabbath associations organized to maintain this sacred institution.

Resolved, 5. That as the Christian pulpit can never fulfill its sacred functions without declaring fearlessly the truth of God concerning the claims, sanctities and obligations of the Sabbath, we rejoice in the assurance that sound teachings upon this subject by the ministry has never been more general or effective than at present.

Resolved, 6. That the American Sabbath Union, a national society organized to enlist the friends of the American Sabbath in its defense, whenever it is threatened by some great national assault, and also to assist in awakening the public conscience upon the subject, by the distribution of Sabbath literature and other methods should have the continued and heartiest support of all those who prize the blessings of God's holy day.

The Moderator was authorized to appoint a Special Committee on Sabbath Observance, to serve for one year without expense to the Assembly. Whereupon the following persons were appointed as the Committee:—Mr. William R. Worrall, Hon. James A. Beaver, Frank C. Monfort, D.D., S. J. McPherson, D.D., J. H. Brookes, D.D., William C. Young, D.D., Rev. Charles B. Ramsdell, Hon. Thomas Ewing, H. Scott Howell, Esq., John Gordon, D.D., Arthur J. Brown, D.D., J. W. Dinsmore, D.D., A. W. Ringland, D.D., Willis G. Craig, D.D., James Gardner, D.D.

The Report of the Special Committee on Church Unity, in so far as connected with the negotiations with the Commission on Church Unity of the Protestant Episcopal Church, was taken up, and adopted.

That portion of the Report which dealt with the subject of the Federation of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States was ordered to be printed, and its consideration placed upon the Docket.

The first part of the Report is as follows:

The Special Committee on Church Unity respecfully present the following as the Report of the Committee:

The General Assembly of 1887, in appointing a Committee to confer with the Commission of the Protestant Episcopal Church, on the subject of Church Unity, connected with that appointment made this declaration, to wit:

"Mutual recognition and reciprocity between the different bodies professing the true religion is the first and essential step towards practical Church Unity."

In the forefront of the correspondence and personal conferences which have been held, your Committee presented this declaration to the Protestant Episcopal Commission. We were met with the statement that:

"The Commission was authorized only to search for the Basis of Unity, and that the question of reciprocity will probably be for consideration in the course of our further negotiations."

In the judgment of your Committee, this disposition of that which our Assembly regarded as the initial question would have justified an immediate withdrawal from farther correspondence, inasmuch as the Presbyterian Church cannot admit that its standing as a Church and the validity of its organization are questions for consideration as between it and any other Christian Church.

But as representing the larger body and the one in closest touch with other Protestant denominations, your Committee felt that we could afford to wait and see whereunto this thing might grow.

Your Committee in its first letter to the Commission affirmed that:

"The Presbyterian Church holds and always has held firmly to what we believe to be the genuine historic Episcopate as this is set forth in the New Testament, and in the practice of the early Church, so far as it did not swerve from apostolic models and directions."

At a later period in the correspondence, it was mutually conceded that external organic union between the two Churches is not yet practicable.

"It is evident," said the Commission, "that we have not yet reached an agreement respecting the meaning and significance of some of the terms used in the declaration of the component parts of the very basis on which our conferences are to be conducted."

Your Committee said:

"The way has not yet been made clear to effect Church Unity by formal agreement to definite propositions. We are not even prepared to formulate the terms on which a union may hereafter be effected."

Following this mutual concession, the Commission addressed to your Committee the following appeal:

"First of all, let us learn to understand and love one another. Let us promote every convenient form of social and godly intercourse. Let us impress upon Christians who differ from us, where we Presbyterians and Anglicans are agreed that we recognize great Christian principles on which we are entirely united; that we cherish each other's character and reputation as fellow-Christians; that we rejoice in the points in which there are advantages on either side which are examples to both; that we are striving together in many ways for the triumph of the Gospel and the glory of Christ. . . . Episcopalians and Presbyterians are too far apart; . . . . they dwell in separate camps, they never confer together about matters of common interest. They do not look into each other's eyes, nor open their hearts to each other. If personal intercourse could in some way be promoted, however informal; if they could be brought together for the promotion of common ends; if the spiritual unity which already exists could find some practical expression; if they could be enlisted together in some common cause; they would appreciate each other better and would yearn for a closer union, not merely as a matter of duty to Christ but from a strong and growing attachment."

To this appeal your Committee responded in substance as follows:

"Cannot some measures be devised by which we shall stand together on questions of moral reform, and by which we shall present a united front in antagonizing the evils which we alike oppose, and let the public see and feel that there is no division between Episcopalians and Presbyterians here, but that they are joined in one, with one heart and one soul, in stemming the floods of vice and iniquity, and rescuing the fallen from the grasp of the destroyer. . . . . If Episcopalians and Presbyterians can be brought into closer mutual relations, can be associated together in some public manner in common enterprises, can plan, consult and work together for the attainment of common ends; if that measure of isolation which now keeps them apart can be succeeded by active friendly intercourse, and this can be so managed that no antagonisms shall be awakened and all our differences shall for the time be kept out of sight, and only that be suffered which shall tend to promote harmony and fraternal feeling, we shall feel that a decided step has been taken in the direction of Christian Unity."

To this the Protestant Episcopal Commission responded in part as follows:

"We are prepared to advise and recommend such coöperation as you ask wherever and whenever our influence extends. We desire further to suggest as a measure eminently conducive to a better acquaintance between ourselves, to the growth of mutual understanding and its concomitant love of one another, to the drawing together, to the final and ultimate attainment of corporate unity, the goal never to be lost to sight or in any way obscured to our vision; the holding of public meetings within our borders in the interest of Christian Unity, to be addressed whenever practicable by speakers representing both of our Churches. Further, that our peoples be urged to private as well as public prayer for the healing of our unhappy divisions to the end that there may come to be one fold under the one Shepherd. We respectfully ask that you unite with us in the setting forth of the necessity for the reorganization of American Christianity, to the end that the waste of force now so sadly dissipated, and lost because dissipated, may be estopped; the moral power so ineffectual, because divided, given its inherent usefulness, to the end above all that the good pleasure of the blessed Lord may be accomplished in the unity of His servants, that so this American people—aye, the world—may be made to believe that the Son did indeed come into the world for the healing of every wound of the nations and kindreds and tribes. It will be understood, of course, that while these expressions voice the unanimous opinion of our Commission as here represented they do not spring from any instructions that we have received, our General Convention not having been in session."

To this communication your Committee replied in part as follows:

"We thank you for your cordial response to our desire for coöperation in that you say you are ready to engage with us in all humanitarian work. We also heartily approve of the measures suggested by you for the promoting of better acquaintance between the bodies represented by us, to wit, the holding of public meetings within our borders in the interest of Christian Unity, to be addressed, when practicable, by speakers representing both our Churches; and that our people be urged to private as well as public prayer for the healing of our unhappy divisions. . . . . Permit us also in this connection to ask your earnest attention to another means which we believe would tend to a better understanding between our respective bodies and greatly aid the cause of Christian Unity. It is a custom largely prevailing among the various branches of the Protestant Church for pastors occasionally to exchange pulpits in the preaching of the Word. Experience has shown that this custom has been one of the most powerful factors in leading to a better understanding and a closer fellowship between the Churches among whom it has prevailed. We believe that the establishment of this same practice under proper regulations between the great historic Churches represented by us would greatly promote the cause of unity, which we both desire. We recognize the right and duty of each Church to protect its pulpits from the intrusion of all unauthorized or self-appointed preachers of the Word, and to take such measures as shall best secure the teaching of pure doctrine. Also this custom, if established between us, should not be in unregulated liberty, but under such rules and limitations as the episcopal authority of both bodies may agree upon. We respectfully ask your consideration of this matter, and as we have already assented to three of the propositions advanced by you, we are not without hope that through a better acquaintance by means of some of the measures proposed, and especially under the guidance of the Spirit of truth, we may be able to reach a satisfactory solution of the fourth proposition."

The letter containing the last-named suggestion was written May 19, 1893. No response was received until this week, in a letter bearing date April 16, 1894. This response is only a personal letter from the Chairman of the Commission. It reminds us that the General Convention meets only triennially, and that no authoritative answer can be given to our proposition concerning reciprocity without instruction from that body; and assuring us that our proposition will be submitted to the General Convention.

In view of this history thus briefly sketched, your Committee believes that the correspondence with the Protestant Episcopal Commission should be suspended, until action is taken upon our proposition concerning reciprocity by the General Convention.

We recommend, therefore, the following action:

1. The General Assembly reaffirms the declaration of the General Assembly of 1887 as follows, viz.: "The General Assembly are in cordial sympathy with the growing desire among the evangelical Christian Churches for practical unity and coöperation in the work of spreading the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ throughout all the earth."

2. It reaffirms the further declaration of the same Assembly, viz.:

(a) All believers in Christ constitute one body, mystical, yet real, and destined to grow into the fullness of Him who filleth all in all.

(b) The universal visible Church consists of all those throughout the world who profess the true religion, together with their children.

(c) Mutual recognition and reciprocity between the different bodies who profess the true religion is the first and essential step towards practical Church unity.

3. The General Assembly approves of the way in which its Committee of Conference with the Protestant Episcopal Commission on Church Unity has conducted its negotiations.

4. The General Assembly, on the request of its Committee, directs it to suspend further correspondence with the Protestant Episcopal Commission, until that Commission secures from its General Convention instructions to accept and act upon the doctrine of mutual recognition and reciprocity.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,

The Committee on Bills and Overtures also reported on the Overtures on Organic Union with the Presbyterian Church in the United States, as follows:

Overtures Nos. 1–10, from the Presbyteries of Allegheny, Benicia, Chester, Dubuque, Holston, Huntingdon, Kingston, Osborne, Ozark and Utica, asking this Assembly to appoint a Special Committee of Conference to confer with a similar Committee, if one should be appointed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to take into consideration the whole question of organic union of the two bodies aforesaid, upon the basis of our common standards, and to report to the next Assembly.

The Committee recommend that the following action be taken by this Assembly:

WHEREAS, We have heard with great joy that the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, now in session in Nashville, Tenn., has before it Overtures from its own Presbyteries asking for the appointment of a Special Committee to confer upon the subject of organic union with a similar Committee of this Assembly, if one should be appointed; therefore,

Resolved, That a Special Committee of nine be appointed by the Moderator to confer with a similar Committee, if one should be appointed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to take into consideration the whole question of the organic union of the two bodies upon the basis of our common Standards, and to report to the next Assembly; and that the Moderator and Stated Clerk be authorized to communicate this action by telegraph to the General Assembly now in session at Nashville, Tenn.

The recommendation was adopted.

It was ordered that the fraternal greetings of this Assembly be sent to the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in session at Eugene, Oregon, and the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, at Albany, Oregon.

The Report of the Special Committee on Proof-texts was read and accepted, and its consideration was made the second Order for Monday, A.M.

The Assembly took up for consideration the Report of the Special Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries, and the minority Report from the same Committee. Addresses were made by Rev. William C. Young, D.D., Hon. Thomas McDougall and Rev. W. E. Moore, D.D., members of the Committee. The further consideration of the Report was then made the special Order of the Day at 10 o'clock A.M. on Monday next.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief presented its Report, which was received, and after addresses by John Fox, D.D., Chairman of the Committee, J. H. M. Knox, D.D., and W. C. Cattell, D.D., Secretary of the Board, the recommendations were adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee of the Assembly to which was referred the Thirty-ninth Annual Report of the Board of Ministerial Relief, together with the Minutes of the Board, for the year ending April 1, 1894, respectfully report that they have carefully examined both these documents.

They find the Minutes kept with care and accuracy and recommend their approval, and would call the renewed attention of the Assembly and through it the attention of the churches to the forever pressing need and sacred claims of this thrice blessed work.

It might be thought that in view of all that has been said in its behalf in previous years further appeal or argument would be superfluous.

But, perhaps, the most striking fact that appears in the Annual Report is this, "That 3798 churches took up no collection whatever for the cause last year." Your Committee desire this fact put in the forefront of their Report, as an indication of how much yet remains to be done in arousing all the churches to a larger use of their opportunities for ministering herein, to the ordained ministers of our Lord whom He bids us care for in His name. The necessity laid upon us will be more apparent from the following summary of the work of the Board as it appears in their Report. Seven hundred and fifty-four persons, recommended from 178 Presbyteries, appear upon the roll of the Board, an increase of 32 upon the preceding year; 23 of these were provided for in the Ministers' Home at Perth Amboy (in lieu of any remittance in money), and of the remaining 731, 294 were ministers, 406, widows of ministers; 26 orphan families, and 4 women who have given themselves to missionary work under the care of the Foreign or Home Board for a period of not less than five years, and one, the widow of a medical missionary. One hundred and five new names came upon the roll during the year, 61 ministers, 40 widows, 2 orphan families, and 2 women missionaries. Forty-four have been removed by death—33 ministers and 11 widows.

It is, of course, to be understood that the 754 persons who receive this aid must in many cases share it with others dependent upon them, so that the number indirectly dependent on the Board is much larger. Seventy-nine of them are honorably retired ministers, over seventy years of age, who have rendered not less than thirty years of pastoral or missionary service, and who are entitled (without the renewed recommendation of their Presbytery), to an appropriation not exceeding $300. The average appropriation asked for these seventy-nine families has only been a little more than $275.

All the appropriations asked for by the Presbyteries conforming to the rules laid down by the Assembly have been met, and the Board has expended in meeting them $159,375.37, an increase of about $7000 over the appropriations of the preceding year, and the Board comes to the Assembly with a balance of about $4500. For this we may thank God and take courage; nevertheless it ought not to mislead the Assembly into false hopes for the future. The income of the Board from all sources during the year fell short of its expenditure, $19,358.72, and but for the fact that the Board began the year with a balance of nearly $24,000 ($23,907), instead of a balance of $4500, there would now have been a debt of about $20,000. Moreover this balance has been carried over from year to year since 1887, and is of great use to the Board in enabling it to pay its appropriations at the beginning of the year, when few collections come in from the churches, and it would be a great misfortune for it to be compelled to begin the year without such a balance, and still greater with a debt. Yet this is precisely what threatens us. Several times during the last few years there has been a decrease in the receipts of the Board. In 1890 the Standing Committee declared that "the steady decrease of the gifts of the churches may well be regarded with anxiety, if not with alarm." In 1892–93 the contributions from the churches and from individuals fell off $4671.69. This year the contributions fell off $10,244.91. No doubt this is partly due to the exceptional financial conditions which have embarrassed so many enterprises. Yet the Report of the Board seems clearly to indicate that the Permanent Fund of the Board, has created a widespread impression that its claims on the churches and individuals for generous annual gifts, are not of the imperative character which they rightfully possess. Your Committee regard it as most desirable that such a misapprehension should be everywhere corrected. For years General Assemblies have insisted that the churches ought to contribute annually $150,000. They have enjoined pastors to preach on the subject and churches to take their collections; yet the contributions of churches and individuals last year, instead of reaching $150,000, fell below $90,000, and 3798 of our churches, many of these churches, too, rich in this world's goods, gave nothing. Your Committee is deeply and tenderly affected by the facts recited in this Report, which they have been considering, supplemented, as it has been, by the personal explanations of the honored Secretary of the Board.

No marshalling of figures can exhibit the truth as to this work. It would take the pen of an apostle, or the tongue of an angel, to tell aright the oft-told tale of the wants, the woes, the prayers, the tears, the faith and patience of these saints dear to our Lord Jesus, whose feet we ought to be willing to wash for His sake, whose honorable poverty it is our high privilege and bounden duty to cheer until He calls them to Himself. It is not the province of this Committee even to suggest any reproof to the churches delinquent in their contributions to the Board, nor would we judge it expedient for the Assembly to attempt to enforce its injunctions; but we are profoundly impressed with the necessity of issuing a solemn appeal to all the churches and their pastors and all their members, to do for the next year something worthy of the precious interests entrusted to the Board, speaking to them after the manner of Paul: "Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient, yet for His sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ." Let us in this spirit both enjoin and beseech our churches to do justice and love mercy towards these, once active in the ministry of the Gospel, now meekly passive under the touch of disease or the sorrows of old age. We honor God in honoring them. To neglect them is to invite His wrath who has said: "Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head and honor the face of the old man and fear thy God."

There is one matter of detail of administration as to which the Board respectfully requests a deliverance from the Assembly, viz., Whether the Board is to restrict the provision already made for honorably retired ministers over seventy years of age, who have served for thirty years, and for women who have served as missionaries, to those who have served under "either the Home or Foreign Board," (such is the exact language of the Act of the Assembly,) and not allow those also who have served under the Board of Missions for Freedmen to avail themselves of this privilege. Your Committee can see no reason for such a distinction, and they therefore make it their first recommendation.

In view of all the facts and suggestions of the Report, the Committee recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the rule by which women who have given themselves to missionary work may secure the benefactions of the Board, be altered so as to include missionaries serving under the Freedmen's Board as well as under the Home and Foreign Boards; and that a like change, to include service under the Freedmen's Board, be made in the rule of the Assembly as to the provision made for honorably retired ministers over seventy years of age, who have served the Church as pastors or missionaries for thirty years.

Resolved, 2. That in commending anew this work, so dear to the heart of the Church because so manifestly near to the heart of Christ Himself, we both entreat and enjoin all pastors and elders to insist upon its obligation boldly, and yet tenderly, so that all churches, and especially those that have failed to make any offering the past year, may show their faith and love by large gifts this year.

Resolved, 3. That the Rev. J. H. M. Knox, D.D., and J. M. Collingwood, Esq., whose terms of service now expire, be reëlected for the ensuing three years; and also that the Rev. Samuel T. Lowrie, D.D., and Henry L. Davis be elected for the same period, the latter two having filled vacancies which occurred this year.

Resolved, 4. That the minutes of the Board be approved.

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN FOX, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned until Monday, May 21, at 9 A.M., and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 21, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of Saturday's session were read and approved.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioners: Minister—Joseph Gamble, of the Presbytery of Champlain; Elders—George W. Ackerly, of the Presbytery of Hudson; B. O. Cowan, of the Presbytery of Platte.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a further Report with regard to the reference of Overtures, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully recommend the reference of Overtures in their hands as follows:

Crosse, Lehigh, East Oregon, Huron, Marion, Maumee, Newton, Niagara, Otsego, Olympia, Rochester, Sacramento, St. Clairsville, Spokane, Santa Fé, Union, Utah, West Jersey, Westchester, Winnebago, Wooster, Yadkin, and Zanesville.

To the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries:

Paper No. 97, from Thomas McDougall, Commissioner, being a copy of "A Defense of Lane Seminary, by Edward D. Morris, Professor in charge."

In behalf of the Committee,
WILLIS G. CRAIG, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk reported the answers of the Presbyteries to the Overtures on Judicial Commissions. The Report was approved, and is as follows:

The Stated Clerk reports to the General Assembly the answers of the Presbyteries to Overtures 1 and 2, on the subject of Judicial Commissions, sent down by the General Assembly of 1893 (Minutes, pp. 42 and 43). The number of Presbyteries reporting is 185. Of these 128 voted in the affirmative, and 41 in the negative, on both Overtures. Eleven Presbyteries report no action taken. Four Presbyteries vote, either in the affirmative or the negative, with exceptions. By the Act of the General Assembly of 1891, on the Method of Declaring Amendments to the Constitution, the Assembly is required to appoint a Committee of Canvass to receive the statement of the Clerk and the answers from the Presbyteries. It is recommended, therefore, that such a Committee be appointed by the Moderator, to consist of three ministers and two elders.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Committee of Canvass was announced by the Moderator as consisting of: Ministers—William Durant, Charles Herr, D.D., William H. Sands, with Ruling Elders—Eustace E. Souther and William F. McCorkle.

The Special Committee on the Methods of Managing the Temporalities of the Church presented its Report, which was received, and the recommendations adopted, as follows:

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1892, in response to the Overtures of 32 Presbyteries asking for an inquiry into the methods of managing the temporal affairs of our churches, by means of Boards of Trustees, presented a preliminary Report to the Assembly of 1893 ("Minutes," 1893, pp. 87–90), to which they now beg to refer as the basis of their Report to this Assembly. Following the recommendation of that Report, the Assembly continued the Committee and empowered them to have made "a satisfactory collation and digest of the laws of the various States bearing on Church Trustees, in order that they may be able to propose any further action that may be necessary" (p. 90).

The Committee are now able to report that this work has been accomplished, and that they now have a complete collection of all the laws of the States and Territories bearing on the subject, and also a tabular exhibit of their general contents.

The preparation of this collection, requiring far more time and labor than any of the members of the Committee could give, was entrusted to the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk of the Assembly. All of the States and Territories, the District of Columbia included (as will appear from this collection), have statutes governing the incorporation of religious societies, their details varying to a very considerable extent. Such a mass of legislation should be thoroughly examined by the Committee before they can venture to make any final proposals, and as it has only been finished quite recently it has proved impossible for the Committee to make any final report to this Assembly.

The suggestions made last year, however, by the Chairman of the Committee (looking toward a diaconal management of temporalities) are still under consideration, and one interesting fact now brought to the attention of the Committee is that there is a special provision in the statutes of one State (Michigan), by which Presbyterian churches may, if they wish, have their corporate powers vested either in pastors and ruling elders, or in the pastor and deacons, or in the deacons alone. There are also other features of existing laws, which suggest to the Committee possible improvements upon the Trustee method of management now so generally prevalent, such, for instance, as the preparation of some forms of incorporation suitable for the guidance of congregations. It will be apparent that such proposals can only be wisely made after careful study of the material now for the first time in the hands of the Committee.

They are also of opinion that it would serve many useful purposes, both to them and to the Church at large, to have this material in print and accessible to all. Future discussion of the subject would be much easier in the light of the facts thus brought out, and many Sessions, Trustees and congregations would be convenienced by being able to turn easily to the law governing their action. They would therefore recommend:

1. That the Committee be continued.

2. That the Board of Publication be directed to publish the collection of laws prepared under their oversight.

3. That the Committee be empowered to pay for the work of compilation.

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN FOX, Chairman.

The Judicial Committee presented a unanimous Report upon Judicial Case No. 1, viz., the Case of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America vs. the Rev. H. P. Smith, D.D., which was received and adopted.*

It was Resolved, That Judicial Case No. 1 be made the special Order of the Day for 10 o'clock A.M., Thursday, May 24, and to continue thereafter to have precedence over all other business until ended.

The Order of the Day, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Special Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries, was taken up. It was moved to adopt the Report. The adoption of the minority Report as a substitute for the Report of the Committee was also moved. After discussion, the further consideration of the subject was made a special Order of the Day for 2.30 P.M., Tuesday.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 P.M., and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 21, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Mileage Committee was authorized to pay the traveling expenses of Elder Edward Jones, of the Presbytery of Knox, who had been compelled to return home by illness in his family.

A resolution on Lesson Helps was referred to the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen presented its Report, which was received, and after addresses by the Rev. John S. MacIntosh, D.D., Chairman of the Committee, and the Rev. E. P. Cowan, Secretary of the Board, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee upon Freedmen respectfully reports to the General Assembly upon the Report of the Board of Missions for Freedmen for the year ending March 31, 1894.

One clear and stirring note rings through this whole admirable Report. The reading of this statement of faithful, wise and God-blessed work for the colored race in our land has moved the hearts of the members of the Standing Committee to thankfulness because of the strongly marked favor of God, and also to a high degree of admiration for the watchfulness, foresight and success of the officers and Directors of this Board. In a year so depressing, when even hearts of faith and hope grow burdened with fears and anxieties, it is refreshing and encouraging to listen to voices so brave and cheery, so grateful for large mercies, so hopeful of better things for future days. Nor are this brightness and buoyancy born of mere feverish enthusiasm or careless overlooking of stern facts. Solid and many reasons are stated.

First. We find fully proven successful financing. The year closes without increase of debt. After such an unprecedented twelvemonth, when stout men's hearts have everywhere failed them, this simple, single fact speaks volumes. But we find that the books close in a better condition than at this time last year, and with a showing of funds received that surpasses any previous year in the history of the Board. "The total amount received from outside sources was $187,872.15," which, with another sum of $6738 from temporarily invested funds, gave the Board $194,610.15.

While $1800 have been saved on office expenses, a larger breadth of work, and that of the most effective and remunerative kind, has been done on the field in general work and in boarding schools than ever before. To accomplish this greater labor the Board has well laid out a larger sum than in any previous year. Strict economy in the office, and foreseeing generously upon the field of direct and profitable toil are most excellent and praiseworthy business features, and surely the King's business more than the world's business demands the ordering of such affairs with prudence.

Second. Your Committee would next mark with emphatic approval the care and prudence of the administration. In work of this kind, appealing ever and most touchingly to the sweetest and strongest feelings of consecrated souls, it is most easy to allow the heart to lead and force the head reluctantly to follow. It is hard to hold the balance true and steady between sympathy and honesty. We commend the care and prudence of administration.

After subjecting this Annual Report to thorough search, and after full statements gained in Committee from the officers of the Board, we learn that in view of the threatening commercial storm precautions were timeously taken, proposed work was postponed and large outlays avoided. The wise seaman takes in sail early and reefs close. Serious disasters have been thus shunned. The thoughtful friends of this great charity must have their confidence in this Board largely increased because of this carefulness and wisdom. But to our minds ever a higher proof of able administration has been given in the establishment by this Board of "monthly payments." No better statement of this beneficient revolution can be given than the striking paragraph on page 6, which says:

"On the first of October last, we began the plan of monthly payments, instead of quarterly, as heretofore. During the long, hard winter, all of our poorly paid ministers, and all of our teachers, too, got their regular monthly remittances promptly at the beginning of each month. The operation of this rule was equivalent to an advance in every minister's salary. It lessened the necessity of borrowing from the heartless money lenders, small sums for short periods, at exorbitant rates—paying, as in some known cases, as high as the rate of one hundred per cent. per annum. It did away entirely with the continual appeals that formerly came to the Board for advances, to be deducted out of the next quarterly payment. It places the colored minister in a better light, and on higher vantage ground with reference to the tradesmen with whom he has to deal. It enables him to buy at a lower price for cash. He now has less need, and therefore less temptation, to go in debt."

But you will say, as some did upon the announcement of the plan, This change will greatly swell the cost of the work. Here comes the surprise of the scheme and its success: "This change was effected without additional cost to the Board, save in the one item of postage." In the meeting of our Committee we have had given out of happy personal experience, distinct and grateful testimony to the beneficial, the immediately and the immensely beneficial results of this somewhat daring experiment.

In close alliance with this wise policy has been the adoption by the Board of a system by which the accounts of the boarding schools have been settled half-yearly instead of annually. We commend to the earnest attention and to the hearty approval of the Assembly these changes in the methods of payment. A great object lesson is here set before our eyes.

Third. There is a deeper and purer joy yet to be told. A balance sheet with cash on hand is a good thing in mission fields, as on other fields; care, foresight, daring in management and administration are good things, and the Lord's cause should show them bulking out big and bold; but there are facts and features that stand out in far surpassing splendor and win our hearts and stir our songs of praise more than all merely financial and prudential successes. There is the heart of a movement like this sacred mission; there is the growing, aggressive life of this Crusade of Restitution; there is the very essence of glory in this consecrated patriotism, and this romantic and exhilarating service to the self-sacrificing and the long sacrificed weaker brother. Has this year's work told on souls and lives? Has it lifted humanity? Has it seated the famished prodigal at the Father's lavish board? Has it set the thirsty by the fountains of God? Has it given the heart-sore rest in the arms of Jesus? Has it made joy in heaven—the Father's outbursting joy before the awed, but gladdened angels? Watchman! what of the night? What holy cheer is there in this Report? We call for the essence of the thing! Brethren, you are right—this is indeed the essence—and, thank God—thank God! it is here, large, real and sweet. God's seal of approval has been stamped upon this work. Dr. H. N. Payne, the Field Secretary, on whose most excellent and successful work we have rested with satisfaction, says: "There have been gracious outpourings of the Holy Spirit, resulting in large ingatherings of redeemed souls."

And in the splendid report of the Woman's Auxiliary we find this record:

"Another work has been going on, the value of which cannot be estimated by any method known among men. Time will not permit the enumeration of our boarding schools that report a hard year financially, but a blessed one spiritually. The seventeen schools heard from report one hundred and twenty conversions." Blessed and cheering facts! When to this getting of the higher wisdom we add the large gains in the lower—the training of the pupils of our many schools in various industrial pursuits, the boys in trade and out-of-door labor, and the girls in housekeeping and the many and most needful arts of housewifery, and the education of both boys and girls in the most useful and appropriate branches of secular knowledge, and all the instructing and uplifting and expansive work successfully and fruitfully done—surely the Assembly will join your Committee in devout thankfulness to God and commendation of this most patriotic and philanthropic mission to the hearts and hands of our fellow-communicants, more emphatic and confident than ever.

Fourth. We feel constrained and with glad spirits to acknowledge the swiftly growing and effective sympathy and coöperation of the Woman's Executive Committee. In direct gifts these loving hearts have passed over to the Treasury almost $40,000; but in sympathy, in prayers, in impulse, they have done much more. The noble and flourishing schools founded by some and fostered by all of this sacred sisterhood are already yielding rich and precious fruitage, and this yield will grow with the coming years. But are there no discords, no undertones, and in the minor key? Yes; there are.

Fifth. We mark with sadness several honestly stated drawbacks.

1. The number of non-contributing churches. While a marked and most gratifying advance has been made over last year, 256 more churches being on our roll, there are only 3780 contributing churches out of a total of 7292. Surely of these 3500 non-contributing churches there are at least 1000 able to send help to this noble work.

2. Comparing the receipts of 1894 with those of 1893, we find a decrease in the gifts of churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals. The increase for the year is explained by the enlarged contributions of the Woman's Committee, and from the large legacies of the year. Gratefully acknowledging these generous benefactions, your Committee would emphasize the fact that it is ever on the annual contributions of the living, and on the steady and growing gifts of congregations, that our Board can safely rely and wisely plan its future work.

3. Suspended work. During the past year the Board felt itself constrained, and their decision was eminently wise, to bring to a sudden stop, and postpone to a brighter and more promising day, a number of carefully considered, highly useful, and really needful undertakings. Among these were a new wing to the Ingleside Seminary; a boys' dormitory for the Oak Hill School, Indian Territory; the annex to the Mary Holmes Seminary, at Jackson, Miss.; the industrial building at Immanuel Mission, Aiken, S. C., and the new dormitory at Biddle. Every business man knows that there come to him times when by a small additional outlay he can make his existing plant more effective, and so gain a speedier and larger profit; and, similarly, teachers and educators realize that a new dormitory or school building, or a well-equipped workshop, means the multiplying fiftyfold the force and the beneficial activity of their respective institutions. The withholding of means whereby such improvements and enlargements may be effected means often the back-set of the school for years.

And, further, the Board has been forced to delay the appointment of a Financial Agent, as authorized by the Assembly, who shall press the claims of Biddle University; but your Committee is assured that this direction will be carried out during the coming year.

These several matters are subjects for regret: but, despite these shadows, the year has been bright and songful; and we congratulate the Board and its officers, we rejoice with them in their so loyally successful labors, and we commend them to the larger confidence and liberality of our whole Church, and to the more abundant grace and favor of that God whose blessing rests upon the man who "considereth the poor."

Our recommendations are:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly heartily commends the Board of Missions for Freedmen, for the faithful and efficient discharge of its duties during the past year.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly commends this important arm of our missionary work to the benevolence of the churches this year, in the sum of $250,000.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly continues the privilege granted to the Board last year, of placing a Financial Agent in the field, for the purpose of securing an adequate endowment for Biddle University, should the financial conditions, in the judgment of the Board, justify such procedure.

Resolved, 4. That the outgoing class of members of the Board, to wit: Rev. D. S. Kennedy, Mr. J. W. Scully, Rev. S. B. McCormick and Rev. H. T. McClelland, be elected to succeed themselves.

Resolved, 5. That the minutes of the proceedings of the Board as submitted for our examination be approved.

Resolved, 6. That the Presbyteries be urgently requested to give special consideration to the work and the claims of the Board, at their fall meetings.

Resolved, 7. That this Mission, so patriotic, and so Christ-like, be commended to the Christian Endeavor Societies, and to the children of our Sabbath-schools.

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN S. MCINTOSH, Chairman.

The Committee subsequently presented a supplementary Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

In the matter of the complaint of the Rev. Henry C. Mabry, to the General Assembly, your Committee recommend that, inasmuch as no injustice has been done nor rights denied to the complainant by the parties complained of, his complaint be dismissed, without prejudice of any kind to the complainant.

The Standing Committee on Education for the Ministry presented its Report, which was accepted, and on the motion to adopt, the Assembly was addressed by R. S. Holmes, D.D., Chairman of the Committee, and E. B. Hodge, D.D., Secretary of the Board. The hour for adjournment having arrived, the further consideration of the Report went over as unfinished business.

The Committee on Mileage, on request, was given leave to pay the expenses of Ruling Elder Clement D. Rinehart, of the Presbytery of East Florida, who had been suddenly summoned home.

The Assembly adjourned until Tuesday at 9 A.M., and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 21, 7.45 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interest of the Board for Freedmen was held and was addressed by the Rev. H. N. Payne, Field Secretary, the Revs. George C. Shaw, F. T. Logan, William E. Carr, James A. Bonner, and others.

TUESDAY, May 22, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The following additional Commissioner was enrolled: Ruling Elder—John H. Osborne, of the Presbytery of Cayuga.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a further Report, which was adopted, as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report on the following papers referred to them, viz.:

Overture No. 25, from the Presbytery of Northumberland, relative to the question of jurisdiction in the case of Rev. Samuel E. Webster, who had obtained admission to the Presbytery of East Florida upon a letter whose date had been changed by said Webster, to bring it within the usual limit of one year. We recommend the following action: Inasmuch as the letter by which Samuel E. Webster was received into the Presbytery of East Florida was forged, so far as the date was concerned, his reception by it was invalid, and he is still under the jurisdiction of the Presbytery of Northumberland.

Overture No. 41, from the Presbytery of New Albany, asking that the Assembly memorialize Congress to enact such regulations with reference to the personal life of its members, as will prevent the presence in the national councils of men of immoral and dissolute habits. We recommend that no action be taken.

Overture No. 42, from the Presbytery of Fargo, on the training of local evangelists, asking the Assembly to prescribe a definite method and course of study, which shall cover the ground essential to an adequate preparation for effective ministerial service. Inasmuch as this has already been provided for in the action of the last General Assembly, to wit, Constitutional Rule No. 1 (Minutes, 1893, p. 200), we recommend that no action be taken.

Overture No. 43, from the Presbytery of Jersey City, asking that the time for the observance of the "Week of Prayer" be changed from the first week in January to the week preceding Easter Sunday. We recommend that no action be taken.

Overture No. 44, from the Presbytery of Sacramento, asking for changes in the blank of the Annual Statistical Report of the churches to the Presbytery. We recommend that no action be taken.

Overture No. 47, from the Presbytery of Rochester, declaring that said "Presbytery views with apprehension the attempt of the General Assembly to make new definitions of dogma, by deliverance and by judicial decision, and expresses its conviction that no doctrinal statement, which is not explicitly contained in the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of the Church, is binding on the office bearers." We recommend the following action: The General Assembly has never undertaken to make new definitions of dogma, either by deliverance or judicial decision, and we hope that this declaration of former Assemblies repeated by this General Assembly, will allay the apprehensions of our worthy brethren of this Presbytery.

Overture No. 39, from the Presbytery of Indianapolis, asking for the formulation of a new creed, and Overture No. 40, from the Presbytery of Boston, asking for a brief summary of essential religious truth for purposes of instruction. We recommend that the action of the last General Assembly on this subject be reaffirmed, to wit (Minutes, 1893, p. 118): In view of the present condition of the Church and the recent action of the Presbyteries, it is, in the judgment of this General Assembly, not expedient to legislate upon these subjects at the present time.

In behalf of the Committee,
WILLIS G. CRAIG, Chairman.

The Report of the Special Committee on Proof-texts was taken from the Docket, and the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D. Pending the consideration of the Report, the hour of the special Order of the Day arrived, and the Report was made the special Order of the Day immediately following the Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on Thursday, A.M.

It was made the special Order of the Day for Wednesday A.M., immediately following the Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented its Report, which was received. The Assembly was addressed by Rev. Arthur J. Brown, D.D., Chairman of the Committee, Rev. D. J. MeMillan, D.D., one of the Secretaries of the Board, and others.

Recommendations Nos. 1 and 3–12 of the Report were adopted.

Recommendation No. 2 was referred to the Standing Committees on Home and Foreign Missions, as a joint Committee, and assigned as an Order for Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. A motion to reconsider Resolution No. 9 was made. The hour of recess having arrived, the Report went over as unfinished business.

It was made the second special Order of the Day for to-morrow morning to receive the Rev. W. U. Murkland, D.D., the delegate from the Alliance of the Reformed Churches.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 P.M., and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 22, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a further Report, which was adopted as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report papers placed by the Stated Clerk in their hands for distribution as follows:

To the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures:

Overture No. 183, on the Inerrancy of Holy Scripture, and the Cleveland Manifesto, from the Presbytery of Nebraska City.

Memorials Nos. 184 and 185, on the reception of Rev. J. W. Waite and the Rev. G. W. Goerlitz, foreign ministers, from the Presbyteries of Jersey City and Newark.

Overtures Nos. 191–195, on an Inexpensive Missionary Newspaper, from the Presbyteries of Cayuga, Chippewa, Geneva, Mattoon and Saginaw.

Overture No. 200, on the Efficiency of Synod, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

Overture No. 200b, on the Church at Home and Abroad, from the Presbytery of Fort Dodge.

Memorial No. 201, on the case of Mr. Krieger, from the Presbytery of New Brunswick.

Memorial No. 203, on the Title to certain Property in the city of Philadelphia, from S. A. Mutchmore, D.D.

Memorial No. 206, on the Presbyterian Ministers' Fund.

To the Standing Committee on Correspondence:

Memorial No. 204, on a Metrical Version of the Psalms, from the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church.

To the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions:

Memorial No. 207, on Medical Missions for the Insane, from John G. Kerr.

To the Standing Committee on Freedmen:

Complaint No. 202, against the Board of Freedmen, from Rev. Henry C. Mabry.

To the Standing Committee on Polity:

Overtures Nos. 187–190, on Amendments of the Book of Discipline, from the Presbyteries of Chippewa, Geneva, Kansas City and Mattoon.

Overture No. 196, on Ministerial Supply and Service, from the Presbytery of Saginaw.

Overture No. 197, from the Synod of Michigan, on Employment of Students.

Overture No. 198, on Judicial Commissions, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

Overture No. 199, on Appointment of an Officer for Ministerial Supply, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

To the Standing Committee on Benevolence:

Overture No. 186, on Estimates of Contributions to the Boards, from the Presbytery of North River.

It was made the first special Order following the conclusion of Judicial Case No. 1 to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on Education.

The special Order of the Day was taken up, being the consideration of the Reports of the Special Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries. The motion to substitute the resolutions of the minority Report for those of the Committee's Report was lost. On the adoption of the Report of the Committee, the yeas and nays were ordered to be recorded, the Roll was called and the Report was adopted by a vote of 445 in the affirmative to 117 in the negative.

The following Commissioners voted in the affirmative:

The Report of the Committee is as follows:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, in Session at Saratoga, N.Y., May 17, 1894:

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1892, pursuant to the following resolutions, as found on page 176 of the "Minutes:"

"3. That the Assembly is persuaded that the Church should have direct connection with and control over its Theological Seminaries.

"4. That the Assembly appoints a Committee of fifteen, eight ministers and seven ruling elders, to take into consideration the whole subject of the relation of the Assembly to its theological seminaries, confer with the Directors of these seminaries and report to the next General Assembly such action as in their judgment will result in a still closer relation between the Assembly and its seminaries than that which at present exists—"

And continued by the General Assembly of 1893, as appears on page 20 of the "Minutes" of 1893, desires to report as follows:

Since the last meeting of the Assembly, Major William B. Negley, of Pittsburgh, a member of the Committee, was called to his rest on the sixteenth day of January, 1894. The Committee desires to express its appreciation of the valuable services rendered by Major Negley as a member of the Committee, and its deep sympathy with his family in the loss they have sustained by his decease.

The Committee held meetings at Pittsburgh, Pa., in December, 1893, and at Cleveland, O., May, 1894.

In its Report, presented to the General Assembly at Washington, May 18, 1893, the Committee considered the subject assigned to it, in so far as it had then reached any results, under the following heads.

1. The present legal status of the theological seminaries, including the ownership and control of the property held in trust for them.

2. The present control possessed by the Presbyterian Church, through its General Assembly, Synods and Presbyteries, over the teaching and property of the theological seminaries.

Through that Report the Committee endeavored to inform the Church of the exact situation, in the matter of the control of property and teaching, possessed by the Church through its General Assembly, Synods and Presbyteries, and reached the conclusion that—

"The greater portion of the property held by these corporations, and which amounts to between eight and nine millions of dollars, is not held in trust for the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, nor is it given the direct control, management or disposition of the same by the terms of their charters."

"By the terms of the compact of 1870 and the plan of reunion the supervision and control exercised by the General Assembly over the various theological seminaries, it is claimed, is limited to the exercise of the right of approval or veto of the appointment of professors. In addition to this, each seminary reports annually to the General Assembly its receipts, disbursements, the number of students and the number of graduates, with such special information as the various Boards in charge of these institutions may see fit to communicate.

"The foregoing, however, is not all of the control possessed by the General Assembly over the teaching of the theological seminaries. It has greater power which it may exercise, if occasion arises, unless by the terms of reunion and the compact of 1870 it has surrendered the same. According to the plan of government of Princeton, Western, McCormick, Danville, and Omaha, the General Assembly has the right to control the election of the Boards of Directors, to whom are entrusted the appointment of professors and the management of the seminary generally, save and except the holding of the title to property, its management, sale, disposition, and investment.

"Under the original plan of the seminaries, known as the Old School seminaries, the General Assembly had the power to remove the professors, as well as to approve or veto their appointment. In order to secure uniformity of teaching, in so far as it is practicable, the General Assembly could, under the power thus possessed over the seminaries named, unless the power has been surrendered by the compact of 1870, issue such instructions as might secure such uniformity of teaching. But the General Assembly has, by the terms of the charters of the civil corporations, no direct control over the property of the seminaries, except over such property as it has given them.

"The power vested in the General Assembly by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church, to try by judicial process those who occupy a ministerial relation to the Church, and are acting as teachers, and the power of discipline, cannot be said to be control over the seminaries, affecting their teaching and property. While it is true, that under these powers the General Assembly may reach individuals, and thus directly affect the teaching in the seminaries, we do not regard the exercise of these powers as within the term 'control.'

"How far the compact of 1870 and the terms of reunion affected the powers of the General Assembly, which up to that time it possessed and exercised, we do not deem it necessary to discuss or to express any opinion. It is sufficient for the purpose of this Report to say that since the compact of 1870 the General Assembly has substantially exercised no other control over the seminaries than that provided for by that compact, and whatever dormant and unexercised powers it possesses are limited as herein stated, and have not affected either the teaching or the property of the seminaries." Pp. 10, 11.

The charters of existing seminaries cannot be changed, and no new or additional power over the management of these seminaries can be exercised by the General Assembly, without their consent. If the Assembly's powers are to be enlarged, and if the veto power conferred by the compact of 1870 is to be made effective, changes must be made in the charters of the respective seminaries, and these changes cannot be made unless the seminaries consent thereto.

The General Assembly of 1892, that created this Committee, by its resolutions declared that the Church should have direct connection with and control of its theological seminaries, and that it desired this Committee to report to the General Assembly such action as in its judgment would result in a still closer relation between the Assembly and its seminaries than at present exists.

Two things are clear from these directions or resolutions:

First, that the connection with or control over the theological seminaries desired by the Church is a direct one. Second, that such connection or control is one that is not now exercised, and should be in fact, as well as in name, direct control over teaching and property. A closer relation than now exists is a relation that will enable the General Assembly to exercise a control over the teaching and property of the seminaries either not now possessed or exercised by it, and to enforce this control when it so desires.

The Committee, in its former Report, called attention to the fact that the power or right of veto, without adequate provision for its enforcement in cases of disobedience, is valueless, and that the veto of the election of professors, without legal power to enforce the same, is to place the body possessing the right to veto absolutely in the power of the body whose acts are thus vetoed.

It is possible, under the existing methods of control, for corporations or Boards in which is vested the power of appointment of professors and control of property, to divert the funds committed to their keeping to other uses than that of theological education in the Standards of the Presbyterian Church, and to elect and retain professors whose teaching is destructive of the faith of the Church, and all this may be done against the protest and veto of the General Assembly, without legal power on the part of the Assembly to prevent it.

It seems clear to the Committee, therefore, in the light of the resolutions under which it was appointed, and in view of the experience of the Church, that whatever plan is recommended by the Committee should contain a provision for the enforcement of the rights and powers possessed by the General Assembly.

The Committee recognizes that whatever change is recommended in existing methods ought to meet the hearty approval and command the hearty coöperation of the seminaries affected by it; and that whatever obligations exist with regard to the seminaries in being at the time of reunion, and that whatever difficulties, legal or otherwise, may be found in making the suggested changes in the government of such seminaries, the General Assembly should not be absolutely controlled in its action on this all-important matter by reason thereof. The General Assembly should recognize the natural division of the subject into (1) the care and control of existing seminaries, and (2) provision for the control of seminaries to be hereafter organized.

The Committee is of the opinion that whatever plans may be adopted by the General Assembly with reference to the seminaries existing at the time of reunion should be adopted without impairment of any of the rights of the General Assembly or of said seminaries which may have accrued by reason of the compact of 1870, but the Committee expresses the earnest hope that all of said seminaries will, as soon as possible, see their way clear to conform thereto, in order to a uniform plan with the minimum of effective control and the maximum of liberty to the various seminaries in the management of their affairs, and that all seminaries hereafter organized shall be organized on the plan, and their charters shall contain the provisions recommended in this Report to be adopted by existing seminaries.

After a full consideration of the subject assigned the Committee, and after a very extended investigation of the management by other denominations of their theological seminaries, and in the light of the experience of our own Church, your Committee unanimously agrees on the following fundamental principles as controlling the future management of the theological education of the ministry of our Church, and embodies the same in two resolutions, as follows:

Resolved, That it is the judgment of this Committee that the instruction given in the theological seminaries of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America should be under the control and direction of that Church.

Resolved, That all funds and property held for the purpose of theological instruction shall be used only for theological education in the doctrines set forth in the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The highest of all offices upon this earth is that of the true minister of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. A most important and vital function of the Church is to direct, supervise and control the education of its own ministry. Loyalty to its divine head, fidelity to truth, preservation of its own life demand that it shall keep essentially in its own hands the discharge of this function through whatever agency it may be exercised.

Your Committee is of the opinion that in some form the theological education of the ministry of our Church and the property and funds held for the purpose of giving that education should be under the control of the Church, as represented by the General Assembly. The extent, character and mode of that control, they recognize, afford a basis for a wide difference of opinion, but they believe that there ought to be no substantial difference of opinion in the Church that such control is absolutely necessary to the maintenance of the faith of the Church, and that to secure a ministry educated in the faith and according to the polity of the Church; not only the education of the ministry, but the funds and property held in trust for that purpose, should be under the direct and efficient control of the Church through its General Assembly. The Committee further recognizes that the existing method does not secure to the Church that direct control of property and teaching to which the Church is entitled. This control should be secured to the Church in such a way that it will be effective in the only cases in which it is really needed, viz., when the Boards charged with the immediate supervision and management of the property and teaching disobey the mandates of the Church, as expressed by the General Assembly.

It is clear to the Committee that no member of the Presbyterian Church should be requested to give property for the purpose of theological education, according to the Standards of the Church, unless the Church shall secure to the donor the permanent application of the property to that purpose. The burden of preserving the property thus given should not be cast upon the donor or his legal representatives, but upon the Church, which should so protect the gift that it will be applied solely to the purposes which the donor had in view at the time of the gift.

Such donations or bequests become sacred trusts, which should be carefully guarded, both out of regard for the wishes of the living and of reverence for the memory of the dead. No alienation of funds or perversion from the original intention to have them used in connection with the Presbyterian Church should ever be possible.

The Committee recognizes that the fullest confidence in the honesty and integrity of those charged with the administration of the trusts should exist on the part of the Church, and that the administrators of the trusts should have the fullest confidence in the Church, as represented by the General Assembly, in order to that coöperation which is essential to the best results, under the ministry of the Holy Spirit, in securing to our beloved Church an adequate supply of competent, consecrated ministers.

The solution of the difficult question presented to your Committee, and which your Committee now desires to transfer to the General Assembly, can only be attained under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and by the exercise of the largest forbearance, but with faithful adherence to fundamental principles, and the largest freedom in matters of detail consistent with loyalty to the faith and the best interests of the Church as a whole, and to the trusts created by the donors of property now possessed by the various theological seminaries.

Your Committee recognizes that a very wide field is afforded for reform and change in existing methods of managing seminaries. It feels that no beneficial change can be accomplished without the hearty coöperation of those affected thereby, and that the plans recommended by it must commend themselves to the Church at large, and to those immediately and directly connected with their execution, in order that the plans may have a fair test.

Your Committee recommends that the following changes be made in the management of the existing theological seminaries of the Church:

(a) That the seminaries should so amend their charters that all of their funds and property, subject to the terms and conditions of existing or specific trusts, shall be declared to be held by them in trust for the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for the purpose of theological education according to the Standards of said Church, and that no part of the funds and property so held in trust shall be used for any other purpose than for theological education in the doctrines set forth in the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

(b) That the seminaries should so amend their charters that the election of the Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners, or whatever the bodies governing either the teaching or property, or both, shall be named, shall be subject to the approval of the next succeeding General Assembly, and that no election shall take effect until approved by the General Assembly; failure of the General Assembly to which said elections are reported for approval to act thereon, shall be regarded as approval of said elections.

(c) That the seminaries should so amend their charters that the election, appointment, or transfer of all professors and teachers in said seminaries shall be submitted to the next succeeding General Assembly for its approval, and that no such election, appointment, or transfer shall take effect, nor shall any professor or teacher be inducted into office until his election, appointment, or transfer shall have been approved by said General Assembly; failure of the General Assembly to which the said elections, appointments, or transfers are reported for approval to act thereon, shall be regarded as approval thereof; and that all of said professors or teachers shall be either ministers or members in good standing of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

(d) That the several seminaries, in amending their charters as heretofore requested, shall provide in the charters that in the event of the violation of any of the terms of said amendments, or the misuse or diversion of the funds or property held by them, then the General Assembly shall be empowered to provide against such violation of the provisions of said charters, and for the enforcement of the same, and for the protection of the trusts on which said property and funds are held, in such manner, and in the name of such person or corporation as it may direct by resolution certified by its Clerk, in any civil court having jurisdiction over the corporations whose charters are so amended.

The changes thus proposed in the charters of existing seminaries, and the features to be embodied in the charters of seminaries hereafter organized, are substantially these:

The charter will declare the trust on which the property is held, as provided in (a), so that the gifts made to the corporation need not be accompanied by the declaration of the donor that the property is held in trust for the purposes for which it is donated. As the case now stands, where a gift is made to one of the existing seminaries without any express condition being attached by the donor, the corporation holds it free from any condition or trust other than that provided by the general purpose for which the corporation was incorporated. The donors or their legal representatives in such cases are powerless to enforce the application of the property to the uses which they had in mind, but which they did not make express conditions when the gifts were made. Every donor hereafter will feel that, in making gifts of property to the theological seminaries of our Church with their charters so amended, the trust will attach to the donation upon its receipt by the corporation, and the provisions of the charter will inhere in the gift, and become a part of it, for all time to come. It seems to the Committee that no objection whatever can be made to this proposed change in the charters of the various seminaries, and to the embodiment of this provision in the charters of seminaries hereafter to be organized

In the matter of the election of the bodies governing teaching and property, it is proposed to place in the charters a provision that the election of members of the governing bodies will be subject to the approval of the General Assembly, and that no election shall take effect until thus approved. Under the existing charters, in some cases, it has been contended that any such right of approval of the election of the members of the governing bodies on the part of the General Assembly would be ultra vires, and in derogation of the charter powers conferred on the Directors, or whatever the governing body may be called. It must be conceded that no such objection would lie if the powers were conferred on the General Assembly by the charter. This provision does not give the General Assembly power to elect the Directors, Trustees or Commissioners. That power will remain in the Boards themselves, including the power to fill vacancies. It simply gives the General Assembly power to approve of the elections thus made, without which approval no election shall take effect. It seems to the Committee that this secures the minimum of effective control, with the maximum of liberty to the various Boards charged with the administration of the details of each seminary.

In the matter of the control of the teaching the same general plan should be adopted. The respective Boards will have the power of selection and election of professors and teachers, subject to the approval of the General Assembly, without which approval no election shall take effect, and no teacher or professor shall be inducted into office until that approval is given. The full power, therefore, of selection and election is left with the various Boards as it now is, but the power of approval by the General Assembly being made a charter provision, no objection could then be made that the Directors or governing body were conferring powers which they could not delegate. It seems to the Committee that if the approval of professors and teachers is to exist at all in the General Assembly, it should exist in the form which will enable the General Assembly to enforce its rights. The provision to be embodied in each charter, that the General Assembly shall have power to enforce, by process in the civil courts if necessary, the rights conferred upon it, is simply providing a method for the protection of the property and teaching, to the extent that it is granted to the General Assembly by the other provisions of the charters.

The existing situation leaves it open to grave doubt whether the General Assembly, if it should become necessary, has the power to enforce the rights possessed by it under the constitution or by compact. This amendment to the various charters is inserted for the purpose of making effective the rights granted to the General Assembly and possessed by it under the charters. Whatever powers are possessed by the General Assembly, and whatever rights are conferred upon it, there should exist every necessary provision for the enforcement and protection of these rights and powers.

The Committee, in declaring that all funds and property held for the purpose of theological education shall be used only for theological education in the doctrines set forth in the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, regard this as essential for the maintenance of our system of faith. Such a resolution does not bind the Church for all time to come to her Standards as they now exist. It does not deprive the Church of the power to revise her Confession of Faith, or to adopt such interpretation of her Standards through her authorized channels and constitutional courts as she may find necessary.

It simply says that whatever is the faith of the Church, as recognized in its accepted and authorized Standards, shall be the system of truth to be taught in her theological seminaries. To teach in accordance with this shall be the pledge and promise of each professor, and to guide the instruction in harmony with this shall be the duty of each Director, Trustee or Commissioner.

Some question may be raised as to the power of the various legislatures under which the respective corporations of existing seminaries have been incorporated to make the changes recommended in this Report. Without entering into a discussion of the objections that may be made on this ground, it is sufficient to say that the Committee, as advised, can see no legal difficulty in the way of making these changes, should any or all of the various corporations desire to have them made.

It is to be borne in mind that the contemplated amendments to the charters cannot in any way affect specific trusts attached to specific gifts inconsistent with the amendments. If any such exist they would remain in full force. Should the Church adopt the recommendations made by the Committee and the Boards of the various seminaries agree to carry out the will of the Church, the Committee feels confident that no legal difficulty exists to prevent this being done. If the will exists to do the thing recommended the way will be found in which to do it.

The first and main question is, Are the changes recommended by the Committee wise, and should they be adopted as the policy of the Church in dealing with the matter of theological education, and with the property held in trust for that purpose? Will the Church settle on what it deems the best plan to secure to itself effective control of the most important part of its work—the education of its ministry? Having settled the plan, and it not being illegal or against public policy, as it cannot be, and all parties being actuated by the common purpose to secure its adoption and proper execution, no legal difficulty, in the judgment of the Committee, will be found to exist to prevent its being done.

Resolution No. 3, recommended by the Committee for adoption, provides for the appointment of a Committee to confer with the various seminaries with a view to securing the necessary changes in the charters provided by the amendments recommended in this Report. Each seminary has matters of detail concerning gifts, provisions of charters and mode of operation, different from the others. But the Committee deems it wholly unnecessary, in view of its former Report, to enter on a discussion of these details, the adjustment and harmonizing of which with the suggested amendments would better be left to the Committee whose appointment is recommended in connection with the various Boards in control of the seminaries.

The Committee has given a great deal of time and thought to the subjects embraced in the Report and to the various changes recommended by it to be made in the charters of the seminaries and has stated its conclusions in the matter without entering into needless detail, which might make the Report of unnecessary length.

The Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

First. That each and all of the seminaries of the Church be requested to secure, at the earliest moment practicable, such changes in their charters, or amendments thereto, as will provide—

(a) That all of their funds and property, subject to the terms and conditions of existing or specific trusts, shall be declared to be held by them in trust for the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for the purposes of theological education according to the Standards of said Church, and that no part of the funds and property so held in trust shall be used for any other purpose than for theological education in the doctrines set forth in the Standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

(b) That the election of the Trustees, Directors or Commissioners, or whatever the bodies governing the teaching or property shall be named, shall be subject to the approval of the next succeeding General Assembly, and that no election shall take effect until approved by the General Assembly; failure of the General Assembly to which said elections are reported for approval to act thereon shall be regarded as approval of said elections.

(c) That the election, appointment or transfer of all professors and teachers in all seminaries shall be submitted to the next succeeding General Assembly for its approval, and that no such election, appointment or transfer shall take effect, nor shall any professor or teacher be inducted into office until his election, appointment or transfer shall have been approved by the said General Assembly; failure of the General Assembly to which the said elections, appointments or transfers are reported for approval to act thereon shall be regarded as approval thereof, and that all of said professors and teachers shall be either ministers or members in good standing of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

(d) That in the event of the violation of any of the terms of said amendments, or the misuse or the diversion of the funds or property held by them, then the General Assembly shall be empowered to provide against such violation of the provisions of said charters, and for the enforcement of the same, and for the protection of the trusts on which said property and funds are held, in such manner, and in the name of such person or corporation, as it may direct by resolution certified by its Clerk, in any civil court having jurisdiction over the corporations whose charters are so amended.

Second. That all seminaries hereafter established or organized shall contain in their charters the foregoing provisions as an essential part thereof, before they shall be recognized as in connection with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

Third. That the General Assembly, having adopted the foregoing resolutions, shall appoint a Committee of fifteen persons to confer with the various seminaries, with a view to securing their approval of said resolutions, and their consent to said changes in their charters, and for the purpose of aiding them by counsel and otherwise in securing the necessary changes and amendments to the respective charters herein recommended; it being understood that the adoption of said resolutions is without impairment of any of the rights of the General Assembly, or of said seminaries, that may have accrued by the compact of 1870; and said Committee to make report to the next General Assembly for final action on this whole subject by the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

Ruling Elder John H. Osborne gave notice of a protest, on behalf of himself and others, against the action of the Assembly.

On motion, the Special Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries was discharged, with thanks for the services rendered.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock A.M. Wednesday, May 23, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 22, 7.45 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in behalf of Home Missions was held and was addressed by Rev. Drs. John Hall, Arthur J. Brown, Ervin S. Chapman, Henry S. Little and Newell D. Hillis.

WEDNESDAY, May 23, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

*Dr. Blayney signs the Report with the following dissent:

"Because it is the inherent and constitutional right of Synods and Presbyteries to organize and manage their own schools of divinity, if they so will.

"Because this right has been uniformly recognized by the practice and the repeated acts and deliverances of the General Assembly, and ha been exercised by Synods and Presbyteries without ever having once been called in question.

"Because this right was conceded, and its exercise recommended to the Synods in the concurrent declarations adopted by both Assemblies almost unanimously in 1868, and reaffirmed unanimously by the first reunited Assembly in 1870.

"Because if the plan of Assembly approval of the Boards of Directors and Trustees recommended by the Committee were adopted by the Presbyteries and Synods having seminaries under their control, it would require them to surrender through charter grants to the General Assembly one of their own recognized inherent and constitutional rights.

"And because this is calling in the aid of the civil government to legislate to the General Assembly a power which does not belong to it by the Constitution of the Church.

'Therefore, while subscribing to the Report of the majority, the undersigned dissents from the recommendation that the charters of the seminaries shall be so changed as to provide that the election of the members of the Boards of the seminaries shall be submitted to the approval of the General Assembly. "J. McCLUSKY BLAYNEY."

The following named members of the Assembly, unavoidably absent from yesterday afternoon's session, were given leave to record their votes upon the adoption of the Report of the Committee of Conference with Theological Seminaries, viz., in the affirmative: Ministers—W. E. Bates, Herbert C. Hinds, William E. Slemmons and Samuel F. Marks; Ruling Elders—Logan C. Murray, James Yereance and William Gow.

The Stated Clerk announced the vote, as thus corrected, as: Yeas, 444; nays, 117.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence, through its Chairman, Rev. Howard Duffield, D.D., introduced to the Assembly the delegate from the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System," the Rev. W. U. Murkland, D.D., of Baltimore, Md., who addressed the Assembly. The Moderator responded in an appropriate address.

It was Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed by the Moderator to bear the fraternal greetings of this Assembly to the Baptist Anniversaries now in session in Saratoga. The Moderator announced the Committee as follows: Ministers—Howard Duffield, D.D., Willis G. Craig, D.D., and Edward Huntting Rudd; with Ruling Elders—Alexander McDonald and H. Scott Howell.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions presented its Report, which was read, accepted, and, after addresses by the Rev. G. T. Purves, D.D., Chairman of the Committee, and the Rev. F. F. Ellinwood, D.D., one of the Secretaries of the Board, and others, the resolutions were adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions respectfully reports to the General Assembly, as follows:

The Report of the Board of Foreign Missions for the year just closed is a record of mingled encouragement and discouragement, and therefore one which should receive especial attention from the Assembly and the entire Church. It tells a story of the divine blessing on the labors of many of our representatives abroad; of faithful toil under trying circumstances; of heroic enterprises undertaken by our missionaries; of a continuous stream of Christian literature poured into the soil of heathenism; of sacrifices, sometimes even unto death, endured in the name of Jesus; and of a goodly company of believers gathered into the Church, which must awaken fresh songs of thanksgiving to God and which is sufficient to demonstrate, if demonstration were needed, the supreme value of the work. It tells a story, also, of financial embarrassments at home, and of numerous difficulties abroad. Yet while these may moderate our joy as we survey the record of the year, they should also stimulate in the churches the resolve to redouble their efforts in obedience to the Master's last command.

Your Committee will, of course, not attempt to exhibit to the Assembly even a summary of the Foreign Mission work of the year. That will be found in the published Report of the Board and will be also more effectively presented by the Secretaries to-day. We shall only present a few leading features of the work and certain proposals for its advancement which seem to demand the special attention of the Church.

1. As to the foreign work itself during the past year.

In several countries political complications have offered large obstacles to the labors of our missionaries. In Japan the popular reaction against foreigners still continues and seriously threatens both the progress of evangelization and the tenure of mission property in the interior of the islands. The united Church of Christ in Japan is, therefore, facing a crisis, the immediate issues of which none can foresee, and the possible peril of which should quicken our prayers that the marvelous advance of Christianity in that nation may not be permanently checked. In Korea, also, the people are suspicious of foreigners, and the government still withholds permission for the missionaries to enter the interior. Persia and Syria likewise report governmental embarrassments of the most vexatious character, while in the former actual persecution has been experienced. Two noble native Christians have suffered death for their faith and even some of the American missionaries have been exposed to outbursts of popular violence.

On the other hand we note with gratitude that in Western Africa the hindrances to our school-work, lately occasioned by the onerous requirements of the French government, are being overcome, and also that the Chinese legislation of this country has not produced, as many feared it would, any serious opposition to our missionaries in that empire, though the brethren there are not without fears for the future.

These facts should renew our petitions to the God of nations that, as in the past He has wonderfully opened the way for heralds of the Cross to enter the heathen world, so He may now control and overrule the political situation unto the greater success of His truth.

These political agitations, amid which much of the work has been carried on, are, however, the cloudy background for a bright picture of glorious Christian service. We call attention, for example, to the progress and continued usefulness of our mission schools. In these were gathered last year 30,460 pupils a fact sufficient of itself to justify all our expenditure, and awaken the most sanguine hopes. In connection with them may be mentioned two scholastic institutions of a higher rank which have reported during the year notable progress. These are the Christian College at the Lahore Station in India, and the Protestant College at Sao Paulo, Brazil. The former enrolled 244 students, only 22 of whom are professing Christians, and it is successfully maintaining itself in competition with the non-Christian institutions of a similar character, and is doubtless destined to wield an immense formative influence on the future of India.

The college at Sao Paulo was organized by suggestion of the General Assembly of 1889, is now in successful operation, is possessed of a building which will accommodate 350 students, and is received with enthusiasm by many of the best men of the country. To these may also be added the Christian College at Canton; and the immense power of such institutions can be conceived by remembering the mighty work already done by older ones of a similar character, such as the Protestant College at Beyreut, which have been as leaven in the mass of heathenism.

Your Committee also notes, as worthy of special mention at this time, the enormous amount of good done through our Medical Missionary Agencies. Two hundred and sixty-six thousand four hundred and eleven patients have been treated in the course of the year, and with the administration of relief for the body there has never failed to go the word of spiritual healing too. One example of the religious value of Medical Missions may be given. In Hainan a patient "was converted while receiving treatment for cataract, in the hospital. He is now able to read with one eye under a strong light. Taking a New Testament to his home, he spent most of his time in a loft over his brother's shop, and lighted by two small panes of glass, where with the sunlight pouring for a part of the day upon his Testament, he studied the story of redeeming love. He is now selling books in his native tongue, and telling the good news to his household and others." In Korea the medical service is, in fact, the distinctive part of the work at present, since it was also the need of it which led the hermit nation to admit the foreigner to her shores.

By the side of the medical work we next place the translations of Scripture which have lately been completed or revised and then scattered abroad with their heavenly message. Thus the whole of the Old Testament is now ready for publication in the Cantonese dialect. The Syriac Bible has been revised under the leadership of Dr. Labaree. Of it Dr. Shedd writes: "It is a boon of unspeakable value." The Mission press at Beyreut has sent forth millions of pages of Christian literature in Arabic, of which more than 14,000,000 pages were Scriptures. Among the Laos the Gospel of Matthew has been rendered into the vernacular; the Psalms are ready for the press, and translations of other portions of the Bible are approaching completion; while the entire Bible in Siamese is now for the first time to be had in an edition of uniform size, and 38,300 copies of different portions of the Word of God have been printed at Bangkok.

And besides all this, we would call particular attention to certain events that are especially encouraging as showing the presence and power of the Divine Spirit in connection with the year's work.

Prominent among these is the remarkable opening made for the Church in the Island of Hainan. These people have always been cordial to the missionaries since the first occupation of the island in 1885; but last summer a messenger arrived from a distant district, bearing a petition signed by ten leading men, asking for the settlement of a preacher among them, and offering land for missionary purposes. The Board is prepared to listen to this call. The district has been visited and already there are several candidates for baptism.

In like manner Dr. Corbett writes fron Cheefoo, "No words can give an adequate idea of the progress and power of the Gospel in the hearts and lives of those who have been led to receive it. During the Week of Prayer, two services were daily held in the church. More than thirty, most of them young men, asked for prayers that they might be able to live more Christ-like lives." The Board's Report likewise states that in India the outlook is full of promise. The old faiths are desperately struggling for life and are adopting Christian methods of revivals and reforms, hoping that these will save their tottering structures. Their priests do not hesitate to say that Christianity will eventually be the religion of India. From all the twenty stations of our Church, dotted over that vast country, comes the statement that there are many believers who are only held back from open confession by the power of social ties. Among the so-called "low caste" population, which numbers 56,000,000, or one-fifth of the whole population, the Gospel has been making special progress.

Cheering news also comes from Africa, so long, and at such terrible cost of health and life, a doubtful battlefield. Two hundred and forty converts were there added during the year, an increase of membership in our churches of about 20 per cent.; and the new station, reported last year, has been opened at a high and beautiful locality back from the coast. It would seem that the self-sacrifice of the toilers in the West African Mission is at last beginning to receive its reward and that the divine blessing is about to descend richly on that consecrated band.

To this may be added mention of the fact that our Mission in Mexico has been visited by a special deputation sent by the Board, and that the reports give reason to hope that the work of this embassage will prove to have been very useful and that larger success will in the future attend the labors of our missionaries in that priest-ridden land.

These are but a few of the more notable facts which your Committee has gleaned from the year's Reports. They are, however, representative facts. All over the wide field our missionary heralds evince an enthusiasm and a hopefulness which kindle zeal in those who read their words. Evangelistic tours into the interior of China, Persia and other countries have been conducted with much power. Meanwhile, the regular preaching of the Gospel in Church and Chapel, and from house to house, has been faithfully prosecuted; woman's work for woman has carried the message of life and love into many a heathen home, while in Mexico and South America the work of the Board, though often done in the face of a more sullen bigotry than is found in pagan lands, has been attended with not a few encouraging results.

In consequence of the divine blessing on the work we are able to report 30,453 communicant members of our foreign churches, of whom 3141 were added the past year. We have 30,460 pupils in our Mission schools and 76 students for the ministry. A praiseworthy spirit of self-help is appearing also among the native Christians, and the growth of this spirit among the Chinese is especially noteworthy.

The Board has had in commission 635 American missionaries and has employed 1741 native workers, of whom 165 are ordained ministers. Fifty-four new missionaries were sent out during the year. Six of the Church's honored representatives in the Foreign field have passed to their eternal reward. These are:

Mrs. Menkel, wife of Captain Peter Menkel, of the Gaboon and Corisco Mission, who died June 13, 1893.

Rev. John L. Nevius, D.D., who died October 19, 1893, and whose name will long be remembered as a leader and pioneer in the evangelization of China.

Mrs. Mary Lemington Waddell, of the Mission at Sao Paulo, Brazil, who died November 1, 1893.

Mrs. Lingle, wife of Rev. W. H. Lingle, of the Canton Mission, who died November 5, 1893.

Mrs. Eliza Newton, widow of the late John Newton, D.D., of Lahore, India, who died in England December 4, 1893.

Rev. George H. Ferris, for sixteen years an enthusiastic laborer in Western India, who died March 7, 1894.

From their different places of work have these beloved servants of Christ gone "into the world of light" to wait the fulfillment on earth of the promises of God to His Church, and by their examples and by the loss to the Church which their departure has caused do they summon the living to press forward to that conquest of the world for Jesus which it was not given them to see.

Thus the great work has been diligently prosecuted through the agency of your Board. It is natural, perhaps, for us to wish that the results of each year's toil were larger, that the converts could be reckoned by tens of thousands instead of thousands, and that the frowning walls of false religion and of irreligion showed more signs of yielding to the onset of the truth. But the world's conversion is a work of ages, not of months. Were we to give a comparison of its condition now with that of a generation ago the progress would appear immense. Each year adds its quota to the final result. Each year marks another step towards the promised goal. We may thank God that, in the face of much opposition, there has been no retreat but rather many advances. The dawn is growing. Tens of thousands, yea hundreds of thousands, of immortal souls have been saved. The Christ is marching forth, conquering and to conquer. The kingdoms of this world are becoming the kingdoms of our Lord.

II. Turning now from the missionary work of the year to the condition of the Board itself, your Committee call attention to the following facts:

1. The financial depression has had a sad effect upon the receipts of the year. Instead of reporting a small surplus, as a year ago, the Board closed its books with an actual indebtedness of $102,597.79. Your Committee, however, are disposed to rather record their gratitude that, in spite of the widespread distress and the unprecedented drain upon the resources of the people, the contributions to Missions have been as large as they have. The debt, indeed, would have been larger but for the fact that some appropriations made last year had not been used, as well as for the fact that the depreciation of silver enabled the Board to make some of its payments at reduced cost. But the largest falling off has been in legacies, which cannot be attributed to the financial stringency. These only amounted to $72,302, as against $133,545 last year—a loss of $61,243. The churches contributed $295,016, a decrease from last year of $53,546, while the personal and miscellaneous contributions also decreased by $52,225. The Women's Societies, however, sent in $324,003, a loss of only $5886 from last year, while the Sabbath-schools fell short only $1893 and the Young People's Societies advanced to the extent of $1344. The total receipts of the Board for current expenses were $843,411. The expenses of the work amounted to $995,921. Adding to the receipts the amount of $49,912 of unused appropriations of the year ending April 30, 1893, there is left an actual deficit of $152,510.

In view of these facts your Committee do not see any occasion for despondency but rather for gratitude, that in such a year the receipts from the Church have been so large. At the same time, the diminution in the gifts of the churches, as distinguished from the other sources of supply, calls for consideration. Probably the Women's Boards have done so well because of their personal and unremitting efforts. There should be, however, no less effort on the part of our pastors and Sessions. It ought not to be true that the Women's Societies collect more than the churches do. If they give much, the churches should give more. Let all our pastors then be stirred up to zeal in this matter. Let the monthly concert for prayer be revived. Let it be made more attractive. Let missionary literature be disseminated. Thus will our Church, as a whole, rise to its duty and opportunity and the Board possess an unfailing stream of supply on which it can safely depend.

2. In accordance with the instructions of the last Assembly, the Board procured an amendment to its Charter, which was passed by the Legislature of New York on April 19, 1894, wherein it is provided that:

"Sec. 3. The management and disposition of the affairs and property of the said Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America shall be vested in twenty-one Trustees, who shall be appointed from time to time by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America for such terms as the Assembly may determine. But the number of such Trustees may be increased or decreased at any time by the said General Assembly, and in case of an increase the additional Trustees shall be appointed by such General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; provided, however, that the members of the Board, as at present constituted, shall continue to hold office until their successors have been appointed by the General Assembly. Not less than eleven members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing officers, making By-Laws or for holding any special meeting; but for all other purposes and at stated meetings five shall be a quorum.

"Sec. 2. This Act shall take effect immediately."

3. The lamented death of Dr. Arthur Mitchell having made a vacancy in the Secretarial force of the Board, the Rev. Benjamin Labaree, D.D., long a missionary in Persia, but prevented by providential circumstances from returning to his field, has been appointed Recording Secretary, and the correspondence of Dr. Mitchell has been divided among the three other Secretaries.

The growth of the Board's work has seemed to its managers to call for enlarged accommodations. Hence, in conjunction with the Board of Home Missions, the Foreign Board has entered into the purchase of property at Fifth avenue and Twentieth street, New York city, and the two Boards propose to erect there a building suitable for their offices and sufficient, also, to bring in a lucrative rental. This will be made the subject, however, of a joint Report to the Assembly by your Home and Foreign Mission Committees and need not be discussed now.

Your Committee would offer, in conclusion, the following recommendations:

1. That the adjustment of work among the Secretaries, to which allusion has been made in this Report, and also the minutes of the Board, except so much of the same as refers to the proposed new Mission house, be approved.

2. That in accordance with the apparent requirements of the amended charter the entire membership of the Board be elected by this Assembly in three classes, as follows:

Term to expire June 1, 1895—Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., Rev. J. D. Wells, D.D., Rev. J. B. Shaw, D.D., Rev. David Gregg, D.D., Mr. William A. Booth, Mr. E. M. Kingsley, Mr. Alexander Maitland.

Term to expire June 1, 1896—Rev. George Alexander, D.D., Rev. Joseph R. Kerr, D.D., Mr. Henry Ide, Mr. Warner Van Norden, Mr. D. W. McWilliams, Rev. Howard Duffield, D.D., and Mr. James T. Underwood.

Term to expire June 1, 1897—Rev. R. R. Booth, D.D., Rev.

W. R. Richards, D.D., Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., Edward Wells, Esq., Mr. G. S. Coe, Hon. Darwin R. James.

Also, that Rev. John Fox, D.D., be elected to fill the place, in the class whose term will expire June 1, 1897, of Rev. C. H. Parkhurst, D.D., who declines reëlection on account of the pressure of other work.

3. That the Church shall aim this year to so increase her contributions as not only to meet the requirements of the work which must be done, but also to wipe out he debt under which the Board now rests. To do this an advance of 25 per cent. on the gifts of last year will be necessary. This must be the measure of effort in the year to come. We may hope that the period of financial stringency will not continue and that the resources of the Board will naturally increase; but even if this should not be the case, the Assembly urges upon churches, Women's Societies, Sabbath-schools and individuals to realize the pressing need of greater sacrifices in order that our Missions may not suffer. To this end pastors are especially requested to use every means in their power to bring their churches forward in accordance with the above ratio.

4. That God's people be more instant and earnest in prayer for Missions, and that the week beginning April 7, 1895, be designated as a special season of prayer for Foreign Missions, to be observed in the closet, in the family and in the usual public and social religious services of our churches and missionary societies, and that it be also affectionately urged upon our people to mingle self-denial with their prayers and if it be convenient to present the fruits of this special self-denial as an offering to the Lord on Sabbath, April 14, 1895.

5. That the members of our churches be advised to send their gifts for missions through the Board rather than through independent channels. Especially at the present crisis does the Board claim the loyal support of all Presbyterians who would contribute to the world's evangelization.

6. That our Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies be commended for their growing interest in this cause, and be again urged to make large those gifts, especially at Christmas time, which have in past years been of such value to the Board.

7. That the plan of supporting particular missionaries by churches or individuals be heartily commended, and the Board be instructed to do what is possible to carry out the wishes of such contributors. At the same time the churches should remember that these special gifts ought not to deplete the regular treasury of the Board, on which the work as a whole must mainly rely.

8. That the Assembly urges upon every church to adopt some plan by which every member shall be given an opportunity to contribute to Foreign Missions, so that none may escape the responsibility which rests upon all.

9. That the Board's Manual of Instruction for Missionaries and candidates, which has been recently revised after consultation with our missionaries, be approved.

10. That the Board be directed not to retrench its work because of the existing debt, but to make its estimates for the ensuing year, in the confidence that the Church will both obliterate the debt and maintain her mission work, on the same scale on which it has been carried on during the year just past.

In behalf of the Committee,

GEORGE T. PURVES, Chairman.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 P.M., and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 23, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Mileage presented the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, 1. That the Mileage Committee be authorized to pay over to the Stated Clerk the moneys received by the Committee belonging to the Contingent and Entertainment Funds.

Resolved, 2. That the Entertainment Committee be authorized to begin the settlement of the claims of Commissioners.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a further Report.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report:

Overture No. 36, from the Presbytery of Jersey City, asking the Assembly to declare whether a Presbytery has the right to perform the act of ordination by a commission, (the examination of the candidate and the vote to ordain him having been previously passed in Presbytery). Your Committee recommend the following answer: Ordination either by a Committee or by a Commission of Presbytery is contrary to the express provisions of Chapter xv, Section 12, of the Form of Government. Adopted.

Overture No. 50, from the Presbytery of Waterloo, asking the Assembly to order that in the column of members received by certificate, in the Statistical Reports of Presbyteries, churches shall report only the number of persons received by letter from other denominations, omitting those received from sister Presbyterian churches. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 51, from the Presbytery of Detroit, asking for various changes and additions in the columns of the Statistical Reports. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 53, from the Presbytery of Highland, asking the General Assembly to authorize the preparation of a Manual for the Eldership of our Church, to instruct and aid these officers in their special duties. It is recommended that this matter be referred, with the Assembly's commendation of the proposal, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, and to the Secretary of the Board of Publication. Adopted.

Overture No. 205, being a Memorial concerning the John C. Mercer Home for Presbyterian Ministers. On this Memorial, already referred to this Committee, the following action is recommended:

The attention of the Assembly has been called to the "John C. Mercer Home for Disabled Clergymen of the Presbyterian Faith," which is situated about one-half hour's ride by rail from Philadelphia. The Home stands prominently on a high hill overlooking some of the choicest scenery and finest valleys in the suburbs of the city. The house occupied by the inmates was formerly the residence of Mrs. John C. Mercer, and is furnished with all necessary comforts and conveniences, just as she lived in it. The grounds around it are ample, and they are pleasantly shaded with fruit and other choice trees. Under the direction of the Superintendent, vegetables and berries are raised in abundance on the property. From the broad piazzas can be seen the growing village of Ambler, which is only about half a mile from the Home, and where physicians are within easy call. It would be difficult to find a spot where the air and water are purer, and where nature has more bountifully provided for the health, comfort and enjoyment of man.

The residents of the Home are limited, by the will of Mrs. Mercer, to the number of twelve, and must be "Disabled Clergymen of the Presbyterian Faith," who do not use tobacco in any form. They are furnished, free, with food, clothing and shelter, and those who have no other source of income are supplied with a stipulated amount of pocket-money and with railroad tickets to and from Philadelphia at regular periods. Books, papers, monthly magazines and stationery are provided for the Home, and there are horses and carriages for the use of the members of the household, subject to the regulation of the Managers. It is the aim of the Managers, who give their time and services gratuitously, to make the Home a true home in every sense of the word, and thus fulfill the desire and design of the founder, which was to soothe and cheer the last days of some of Christ's disabled and aged ministers. The funds at their disposal are sufficient for the purpose, and are expended in a way that will be most conducive to the end in view.

The Assembly gladly call the attention of the whole Church to this noble institution, for we are persuaded that if it were more widely known it would be more generally patronized, and would be an aid and a relief to our Board of Ministerial Relief to the extent that it would provide for aged and disabled ministers who are wholly, or in part, dependent on that agency of our Church for their well-earned support in their time of need. Adopted.

In behalf of the Committee,

WILLIS G. CRAIG, Chairman.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures also recommended the reference of papers as follows. The recommendations were adopted.

Overture No. 56, from the Presbytery of Aberdeen, on the subject of the Programme for Children's Day. It is recommended that it be referred to the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

Overture No. 208, a Memorial concerning the American Tract Society. We recommend its reference to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Overture No. 209, being a Memorial from Captain Pratt with reference to the Government appropriations to denominational schools. We recommend its reference to the Committee on Correspondence.

Overture No. 210, being a Memorial concerning the purchase of a Presbyterian house in the city of New York. We recommend its reference to the Standing Committees on Home and Foreign Missions, as a joint Committee.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work presented its Report, which was read, received, and, after addresses by the Rev. D. R. Breed, D.D., Chairman of the Committee, and the Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D., Secretary of the Board, the resolutions were adopted, together with an additional resolution on the use of the Bible in Sabbath-schools.

The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work respectfully report as follows:

We have very carefully examined the record books of the Board, consisting of four large volumes, and find that they are so admirably kept, with such perspicuity, detail and systematic care, as to readily exhibit all the transactions of the Board. It gives the Committee great pleasure to assure the Assembly that those interests of the Church which pertain to this department of her missionary work are administered economically, faithfully and with conspicuous wisdom. The substance of the contents of these books is gathered into the Annual Report of the Board, which is before the Assembly. This Report has been also considered at length by your Committee, and it would emphasize herein the following matters as of particular importance:

First of all we desire to call the attention of the Assembly to the record of the death of Mr. John A. Black, long the Business Superintendent of the Board, and, during the last year, the Manufacturer. This faithful servant of the Church entered the employ of the Board at the early age of twelve years, and continued therein for the extended period of fifty-four years. He was known and beloved throughout the entire Church, and this Committee desires to put upon record its affectionate tribute, and the tribute of this Assembly, to his intelligent and faithful service.

The commendable progress in the work of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department continues to justify the wisdom exhibited in the reorganization of the Board seven years ago. One hundred and fifty-eight missionaries have been employed during the year, of whom eighty-six are permanently engaged and seventy-two were temporarily engaged as student missionaries.

The record of the work of these men need not be here detailed, as it is set forth at length in the Board's Report. We call attention, however, to the fact that they have organized 870 new schools, to which must be added 82 schools organized under the special offer of the Board, giving a total of 952 new schools, with 45,174 scholars. Out of such schools 32 Presbyterian churches have been organized during the year, so that it appears that the Sabbath-school Missionary is the forerunner of the Home Missionary, adequately and beautifully complementing his labors and preparing his way. We find also that our Sabbath-school Missionaries have personally visited 70,411 families, and that not in a perfunctory or incidental way, as we learn on careful examination, but with systematic care and the distinct design of carrying the hope of the Gospel into neglected and scattered households. Nor is the work of this department confined to the mission field. On the contrary, it sets before itself the high aim of the improvement of all our Sabbath-schools by all means at its command. It endeavors, among other commendable efforts, to encourage our churches to adopt some course of training whereby competent teachers shall be developed; to promote the regular attendance of scholars at church services; to cultivate in our schools methodical methods of beneficence; and, more particularly, to overcome that thoughtless system whereby the whole or a part of Sunday-school expenses is borne by the school itself. Your Committee cannot too vigorously discourage this wretched practice. In those churches where the congregation is abundantly able to support its school it is both a mistaken policy as well as a misappropriation of sacred funds to divert the offerings of the children's pennies from such causes as would command their interest and develop their benevolence, and devote them to the purchase of their own supplies. The Board is very properly endeavoring to educate the children of our Church to assist other children not so highly favored as themselves, and your Committee would express its mature conviction that no cause is more worthy to rank first among those to which our children may be invited to contribute.

Your Committee note with much gratification the effort which has been made to enlist the schools themselves in their own missionary work, and by a well-devised system, fully set forth in the Report, to promote a general canvass designed to gather the un-evangelized youth of all sections into the Sabbath-school. This effort has met with remarkable success, which appears only in part in the figures of the Report. Members of your Committee can testify to the blessed effects of such canvass from personal experience or observation.

Passing to the Editorial and Business Departments, your Committee would call attention to the publications of the Board issued during the year. These publications include bound books, tracts, periodicals, Lesson Helps and illustrated Sabbath-school papers. The bound books embrace a variety of subjects adapted to the needs of our members. They have been all well received, and have each commanded a remunerative patronage. The Lesson Helps have secured a very large and most gratifying sale in our own and other denominations—the Westminster Quarterly having now reached the unprecedented circulation of 400,000 copies. The change in form which takes effect in the Westminster Quarterly beginning with the opening of the third quarter, in 1894, commends itself to the Committee, as it will doubtless commend itself to the Assembly. With a view to promoting the proper grading of our schools, without which they are scarcely deserving of the name, this quarterly will henceforth be issued in two forms, known respectively as the Senior Quarterly and the Intermediate Quarterly, with suitable questions requiring both oral and written answers, and with other matter adapted to the more and the less advanced classes. The Board has also begun the publication of a Sabbath-school card, of new and beautiful design, containing an original colored drawing, illustrating each lesson in order, with the addition of other matter—all designed to promote regular attendance, acquaintance with the lesson text and the retention in the memory of its central teaching.

Without specifying other publications, the Committee would indicate, in brief, its unqualified approval of the system governing their publication, and of each in particular.

The Board, acting upon the recommendation of former Assemblies, is still laboriously engaged upon the preparation of a new Hymnal. The Committee, after diligent investigation and some inspection of the methods actually employed in the preparation of this book, is satisfied that the work is progressing under the most favorable auspices and with brilliant promise. The active agents in this work are fully equipped for their task and are experts in the subjects of hymnology. They have traversed the entire field with minute and intelligent care. The result will probably appear and the Hymnal be published within the next year. The fact should be extensively advertised for the information of our congregations.

The receipts of the Board during the year have been such as to evoke our profound gratitude. Notwithstanding the stringency of the times and the delinquency of so many congregations, the total receipts of the Missionary Department have been $168,977.84, of which $93,562.08 are from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals. This is a gain of $1803.58 over last year, and it is noteworthy that such a gain appears in the Report of no other Board.

The net profits of the year in the Publishing Department have been $35,805.49, two-thirds of which have been placed to the credit of the Missionary Department as directed by the General Assembly. In consequence of this arrangement, combined with other financial features, it appears—as the Church should be again reminded—that to every dollar subscribed to the missionary work of the Board, the Board is able to add between 12 and 13 cents to be expended upon the field, over and above all expenses of every name and nature.

Three matters have been brought to the attention of the Committee, which call for remark before passing to its recommendations.

1. A resolution of the Assembly relating to the Bible Study Lesson System has been referred to this Committee. Action with regard to the same and all other irresponsible expositions of Scripture will be recommended.

2. By the action of the Assembly of 1891 the Board was limited to the expenditure of $6000 for advertising purposes.

The Committee are, upon inquiry, led to believe that it was the intention of the Assembly to include in this action only advertising in newspapers and periodicals, without reference to circulars or other similar advertising matter issued by the Board itself. This view is confirmed by a communication upon the subject from the author of the original motion of 1891—the Hon. Alfred Hand, of Scranton, Pa. That there may be no misunderstanding, however, in the matter, your Committee report a new resolution on the subject.

3. In view of the rapidly increasing work of the missionaries of the Board, and in view of the fact that the major part of the gifts to its Sabbath-school missionary work comes from the Sabbath-schools of the Church, your Committee recommend the adoption of a resolution looking to the closer relation of the givers and their agents, in reaching the needy children of our country.

The last Assembly requested the Church to contribute to the work represented by your Committee the sum of $200,000, but the usual resolution upon this subject we prefer, this year, to omit. The work speaks for itself; and if our people can be persuaded to inform themselves concerning it we believe that the required support will be forthcoming.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the teachers of our Sabbath-schools be urged to organize and maintain Normal Teachers' Classes under competent instructors, either in separate churches or in contiguous groups of churches, in order to their more complete equipment for their work.

Resolved, 2. That our schools be recommended to adopt such a system of gradation as is provided for in our Sabbath-school helps, including the Westminster System of Graded Supplemental Lessons, and the various text-books published by the Board.

Resolved, 3. That our schools be urged to employ the material indicated in the second resolution, to the exclusion of other and especially irresponsible lesson systems.

Resolved, 4. That the Board be authorized to furnish in a periodical adapted to Sabbath-schools information concerning its work and needs; or, if the Board so determine, to utilize for this purpose its existing periodicals.

Resolved, 5. That special attention be directed to Children's Day, being the second Sabbath of June, with an exhortation to its general observance, and to a contribution in connection with its exercises for the Sabbath-school Missionary Department of this Board.

Resolved, 6. That the Board be directed to limit the expense of its advertising in newspapers and periodicals to the sum of $6000, save in the matter of the new Hymnal.

Resolved, 7. That all the officers, teachers and scholars in our Sabbath-schools be requested to use Bibles during the sessions of the schools instead of the lesson helps, the latter being designed only to aid in the study of the sacred Scriptures in preparation for the instruction on the Sabbath.

Finally your Committee recommend that the following members of the Board, whose terms expire in June, 1894, be reappointed:

Ministers—William B. Greene, Jr., D.D., Loyal Y. Graham, D.D., William D. Roberts, D.D., Robert H. Fulton, D.D., with Ruling Elders—Archibald McIntyre, Esq., Francis B. Reeves, Esq., William W. Allen, Esq., Thomas W. Synnott, Esq.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

DAVID R. BREED, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work presented also the following supplementary Report, which was adopted:

The Standing Committee on Publication report with regard to the following Overtures, which have been referred to them, viz.:

Overture No. 200, from the Presbytery of Fort Dodge, on The Church at Home and Abroad. It is recommended that the Overture be referred to the Assembly's Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad merely for information.

Overture No. 56, from the Presbytery of Aberdeen, on a Programme for Children's Day. It is recommended that no action be taken.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection presented its Report, which was accepted, and an address was delivered by the Secretary of the Board, Rev. Erskine N. White, D.D. The time for the Order of the Day having arrived, the Report went over as unfinished business.

A Fraternal Delegation, consisting of Rev. Drs. Mabie and Judson, Gen. Howard and Col. C. H. Banes, representing the Baptist Missionary Anniversaries, now in session at Saratoga, was introduced to the Moderator and the Assembly by the Committee on Correspondence. The Delegation stated the desire of the Baptist brethren for a joint meeting of the Anniversaries and the Assembly. The Moderator responded appropriately to the delegates, and the consideration of the matter of a joint meeting was referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by E. C. Ray, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and Rev. R. M. Donaldson, the resolutions were adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies would respectfully submit the following:

The Annual Report which this Board presents to the General Assembly is a model of condensation, clearness and suggestiveness. Like that of other Boards of our Church, it shows a diminution of resources. A comparison with the receipts of the year ending March 30, 1893, results in a decrease of $29,418.02. The offerings of churches and Sabbath-schools fall below those of the former year by the sum of $3000. In the matter of legacies the shortage is nearly $25,000.

The Church, however, is to be congratulated that notwithstanding this limitation of the Board's resources, the care and skill of its financial management has enabled it to close the year without diminishing its grants and without a deficit. This gratifying exhibit will give the more pleasure to the General Assembly, when it learns that the Board has helped ten institutions to free themselves from the incubus of old debts, assured similar deliverance to two more, and started two others in the way to freedom.

The Committee feels that such a record of such a trying year, stamps the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies as worthy of the gratitude and confidence of the Church. And so much the more as we note the following item of the Annual Report:

"Twenty-two hundred churches and Sabbath-schools sent offerings to our treasury last year, and seven hundred and ninety-seven more gave directly to our aided institutions; but four thousand two hundred and ninety-five, or more than one-half of all our churches, and among them many able ones, made no offering, for this work of such vital, immediate and far-reaching importance to our Church and our Lord's kingdom; and very few gave to the Board one-half of that proportion of their beneficent gifts (namely, 6 per centum), which the General Assembly has said ought to be given to it."

The painter Haydon tells us in his diary, that it was only when the Duke of Wellington showed what he could do without means that they gave him means to do more. What a lesson for these non-contributing churches! The Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies deserves at their hands the means to do more.

The pictures which, for the first time, are a feature of the Annual Report, illustrate the work of the Board. The fine portrait of the late Dr. Hervey D. Ganse, on the cover, calls to remembrance the faithful service of that distinguished and beloved first Secretary of the Board. There are also pictures of the buildings which have risen under the fostering care of the Board. The little college of Idaho is pathetic; that small structure is the only Christian college in that vast region; its smallness represents the actual interest of Eastern Presbyterianism in its work, suggesting the need of an expansion of the work. The picture of Salt Lake Collegiate Institute, its present building overpacked with eager students, shows also the foundation of a building not yet finished, which should support a structure where souls will be won and many soul-winners be sent forth in that strategic centre of Mormonism.

The Standing Committee commends to the Church the study of the items of general information contained in the Annual Report of the Board. Thus our ministers and people will learn that the Board's principles and methods are not only soundly Presbyterian, but judicious, foresighted and far-sighted.

Then, too, there is a side of the Board's work which appeals strongly to the sympathy, prayer and help of the Church. The students in the institutions under its care are often poor, in dead earnest to get an education, many working their way, most of them anxious to serve Christ and the Church. The teachers are, as a rule, able and almost always thoroughly consecrated men and women, doing their work with compensation so inadequate, as to make us marvel at the heroism which has held them to their posts in these trying times. The institutions, for the most part, succeed, but they succeed by struggling against fearful odds. The Board ought to have the means to give twice or three times the aid it is now able to grant, in order the sooner to increase the efficiency and to secure the permanency of its schools and colleges. New enterprises in populous regions, now destitute of Christian schools, offer good properties, which, once secured, would be of great value and influence to our Church. But the funds of the Board, so inadequate to the work already in hand, will not permit it to assume additional burdens.

The Presbyterian Church has always believed in schools and colleges. Our godly forefathers planted such institutions in prayer and sacrifice, with books from their scanty libraries and money from their slender purses. They were founded on the Word of God, to teach that Word and to train men for the ministry of that Word. Their agents crossed the sea and secured generous financial aid from Christians of Great Britain, that this New World might be held for our Lord. We reap the fruit of their labors in those Eastern institutions which train Christian youth in their halls and chapels.

In the new West, however, it is different. There, too, the belief in schools and colleges is strong and urgent. But the need is differently met. The State builds, equips, maintains and conducts the schools and colleges. It has magnificent plants and procures the ablest teachers and multitudes of pupils. Now the Church must do one of two things. It must either leave school and college work to the State, or have, after the manner of our forefathers, its own schools and colleges. Both methods have been tried. What are the results? Presbyterians in Michigan once said: "Let our splendid State University do the work; we will have no college." In twenty years Michigan furnished the smallest proportion of candidates for the Presbyterian ministry of any Synod of our Church. Presbyterians were alarmed, and in 1887 opened Alma College, now assisted by our Board of Aid, and this year Alma College reports 18 students for the ministry. Wherever our College Board is maintaining institutions our Church is getting members and ministers. Among the college and academy students in institutions aided by our Board, about one in every five is studying for the ministry. Hence experience vindicates the wisdom of the General Assembly of 1883, which voted unanimously to establish this Board to plant and nurture such institutions. That settled the policy of our Church. We are not such believers in the German system of education where the State does all the work; we are not so satisfied with the religious and theological results of that system in its home, that we can leave our youth to mature under that identical system transplanted to our Western States. We know that if our Church is to root deeply and spread widely in the fertile soil of the West, its youth, who take college training, must be taught the Word of God, and must be taught other knowledge illuminated by the light of that Word. So said our forefathers. So says the Presbyterian Church in this General Assembly met.

In all schools and colleges aided by our Board (except some in arts or commercial classes), the Holy Bible is a part of the regular curriculum. The Annual Report shows the result of this in ten per cent. of the unconverted pupils converted in the school or college year now closing, and about twenty per cent. of the young men of academy and college seeking the ministry.

The Church has settled its policy. The eleven years' history of the Board of Aid triumphantly vindicates that policy. If in our early national life, the homogeneous and largely Christian and educated populations of our Eastern and Middle States, could not with a clear field build their colleges without aid from the old country, how can our Western Presbyterians, among populations largely foreign born or of foreign-born parentage, and largely ignorant and un-Christian, build their colleges in competition with splendidly endowed State universities, without help from the Church in the other parts of our land? The work of the Board of Aid is of unspeakable importance both to Church and country. Every minister ought to preach about it and train his people to pray for it, and give to it. Every member and adherent of our churches ought to read of its progress and its needs. All people of means ought to realize what immediately telling and forever beneficent and enlarging products of good, are insured by the investment of hundreds and thousands of dollars through the wise, safe and admirable methods of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The Standing Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly, in the interest of wider and more effective conquests for our Lord and of an educated and consecrated ministry, commends this foundation work of our Church to the officers and members of our churches.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly hereby recommends that every church make an offering to this Board; that every minister study its work and instruct his people concerning it; that every Sabbath-school and Young People's Society contribute to it.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly earnestly recommends the Church to make an urgent endeavor to raise $150,000 for the work of the Board during the current Presbyterial year.

Resolved, 4. That the General Assembly bears testimony to the faithfulness, diligence, loyalty and prudence of the Board in its administration of the great trust committed to it, and recommends that its records be approved so far as written.

Resolved, 5. That the General Assembly hereby directs the Board to adhere diligently to the following points in the policy of its management, viz.: The systematic study of the Bible by every student. The rules by which it assures full Presbyterian control of institutions and of all property funds invested through the Board. The refusal of the Board to incur debt, or to allow its institutions to live beyond their income. The prohibition of the solicitation of funds by institutions except from personal friends, or in their own regions, the Board itself to solicit, and to distribute funds, and to secure them to the Church.

Resolved, 6. That hereafter the second Sabbath evening of each General Assembly, be given to a meeting in the interests of higher Christian education, under the direction of this Board.

Resolved, 7. That since the young people may naturally be interested in the efforts of earnest Christian youth to secure an education, the General Assembly most earnestly commends to the support of the Young People's Societies in the churches, the work of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, and recommends that the Sabbath nearest the Day of Prayer for Colleges, wherever practicable, be annually observed as Education Day, and it hereby urges the Synodical and Presbyterial Committees on Young People's Societies, and on the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, to press this subject upon the consideration of all Young People's Societies within their bounds.

Resolved, 8. That the following persons be elected members of the Board, viz.: To serve for three years: Ministers—D. S. Johnson, D.D., J. G. K. McClure, D.D., Thomas C. Hall, and M. L. Haines, D.D.; Elders—Hon. Dan P. Eells, Henry J. Willing, Hon. James McMillan, and Thomas Lord.

To fill an unexpired term of two years: Rev. Howard A. Johnston, Ph.D.

To fill an unexpired term of one year: Rev. William O. Ruston, D.D.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

GEORGE W. F. BIRCH,
Chairman.

The Mileage Committee was authorized to pay the bills of the Commissioners for traveling expenses.

The Judicial Committee presented a Report on Judicial Case No. 4, which was received and adopted, and is as follows:

Judicial Case No. 4, being a Complaint against the Presbytery of Cincinnati, because it did not sustain Charge One (1) in the case of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America against the Rev. Henry Preserved Smith, D.D., signed by John Junkin Francis, P. Robertson, J. Conzett, William H. James, and others.

Rev. William H. James, D.D., for himself, and as counsel for the other complainants, asks leave respectfully to withdraw the complaint.

The Judicial Committee, therefore, recommend to the General Assembly, that the complainants at their own request, have leave to withdraw their complaint.

JAMES GARDNER, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 A.M., Wednesday, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 23, 7.45 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held, in accordance with the Standing Order of the Assembly, in the First Presbyterian Church. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Howard Duffield, D.D., and Revs. W. P. Chalfant, George A. Ford, O. F. Wisner and F. W. Coan.

THURSDAY, May 24, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

Ruling Elder Alexander P. Ketchum, of the Presbytery of New York, was enrolled as an additional Commissioner.

It was ordered that the reception of the Fraternal Delegates from the Baptist Anniversaries, now in session in Saratoga Springs, be made the Order of the Day for Friday, May 25, from 9.35 to 10 A.M.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented an additional Report, as follows:

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report:

Overture No. 49, from the Presbytery of Troy, asking the Assembly to provide a Form for the Licensing of Local Evangelists. It is recommended that the form for licensing probationers for the Gospel Ministry, Chap. xiv, Sec. 7, of the Form of Government be followed as far as paragraph (4), for which paragraph shall be substituted the following: "Do you promise to submit yourself in the Lord to the government of this Presbytery during the period of your service in it as a local evangelist?" And in Sec. 8, where occurs the formula of licensure, for the phrase, "Wherever God in His providence may call you," substitute the phrase, "Within the bounds of this Presbytery." Adopted.

Overture No. 54, from the Presbytery of Olympia, reciting certain irregularities and abuses in the administration of infant baptism, and asking for such deliverance upon the subject as shall provide a remedy for these. It is recommended that in view of the facts that the alleged irregularities and abuses do not exist to any considerable extent, and that our Form of Government is explicit as to the conditions and manner of the administration of this sacrament, no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 184, from the Presbytery of Jersey City, concerning Rev. J. W. Waite, a foreign minister, of the Primitive Methodist Church of England, who made application on the 6th of June, 1893, and was then received by the Presbytery upon the usual probation. The Presbytery asks that it be allowed to enroll Mr. Waite as a full member on the completion of his year of probation, June 6, 1894. It is recommended that the request be granted. Adopted.

Overture No. 185, from the Presbytery of Newark, making similar request concerning Rev. Gotthard Woldemar Goerlitz, a foreign minister, from the Evangelische Brüderkirche of Germany, whose year of probation expired February 1, 1894. It is recommended that the request be granted. Adopted.

Overture No. 200, a, from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, asking for the appointment of a Committee to consider the best methods of making our Synods more efficient. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 200, b, on the Programme for Children's Day. We recommend its reference to the Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school work. Adopted.

Overture No. 52, from the Presbytery of St. Paul, asking for the appointment of a Standing Committee on Young People's Societies. It is recommended, that inasmuch as three of the Boards have appointed special officers to take charge of young people's work in connection with said Boards, and inasmuch as it is inexpedient to multiply agencies unnecessarily, it is the judgment of the Assembly that this matter can safely be left for the present to the care of the Presbyteries and Sessions. Adopted.

Overture No. 208, a Memorial from the American Tract Society. The following action is recommended:

Resolved, That we recognize in the American Tract Society a notable expression and strong bond of Christian unity; that we esteem it an important auxiliary to Christian work in preparing and publishing, in one hundred and fifty languages or dialects, the teachings of the Bible as held in common by evangelical churches for the use of missionaries at home and abroad; that we make special mention of its good work in providing Gospel books and tracts in the several languages of our large immigrant population, for whom at the present no adequate force of living ministers can be supplied, and in circulating these and its other publications in the homes of the people by sale or grant through colporteurs, home missionaries, and other Christian workers. Adopted.

Overture No. 211 originates with this Committee under information of the need of a new edition of the Digest.

The following resolution is offered for consideration by the Assembly:

Resolved, That the Assembly order a new edition of the Digest, to be prepared by the Board of Publication, under the supervision of the Stated Clerk and the Secretary of the Board of Publication, with Rev. Dr. William E. Moore, as editor. Adopted.

Overture No. 212 also originates with this Committee. The following action is recommended:

Resolved, That the subject of the duties of the Stated Clerk be referred to the Chairmen of the Committees on Mileage and Finance, as a Special Committee, to consider the same, and report to this Assembly. Adopted.

Overture No. 206, concerning the Presbyterian Ministers' Fund. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

In behalf of the Committee,

WILLIS G. CRAIG, Chairman.

Rev. Thomas Carter, of the Presbytery of Morris and Orange, was given leave to have his vote recorded in the affirmative, on the adoption of the resolutions of the Report of the Special Committee of Conference with Theological Seminaries.

The Report of the Judicial Committee on Judicial Case No. 1 was, at the request of that Committee, recommitted to it. After amendment by the Judicial Committee, it was again reported, adopted, and is as follows:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

The Judicial Committee, in the matter of Judicial Case No. 1, begs leave to report:

In the case of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America against Rev. Henry Preserved Smith, D.D., being the Appeal to the General Assembly from the decision, action and judgment of the Synod of Ohio, rendered October 13, 1893, we have examined the papers and conferred with the parties.

We find that the appellant is Rev. Henry Preserved Smith, D.D., and as such appellant he has the right to appeal to the General Assembly, the case being one of that nature in which the appeal may be taken to the highest court of the Church, and we find that the Committee to conduct the prosecution appointed by the Presbytery of Cincinnati, in which Presbytery the case arose, has the right to conduct the prosecution, and hence to appear for the Presbyterian Church, the appellee in this Court.

The notice of Appeal has been timely and duly given, and the Appeal and specifications of error alleged and the record in the case filed, all in accordance with the provisions in the Book of Discipline, and said Appeal is found to be in order.

In our conference with both parties it has been agreed by both parties respectively, that the reading of the record in the case be omitted and waived, except such parts thereof as either party may deem necessary to read in person, and also that their respective arguments on the entertainment of the Appeal be omitted. The Committee, therefore, recommends that the Appeal be entertained. Any discussion on the question whether the Appeal should be entertained will require the opening of the whole case, which would require somewhat of a repetition of the trial proper, the parties having agreed to waive, being heard on that question before the Assembly, it is understood that the parties shall be at liberty to argue the whole case on the merits of the question of sustaining the Appeal, which would include, naturally, any questions, not purely formal or technical, which would arise on the question of entertaining the Appeal. This waiver by the parties of their right to be heard orally before the Assembly on that first question, is all to this end, that by the Assembly deciding at once to entertain the Appeal, time may be saved, a double presentation of the same statement of the merits avoided, and no party be prejudiced or lose any right, by going at once to the merits of the main questions involved. The recommendation which we make as to time to be allowed to the parties, is made after full consultation with the parties. The Committee, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly finds that due notice of the Appeal in the case has been given, and that the Appeal and specification of the errors alleged have been filed in due time, and that the Appeal is in order in accordance with the Book of Discipline.

Resolved, 2. That after the Judgment, Notice of Appeal, Appeal and specifications of errors have been read, the Assembly shall by its vote determine whether the Appeal shall be entertained.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly having first decided to entertain the Appeal, the appellant shall have three hours to present his case, that the appellee be allowed four hours to present the case of the appellee, that the appellant have one hour to close, that one hour be given to the Synod of Ohio, the judicatory appealed from, due regard being had to the hearing of both sides alternately, that the roll be called to give the members of the Assembly an opportunity to be heard, not longer than three minutes each, no speaker to speak more than once unless the Assembly shall otherwise order, and that thereafter the vote shall be taken upon each specification of error alleged, the form of the question being: Shall this specification of error be sustained?

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES GARDNER, Chairman.

The Assembly took up the special Order of the Day, viz., Judicial Case No. 1, being the appeal of the Rev. Henry Preserved Smith, D.D., against the decision and final judgment of the Synod of Ohio, rendered October 13, 1893, as shown in the records of the said Synod.

The Moderator read Rule xl of the General Rules for Judicatories, and enjoined on "the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they were about to act."

The Stated Clerk read the Judgment, the Notice of Appeal, the Appeal, and the specifications of error alleged, in accordance with the directions of the Book of Discipline.

The Assembly, on motion duly made, determined to entertain the Appeal.

The Rev. Henry Preserved Smith, D.D., the appellant, addressed the Assembly in his own behalf until 12.23 P.M., when the Assembly took recess as a Court.

The following telegram from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at Nashville, Tenn., was received, read and ordered placed on record:

NASHVILLE, TENN., May 23, 1894.

To the General Assembly in session at Saratoga:

The blessing of God having rested upon our Church in her separate existence and work, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at Nashville, with affectionate fraternal greetings to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at Saratoga, and, wishing it Godspeed in every good word and work, regard it as unwise to reopen the question of organic union.

JAMES R. GRAHAM, Moderator,
JOSEPH R. WILSON, Stated Clerk.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 P.M., and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 24, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Assembly resumed its sessions as a Court, and the Moderator again called the attention of the Assembly to the requirements of Rule xl of the Rules for Judicatories.

It was Resolved, That the Assembly sit as a Court this evening from 7.30 to 9.30 o'clock.

The appellant in Judicial Case No. 1 resumed his opening argument, and continued until he had concluded.

The Rev William McKibbin, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Prosecution, addressed the Court in behalf of the appellee, and continued until 5.15 P.M., when the Assembly took recess as a Court.

The Assembly took recess until 7.30 P.M., and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 24, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Assembly resumed its sessions as a Court, and the Rev. William McKibbin, D.D., was heard further in behalf of the appellee, and continued his argument until he had concluded.

By direction of the Moderator, Sec. 28 of the Book of Discipline, was read by the Stated Clerk, as a notification to the members of the Court that absence from the sessions of the Court might deprive them of the right to vote on all questions connected with the case.

The Assembly rose as a Court, adjourned until 9 A.M. Friday, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 25, 1894, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions, both legislative and judicial, were read and approved.

The Committee of Correspondence introduced to the Assembly a delegation from the Baptist Anniversaries, now in session in Saratoga, viz., Rev. A. H. Strong, D.D., LL.D., President of Rochester Theological Seminary; Rev. G. W. Northrop, D.D., LL.D., of the Divinity School of the Chicago University; Rev. Alvah Hovey, D.D., LL.D., of the Newton Theological Institute; the Hon. C. W. Kingsley, of Massachusetts; and Rev. H. L. Morehouse, D.D., Field Secretary of the Baptist Home Missionary Society. The Assembly was addressed by Drs. Strong and Northrop.

The Moderator responded in appropriate terms in behalf of the Assembly.

It was Resolved, That the Committee on Correspondence be empowered to confer and arrange with the Committee already appointed by the Baptist Anniversaries, for a joint meeting of the Anniversaries with the General Assembly, to give expression to their common Calvinism and also to the spiritual unity of the Church of Christ.

The Assembly resumed its sessions as a Court, and proceeded with the consideration of Judicial Case No. 1, viz., the Appeal from a decision of the Synod of Ohio by the appellant, in the case of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America against the Rev. Henry Preserved Smith, D.D.

The Moderator again called the attention of the Assembly to Rule xl of the General Rules for Judicatories.

Ruling Elder Daniel H. Shields, of the Committee of Prosecution, addressed the Court in behalf of the appellee.

The appellant, Rev. H. P. Smith, D.D., addressed the Court in his own behalf, until he had concluded his closing argument.

The members of the Court appealed from, viz., the Synod of Ohio, were heard.

Pending the hearing, the hour of recess arrived and the Assembly took recess as a Court.

The Committee of Correspondence reported that it had conferred with the Committee of the Baptist Anniversaries, and recommended:

1. That a union service be held with the Baptist brethren in Convention Hall on South Broadway, from 9.15 to 10.15 o'clock, on Sunday night next.

2. That the following members of this Assembly be appointed to speak at this service, viz.: Henry C. McCook, D.D., William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., and Henry C. Minton, D.D.

3. That the Moderator of this Assembly preside.

The recommendations were adopted.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 P.M., and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 25, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The following telegram was received from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

EUGENE, OREGON, May 24, 1894.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

The Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly sincerely reciprocates your fraternal greetings.

F. R. EARLE, Moderator.
T. C. BLAKE, Stated Clerk.

The Assembly resumed its sessions as a Court and proceeded with the consideration of Judicial Case No. 1. Attention was called to Rule xl of the Rules for Judicatories. The hearing of the members of the judicatory appealed from was continued until concluded.

The roll of the Court was called to give its members opportunity to express their opinions. The calling of the roll continued until the hour of adjournment, when the Assembly rose as a Court.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock A.M. Saturday, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 25, 7.45 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interest of Temperance, and was addressed by Loyal Y. Graham, D.D., Rev. S. N. Vail, D. S. McCaslin, D.D., R. S. Holmes, D.D., and J. J. Beacom, D.D.

SATURDAY, May 26, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

ALBANY, OREGON, May 25, 1894.

The United Presbyterian General Assembly at Albany, Oregon, cordially reciprocates fraternal greetings.

JOHN A. WILSON, Moderator.
WILLIAM J. REID, Principal Clerk.

The Committee of Correspondence, through its Chairman, Rev. Howard Duffield, D.D., presented the Rev. Peter Stryker, D.D., delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, who addressed the Assembly. The Moderator responded in behalf of the Assembly.

The Joint Committee on Home and Foreign Missions presented a Report upon the proposed new Mission House in New York city. The Report was received, adopted, and is as follows:

The General Assembly heartily reiterates the expressions of former Assemblies, regarding the kindness and generosity of those whose munificence made possible the acquisition of the property, which has been occupied for the past seven years by the Boards of Home Missions, Foreign Missions and Church Erection, and deeply regrets that any action of the Boards should have unintentionally wounded the feelings of those so greatly beloved and honored by all Presbyterians.

The General Assembly is, however, of the opinion that, inasmuch as the General Assembly of 1893 gave its endorsement to the proposed new site and building, no complaint being made, though the matter was one of common fame at that time, and inasmuch as the two Boards accepted that endorsement in good faith and completed the purchase of the property, and have now actually begun the work incident to removal, and inasmuch as it is the opinion of competent legal advisers and the unanimous opinion of the officers and members of the two Boards, that the conveyance of the present property to the Boards was not subject to any conditions, either expressed or implied, which would operate as a legal or a moral bar to the proposed transfer, and, inasmuch as the erection of the new building is strongly advised by business men of the highest standing and the largest experience in such matters, and in their judgment will involve no use of money contributed for missionary purposes, and inasmuch as it is the emphatic opinion of these two great Boards that the proposed change is wise and necessary, and in the interest of true economy and the cause of Missions;

Therefore, the General Assembly sees no adequate reason for reversing the approval of the last Assembly, and the practically unanimous and deliberate judgment of these two ably and loyally constituted Boards, regarding the administration of the business affairs committed to them, and the General Assembly therefore approves the records of these two Boards relating to this subject.

Respectfully submitted, in behalf of the Joint Committee,

ARTHUR J. BROWN, Chairman.

The Assembly resumed its sessions as a Court, and proceeded with the hearing of Judicial Case No. 1.

The Moderator called attention to the requirements of Rule xl of the Rules for Judicatories.

The calling of the roll for the expression of opinions by members of the Court was resumed, and continued, until the hour of recess.

The Assembly as a Court took recess until 2 P.M., and was closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 26, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met as a Court, and was opened with prayer.

Attention was again called by the Moderator to Rule xl of the Rules for Judicatories.

The calling of the roll of the Court for expressions of opinion was continued until the names of all the members had been called.

The parties to the case consenting, the Assembly ordered that all members of the Court who had been absent during the hearing for brief periods of time, and for sufficient reasons, should be permitted to vote.

The Rev. M. Henry Calkins, D.D., who had been necessarily absent during the greater part of the sessions of the Court, was, at his own request, excused from voting.

The Court proceeded to vote upon the specifications of error alleged by the appellant, the question in each case being: "Shall the specification of error be sustained?"

The first ground of appeal was read, and the vote was taken thereon, and a division being called for, the result was announced as follows:

To sustain, 62; not to sustain, 403. So the first specification of error was not sustained.

Each of the other grounds of appeal was read, the vote upon each ground being taken separately, and the Moderator announced in each case that the specification of error was not sustained.

All the specifications of error having been voted upon and not sustained, the roll was then called upon the question, "Shall the appeal be sustained?" and the yeas and nays were ordered to be recorded.

By unanimous consent, Rev. Isaac C. Ketler, Ph.D., of the Presbytery of Butler, was allowed to record his vote "To sustain in part;" and Elder Heman Glass, of the Presbytery of Rochester, was allowed to record his vote "To sustain," these members being obliged to retire from the Court for sufficient reasons.

The vote on sustaining the appeal was announced as follows: To sustain, 55; to sustain in part, 47; not to sustain, 396.

The following members of the Court voted to sustain the Appeal, viz.:

No one of the grounds of appeal and specifications of error having been sustained, and no error having been found in the Record, the Moderator made the following announcement, viz.:

No specification of error having been sustained, and the appeal as a whole not having been sustained, the judgment of the Synod of Ohio, in the case of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America vs. Rev. H. P. Smith, D.D., has been and is affirmed.

The following members of the Court, who voted to sustain in part the Appeal, desired to be recorded as sustaining only Specifications 7 and 12, viz.: Ministers—Watson M. Hayes, William A. Beecher, William A. Powell. The Assembly directed that they be so recorded.

It was Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed to confer with Rev. H. P. Smith, D.D., and report to this Assembly.

The Assembly adjourned as a Court, and resumed its legislative sessions.

It was Resolved, That when the Assembly take recess it be to meet at 7.30 o'clock this evening, and to remain in session until 9.30 o'clock.

The Reports of the Standing Committees on Theological Seminaries, Church Erection, and Education, were made respectively the special Orders for the evening session.

The Assembly took recess until 7.30 o'clock this evening, and was closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 26, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Moderator announced the Committee to confer with Rev. H. P. Smith, D.D., as follows: Ministers—Henry C. McCook, D.D., John Peacock, D.D., and Arthur J. Brown, D.D.; Ruling Elders—John A. Simpson and Robert P. Lewis.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was presented, and received. After discussion, the Report was adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Theological Seminaries has had before it several very difficult and perplexing problems, requiring careful consideration and delicate treatment. We are happy to be able to inform the General Assembly that the Committee, while deeply sensible of the importance of some of the questions under consideration, has in all its deliberations been able to preserve the utmost good feeling, and that it has reached substantial unanimity in all its judgments. The year under review has been one of gratifying prosperity in nearly all our seminaries and of great prosperity in some of them. The life and health of nearly all the students and officers of all of these seminaries have been preserved, and the work has gone on happily and successfully. There are now thirteen theological seminaries under the care of the Assembly, and from all of them reports have been received.

Beginning with our oldest Seminary, Princeton, the Report shows 233 students in attendance during the year; 102 of these were matriculated and 62 graduated. Gifts have been received amounting to $105,876 for the Charles Hodge Hall from the late Mary Stuart estate; also from the same estate $106,783, and from other sources $23,517. Since the last Report the Rev. William B. Greene, D.D., and Rev. Gerhardus Vos, Ph.D., D.D., have been inaugurated as Professors.

Auburn Seminary has had 94 students in attendance, of whom 30 have graduated. Two new Professors have been elected, namely, James Stevenson Riggs, D.D., and Rev. Theodore Weld Hopkins. The Seminary has had a prosperous year, and we recommend that the choice of the above-named Professors be approved.

The Western Seminary, at Allegheny, has had an attendance of 98 students, and an addition of $9800 to its permanent funds; $2500 of this the gift of Mr. William R. Murphy, of Pittsburgh. Mr. William B. Negley, a valuable member of the Board of Trustees, died during the year. Mr. Wilson A. Shaw was appointed to fill the vacancy, and Mr. S. S. Maurice was chosen Trustee in the place of Mr. John A. Renshaw, deceased, long a most useful and faithful member of the Board.

What is to be said of Lane Seminary will be postponed until the others have been passed.

As to Danville Seminary, there have been no changes in the Board of Instructors since the last Report. Fifteen students have been matriculated, and 23 have been in attendance: 4 in the Senior Class, 5 in the Middle Class and 14 in the Junior. The Faculty expect that at least 30 students will be in the Seminary the next session.

McCormick Seminary has had an exceedingly prosperous year. The entire number of students under instruction has been 212. Fifty have been graduated and 3 others given certificates of work completed. The friends of the Seminary, as indeed the entire Church, are called upon to mourn the death of Prof. Edwin Cone Bissell, who departed this life April 10, 1894. Orthodox, learned and consecrated, a teacher of rare power and a Christian of beautiful character, his loss is greatly deplored. A new Chair has been erected, called the Chair of Biblical Theology, and Prof. Andrew C. Zenos has been transferred to it. The Rev. J. Ross Stevenson has been elected Adjunct Professor of Ecclesiastical History. The Professorship of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis is still vacant. The Library has been increased by nearly one thousand volumes, and ground for a new Library building will be broken in a few days. The Committee report with great gratification the full endowment by Mrs. Nettie F. McCormick and her son, Cyrus H. McCormick, of the Chair of Biblical Theology. The inventory of property aggregates $1,259,923. This Seminary has 39 full scholarships and 1 fellowship.

Blackburn University is required by its charter to keep open a Theological Department, but from it no Report has come into the hands of your Committee.

San Francisco Seminary has property amounting to $567,466. By the will of the late Alexander Montgomery, of San Francisco, who had previously given about $300,000 to the institution, the Seminary is made residuary legatee of his large estate. From this the Seminary expects in the near future to realize a very large amount. The Report records the death of Mr. Montgomery, the largest benefactor of the Seminary, and of the Rev. George C. Burrowes, D.D., one of its earliest and most honored Professors. The number of students in attendance during the year has been twenty-three, and the work of the Seminary has gone on with interest and success.

The Seminaries at Dubuque and Newark are conducted mainly for the education of ministers to labor among the German population of the country. With very limited endowments and equipments, they seem to be doing their important work with great diligence and fidelity. Both these Seminaries, Dubuque and Newark, are greatly in need of additional funds, and we ask the Assembly to commend them warmly to our people for $50,000 each, to be added to their permanent endowment.

Lincoln and Biddle Universities are for the education of colored men, for the work of the ministry among their own people. They have been doing a most important work in this behalf, and with very large and valuable results. Mr. William Deas Kersmill has been elected to the Chair of Hebrew and Church History in Lincoln, and we recommend that the election be approved.

The youngest of all our seminaries is located at Omaha. The institution has been in existence but three years, and, although without buildings or permanent funds, has had twenty-one students under instruction, six of whom have been graduated. The faithful and devoted men who compose the Faculty, with but one exception, give their services without remuneration. The institution is one of great promise, and especially well located to train ministers for that great and growing country in the midst of which it is planted. The Committee most warmly commend it to the sympathy, the interest, and the contributions of the Church. We trust that in the near future at least $100,000 may be raised as a permanent endowment, and we commend it to all our people with confidence and earnestness as worthy of their gifts.

It now remains for us to speak particularly of Lane. Lane Seminary in respect of age is the fourth in rank among the seminaries now under the care of this Assembly, but for special reasons particular mention of it has been deferred till the others have been passed.

As the members of the Assembly are well aware, this venerable and beloved institution has for several years been passing under very severe and painful trials. Its income has been reduced; its teaching force greatly lessened; its students diminished in numbers, and its friends divided in opinion, feeling and action.

The entire Church has looked with painful solicitude upon the recent history of that honored institution, and with earnest desire that all differences there might speedily be composed. That Seminary has a splendid foundation and a noble history, and it is our most earnest hope and prayer that its future may be worthy of its past. Your Committee has approached this subject with the most careful and conscientious consideration. We have no grudges to satisfy, no enemies to punish, no friends to reward, and no favors to ask. Our only wish is to save that Seminary; to restore it to the confidence of the Church, and to do what we can to make its future more glorious than its glorious past. During the past year its Faculty of instruction has been reduced to one, and its students to twenty-one. Whatever the cause may be, the fact is, this Seminary is in sore tribulation, and that fact this Assembly cannot afford to ignore or pass by with indifference. The shades of the mighty dead, and no less the interest of the living, and the hopes and demands of the generations to come, all demand that we shall save, if we can, this noble Seminary to the cause of our Church and our Lord. It is time for wise, careful, and considerate treatment.

Your Committee has invited such friends of that institution as are in attendance upon the Assembly to appear before us and give such information and offer such suggestions as they might think fit. A considerable number of gentlemen, representing different parties and policies, availed themselves of the invitation and presented their views fully, frankly and courteously. There has also been placed in our hands, by order of the Assembly, a pamphlet, entitled "A Defense of Lane Seminary, by Dr. Edward D. Morris, Professor in Charge." Had this pamphlet not been referred to us by the Assembly we should not have felt called upon to allude to it. It is an opening address, prepared for delivery before the Seminary, September 14, 1893. We feel constrained to express our profound regret that so severe, and, in our judgment, so unjust an arraignment of the General Assembly should have been undertaken by one occupying such a position in the Church, and especially that the students of any Seminary, should be given so unhappy an impression of the spirit and action of our Supreme Judicatory, and we are further sorry to say that this pamphlet is still being circulated.

Even more do we regret that this same pamphlet contains a protest of the Board of Trustees, adopted July 11, 1893, against the action of the last Assembly concerning this Seminary, which protest we cannot but deem to be wanting in that respect which may fairly be claimed by the highest Court of the Church from all who acknowledge its jurisdiction. More than this we do not wish to say; less than this we cannot say. It ought to be added, however, that while this protest has not been formally rescinded by the Board of Trustees, yet we believe it was due to a transient temper, and that now the spirit and purposes of the Board of Trustees are thoroughly kind, conciliatory and loyal to the General Assembly.

The last General Assembly expressed its disapproval of the Seminary, because it retained in his Chair a Professor who had been suspended from the ministry by his Presbytery for heresy, and the Board of Education was forbidden to aid students attending the institution. Afterwards the Professor resigned his place, and then the Board of Education resumed its helpful relations to the students of Lane. We trust happier days for this Seminary are now near at hand, and we commend it and all its interests to the approval, the sympathy and the confidence of the Assembly and the Church.

In view of all the facts that have come before us and as the result of thoughtful and even anxious deliberation, we respectfully recommend the following, viz.:

1. The General Assembly would advise the Board of Trustees, as promptly and completely as possible, to reorganize the Seminary by introducing new and different men into the Board of Trustees and the corps of instructors, and this, not because of any question touching the integrity of purpose and purity of motive in the honored brethren now in charge, but simply because the differences of opinion and policy now prevailing among them seem to be irreconcilable, and to forbid the hope of settlement until other men are put in charge.

2. That a Committee of five, three ministers and two elders, shall be appointed by this Assembly to visit the Seminary and confer with the Board of Trustees and to advise with them concerning all the interests of the institution, especially concerning its reorganization, as already indicated; this Committee to report to the next General Assembly.

3. We recommend that in the meantime the Seminary be restored to full standing with the General Assembly, and that the Board of Education be directed to treat its students precisely as it treats the students of other seminaries.

4. Pending the visit of the Committee suggested and the reorganization proposed, it is recommended that the election of Rev. Henry W. Hulbert to the Chair of Church History be disapproved, and this for this reason and no other, that his confirmation would further embarrass the reorganization which is now proposed. This disapproval is not to be understood as raising any question of his character or orthodoxy, nor as a bar to his employment as a teacher in the Seminary.

Permit us to close this Report with several general suggestions which seem to us to be important. A great amount of property is now devoted to the purposes of theological education in connection with our Church; the corps of instructors and students is large, and the importance of these institutions to the edification and extension of the Church of Christ can hardly be overestimated.

The Church observes with solicitude, and a sort of sacred jealousy, the spirit and character of her coming ministry. She is profoundly concerned that they shall be thoroughly instructed and orthodox not only, but that they shall have the right conception of their office as servants and soldiers of Jesus Christ, and that they shall be filled with the Spirit which alone can consecrate their high calling.

Therefore,

First. We would earnestly and affectionately remind our honored brethren who are charged with the work of instruction and oversight in these sacred halls, that it is of the utmost importance that constant efforts be made to deepen the Christian experience and cultivate the spiritual life of the students; for, after all, it is not so much learning, not even sacred learning, as it is a profound experience of the things of the Spirit, that is the source of power and the secret of usefulness in a minister of Christ.

Second. We strongly advise that all the students be assiduously trained in the ready and skillful use of the English Bible; that they be made familiar with its very language, so as to be facile, accurate and intelligent in quotation; that they be trained in the exegetical and expository habit: in a word, that they be thoroughly drilled in the prompt and effective handling of the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.

Third. Constant and earnest endeavor should be used to foster and cultivate an intensely evangelistic and missionary spirit among students, that these young men may deeply feel that the ministry is not a trade by which a man may get a living, nor a profession by which he may gain renown, but a great high calling of Jesus Christ for seeking and saving the lost.

Finally, it may not be amiss to give a word of caution against everything that may have the effect or even the appearance of coaxing men into the ministry, or into this or that seminary, by any sort of special inducement based on the promise of the maximum of luxurious accommodations gratuitously provided, and the minimum of self-help and self-denial. We rejoice in the splendid endowment and equipments of our theological seminaries; we hold in perpetual honor the names of those, whether of the living or the dead, by whose munificence these magnificent foundations have been laid. At the same time we would affectionately caution our brethren upon whom rests the responsibility of governing and giving instruction in these great institutions, against the peril of a dependent, effeminate and self-indulgent spirit in the rising ministry of the Church, unfitting them for severe hardships and privations, and we urge our brethren in charge of these seminaries, to use their office and influence with constant and strenuous endeavor, to teach and train the young men under their care, to a profound appreciation of the solemn and self-denying character of the great work for which they are preparing; that they are to dismiss all thought of seeking their own ease and power, and the preferment and profit which come from man; that they are to hold themselves ready to go cheerfully wherever duty calls; in a word, that they must be ready and willing to endure hardships as good soldiers of Jesus Christ.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. DINSMORE, Chairman.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection was taken up, and the resolutions were read and adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Erection begs to present the following Report:

The work of the Board of Church Erection has come to be regarded almost entirely from its prosaic earthly side. The business of the matter is emphasized almost exclusively. Possibly no other branch of our Church work has suffered so much in this respect. No other seems quite so remote from the warm religious side of our denominational life. It needs therefore that we emphasize more and more the fact that the churches are not merely places of comfort for worshipers, but also places of prayer; places where the great Jehovah, who revealed the plans for the Tabernacle in the wilderness, may be expected to shine upon His people as He shone forth between the cherubim of old; a place where men and women may be born into the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Victor Hugo said, "A church is God between four walls," and certain it is, that where a church is lifted to His honor, whether it be constructed of pine boards or builded of hewn stone, if it be lifted to His honor, and not to human pride, if the one thought be, not of human eloquence, but of man's need of the Divine Presence, there God will be between those four walls.

For this reason alone, if for no other, the work of this Board, to which our attention is now asked, will beget a deep interest in the bosom of any man who regards it with careful attention. It is a work that has had a proud past. It is Biblical and historic. The construction of the Tabernacle in the wilderness was an ancient example of Church Erection, and all the people had a hand in it, and rejoiced in their privilege. Later on, when the question of raising a Temple to Jehovah was agitated in Jerusalem, so holy a work was it considered, that David, whose hands were stained with blood, was not permitted to have a part in it. The greatest deprivation of his life we may well conceive was this, that he was not permitted to rear the Temple to Jehovah, and Solomon's greatest achievement was the building and completion, and the greatest event of his life the dedication of the Temple; and for ages, to princes and kings and emperors alone was granted the glorious privilege of establishing Cathedrals and Basilicas. It is no longer so. In what was once their exclusive honor, in this the people now participate again through their offerings as did Israel in the wilderness.

And the man who to-day gives of his money to aid in the construction of churches throughout our land is joining hands in a magnificent and divine work. He is coöperating with Almighty God, as did Moses, as did Solomon, coöperating with Him whom the heaven of heavens cannot contain, but who condescends to manifest His glory and His power in a house made with hands.

But look at this matter from another point of view. Naturally, as our Home Missionary work extends, the calls for houses of worship multiply. These calls are now coming from every State and Territory, and unless a response can be made to these appeals the great work of evangelization will surely be crippled and go halt and limping. Our fathers were not heedless of the fact that every congregation stands in peril until it finds its spiritual home in a house of worship of its own, and we must give emphatic heed to this same fact and never let it slip. Said the Standing Committee of 1870, and we note their words with approval and emphasis: "Other things being equal, the spread of truth in pure Presbyterian form will be proportional to the number of edifices that we may erect for the worship of God and the preaching of His Word. If any comparison may be made it is more important to secure the Church edifice than it is to secure the missionary himself. We may provide the missionary next year, but as to the ground for a church it is now or never."

That is as true in 1894 as it was in 1870, and it is at our peril that the work of this Board be regarded as anywise minor or secondary.

This scheme of Church Erection is now exactly fifty years old. It sees its semi-centennial in this year of our Lord 1894. Operations were first carried on by the Board of Home Missions, through an annually appointed Committee of Church Erection, and the first of these Committees began its labors July 1, 1844. It is to the credit of the Board and the glory of the Presbyterian Church that it, first of all denominations, inaugurated and organized efforts to provide houses of worship for feeble congregations; and as one of the historians of this Board has said: "It has responded to the appeal of the Freedmen upon the Atlantic Coast and of the Indian upon the Great Central Plain. It has aided in the East to strengthen the things that remain, and in the West to drive the stakes that mark the progress of the Christian pioneer. It has fostered the Mission work in our great centres of commercial and political life, and it has shared in the erection of chapels in Utah and New Mexico that have prepared the way for churches. It has helped furnish spiritual homes to Presbyterians coming to us from beyond the seas, and it has enabled our own children in their emigration to carry with them the House of God. It is not too much to say that of the thousands of churches that within fifty years God has permitted our great body to organize, one-half would have failed for want of the comfort and grace of spiritual homes in which to gather, had not the General Assembly in its wisdom inaugurated and sustained the work of Church Erection.

The operations of this Board are conducted through three separate and distinct funds, viz.: The General Fund, the Loan Fund and the Manse Fund.

Consider these individually:

1. The General Fund.—It will be remembered that the conditions under which this fund is administered restrict a grant to one-third of the value of the property, and require that before the grant is paid the Trustees shall certify that the full amount needed, together with the grant, to complete the building without debt, has been collected. Before the grant is paid a mortgage to the Board equal to the amount given must be executed.

Appropriations have been made from this fund during the past year to 158 churches and to an amount aggregating $80,010, an advance upon the preceding year of 2 in the number of churches and of $1293 in amount.

These appropriations have been distributed among 28 Synods, 92 Presbyteries and 32 States and Territories. The comparative distribution has been unusually equal. Nebraska has received 13 appropriations, Pennsylvania 12, California 11, Washington and Indian Territory 9 each, Minnesota 8, and Colorado, Catawba, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, New York (Synod, including New England) and Oregon, 7 each.

In addition to regular grants, special gifts aggregating $7780.90 have been made to twenty churches. This makes the total amount from the General Fund for Church Edifices $87,790.93.

The total payments were $87,552.49, of which $7780.93 were on account of special gifts and $771.56 insurance upon partial losses by fire.

Recall the fact that the last General Assembly ordered "that the Board be directed, whenever practicable and in accordance with the best interest of the church aided, to engage with said church that the amount granted shall be considered as a loan, not bearing interest, and to be repaid to the Board in specified annual payments, to be credited to the church as its annual contribution." This must certainly impress every one as a most generous and lenient provision. No less than twenty churches have accepted these conditions during the last year, and have engaged to return the appropriation in specific annual contributions. Of course, it is perfectly obvious that some definite proportion or given amount must be required as the annual contribution. Therefore, whenever possible, without overburdening the church, ten per cent. of the amount received is asked, but in several instances a smaller sum has been named. This plan is certainly deserving of commendation as encouraging self-respect and independence in the churches aided.

2. The Loan Fund.—Your Committee desires to call special attention to the sphere and business-like method of this new fund. It was inaugurated in the Assembly of 1891, and consists for the most part of funds received from the bequest of the late Mrs. Robert L. Stewart. This is considered as a permanent fund, and enables our Board to carry on with a measure of success a new and most valuable department of its work, namely, loans to churches upon a business basis, at a low rate of interest, and to be returned in annual installments, running from five to ten years. Its sphere is especially among such congregations as need only the accommodation of time to enable them to complete their buildings without aid in the way of gifts from the Church at large.

The applications for loans from this fund during the last year numbered 22, and amounted in the aggregate to $72,050. After a careful examination of these applications, loans were made to 16 churches to an amount in the aggregate of $59,250.

These loans have been very widely and evenly distributed over the country: 4 in the East, 4 in the Central States, 2 in the Mississippi Valley, 3 in the Northwest and 3 on the Pacific Coast.

The first installments of annual repayments upon loans made last year have begun to come in; but as it is manifest that the inauguration of this work could hardly have been undertaken at a more unfavorable and painful financial crisis, it is not strange and is no ground for discouragement that in two instances additional time has been asked.

3. And now a word as to the Manse Fund.—This, too, is a comparatively new feature in the Board's work, dating back only to 1885. Eleven applications for loans from this fund came over from the previous year, being postponed because available means were exhausted. To these have been added 46 new ones, making in all 57, aggregating $27,075, which have been before the Board. To 40 of these loans amounting to $15,600 have been made. To 3, under very exceptional circumstances, grants have been made to the extent of $875. These loans have been distributed among 19 Synods and 39 Presbyteries. Geographically, more than one-half are upon the eastern side of the Mississippi River, and of those upon the western side nearly one-half again are in the comparatively Eastern States of Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri. There remains a great work to do in this department in the broad field still further West, embracing nearly two-thirds of our land.

Now, from all these statements, it will be seen that, despite the financial difficulties of the past year, the aggregate of the work of the Board in all its departments has been greater than ever before. The number of churches reached in all departments is two hundred and thirty-six, and the aggregate amount pledged for their aid $165,000.

Your Committee desires to call the attention of the Assembly to the fact that it is the aim of the Board to have all its mortgages protected by insurance, and therefore the number of policies that it holds is almost as large as the number of mortgages. The care of these mortgages and their stated renewal is a very important department in the work of the Board. Another thing. Those members of the Assembly who are acquainted with congregations who contemplate building will do well to remind such that the Board issues a pamphlet containing a number of designs by well-known architects which will be sent to those who desire it for the nominal price of twenty-five cents. The Board can also furnish at a very small expense the working drawings and specifications of many of the designs presented.

To a comparatively new condition of things also the attention of the Assembly needs to be drawn. The Board has received a number of applications for aid in building chapels for Sabbath-schools. It is needless to say that it cannot enter indiscriminately into this work, but such aid may be given under the rules when such chapels are outposts of churches and have the prospect of themselves developing into churches. In this connection the question naturally arises: May not Sabbath-schools properly make contributions for this specific work?

Your Committee desires also to point, as former Committees have done, to the great and imminent danger to the work of this Board, which arises from strong Presbyteries failing to look beyond their own bounds, and thus doing nothing for the general work. Should not the larger and stronger Presbyteries and Synods, at any rate, give to this Board more than they draw from its treasury? Is it not a crying shame that Synods like Baltimore and Indiana, and Iowa and Ohio, should ask from this Board of Church Erection more than they give to it?

In conclusion, it is evident that the financial pressure during the past year has restrained many churches from building. It is also certain that there will be with returning prosperity an unusual number of applications which should be properly met. The largest number of these applications will of course come from the great Home Missionary field of the West. Every week from three to four new churches are organized as the normal growth of our great denomination in those new regions, and almost without exception these churches appeal to the Board to establish them in permanent homes. But, in addition to these, the rapidly increasing Presbyterian population of New England must be provided for in some way. Also, the constantly growing work among the Freedmen must be taken care of. Then there are the needs of the multiplying villages in the new industrial South, largely the homes of enterprising settlers from the North, and last, but not least, the work of this Board must keep pace with the steady influx of population into all our older cities, an increase that in many instances outruns the ability of local Church Extension resources. Now it is the conviction of your Committee that if every church in our vast body were urged to make a contribution to this cause, the Board would have all the money needed. Only about one-half of our churches gave to this work during the last year. Why did not the other half give? Very likely, because they were not asked to give. Of a very large proportion of them this is true at any rate. Pastors and Sessions chiefly are at fault in this matter. Very few and far between are the congregations that would fail to respond to an appeal in behalf of this work if it were properly presented; if it were presented carefully and conscientiously, and both sides of the work emphasized; if it were looked at as something more than a matter of bricks and mortar, joists and shingles; if it were held up before the people as a privilege, as an opportunity to have a share in the building of houses, however modest and humble they may be, that in their sacred character and use symbolize that other House not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens.

In concluding this Report, your Committee desires to recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly does most heartily approve the work of the Board of Church Erection, and commends it to the liberality of all our churches.

Resolved, 2. That Synods and Presbyteries be urged to adopt such measures as will secure an annual contribution to this cause from every church under their care.

Resolved, 3. That, in the judgment of this Assembly, not less than $150,000 should be contributed by the churches for this work during the coming year.

Resolved, 4. That it should be the aim of the larger and stronger Synods to contribute annually to this Board more than they ask from its treasury.

Resolved, 5. That churches making special contributions to particular churches be earnestly advised to send such contributions to the Board.

Resolved, 6. That our Sabbath-schools be urged to include contributions to this Board in their annual gifts, these contributions to be used for the erection of chapels for Sabbath-school work on our Home Missionary fields.

Resolved, 7. That the records of the Board, which have been examined, be approved as far as written.

The Committee recommends that the following members of the Board, whose term of office now expires, be reëlected: Ministers—David R. Frazer, D.D., Charles T. Haley, D.D., David Magie, D.D., R. P. H. Vail, D.D.; Elders—Frederick W. Baldwin, Robert Jaffray, Hezekiah King.

During the year two vacancies have occurred, caused by the resignation of the Rev. Howard Duffield, D.D., and Rev. C. Cuthbert Hall, D.D.

To fill these vacancies your Committee nominates the Rev. N. W. Conkling, D.D., and Rev. W. A. Holliday, D.D.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of Committee,

MAURICE E. WILSON, Chairman.

The Committee also presented a supplementary Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Erection would further report that, since the foregoing Report was accepted by the Assembly, the following Overture has been placed in the hands of the Committee:

"The Presbytery of Grand Rapids respectfully overtures the General Assembly to recommend to the Board of Church Erection the subjoined amendment to the rule pertaining to the return of money by churches which have borrowed money from said Board in the construction of their church buildings.

"As the rule now stands any church contributing $100 per annum to the Board of Church Erection can have that amount deducted from the original loan until the loan is paid.

"We respectfully overture the General Assembly that in view of the fact that many of our churches which have borrowed from the Board in times past are not able, from year to year, to contribute $100, and still are desirous to cancel their indebtedness, that the Assembly recommend to the Board to change the above rule so that any church indebted to the Board, contributing $25 or more per annum, can have the said amount applied to the liquidation of the debt."

The Committee finds that the Overture is in error in regard to the rule as to repayment to which it refers. The rule specifies not $100, but 10 per cent. of the amount of the grant as the definite annual contribution, and as the average amount of grants is $500, the average required contribution would be $50.

Moreover, by the additional rule of the Assembly of 1893, all churches now receiving grants are at liberty to specify any sum, however small, as the proposed annual contribution.

It does not seem therefore to your Committee that any additional rule is at present needed.

In behalf of the Committee,

MAURICE E. WILSON, Chairman.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Education was taken up and the recommendations adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Education respectfully report to the General Assembly as follows:

The Committee have examined with due care the Minutes of the Board since the last approval by the General Assembly, and also the Seventy-fifth Annual Report of the Board. The Minutes and the Report together present a summary of the work of the Board for the past year, and it is with pleasure that the Committee commends the fidelity, wisdom and tact which have characterized the entire action of the Board.

The year has been in some respects one of trial. During it, peculiar and delicate questions arose which demanded immediate answer, and for which there was no precedent to serve as guide; changes occurred in the official staff and membership of the Board which introduced a number of men new to the duties devolved upon them equal almost to one-fourth of the entire membership of the Board; and the ability of the Board to meet demands upon it was severely tested by an effort out of decreased contributions by the churches and Sabbath-schools to subserve the wishes of the last General Assembly by increasing the amount of aid granted to each student from $80 to $110 for the year. Despite the difficulties, the accomplishments of the Board have in them prophecy of power for the future beyond what has as yet been attained. And though the maximum of $110 per year to each aid-receiving student was not reached, yet it will gratify the General Assembly to know that an increase of $20 for each student over the grants of the previous year was made.

Of the changes in the official personnel of the Board it is proper to speak briefly. The retirement from service as Corresponding Secretary, after many years of single-hearted zeal, of the Rev. D. W. Poor, D.D., makes more than a passing notice proper. Your Committee desires to acknowledge the eminent services of the Rev. D. W. Poor, D.D., who for seventeen years was the efficient and devoted Corresponding Secretary of this Board, and who, during the past year, on account of advanced age and failing strength, found it necessary to resign the responsible duties of this office. The Church gratefully remembers the large and loving service he has rendered as an officer of the Board of Education, and sympathizes with him in the sore afflictions through which he has been called to pass.

Dr. Poor's successor, the Rev. Edward B. Hodge, D.D., entered upon the duties of the office about December 1, 1893, and has had as yet not quite six months of active service. Your Committee recognizes the difficulties which necessarily confronted him, and desires to express gratitude to Almighty God that this very great interest seems not only not to have suffered from the change, but to have received very material impetus from it. The Committee congratulates the General Assembly that the choice was so wisely made, and believes that its wisdom will become more manifest with each succeeding year.

Among the questions that have passed under the review of your Committee, there are three which should receive the attention of the Assembly.

1. The first question concerns the action of the Board in the matters at issue between the General Assembly and the Trustees of Lane Seminary. The instructions given to the Board by the General Assembly of 1893 concerning aid to students in seminaries were explicit (see Minutes, p. 161), and the Board loyally obeyed. But early in the year such a change occurred in the status of Lane students, by reason of the action of the Board of Trustees of the Seminary, as to make it necessary for the Board of Education to exercise its discretion in the matter concerning which instructions had been given. Without traversing the history of the relation of the Board to the students in Lane Seminary further than has been done, in view of the character of the official notice given by the Trustees of Lane Seminary to the Board of Education, under date of September 14, 1893, your Committee thinks it wise to commend the action of the Board in reference to aid-receiving students at Lane Seminary, especially since, by direct resolution of the Board passed at the time of the action, the whole matter was made subject to report to this General Assembly for further instructions.

2. The second question concerns the division of funds among students in the different grades of schools whose students become applicants for aid from the Board. Your Committee has heard explicit statements from representatives of the Board assigning the reasons for withholding aid from students not yet entered upon college curricula, except in certain special cases, and for continuing to give it to students who are in the latter part of their Seminary career. This course was determined on deliberately by the Board after restudying the subject, as asked to do by the last General Assembly, and after personal interviews with professors and correspondence with teachers in all grades of schools. Your Committee is of the opinion that the action of the Board is in accordance with sound business principle and should be heartily sustained by the General Assembly.

3. The third question concerns the rule of the Board on the subject of its aid-receiving students marrying while in course of preparation for work. The rule ought to be beyond any possibility of being misunderstood. Whether its violations have been from willfulness, misjudgment or misunderstanding your Committee cannot say, but the fact remains that four candidates for the ministry were dropped from the roll of the Board for this breach of its rules within the year. Your Committee think that the rule should be modified to read as recommended in the Report of the Board, viz.:

"III.—7.—The payments to the candidates shall cease regularly at the close of the collegiate year; or earlier, when the time for which they were recommended by the Presbytery has expired; and also as soon as it is determined that they are suffering from prolonged ill-health which may unfit them for the work of the ministry; or as soon as their private circumstances enable them to dispense with assistance: and if they have been manifestly improvident, or have contracted debts without reasonable prospect of payment, or if they have married since the last payment, or if they have received assistance from any other educational Board or society, the entire three months' appropriation shall be forfeited."

Your Committee is of the opinion that the amount of work which is being performed by the Board and its value to the Church of the future should be more generally understood by the churches than it seems to be. To watch over the progress of the education of 913 young men is no small task; to provide the aid they need is not a smaller task. Nine hundred and thirteen students, this is the number aided by the Board in the past year, an increase of 45 over the year preceding. Nine hundred and thirteen men, almost the equal in number of an infantry regiment of the regular army; in the onward march of the army of the King of kings it is a regiment, the flower of the host, being drilled and equipped to furnish leaders for the conquest of the incoming century.

If the Board had given the amount recommended by the last General Assembly to each of these students, there would have been expended in this direction alone $99,770 or $50,000 more than the churches and Sabbath-schools gave for this end during the year. If the Board shall be directed to maintain its present ratio of aid, the Assembly must take some measures to insure the putting of these facts before the churches.

Your Committee is gratified to know that the number of candidates for the ministry is increasing, but the fact will cease to be a source of gratification unless the number of churches contributing to this Board be also largely increased. More than four thousand churches gave nothing to this cause last year. Of course, therefore, there is debt. Were it not for the legacies received, which amounted to $63,000 during the year, there would have been a great debt to-day upon the Board: and as it is, the Board has been compelled to exhaust its reserve fund, and is actually in debt to its Permanent Investment Fund $5000.

It seems vastly strange to your Committee that dead Presbyterians should be of more value to the work of the Church than living ones.

For this condition of affairs there are two possible remedies. One is to increase the income; the other to decrease the outgo. Each of these is proximately within the power of the Presbyteries: and that such power may be made effective, each Commissioner to this Assembly in making his report to Presbytery of his fidelity to his commission should rehearse the particular need of this Board, and appeal for increased gifts.

Furthermore, Presbyterial Standing Committees ought to examine with very great care the financial possibilities of the families out of which the applicants for aid come; and when it is possible for the parents or families to aid, such aid should be secured.

In connection with the fact of the insufficiency of the contributions from the churches and Sabbath-schools your Committee has had brought to its attention the desirability of making permanent provision for numbers of students in theological seminaries by means of scholarship funds whose income should be forever applied to the support of such students as might meet the conditions upon which the funds were given. Two thousand dollars invested at five per centum per annum would yield the net one hundred dollars per year now given by the Board; and your Committee thinks the General Assembly should urge Presbyterial and Synodical Committees to put this matter before the churches earnestly and persistently till the number of scholarships becomes sufficient to serve as supplement to the aid made possible through the annual contributions of the churches to the Board.

In conclusion, your Committee calls the attention of the Assembly to a far greater need than any that has been mentioned, and that is the need of more men for the vast work that will confront the Church as she passes through the opening doors of the twentieth century. The very Providences that are to-day operating to cripple industries are increasing the burden that the Church must bear. Immigration is pouring in upon us three-quarters of a million of souls each year. Political and social unrest is on the increase. The poorer classes are growing poorer, and half-intelligent efforts towards practical realization of the ideas of socialism are making all efforts for their evangelization by a Church which is supposed to be made up of the rich and capitalistic classes ever more difficult. The need for a ministry educated wisely up to the demands of the hour is great, very great. The need for more money to provide such a ministry is great, very great. We have as a Church men out of the great middle class ready to enter the field. We have the institutions which can grandly perform the educational work needed. We have in our membership men possessed of the money sufficient to enable us to meet the needs of the hour if only we can get it. If only we can get it we have the Board of Education that can well and wisely use it; and we can get all the money needed if only the person who has it and this mighty need of the Church can be brought into right relations each to each.

Members of the 106th General Assembly, your Committee commends to your care and prayer, to your heads, to your hearts, and to your hands the Board of Education, and offers the following recommendations:

1. That the minutes of the Board for the year be approved.

2. That Rev. Samuel A. Mutchmore, D.D., Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., Rev. Charles Wadsworth, Jr., George W. Bailey, M.D., Charles H. Matthews, Esq., and George Pierce, Esq., whose terms of service expire this year, be reëlected.

3. That Rule iii, Sec. 7, of Rules of the Board be amended to read as follows:

"III.—7.—The payments to the candidates shall cease regularly at the close of the collegiate year; or earlier, when the time for which they were recommended by the Presbytery has expired; and also as soon as it is determined that they are suffering from prolonged ill-health which may unfit them for the work of the ministry; or as soon as their private circumstances enable them to dispense with assistance; and if they have been manifestly improvident, or have contracted debts without reasonable prospect of payment, or if they have married since the last payment, or if they have received assistance from any other educational Board or society, the entire three months' appropriation shall be forfeited."

4. That the action of the Board in regard to aid-receiving students at Lane Seminary be approved and commended.

5. That the action of the Board exercising discretionary power in the granting of aid to students below college grades, be approved.

6. That the Presbyteries, through their Standing Committees on Education, be enjoined to see to it that an intelligent presentation of the work, fruits and claims of this Board be made from their pulpits at least annually in order that sufficient funds may be provided for the maintenance and enlargement of the work of this Board.

7. That the Synods and Presbyteries be advised to direct the attention of the churches to the need of donations and legacies for the foundation of scholarships in the theological seminaries under the supervision of the General Assembly.

8. That the Assembly does hereby call upon the Church for at least $150,000 for the work of the coming year.

9. That the Assembly expresses its high appreciation of the faithful labors of this Board and its executive officers.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

The following supplementary Report of the Committee was also received and adopted:

The Standing Committee on Education present the following supplementary Report on Overture No. 219, being an announcement from the Presbytery of West Chester that said Presbytery will care for its own students for the ministry below collegiate grades, and at the same time will urge its churches to so increase gifts as not to decrease its contributions to the Board of Education.

Your Committee recommend that the action of the Presbytery be commended.

In behalf of the Committee,
RICHARD S. HOLMES, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned until Monday, May 28, at 9 A.M., and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 28, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The minutes of Saturday's sessions were read and approved.

It was ordered that a Committee be appointed to answer the protest of the Rev. N. D. Hillis, D.D., and others; the Committee is as follows: Rev. G. W. F. Birch, D.D., Elders Thomas McDougall and Ralph E. Prime.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a further Report, which was received, and the recommendations adopted as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures recommend the following references of papers, viz.:

To the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures:

Overture No. 213, being a Memorial from the National League for the Protection of American Institutions on a proposed sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Overture No. 214, a Memorial on the Louisiana Lottery.

Overture No. 215, a Memorial from H. Scott Howell, Esq., on the Children's Home Society.

Overture No. 217, from the Presbytery of Grand Rapids, on an Inexpensive Newspaper.

Overture No. 218, from the same Presbytery, on a Short Creed.

Overture No. 220, a Memorial from E. J. Levino, on the Manufacture of Smoking Opium.

Overture No. 221, a Memorial from sundry Choristers and Organists, on the subject of Church Music.

Overture No. 225, a Memorial on Lynch Law.

To the Standing Committee on Church Erection:

Overture No. 216, from the Presbytery of Grand Rapids, on the Rules of the Board of Church Erection.

To the Standing Committee on Church Polity:

Overture No. 224, a Memorial from the Joint Committee of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches on Federation, on a Plan of Federation.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures also respectfully reports on papers referred to it as follows:

Overture No. 57, from the Presbytery of Carlisle, asking the Assembly to instruct the Christian Commission on the Army to use its influence to prevent, if possible, a proposed reduction in the number of Army Chaplains. We recommend that the Assembly instruct the members of the Christian Commission already appointed by it to act in conjunction with the other members of said Commission, and use their best endeavors to secure Chaplains in sufficient numbers to meet the religious needs of our entire Army.

Overture No. 201, being a Memorial from the Presbytery of New Brunswick, in the case of William J. Krieger. In answer to the Presbytery of New Brunswick asking instructions in the case of Mr. William J. Krieger, the Committee recommend in the matter of the relation which students who have been received under the care of Presbytery, sustained to the Presbytery receiving them, the following interpretation of former deliverances of the General Assembly be affirmed and declared by this Assembly, viz.:

That it is the duty of such students, whether receiving aid from the Board of Education or not, to consult their Presbytery before changing their church relation or the school in which they are pursuing their studies; that it is the privilege of the Presbytery to direct their education within reasonable limits in schools approved by the General Assembly, and to prohibit their attendance at institutions of learning disapproved by the same. This interpretation of the law is obvious, because:

1. The recommendations of the Church upon the subject of candidates are, that the candidate usually comes under the care of that Presbytery to which he most naturally belongs, and he shall be deemed most naturally to belong to that Presbytery in whose bounds he has been brought up and lived for the most part, and where he is best known.

2. If, however, a student under care of Presbytery should desire for greater convenience to enter into a different Presbytery, upon his offering satisfactory reasons he may be dismissed. In such case the Presbytery to which he removes shall not receive or admit him to come under trials upon his having a certificate as a regular church member only, but he shall bring a testimonial from the Presbytery or several neighboring ministers where he lived, recommending him as a candidate for the ministry, of exemplary piety and holiness of conversation, nor shall anything else be deemed a sufficient recommendation.

3. That candidates should be required to put themselves under the care of Presbytery as soon as possible, and receive careful supervision during their entire course ("Minutes" of N. S. Assembly, 1856, p. 223, and 1854, p. 506, Moore's Digest, p. 365).

4. A rule of the Board of Education (Report of 1893, p. 41) is as follows: "The Board can rely only upon the Education Committee of each Presbytery for the regular care of its own candidates, which should include the constant exercise of a parental oversight over them in spiritual things, and the counsel they need as to their mode of preparation, their place of study, and their trials, and the occupation of their time when not engaged in study, in employments which tend to qualify them for effective usefulness as pastors or evangelists."

This rule has been enforced since the reunion.

5. In the case before us, the Presbytery of Dubuque, for reasons sufficient in their judgment, declined to dismiss the candidate, William J. Krieger, to the Presbytery of New Brunswick. The candidate, however, obtained a letter of dismission from the church of his home to the church in Princeton. This we deem to have been irregular and wrong, as the policy of the church is, that the church letter of the candidate should remain within the bounds of the Presbytery under whose care he has placed himself. We recommend that candidates be not allowed to take their church letters out of the bounds of the Presbytery which has charge over them until they are dismissed to the care of another Presbytery into whose bounds they may then be taken.

6. In the case before us, considering all the circumstances, we would recommend that the Presbytery of Dubuque dismiss the candidate, William J. Krieger, to the care of the Presbytery of New Brunswick.

We make these recommendations under the guidance of Sec. 5, of Chapter xii, of the Form of Government, which reads as follows: "To the General Assembly also belongs the power of deciding in all controversies respecting doctrine and discipline," the word discipline being used in a governmental sense.

Overture No. 203, a Memorial from Rev. Samuel A. Mutchmore, D.D., asking authority to sell certain church property in the city of Philadelphia, for which he is Trustee. We recommend the following action:

Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby instructs its Moderator and Stated Clerk to sign the necessary certificates and papers to enable the Rev. Samuel A. Mutchmore, D.D., to dispose legally of the property named and described in his Memorial.

In behalf of the Committe,

WILLIS G. CRAIG, Chairman.

The Judicial Committee reported:

Judicial Case No. 3, viz., J. L. Woods and F. E. Shearer vs. The Synod of California, for refusing to take exception to the records of the Presbytery of San José.

Your Committee recommend that the complaint be dismissed: 1. Because there does not appear to be any sufficient ground on which to lodge a complaint; and 2, because the complainants should more properly have sought redress in the matter complained of by way of review and control. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 5, a complaint of the Presbytery of La Crosse against the Presbytery of Mattoon and the Synod of Illinois, in the case of the Rev. J. H. Lish.

The Judicial Committee find that the complaint is not in order, for the reason that due notice has not been given to the Synod of Illinois, and that the Presbytery of La Crosse, not being subject and submitting to the jurisdiction of the Presbytery of Mattoon, or the Synod of Illinois, has not the right of complaining against them (Book of Discipline, Sec. 83), and that the complainant should seek redress by way of Overture, Memorial or Petition.

Judicial Case No. 6, the complaint of John J. McCook et al. against the action and decision of the Synod of New York on the twenty-first day of October, 1892, in Synod's Judicial Case No. 3.

The action and decision complained of are: That the said Synod in the city of Albany, and on the day above stated, found a certain paper purporting to be a complaint, signed by Rev. Francis Brown and one hundred and thirteen others, against the action of the Presbytery of New York in sustaining the ruling of the Moderator in reference to a Committee of Prosecution, to be in order.

The complainants admit that said paper was a complaint in due form, upon proper notice, and in order, so far as made by Rev. Francis Brown, but assert that it was not a lawful or constitutional complaint as provided for by the Book of Discipline in respect of the 113 other persons whose names are attached to the said paper, for the reason that none of said 113 other persons had signed or given to the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of New York, the judicatory complained of, written notice of the complaint, with the reasons therefor, within the constitutional time required by Sec. 84 of the Book of Discipline, but that said 113 persons had, as matter of fact, signed said paper long after the expiration of said time. And such appears to be the fact.

It further appears by the statements and admissions respectively of the complainant and of the representatives of the Synod of New York that this complaint was brought before the General Assembly, sitting in Washington in May, 1893. It was found in order and referred to a Judicial Commission. At the trial it was found that some of the original papers had not been sent up. The proceedings were thereupon suspended, and the Synod was instructed to send the missing papers to the Assembly of 1894.*

At the meeting of the Synod of New York in October, 1893, the complaint of Rev. Francis Brown (being this case), yet remaining undisposed of, was taken up and dismissed on the ground, in effect, that in the General Assembly of 1893 the same Judicial Case in which the action complained of arose had been heard on the merits and final judgment had been rendered therein by the highest Court of the Church, and, in the opinion of the Synod, that judgment of the General Assembly disposed of all interlocutory questions in that case wherever pending. So that, although the Synod of New York declared the complaint signed by the Rev. Francis Brown and 113 others to be in order, it has since dismissed that complaint, and so far reversed any error it had committed.

It clearly appears, therefore, that no practical benefit can result from reversal of the action of Synod. Action looking to such reversal is unnecessary. The particular act or practice complained of in this case, however, to wit: the appending or adding to a complaint, notice of which was given in time, names which were not placed thereon until after the constitutional time had elapsed, should be condemned. Synod should have stricken the 113 names from the complaint of Dr. Brown and permitted it to stand as his complaint alone. But having dismissed the complaint, it no doubt thought that all questions were disposed of by the dismissal.

We, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That it is unnecessary at this time for the General Assembly to take any action looking to the reversal of the action of the Synod of New York complained of by John J. McCook and others, inasmuch as the Synod has dismissed the complaint of Rev. Francis Brown, D.D., and others, on which the complaint to the General Assembly was founded. But it is expedient that the General Assembly put upon record an explicit ruling that a complaint against the action of a judicatory cannot lawfully and constitutionally be signed by persons other than those only who have signed the same or given notice thereof within the ten days' constitutional limit of time. And Synod should have stricken from the complaint the 113 names, and let it stand as the complaint of him only who signed in time the notice thereof. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 7, being an appeal by H. H. Hammond, E. H. Kerr and L. W. O'Brien against the action of the Synod of Ohio in dismissing the Appeal taken by said parties from the action of the Presbytery of Dayton in the matter of said Hammond, Kerr and O'Brien vs. Rev. W. F. McCauley, a minister in said

*See Minutes, 1893, pp. 152, 153.

Presbytery. Your Committee recommends that the Appeal to the General Assembly be dismissed because not in order, the appellants not being present, either in person or by counsel, to prosecute their Appeal, as required by Sec. 97 of the Book of Discipline. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 8, being a complaint of L. W. O'Brien and E. H. Kerr against the action of the Synod of Ohio in dismissing the complaint of said parties made to the action of the Presbytery of Dayton in adopting the Report of the Judicial Committee of said Presbytery recommending that the charges in the case of said Kerr and O'Brien vs. Rev. W. F. McCauley, a minister in said Presbytery, be ignored. It is recommended that the complaint be dismissed for insufficiency. Adopted.

Judicial Case No. 9, being a complaint by L. W. O'Brien and E. H. Kerr against the action of the Synod of Ohio in dismissing the complaint of said complainants made to the action of the Presbytery of Dayton in adopting the Report and recommendation of the Judicial Committee of said Presbytery recommending that the complaint In Re L. W. O'Brien and E. H. Kerr against the Session of Wayne Avenue Presbyterian Church, of Dayton, Ohio, be dismissed. Your Committee report that they find the complaint not in order and also the assigned reasons insufficient, and therefore recommend that the complaint be dismissed. Adopted.

The Judicial Committee further recommend, in connection with Judicial Case No. 5, the following action:

WHEREAS, No provision is to be found in the Book of Discipline for the redress, judicially, of grievances of one judicatory against another; therefore,

Resolved, That a Special Committee of three be appointed by the Moderator to consider whether there be occasion to amend the Book of Discipline in that regard, and, if they shall so determine, to report to this Assembly a suitable Overture to be sent down to the Presbyteries, which, if adopted, will provide judicially for the review of such grievances.

Rev. William C. Young, D.D., on behalf of the Committee of Conference on Colored Work, reported that the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, had declined to adopt the Report of its Committee on the same subject. He recommended, therefore, that no action be taken on the Overtures on the same subject referred to the Standing Committee on the Freedmen. The recommendation was adopted.

Dr. Young also presented the Report of the Special Committee on Colored Work, which was received, and ordered to be printed in the "Minutes" for information, after which the Committee was discharged with thanks for services rendered. The Report is as follows:

The Committee of Conference on Colored Work report as follows:

Your Committee met with the Committee on Colored Evangelization of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in the city of Birmingham, Alabama, on January 12, 1894. The following paper was submitted by the Executive Committee, as the basis of discussion:

"Since the two Churches are already practically agreed as to the thing to be done in the work of evangelizing the Negroes, to wit: The thorough education of a Godly ministry, the daily religious training of colored youth in denominational schools, and the constant presentation of the Gospel directly to the people by pastors and evangelists, it is proposed:

"1. To unite the work of the two Churches in behalf of the Negroes in an effort to build up an independent Negro Presbyterian Church, or, failing to agree upon this, to bring the work of the two Churches into closer sympathy by practical coöperation in every way possible."

The first day was spent in free and informal discussion of the whole question brought before the conference by this paper. The following Report was finally agreed upon unanimously.

"The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the Presbyterian Church in the United States are agreed:

"1. That we recognize the solemn duty laid upon us by our common Lord to work for the evangelization of the Negroes in our country.

"2. That we believe that this work can be better done if we work together than as at present, separately.

"3. That the entire work now done by both Assemblies shall hereafter be conducted together, and to the work so conducted we pledge our continued confidence, prayers, contributions, and moral support.

"4. In view of the fact that the work done by the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America has been conducted under the corporate name of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, in whose name property is held, and to which bequests have been made, and it being advisable for legal reasons that the future work of the two Churches should be conducted under the same corporate power, it is agreed that said Board, constituted as hereinafter provided, shall manage and control the work of the two Assemblies, and shall make annual Reports to both Assemblies.

"5. Said Board shall consist of twenty-two members, fifteen of whom have been or may be appointed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, according to existing law, and seven others who shall be selected by the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and, if vested rights or charter requirements shall make it necessary, the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America shall make legal and effective the selection of the said seven members.

"6. We make these mutual concessions because we hope we can unitedly do better the Master's work for these people, the brethren from the South changing their present responsibilities and powers over a limited work, to take part in the much larger and more important work to be done by both Churches; the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, inviting the assistance and coöperation of their brethren of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, because of their local knowledge and experience, and their vital personal interest in the success of these efforts to Christianize and elevate this race, who are all around them, touching them at every point."

In view of the fact that the General Assembly at Nashville has not adopted this Report, your Committee simply present it with the recommendation that no action upon it be taken by this Assembly.

While regretting this result of the conference, your Committee feel assured that some good has been accomplished. The Report was given to the Press, and discussion of the whole work of Negro evangelization followed, which it is hoped will increase the interest in this work in both Churches.

Your Committee found the Committee on Colored Evangelization in full sympathy with the efforts made by our Church to give the Gospel to the Negroes of the South, and no more earnest, zealous and wise friends of the Negro can be found anywhere than these brethren.

In behalf of the Committee,

R. R. SUTHERLAND, Chairman.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions was taken up as unfinished business, and the resolutions were adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions have been gratified by the carefully prepared Report of the Board to this Assembly. It is a document which should have wide circulation. It shows that the work of the Board is being wisely conducted in all directions. The 1821 home missionaries are toiling among the Scotch Canadians of New England, the mountain whites of the South, the masses of the large cities, the new communities of the far West and the exceptional populations of the country. In line with the recommendations of previous Assemblies, the Board has pressed its work as far as possible among the foreign populations, especially among the Bohemians and Italians, and for the first time it has undertaken work among the Jews, work which has been attended with signal success. Attention has also been given to the recommendation of the last Assembly regarding school work among exceptional populations in cities, though lack of funds has prevented any considerable work in that direction.

Among the special features of the Board's work we are glad to emphasize the splendid devotion and success of the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions. Notwithstanding the hard times they raised last year the princely sum of $335,659.79. Their 123 schools are widely scattered among the exceptional populations of our country. Their 368 teachers are faithful, consecrated men and women, and their 9061 scholars are being taught in a way which will ere long give a powerful uplift to the people from whom they came. This school work should be understood to be a department of Home Missions and to be under the control of the Board. Its value is shown by the fact that during the sixteen years of its existence not less than 85 churches have grown either directly or indirectly out of it. The new Superintendent of School Work, the Rev. George F. McAfee, has managed this department with marked skill and success. The Home Mission Monthly has maintained a high standard of excellence, and is one of the few magazines in the whole country which last year increased its subscription list. It is now considerably more than self-supporting, while the merging of the children's periodical, Children's Work for Children, into a little magazine called Over Sea and Land, devoted to both Home and Foreign Missions, brings missionary information to the young in a delightfully attractive form.

Worthy of special emphasis, too, is the work among the Sabbath-schools and the Young People's Societies. Under the efficient direction of the Rev. Thornton B. Penfield, this department of the Board's work is being strongly developed, and with the most gratifying success arousing an enthusiasm for Home Missions among the young, and materially increasing their contributions.

This has been a year of sore anxiety. Financial storms have swept over the land, bringing furrows into faces and white hairs into heads. The cry of the hungry has been heard in our streets, and many have been the perplexities of men who have not wanted for bread. In common with all other agencies, this Board has suffered. There has been no lack of willingness on the part of the people, but they simply have not been able to give as largely as before, while the imperative needs of the destitute demanded the first attention. The year opened with a debt of $66,407.75, $39,157.02 of which was on Home Missions, and the remainder on Woman's Work. As the months passed, it became evident that it would be impossible to lessen this debt, and that in spite of every effort it would increase. All possible economy was exercised, but notwithstanding the most strenuous exertion, the Board has been forced to come to this Assembly with the enormous debt of $258,645.55.

Yet the impression made by this statement needs to be modified by several considerations; $9425.75 of this amount has been borrowed from the Sustentation Fund, and as this is virtually a department of the Board's work, it can hardly be called a debt in the ordinary sense; $101,598.29 is on Woman's Work for Teachers and Chapels, and the women will take care of that. When did the women ever fail? So that the debt on Home Missions proper is really but $147,621.51, and of this almost half is last year's debt. Moreover, the Board has some assets which are likely to become available in the near future, which will still further reduce this. So the condition of the Board, though serious, is by no means hopeless or even discouraging.

Still the need is urgent. The Board has gone to the limit in borrowing. Money must be promptly provided to meet the Board's obligations at the bank, and especially to keep up the payments to the missionaries. True, the Board expects to realize ere long on some of its legacies, but these are not available now. The settlement of estates is a long process, particularly when complicated by litigation. Meantime, the Board must have funds or the work will suffer. We are profoundly grateful for the legacies, but the work of a great Church cannot wait for the dead. God speaks to the living.

The financial embarrassment of the Board has resulted in suffering and disaster in many directions. In January, the Board was obliged to announce that it could undertake no more new work. What did that mean? New opportunities were opening. New calls were loud. The mighty progress of our country was not stayed. Hard times were indeed paralyzing business; but perishing souls were as numerous as ever. Aye, in proportion as men's affairs became more troubled, the Lord's work became more pressing. "Man's extremity is God's opportunity," and God works through human agencies. If ever there was a time when the Church should have pushed its evangelistic work, it was this last year when men's hearts were tender and open to the truth. But at that supreme hour, the Board was forced to call a halt. On page 4 of the Board's Annual Report are two sentences which we read with a feeling of humiliation—not for the Board which could not help it, but for the great Presbyterian Church: "Only $38,945.75 was expended on new work during the year. More than half of this was for the Indian work transferred to us from the Foreign Board." Think of it! A numerous and wealthy denomination numbering nearly a million of America's best people, in the midst of all the imperial opportunities of the nineteenth century, giving less than $20,000 for the extension of the Gospel among their own race! Is that the measure of our zeal, and devotion, and liberality, even in hard times? Should we be content to barely hold our own? May the Spirit of God fire our souls with the trumpet call of old, "There remaineth, therefore, yet very much land to be possessed; go ye up and possess it."

And what shall I say of the suffering of the home missionaries? True, the Board has paid them with greater promptness than ever, and has granted them the full amounts asked for, save in exceptional cases, and where Presbyteries themselves recommended reductions. But in numbers of instances, the congregations have been unable to keep their pledges on account of the stress of the times. Men have been out of employment or conducting a losing business, and unable to adequately support their families. In some parts of the country, that is an exceptional home missionary who has received the full amount promised by the congregation towards his scanty salary, while not infrequently the missionary has been unable even to cash his check from the Board without difficulty and delay.

And in this connection let us not forget a class too often ignored, but whose devotion and toil are a mighty though silent factor in this great work—the home missionaries' wives. As a rule, they are women of education and refinement, who have been nurtured amid comfortable surroundings. Only God knows how heavily the burden presses upon their hearts. They do all the work of their households without help—the cooking and sweeping, the washing and ironing, the mending of clothes and the caring for children. And, besides, they are usually the presidents of the Women's Societies, teachers in the Sabbath-schools and the indefatigable pastors' assistants, calling on the sick and the stranger and the needy. How often their feet are weary, and their backs aching and their hearts sore! Yet their faces are bright, their voices encouraging, their patience sublime. God bless them, every one! Of them the world is not worthy.

How often, too, are the anxieties of the officers and members of the Board remembered? Are they not comfortably situated ministers and laymen? Yes; but they carry burdens heavier than the Church realizes. If you are touched by a single piteous appeal, how must they be moved by hundreds of such appeals? If you are oppressed by the responsibilities of a single congregation, how, think you, must they be oppressed by the burdens of a great denomination's work. Ah, brethren, home missionaries' homes are not the only ones in which there have been care-laden hearts this weary year. In that stately edifice on Fifth avenue, New York, tired, anxious men have toiled far into many a night, and have gone home at last only to toss restlessly through sleepless hours. What herculean efforts they put forth during those months of awful trial! Every month of the year, save one, showed a falling off in receipts, as compared with the preceding year. Banks were closing, institutions of all kinds were crippled, yet the Board borrowed from $10,000 to $20,000 a week all summer long until the aggregate loans reached the stupendous sum of $320,000. What a tribute to the standing of the Home Board! What other institution could have secured such loans at that time of closing banks and timorous capital? In this way the home missionaries received their pay more promptly than ever, in spite of the hard times. All honor to the officers and members of the Board! Brethren, when you pray for the home missionaries, forget not to pray for the anxious and burdened officers and members of the Board.

And let us here and now resolve to coöperate with the Board with renewed loyalty. It is composed of wise, able and loyal men. They give their services ungrudgingly and without compensation. They love the Church, they love the home missionaries and they love the Lord Jesus Christ. Mistakes they may sometimes make. They are fallible like the rest of us, but they are sincerely trying to do the best they can for the advancement of our home missionary interests. Every letter and every application from the field are carefully read; every detail closely inquired into. Let us stand by them and hold up their hands. Let us be slow to criticise and quick to praise. They deserve our heartiest gratitude and support.

Even the seminaries and their students have felt the pressure of this trying year. Heretofore the Board has been able to commission middlers for vacation work and they have done noble service, reviving many moribund churches. But now the Board is compelled to say that no middler can be commissioned this summer. This is not because their labors are not appreciated, but because the Board simply has not the money. So many of our students for the ministry will be sadly crippled this coming year.

And yet there is a brighter side. The falling off in the receipts of the Board has been chiefly in legacies. Last year the legacies amounted to $209,523.27. This year they were but $91,479.35, a difference almost equal to the entire debt of the Board proper. Moreover the churches and Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies gave almost as much as they gave last year. The number of contributing churches was 300 more than ever before in the history of the Board. Deducting churches in foreign lands and among the Freedmen, less than 1000 churches have failed to contribute to the Board, and the majority of these are feeble or vacant. The requests for leaflets and home missionary literature generally were more numerous than ever before, three-quarters of a million copies being necessary to supply the demand. More letters of sympathy and encouragement were received from pastors and laymen than ever before, and more strenuous efforts were made by them for the relief of the Board. Profound is our gratitude for all this loyal and hearty coöperation. We humbly conceive that in the Lord's eyes this has been one of the best years from a missionary view point, for never before have gifts involved so much sacrifice, never before have they represented such conscientiousness and never before have they been followed by such prayers.

And higher than all else is the encouragement born of spiritual awakening. It has been a year of revival power. Statistics are said to be dry, but on page 45 of the Board's Annual Report there is a statement which has all the fascination of a romance. It is this: "Additions on profession of faith, 13,368." What wonderful tidings are these! And still the glorious work goes on. The missionaries tell us that never before have the tokens of God's blessing been so numerous. The financial distress has served to loosen men's hold on worldly things and to make them feel their need of divine aid. Out of all the anxiety and unrest of this troubled time God is speaking to His people.

And so there is the sound of His goings in the tops of the mulberry trees and the watchmen foretelleth an abundance of rain.

Blessed be God, who hath not forgotten His people!

And, brethren, the hope of the future is in the continuance of this season of refreshing. In every mind the uppermost question is, What measures can we devise for the removal of the debt and the stirring of the Church to a sense of its privilege and responsibility? Oh, brethren, there is only one way: bring men close to Christ, and then tell them what Christ requires of them. Of what avail to lay down rules to men in whose heart there burns no fire of love? Patriotism, denominational or local pride are not sure foundations. Home Missions means the salvation of men, and no man has a constraining desire for the salvation of men until he has a constraining love for the Saviour of men. Remember Andrew, who arose from Jesus' feet to first find his own brother and bring him to Jesus. Remember Paul: no sooner had the scales fallen from his eyes, after the Son of God spoke to his soul, than straightway he began to preach Christ. So let us hold up Christ. Let us tell of His love. Let us kindle the flame of devotion to Him in our own hearts and in the hearts of our people. His presence is the secret of power, the source of inspiration, the pledge of victory.

And then let us give these awakened, eager souls information about the work. It will not be necessary to urge them, much less to scold them. Simply tell them the need; but tell it earnestly and often. Half the Board's difficulty arises from the fact that the people are not given an intelligent idea of the work. Too many pastors simply announce, "The annual offering for Home Missions will now be taken up," and the people respond by putting on the plates the change they may happen to have with them. But where the pastor preaches about Home Missions in the pulpit, and prays about it in the prayer meeting, and talks about it in the pastoral calls; where he interests his Session and his Women's Societies, his Sunday-school, and his Young People's Societies; where he makes all his members feel that this is the Lord's work and their work, a mighty and gladdening stream pours into the coffers of the Board, and the chariot wheels do not tarry.

And now, fathers and brethren, what shall be our response to the call of God? Much depends upon this Assembly. The eyes of the whole Church are upon it. The expectation is general that you will give a mighty impetus to the cause of Missions, and heavy will be the responsibility if you fail to do this. The need is urgent, the call is loud, the opportunity glorious. Let us bring ourselves into line with the demands of the hour. The pressure of a great emergency is upon us. Let us rise to it. Let us here highly resolve that this land, discovered under Christian auspices, colonized by Christian men, shall be wholly won for Christ. Our history began with a conflict of nations. It continued with a conflict of civilizations. Now we are engaged in another and mightier warfare—a conflict of moral forces. On one side are arrayed the powers and passions of evil; on the other, the armies of the Lord of Hosts. Let us not waver or doubt the issue. "If God be for us who can be against us?" Let us insist that we have a national religion, even though we do not have a national Church, and that every human being is bound to conform his life to the precepts of that religion no matter with what denomination he may affiliate. There came a critical moment in the battle of Waterloo, when victory and defeat trembled in the balance. But the Iron Commander, instead of flinching, sent forth the command, "Advance along the whole line!" We stand at a like critical hour in the moral conflict of our age, and, like the Duke of Wellington, the Captain of our Salvation sends forth a like command. Be it ours to respond with the courage of faith and the determination of loyalty.

We cannot close this Report without calling the roll of the honored dead. Eight of our home missionaries have fallen on the field of battle:

Rev. John H. Cooter, Rev. John W. McFarland, Rev. Andrew D. Jacke, Rev. George Ross, Rev. George H. Sharpley, Rev. John W. Tait, Rev. Samuel T. Wilson, D.D., Rev. William H. Ware, and we add the name of that heroine and saint, Susan L. McBeth.

May the God of the widow and the Father of the fatherless be the comfort of those who remain, and may the example of the faithfulness and self-sacrifice of the departed inspire us to new devotion to the cause for which they toiled and suffered and died.

In conclusion, your Committee respectfully make the following recommendations:

Resolved, 1. That the following members of the Board, whose term of service expires with this meeting of the General Assembly, be reëlected:

Ministers—John Hall, D.D., Lyman W. Allen, D. Stuart Dodge, John W. Teal, D.D.; Laymen—George R. Lockwood, Titus B. Meigs, George H. Southard.

Resolved, 2. That the records of the Board, which we have examined and found to be in order, be approved.*

Resolved, 3. That the Board be authorized to use yearly the surplus fund which may hereafter come into the treasury to the credit of the old Sustentation Scheme for the general work of Home Missions; that the Sustentation Column in the "Minutes" of the General Assembly be abolished, and that the gifts to Sustentation be included in the Home Mission Column.

Resolved, 4. That the attention of Sessions be called to the inadequacy of the ordinary methods of securing funds for this cause, and that they be urged to appoint a Committee on Home Missions whose duty it shall be to coöperate with the pastors in disseminating Home Missionary information, promoting Home Missionary interest and devising more effective methods for increasing Home Missionary offerings, and that these Committees be urged to take into immediate consideration the present needs of the Board, in view of the fact that extraordinary pressure will come upon the Board this summer, and that the Assembly approve the custom of giving Home Missions a regular place in the Monthly Concerts of Missions.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly urge the Church to raise the sum of $1,238,341.40 as the least amount sufficient to pay the debt and properly carry on the work of the Board for the ensuing year, as ascertained by careful inquiry of the Presbyteries.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly express its high appreciation of the faithful and efficient services of the officers and members of the Board, and most heartily bespeak for them the loyal coöperation and support of all our ministers and churches.

Resolved, 7. That the Assembly approve the efforts of the Board in the direction of City Evangelization, and that the Board be requested to push this important department of the work as far as its funds will permit.

Resolved, 8. That Presbyteries be enjoined to exercise careful supervision over the organization and location of new churches and the removal of old ones, to the end that strategic points may be occupied and overcrowding avoided, and that the Assembly reiterate the deliverance of the last Assembly instructing the Presbyteries to exercise greater caution in recommending appropriations for churches which have long been upon the Board without making any progress towards self-support.

Resolved, 9. That the Assembly approve the practice of the Board in appointing pastors-at-large within the bounds of Presbyteries where the work is sufficiently extensive to justify it.

Resolved, 10. That the Assembly recognize with satisfaction the fidelity of the Board in the observance of the rules of interdenominational comity, as adopted at the conference of December, 1892, in the city of New York, and heartily commend their principles to the consideration and observance of all who are laboring under the auspices of the Board (Report of 1893, pp. 10, 11).

Resolved, 11. That the Assembly recognize the ever-increasing usefulness and efficiency of the Woman's Executive Committee, particularly in advancing Home Missionary interests among the children and youth of our Church, and that the Assembly recommend that both the Young People's Societies and the Sabbath-schools make an annual contribution to the educational work of the Board; the Sabbath-schools, on the Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving Day.

Resolved, 12. That we lay the great work of our Board of Home Missions upon the hearts of our young people, asking that in the month of February this work be fully explained to the Sabbath-schools, and that the Sabbath following Washington's Birthday be made a Home Mission Rallying Day in the schools, when gifts for this Board shall be collected; also that all Young People's Societies be asked to unite in raising the salaries of the twenty-six missionaries designated by the Board, as representatives of the young people.

Resolved, 13. That we recommend to all of our Presbyteries the holding of simultaneous meetings in the interests of Home Missions, and we request the Board of Home Missions to prepare literature, and devise means to aid in so doing.

All of which is respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee. ARTHUR J. BROWN, Chairman.

The Committee of Conference with the Rev. H. P. Smith, D.D., presented its Report, which was received and ordered to be placed upon the Minutes. The Report is as follows:

The Assembly's Committee to confer with Professor Henry Preserved Smith, visited him at 9 o'clock this morning and were received most courteously, and after a full and fraternal conference, have to report as follows:

Professor Smith expressed his cordial appreciation of the kindly motive that prompted the appointment of the Committee of Conference; but he is not prepared to communicate anything which would justify further action of the Assembly. He leaves his future relations to the Presbyterian Church and to its ministry with the Presbytery of Cincinnati.

In behalf of the Committee,
HENRY C. MCCOOK, Chairman.

It was Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed to place in the Statistical Reports of the Presbyteries to the General Assembly a column headed "Synodical Aid."

Special Committees were announced by the Moderator as follows:

Committee of Conference with the Trustees of Lane Seminary: Ministers—A. A. E. Taylor, D.D., David A. Cunningham, D.D., Charles A. Dickey, D.D., George W. F. Birch, D.D.; Ruling Elders—George E. Sterry and E. R. Perkins.

Committee on the Complaints of Judicatories Against Judicatories: Ministers—E. R. Craven, D.D., and David R. Breed, D.D., with Ruling Elder—Ralph E. Prime.

It was Resolved, That the Moderator be added to the Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries.

In the matter of the Special Committee of Conference with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States with a view to organic union,

It was Resolved, That while this Assembly accepts the action of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, of which it has been notified, as sufficiently indicating the wisdom of suspending for the present everything like Overtures looking to a union with that body, it desires to put on record its expression of regret for such suspension.

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church presented its Report, which was received, and its recommendations were adopted, after which the Report, as a whole, was adopted and is as follows:

The Committee on the Polity of the Church recommend answers to Overtures referred to that Committee as follows, viz.:

Overtures Nos. 11 to 24 and 187 to 190, from the Presbyteries of Bloomington, Bellefontaine, Cleveland, Jersey City, Otsego, Petoskey, St. Paul, Spokane, Steuben, Trinity, Santa Fé, Cayuga, Detroit, Helena, Mattoon, Chippewa, Geneva and Kansas City, asking the General Assembly to send down to our Presbyteries an Overture proposing the following amendments to the Book of Discipline:

1. In Chap. ii, Sec. 10, strike out the following words, "The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," and insert in place thereof the following words, "that Judicatory."

2. In Chap. ii, Sec. 11, between the words "one or more of its own members a Committee" and the words "to conduct the prosecution," insert the following words, "representing it and subject always to its direction."

3. In Chap. ix, Sec. 94, immediately after the words, "a judicial case," insert the following words, "which has been tried and adjudicated on its merits."

4. In Chap. ix, Sec. 102, substitute for the word, "generally," the words, "unless by consent of both parties."

These Overtures are identical, except that the Presbyteries of Cayuga, Detroit and Helena omit each a single article. It would appear from the printed circular form used by most of these Presbyteries, that these Overtures have been quite generally circulated among the Presbyteries. Inasmuch, then, as but eighteen Presbyteries have made the Overture their own, the desire for such change in the Book of Discipline does not appear to be sufficiently prevalent throughout the Church to justify the sending of the proposed Overture to the Presbyteries. The Committee therefore recommends that no action be taken.

Overtures Nos. 30, 31 and 198, from the Presbyteries of St. Paul, Dubuque and Philadelphia, asking that the Book of Discipline be so amended as to authorize the appointment of Judicial Commissions. Answer—In view of the adoption by the Presbyteries of the Overture on this subject sent down last year no further action is necessary.

Overture No. 29, from the Presbytery of Helena, requesting that an Overture be sent to the Presbyteries, amending the Book of Discipline so as to provide a method of appointing Judicial Commissions. Answer—As this is not a matter for Constitutional Enactment, but only a question of Rules of Procedure, the action desired is unnecessary.

Overtures Nos. 33–35 and 228, from the Presbyteries of Baltimore and Westminster, and the Synods of Baltimore and Pennsylvania, requesting a change in the boundary line between the Synods of Baltimore and Pennsylvania. This is a case where a church in Pennsylvania, connected with the Presbytery of Westminster, in erecting a new church building located the same in the State of Maryland, within the bounds of the Synod of Baltimore. They desire, however, to retain their ecclesiastical connection with the Presbytery of Westminster, and with the Synod of Pennsylvania. To this, all the parties in interest are agreed, and all unite in requesting the General Assembly to authorize the same. Answer—The General Assembly, without enacting any change in existing boundary lines, directs that the Slate Ridge Church, while occupying its present site, shall continue to be connected with the Presbytery of Westminster, and with the Synod of Pennsylvania.

Overtures Nos. 58–128 and 196–199, from the Presbyteries of Aberdeen, Baltimore, Butler, Butte, Cape Fear, Cincinnati, Council Bluffs, Dayton, Detroit, East Florida, Flint, Genessee, Huntingdon, East Oregon, Hudson, Huron, Lackawanna, La Crosse, Lehigh, Marion, Maumee, Newton, Niagara, Otsego, Olympia, Sacramento, St. Clairsville, Spokane, Union, Rochester, Utah, West Jersey, Westchester, Winnebago, Wooster, Yadkin, Zanesville, Santa Fé, Saginaw, Philadelphia.

Some of these Overtures ask the General Assembly to adopt a plan of regulating pulpit supply and ministerial service. By far the greater number unite in suggesting a plan for the same, as follows, viz.:

"1. It shall be the duty of each Presbytery to appoint a Committee of Supply, whose duty it shall be to furnish work for its unemployed ministers, and the enjoyment of ordinances by its unsupplied churches. Of this Committee the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery and the Chairman of the Home Mission Committee shall be ex-officio members.

"2. Every vacant church is recommended to seek the enjoyment of ordinances through this Committee. Similarly unemployed ministers desiring service are recommended to seek it through this Committee.

"3. There shall be added to The Church at Home and Abroad an Ecclesiastical Register. To this Register the Stated Clerks shall report monthly all ecclesiastical changes occurring in their respective Presbyteries, and in it no change shall be published which has not been thus officially reported. In addition to this, there shall be published quarterly, in Synodical and Presbyterial order, a list of all vacancies seeking pastoral services. Appended to this list in every Presbytery shall be a statement (1) of the number of pastoral charges these vacancies will constitute; (2) the number of ministers within it who are without charge; (3) the number of these who desire to render stated pastoral service. These provisions, however, shall not apply to stations and missionaries under the direct care and appointment of any of the Boards.

"4. Any minister desiring a hearing in any of these vacancies is recommended to make application to the Committee of the Presbytery having charge of the same.

"5. Whenever, by the ordinary operations of supply and demand, thus clearly indicated, any vacancy is left unsupplied, it shall be the duty of the Presbyterial Committee to appoint supplies in its own best judgment.

"6. Any expenses necessarily incurred by The Church at Home and Abroad under this arrangement shall be paid, on the order of its Publishing Committee, out of the Contingent Fund, by the Treasurer of the General Assembly."

Answer—The General Assembly, by frequent Committees, through many years, has wrestled with this problem. It has thus far failed to formulate a plan that has proved to be acceptable and serviceable to the Church. The duties herein proposed to be recommended to Presbyteries, ministers and vacant churches are such as might be reasonably commended, including also the Synod. The methods suggested are such as clearly belong to our system. But the reiteration of these methods at this time would seem to be useless, unless it be accompanied by the creation of some form of central agency to serve as the medium of communication. The central agency proposed in most of these Overtures is The Church at Home and Abroad. Your Committee is not prepared to recommend this as an agency that could or would be used by the Presbyteries, churches or ministers for this purpose. Some of the Overtures propose an officer of the General Assembly as the agency. We recommend, therefore, that the General Assembly call the attention of Presbyteries, Synods, ministers and churches to this subject; that the Assembly recommend to Presbyteries and Synods the appointment of Committees on Vacant Churches and Unemployed Ministers, and that the question of a central agency be held in abeyance for the present.

Overture No. 32, from the Presbytery of St. Paul, asking that an Overture be sent to the Presbyteries amending Chap. x, Sec. 8, of the Form of Government by inserting the words, "complaints and references," in the first clause, and striking out the words "and references" from the second clause. Answer—We recommend no action.

Overture No. 197, from the Synod of Michigan, asking that legal provision be made for the employment of students or licentiates immediately upon the completion of their educational course. Answer—This Overture can be made effective only by an amendment to Chap. xiv of the Form of Government. As no time is at the disposal of the Assembly for the proper consideration of such amendment to be sent as an Overture to the Presbyteries, we recommend that no action be taken.

Overture No. 229, from the Synod of North Dakota to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

"The Synod of North Dakota, assembled at Lisbon, North Dakota, October 12, 1893, hereby overtures the General Assembly to readjust the boundary line between the Synods of North and South Dakota, making said lines coterminous with State lines."

When the Synod of Dakota (now South Dakota) was erected in 1884 ("Minutes," 1884, p. 75), the parallel of latitude was its north line. When the Synod of North Dakota was erected in 1885 ("Minutes," 1885, p. 605), this same parallel was made its south line. This parallel was chosen because it was supposed it would be the State line when the States should be formed. Contrary to supposition, the seventh standard parallel was made the State line. This conflicts with the Assembly's general rule that Synods shall be coterminous with the States. Synod asks in this Overture that this be corrected. Answer—We recommend that inasmuch as this paper came to hand the last day of the Assembly's session, that it be returned to the Synod without answer.

In behalf of the Committee,

D. C. MARQUIS, Chairman.

The Committee on Polity also reported on the Report of the Committee on Coöperation of Churches. The Report was adopted and is as follows:

The Committee on Polity, to whom was referred the Report of the Committee on Coöperation and Comity, respectfully report concerning the same as follows:

Your Committee received the testimony of the Synodical Missionaries of Wisconsin and Michigan and of one of the Secretaries of the Board of Home Missions. We also heard the statement of the Chairman of the Committee on Coöperation and Comity. From the information thus gathered we report the following facts:

1. The principles and rules of comity heretofore approved by the General Assembly have been applied, wherever practicable, under the supervision and direction of the Board of Home Missions.

2. The most successful application of these rules to practical work upon the field has been achieved on the border line, as between the Presbyterian Churches in the U. S. A. and the U. S., and this under the special rules adopted by the two Assemblies of 1889.

3. There has been great difficulty and no very encouraging success in applying these rules where the work has been shared with certain other denominations. And this because the rules of comity have not been observed by the local agencies of the other bodies, and there is no recognized superior agency to call them to account for the violation and to rectify the error.

4. We are of opinion that the utmost that is attainable in this matter at present is for our Presbyteries and Synods themselves to observe the rules of comity as published by the Board of Home Missions, and where these are infringed by the local agencies of the other denominations, that complaint be made by the local Committee of the Presbytery or Synod to the Board of Home Missions.

5. We find that the plan of 1889 has been widely and successfully administered by the two Boards of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Churches in the U. S. A. and the U. S.

In view of the foregoing facts we recommend action as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the principles of comity approved by the General Assembly and administered by the Board of Home Missions, are again recommended to our Presbyteries and Synods, to be observed by them in the work upon their respective fields.

Resolved, 2. That the Presbyterian Church through its General Assembly reaffirms its desire to coöperate with other evangelical denominations, in maintaining and observing the principles of comity already adopted, insisting only that these principles shall be applied to conditions of mutual fairness and equity; and further desires that these principles apply to the relations of the Church with those denominations embraced in the Evangelical Alliance, and especially to those embraced in the "Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System."

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly recognizes gratefully the work of the Committee of Coöperation and Comity, and refers the information which that Committee may have collected on this subject to the Board of Home Missions, for its use and benefit in the administration of comity. And as two administrative agencies of this matter would seem to be unnecessary, the Committee is hereby discharged with thanks for the services rendered by its members.

In behalf of the Committee,

D. C. MARQUIS, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence presented its Report, which was received, and, after addresses by the Rev. S. McLanahan, Chairman of the Committee, and the Rev. R. S. Green, D.D., Chairman of the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence, the Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Benevolence have considered the Fifteenth Annual Report of the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence, which may be found in the bound volume of Reports from Boards and Committees, and commend it to the attention of the Assembly and the Church. They have examined the financial statement and vouchers of that Committee, and find that the Assembly's appropriation and other funds received have been accounted for properly, and have been spent wisely.

The Report shows that the gifts of the living to all the Boards, save Publication and Sabbath-school Work, have fallen off. The decrease is almost $165,000 ($164,936), or about 8 per cent. The total gifts were $1,960,788 in 1893; they are only $1,795,842 in 1894. Viewed in its relation to the work to be done, this result is most deplorable and threatening.

But viewed with respect to the spirit of beneficence, measured "according to that a man hath," the result affords positive encouragement. Would not a decrease of only 8 per cent. in receipts during the past year of financial stringency be counted success in almost any great business of the land? At the same time, from greatly diminished incomes, the people have made extraordinary gifts to aid those out of work in their own communities. That, under the circumstances, the members of our congregations have given eleven-twelfths as much as before to the benevolent work of the Church is a most welcome and hopeful testimony to the hold which that work has upon their hearts and consciences.

But while these figures are bright only by reason of their background, others are themselves light. Every Board, except Foreign Missions, reports an increase in the number of contributing churches. The gains amount to 853 collections. Foreign Missions lost 187, leaving a net gain of 666 contributions. But "there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed." About 32,000 contributions were made—over 26,000 were not secured. The failure to secure these contributions is chargeable, in the first instance, and chiefly, upon the pastors and elders. Presbyteries and their Committees share the responsibility if they fail adequately to provoke the Sessions to this good work. The experience of some of the Presbyteries demonstrates that with proper and persistent effort it is possible to realize the ideal—"a gift to every Board from every church."

Other figures show that the stream of total beneficence through the Boards, steadily swelling for years, has again risen above the high-water mark. The receipts of all the Boards from all sources reached $2,838,068, a gain of $36,342 over the preceding year.

We need all the encouragement which the past gives to help us face the grave demands of the present. The money received did not pay for the work done. Debts rest upon many of the Boards. Those of Home and Foreign Missions are of appalling proportions. Business is still depressed. The need of missionary help is greatest just when it is hardest to raise money, and for precisely the same reasons emergencies call for the extraordinary. The requirements of the hour can be met only by a great enlargement in the grace of giving among the people.

There are two distinct, yet complementary, methods to promote this.

One is the frequent, full and attractive presentation of the needs, claims, opportunities and encouragements of the objects for beneficence. Facts are factors most potent for eliciting gifts. Concrete cases make the loudest call. To this end the various magazines published in connection with our mission and benevolent work should be used and encouraged. The further publication of such information in cheap form for general circulation has been illustrated by the Special Committee in recent numbers of the Christian Steward, and we believe this method should be used also. But if these facts are to claim wide and earnest attention they must find voice through living men and women; they must be heard in the pulpit, in the prayer meeting, in the society. The power of personal enthusiasm must drive home the statement of the printed page.

To promote and increase true beneficence, however, we must do more than appeal for particular objects.

The best pump cannot draw water from an empty well. To secure a steady and full supply, an artesian flow, men use not only the pump, but the augur also. They bore deep. To secure worthy response to appeals we must first reach the great springs of activity in the soul. The divine reasons for giving must be made plain, the pressure of God's love must be brought to bear, the constraint of conscience must be utilized, the Scriptural methods must be opened up.

To keep prominently before the Church this other, this really primary method of developing beneficence, is the special function of the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence and its allied Committees in Synod and Presbytery. But they are not the army; they are only the standard bearers. It is theirs to carry aloft the banner, to show the way, to rally the force; but to win victory in this battle with human worldliness and selfishness every pastor, every office bearer, every member of the Church is called to bear a part both in himself and among his fellows. As yet the great Biblical principles touching God's ownership of property and our use of it for His glory, are recognized by few in the churches and practiced by fewer still.

In pursuance of its work, the Committee on Systematic Beneficence again brings to the attention of the Assembly the proposition that the total amount needed for all the Boards should be apportioned to the Presbyteries, to be by them apportioned to the churches.

There are obvious difficulties in this plan. It would be open to grave objections if a hard and fast assessment were contemplated; but, if employed simply as an announcement of what it is thought right to expect, we believe such apportionment would have value as a stimulating and educating agency. Its regulative idea is that gifts should be proportioned to ability. It emphasizes the individual responsibility of each Presbytery and of each church. It sets a definite end before the people for their attainment. It has been tried successfully in other denominations and in several Synods of our own Church for the Synodical Mission Fund.

The value of Church property and the amount contributed for congregational expenses are suggested as forming, conjointly, a basis for such apportionment. It is, perhaps, the best which could be taken, but we question whether any fixed ratio should be invariably applied. We believe that in fixing the amount of apportionment regard should also be had to past benevolence, and, in the Presbyteries at least, to such general knowledge of relative ability as may be possessed.

We have considered the Overture from the Presbytery of North River referred to us. It proposes that the churches furnish to the Presbytery, in advance, yearly estimates of their gifts, and that these be communicated to the Assembly. We believe the apportionment plan just outlined is a more practicable and efficient method for reaching the ends desired.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly gratefully recognizes the faithfulness, wisdom, zeal and activity of the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence during the past year.

Resolved, 2. That the Committee be reappointed as follows: Ministers—Rufus S. Green, D.D. (Chairman), Charles S. Pomeroy, D.D., Hiram C. Haydn, D.D., Henry F. Hickok, D.D., David R. Breed, D.D., Edward P. Whallon, D.D., Paul F. Sutphen, D.D., and Rev. W. H. Hubbard in place of John Dixon, D.D., resigned; Elders—Henry B. Auchinclass, Hon. Dan P. Eells, Thomas Kane, John H. Shearer, Kiliaen Van Rennselaer (Secretary and Treasurer), Thomas Lord, Reuben F. Smith.

Resolved, 3. That a sum not to exceed $1000 be appropriated to carry on the work of this Committee for the next year.

Resolved, 4. That the General Assembly expects each of its Synods, Presbyteries and churches to give its just share of the funds needed to prosecute the work of the Boards of the Church.

Resolved, 5. That the amount which a Synod, Presbytery or church is able to expend upon itself, in the erection of edifices and in congregational expenses, is, in the judgment of the Assembly, a fair basis upon which to estimate what should be given to benevolent work beyond local bounds.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly accordingly directs its Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence to apportion the amount needed by our Boards for the coming year among the Presbyteries, after consultation with the corresponding Committees of Synods, upon the general basis of the valuation of church property and the amounts expended for congregational expenses.

Resolved, 7. That the Assembly requests the Committee on Systematic Beneficence in each Presbytery to take the figures thus furnished it, and with the sanction of Presbytery to make a corresponding apportionment among its churches.

Resolved, 8. That the General Assembly calls the especial attention of every pastor of the Church to Chap. vi, "Directory for Worship," to the end that the offerings of the Church may be made, as therein provided, as acts of worship.

In behalf of the Committee,

SAMUEL MCLANAHAN, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence presented its Report on the subject of the Statistical Columns in the "Minutes," etc., which was received, and its recommendations adopted as follows:

The Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence would respectfully report that the last General Assembly referred to it, in conference with the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, two Overtures, one from the Synod of New York, and one from the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, each relating to changes in the statistical columns of the "Minutes," in which the benevolent gifts of the Church are tabulated.

After careful consideration, the Committee was convinced that in the interests of accurate and helpful tabulation there is opportunity for improvement not only in the columns which contain the gifts of the Church, but in the columns which cover congregational and miscellaneous expenditures, and the composition of the churches. The Committee felt it had no authority to traverse this latter subject, and deemed it inadvisable to recommend any changes in view of that fact, inasmuch as in the judgment of the Committee the whole work should be done at one time. Accordingly it offers the following recommendation, namely:

Resolved, That a Committee of nine, of which the Stated Clerk of the Assembly shall be one, and which shall represent at least four different Synods, be appointed to consider possible improvements in the statistical pages of the "Minutes," and of all blanks sent out to Presbyteries and churches for the gathering of statistics, including the blank for the "Narrative," and report at the next General Assembly.

To your Committee was also referred the request of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work that there might be a change in the schedule of percentages recommended by the Assembly for the undesignated gifts of the Church to our Boards.

Your Committee would recommend the following action, namely:

Resolved, That the Assembly, while thankfully recognizing the growing work of the Missionary Department of the Board of Publication, and heartily commending it to the generosity of its churches and Sabbath-schools, deems it wise to make at present no change in the existing schedule.

In behalf of the Committee,

RUFUS S. GREEN, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions presented a supplementary Report, which was received and adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Foreign Missions present the following supplementary Report:

1. The Committee has received a Memorial from J. G. Kerr, M.D., addressed to the Assembly, complaining of the action of the Foreign Mission Board in refusing to permit him to collect funds for the establishment of an Asylum for the Insane at Canton, China. The last Assembly referred the matter to the Board, with discretionary power, at the same time commending the humane purpose of the proposed asylum. The Board, however, after consultation with the Mission, and after careful investigation of the whole subject, again refused Dr. Kerr's request, feeling that in the multitude of objects which are more closely connected with its Mission work it would be inexpedient for it either to sanction the diversion of any gifts to a work almost entirely humanitarian, or to approve of the establishment of an institution which, though designed to be independent, would not improbably in the future become dependent on the Board. Dr. Kerr complains of the Board's action on the ground that the last Assembly directed the Board, if certain conditions were complied with, to grant its approval to his scheme. But your Committee cannot so understand the Assembly's action, which plainly left the matter to the final judgment of the Board. Dr. Kerr has long been one of the Church's most efficient and honored missionaries. Both he and his work in Canton will ever be held in grateful remembrance, and it is with regret that the Board has found itself unable to approve of his proposed hospital. But after repeated consideration of the subject the Board's previous judgment remains unchanged, and now since Dr. Kerr has returned to China it would appear quite impossible, even if it were advisable, for him to secure by appeals the amount of money necessary.

Your Committee, therefore, recommend that, while gratefully honoring Dr. Kerr's long and useful service to the Christian cause in China, and while sympathizing with the humane spirit which has prompted the proposal to establish a hospital for the insane in Canton, yet, since the Board, in accordance with the discretion in this matter given it by the last Assembly, is clearly of the opinion that the proposal is unwise, this Assembly feels constrained to abide by the decision of the Board.

2. Your Committee recommend that the evangelization of the Chinese and Japanese in the United States be called to the particular attention of the churches and Presbyteries. This work has been prosecuted by the Board with encouraging results in some localities, especially on the Pacific Coast, but in many other places it has been necessarily neglected. It would seem that this form of foreign missions at home should be carried on by the churches themselves without seeking financial aid from the Board.

Your Committee recommend, therefore, that the Presbyteries and churches be advised to organize work for the Chinese and Japanese in their several localities in whatever ways may be deemed by them most efficient, and thus to assist the Board in cultivating this portion of the field assigned to it.

3. The Committee also report that the Presbytery of Louisville has transmitted a copy of a minute adopted by it April 12, 1894, to the following effect: "This Presbytery regards with appreciation and sympathy the efforts being made to secure coöperation on the foreign fields between our own Church and the Southern Presbyterian Church."

No action is required upon this beyond the renewed approval by this Assembly of all such coöperation on foreign fields with churches of like faith with ourselves.

4. The Committee has received a circular from the Rev. A. Ben-Oliel concerning the "Christian Union Mission" conducted by him in Jerusalem, with the evident desire to have the Assembly and Board commend the Mission to the liberality of our people. Our Board, however, has agreed through its Syrian Mission with the Church Missionary Society of England to leave Palestine to their care while they leave Syria to us. The Mission of Mr. Ben-Oliel is, moreover, an entirely independent work. Your Committee, therefore, cannot recommend the Board to give this Mission any aid, and refer also to the recommendation already adopted that contributions to Foreign Missions be sent through the Board rather than through independent agencies.

5. A memorial has been received from the Conference on Missions, held April 2 and 3, 1894, under the care of the Presbyterial Committees of the Synod of Ohio, asking the General Assembly "to call upon pastors, Sessions and communicants to supplicate and labor more earnestly for the conversion of souls, hoping and praying for not less than 100,000 additions on profession of faith during the next ecclesiastical year."

Your Committee recommend that our Church be urged so to do. They refer also to the recommendation already adopted designating the week beginning April 7, 1895, as a week of private and social prayer for Missions, and they also recommend that conferences for prayer, or simultaneous meetings in the various Synods or Presbyteries be held, at such times as may be convenient, in behalf of this cause, and we do especially call the attention of the Presbyterial Committees on Foreign Missions at their fall meetings to this recommendation.

In behalf of the Committee,

GEORGE T. PURVES.

The Standing Committee on Temperance presented its Report, which was received, and after addresses by the Rev. J. J. Beacom, D.D., Chairman of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, the Rev. Harley J. Steward, D.D., and others, the resolutions were adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Temperance respectfully presents the following Report: The minutes and the Thirteenth Annual Report of the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Temperance have been placed in our hands and the minutes of the Committee have been approved.

A number of other Reports and papers have been received and several members of the Assembly have appeared before us in person.

During our deliberations the sad intelligence was received of the death of Dr. I. N. Hayes, a former Chairman of the Permanent Committee, and we heard a voice from heaven saying unto us, "Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

The subject of temperance, like all old subjects, is so familiar to us that we are in danger of losing our interest and of diminishing our zeal in its propagation. And yet we are convinced that no subject that comes before this body is of more vital importance to our churches, to our nation and to our homes. "Papa," said a little girl to her father, "papa, can whisky talk?" "Why, no, my child; what do you mean by asking if whisky can talk?" "Oh, I don't know," said the child, "but a man said the other day that whisky is telling on you." Ah, brethren, whisky can talk, whisky does talk, and what a tale of sorrow and suffering it is telling! It tells in the reeling step, in the shattered constitution, in the broken home, in the frequent divorce, in the destitute family, in the sorrowful widow and in the orphan children. "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." Like the wooden horse of the Greeks, intemperance, with its deadly powers, is entering all our cities, is threatening all our homes and is to-day the most determined enemy of the Church of the living God.

No one can read the deliverances of our Church without seeing that the testimony is uniform in condemning the use, manufacture and traffic in intoxicating drinks, and in favor of total abstinence from them as a beverage. Brethren, listen to the deliverance of the Assembly of 1877: "Total abstinence from all intoxicating drinks as a beverage is demanded from every Christian, by the condition of society, the purity of the Church, and the Word of God."

In 1887 the Assembly expressed itself in the following significant language:

"Resolved, That this Assembly reiterates and emphasizes the deliverances of former Assemblies in reference to the sin of intemperance, the unspeakable evil and wrong of the liquor traffic, the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, and the duty of all members of our churches to encourage and promote the cause of temperance in every legitimate way, and especially by the power of personal influence and example, and by the strong arm of the civil law."

And in 1880, the Assembly declared itself against the renting of one's property for the manufacture and sale of strong drink.

While the work is far from satisfactory, there is no ground for pessimism and complaint. Replies to the Permanent Committee show that the Church is awakening; the pastors are preaching, the Sabbath-schools are teaching, and the Young People's Societies are emphasizing that, at the last, strong drink "biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder."

One Report tells of fifteen drunkards saved; another speaks of twenty who have been rescued. Many of the churches have adopted a "Temperance Sabbath," and the contributions to the work of the Committee were never so large as during the past year. We are cheered with the statement that temperance is receiving more attention from the pulpit; that many of our Sabbath-schools are now teaching the young to "touch not, taste not, handle not," the intoxicating cup. But an "ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and this principle has special application to the work among the young. Thirteen millions of the children of our country are now under temperance educational laws.

The gratifying report comes to us that the protest of the last Assembly in regard to Alaska has had its effect, and the prohibitory laws of Alaska have not been repealed.

A bill has been introduced into Congress to obtain still more effective measures for Alaska; and the Secretary of State assures us that our national government is giving attention to the distressing effects of selling liquor to the natives of New Hebrides. But, brethren, experience has taught us that the law without the Gospel is a failure. Indeed, the law is a "schoolmaster to lead us to Christ." The best method of saving men is not the law method, but the Gospel method. Ulysses may pass the island of the sirens on account of being tied to the mast with thongs; the wax may keep from his ears the songs of temptation and sin. But how much better was the method of Orpheus! Orpheus did not depend on the method of the law, but on the method of the Gospel; not on the change in his environment, but on a change in himself; not on the prohibition of others, but on the glad choice of a heart in love with the true, the beautiful and the good. Orpheus passed by the dangerous islands of the sirens because he had a sweeter song in his own soul, and he alone is free whom the truth in Christ makes free. But, brethren, whatever method we adopt, let us not quarrel over methods and isms and words. It is no time to play logomachy when thousands are going down to a drunkard's grave. If we must disagree, let us not become disagreeable; if we must differ, let there be no division in our temperance ranks. Nothing pleases the saloon-keeper so much as to see temperance workers acting like Kilkenny cats—seeking to eat each other up. Just before the battle of Trafalgar, Lord Nelson took Collingwood and Rotherham, who were at variance, to a spot where they could see the fleet of the enemy. "Yonder," said the wise admiral, "are your enemies. Shake hands and be good friends." And the two officers did shake hands, and you know the glorious result. Brethren, this spirit of fraternity and harmony is essential in the work of temperance. Let us stop fighting friends, and let us join all our forces in fighting the foes of God and man. Let us make use of the strong arm of the law. Let us make a wise use of the pledge. Let us cheer those who value the inebriate asylum; but let us not quarrel with those who depend on the methods of persuasion and teaching and example.

And in this work how many reasons we have for gratitude and courage. Max Müller tells us that our English word "thankful" comes from the same root word as the word "thoughtful." And, brethren, to us the lesson is this: He is the thankful man who is the thoughtful man. Knowledge is power, and no one can study this subject without thanking God for progress and encouragement and cheer. When we think of the thirteen millions of children in our public schools who are receiving temperance instruction; when we think of the noble bands of Christian women who are working and praying for success; when we think that the pulpit is becoming aroused and the press is distributing information—we should "thank God and take courage." A few years ago General Newton was excavating the rocks at Hell Gate, New York, and many thought that the work was exceedingly slow and unpromising. As men went down amid the excavations, they said: "What an unpromising outlook!" "How long it will take to tunnel these mighty rocks!" All they could see was a man working here with a pick; and over there another man was digging with a shovel. And men said, "Give it up!" "That work is a failure!" "Those rocks can never be removed." But General Newton was wiser, and wisdom filled him with hope, and one day the slow work of preparation was ended; the time for the shovel and the pick was over, and little Mary Newton touched the button, the fuse was lighted and the discouraging work of years was rewarded in a day. Brethren, this was our experience with slavery and this will be our experience with rum. "Wherefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

Your Committee would report for your adoption the following recommendations:

Resolved, 1. That we approve of the work of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, and we ask the sympathy and coöperation of all our churches and Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies, in this noble work.

Resolved, 2. That we deplore the evils of intemperance, and that we see in those evils a great hindrance to that coming of the Lord's kingdom in human hearts for which the Church labors and prays.

We realize that the early education of the young as to the nature and effects of alcoholic drinks and other narcotics is a powerful preventive against intemperance. And we rejoice that laws have been enacted requiring this study in the public schools of thirty-nine States and in all the territories, in the national military and naval schools, and in all Indian and colored schools under Federal control—embracing fully thirteen million children of school age. We recommend that our churches appoint special committees to make efforts for the enforcement of these laws. And, in cases where the law is not sufficiently mandatory, we recommend that our Synods instruct their Temperance Committees to petition for such amendments as the case may demand.

Resolved, 3. That the time has fully come for the introduction of physiological temperance into all Day Mission Schools, home and foreign, that are under the direction of the Presbyterian Church.

We, therefore, urge that the proper school authorities be required to provide for instruction as to the nature of alcoholic drinks and narcotics and their effect upon the human system.

Resolved, 4. That we commend to the Presbyteries and Synods in the five States yet without temperance education laws, viz., Indiana, Tennessee, Arkansas, Georgia and South Carolina, the example of the Synod of New Jersey, which last autumn instructed its Temperance Committee to petition the next Legislature of that State for compulsory temperance education in all public schools, which petition has been granted in the enactment of a very satisfactory statute requiring this study of all pupils in all schools in that State under State control.

Resolved, 5. That while recognizing the importance of a wise discretion as to methods, we especially urge that temperance instruction be given from all our pulpits, in all our schools and in all our homes, and we recommend the recognition of the fourth Sabbath of September or some proximate day as a day for special instruction on this subject. We also heartily approve of the recommendation of former Assemblies that a special collection be taken for the work of the Permanent Committee on that day.

Resolved, 6. That we recognize the good work of the Presbyterian Woman's Temperance Association and other similar societies of Christian women, and we approve of all attempts on the part of our national government to suppress the rum traffic in all parts of the Foreign Mission field.

Resolved, 7. That we reaffirm the deliverance of the Portland Assembly that "No political party has the right to expect the support of Christian men so long as that party stands committed to the license policy or refuses to put itself on record against the saloon."

Finally, we recommend the reëlection of the following members of the Permanent Committee whose term of service expires at this time, viz.: Ministers—Rev. J. J. Beacom, D.D., Rev. John F. Hill; and Elder—O. L. Miller, M.D., and we recommend the election of C. W. Wycoff and D. M. Bossart to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations of Rev. W. F. Crafts and Thomas H. Rabe. All of which is respectfully submitted, HARLEY J. STEWARD, Chairman.

Elder William R. Worrall, of the Presbytery of New York, gave notice of a protest upon that portion of the Report of the Committee on Temperance which referred to political parties.

The Assembly took recess until 2.30 o'clock P.M., and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 28, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented an additional Report, which was received, and its recommendations adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Committee recommend the reference of Overtures as follows:

To the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures:

Overture No. 224, on the Missionary Congress of New York Synod.

Overture No. 226, on Presbyterian Churches in Europe.

To the Standing Committee on Polity:

Overture No. 228, from the Synod of North Dakota, with reference to a Change of Boundaries of said Synod.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report also on:

Overtures Nos. 98–182, 191–193, and 217, being Overtures from ninety Presbyteries, viz.: Alton, Baltimore, Bellefontaine, Black Hills, Boston, Bloomington, Brooklyn, Butler, Butte, Cairo, Carlisle, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Chemung, Chippewa, Cincinnati, Clarion, Columbia, Corning, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota, Denver, Detroit, Des Moines, Dubuque, East Florida, East Oregon, Fargo, Flint, Freeport, Genesee, Geneva, Grand Rapids, Holston, Hudson, Iowa, Iowa City, Kansas City, Lake Superior, Lackawanna, Lehigh, Lima, Logansport, LosAngeles, Louisville, Marion, Mattoon, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Muncie, Newark, New Albany, Neosho, New Brunswick, Newton, Niagara, Otsego, Oklahoma, Osborne, Petoskey, Pueblo, Redstone, Rochester, Rock River, Sacramento, Saginaw, St. Clairsville, St. Paul, Santa Fé, Sioux City, Southern Dakota, Solomon, Southern Oregon, Spokane, Steubenville, Stockton, Transylvania, Troy, Union, Utah, Utica, Wellsborough, Westchester, West Jersey, Westminster, Winnebago, Wooster and Zanesville, asking the Assembly to adopt some plan, whereby information as to the work of our Church through its various Boards may be periodically printed in an inexpensive newspaper form, for general distribution among all the families of our Church, and this, in addition to the circulation of our regular missionary magazine, The Church at Home and Abroad.

The following action is recommended:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly assume the responsibility of publishing an inexpensive missionary paper.

Resolved, 2. That the various Boards of the Church be directed to furnish material and assume pro rata any deficit that may be incurred, and receive any surplus.

Resolved, 3. That the Rev. W. H. Hubbard and the Rev. Rufus S. Green, D.D., be appointed managers and editors for the ensuing year, without financial compensation, and make full report to the next Assembly.

Resolved, 4. That the size of the paper shall be sixteen pages.

Resolved, 5. That the paper shall be published ten months in the year, no paper to be issued during July and August.

Resolved, 6. That the price of the paper shall be ten cents per annum to clubs, and twenty-five cents to individuals.

Resolved, 7. That the name of the paper shall be The Assembly Herald.

Overture No. 213, from the National League for the Protection of American Institutions, concerning a Memorial to the Legislature of New York. We recommend that no action be taken.

Overture No. 214, concerning the Louisiana Lottery. We recommend that no action be taken.

Overtures Nos. 183, 220 and 225 not being in proper form, we recommend that no action be taken.

Overture No. 221, from certain choristers and organists, asking for a Special Committee on Church Music. We recommend that, on account of the expense involved, and the doubt as to the necessity and usefulness of such a Committee, no action be taken.

Overture No. 226, being a Memorial on Presbyterian Churches in Europe. We recommend the following action, viz.:

Resolved, That the General Assembly call the attention of the members of our Church to the existence of the Presbyterian congregations scattered throughout the Continent of Europe, and recommend them to attend the services of these churches when abroad, and further recommend to our pastors, when the members of their churches purpose visiting the Continent, to give them letters of introduction to the pastors of these European churches.

Overture No. 215, being a Memorial concerning the National Association known as the "Children's Home Society." The adoption of the following resolution is recommended:

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church commend the good work and the method employed by the "Children's Home Society" in seeking out homeless, neglected and indigent children and placing them, until they attain their majority, in humane and Christian homes.

Overture No. 223, being the programme of arrangements for the Second Annual Missionary Congress appointed by the Synod of New York, to be held at Rochester, June 4 to 6 prox., to consider the great Home Mission work of the Church and its allied departments. We recommend the following:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly heartily approve of the plans of the Synod of New York for holding an Annual Missionary Congress, for spreading information and kindling enthusiasm in the great causes whose interests are discussed in these gatherings, especially among the wide-awake business men, and church members generally; and we commend them most cordially to all who can avail themselves of such opportunities.

Resolved, 2. That in view of the unanimous testimony of those who attended last year's Congress, to its deep interest and marked success; and in view also of the testimony of the officers of our Boards to the great value of such popular gatherings; we would be glad to see similar movements inaugurated in all the Synods of our Church.

Overture No. 227, being a communication from the Stated Clerk, submitting a copy of the "Manual of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.," prepared by him by order of the last Assembly. We recommend that this Manual be approved; that the thanks of the General Assembly be given to the Stated Clerk for his useful volume, and that he be authorized to print another edition, with the Docket of the next Assembly and other matters added to the present contents.

In behalf of the Committee,

WILLIS G. CRAIG, Chairman.

The Report of the Special Committee on Proof-texts was taken up, and, after remarks by the Chairman, Rev. Samuel T. Lowrie, D.D., and the Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D., the resolutions were adopted seriatim, and the Report as a whole was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Proof-texts respectfully begs leave to report:

1. The Shorter Catechism with Proof-texts, as ordered by the Assembly of 1893 (see Minutes, pp. 206, 207), was printed by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and seven thousand copies of the same were by it distributed, about January 1, 1894, to ministers and Sessions as a sample of the Committee's whole work on the proof-texts. In the same pamphlet was printed also a statement by the Committee of the methods used by it in its work. This pamphlet will be referred to in the progress of this Report as the Sample Pamphlet. A copy of the same is also herewith submitted to the Assembly.

2. The action of the Assembly referred to invited criticism to be received and considered as the Assembly would direct. No direction, however, was given. It was therefore arranged by those charged with issuing the Sample Pamphlet that criticisms or suggestions should be enclosed to the Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D., Secretary of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, who would acknowledge receipt of the same and transmit them to the Committee. A notice to this effect appears on page 10 of the Sample Pamphlet.

Three communications of this sort came to the Committee in the way indicated. One was a criticism of the fitness of a certain text as used for proof; another recommended a text for a certain place; another suggested eleven texts as desirable proofs for places it indicated. These communications being few and brief, they were submitted to the members of the Committee by copies sent through the post-office. From the replies thereto returned to the Chairman it appears that four of the suggested texts were approved, and the same are adopted as part of the Committee's Report of Proof-texts for the Shorter Catechism; in token of which they are supplied at the proper places in the copy of the Sample Pamphlet herewith submitted, as well as in the Committee's official copy of the Confession of Faith, which has been referred to in previous Reports to the Assembly as representing the results of the Committee's work.

3. In the Sample Pamphlet an explanatory note on page 2 states that the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work is responsible for editing the text of the Shorter Catechism, and the Chairman of the Committee for editing the proof-texts.

In this connection there emerges a matter that the Committee deems important. Agreeably to rules of editing adopted by the Board, the text of the Shorter Catechism conforms to an American fashion of spelling. The proof-texts conform in spelling to the text of a Cambridge Bible used in editing them. The confusion arising from this appears, e. g., at Question 57, "labor" and "labour;" Questions 63–65, "honor" and "honour;" Questions 69–71 and 75–81, "neighbor" and "neighbour." This discrepancy must appear in a much larger degree in editing the Confession of Faith and the Larger Catechism with Proof-texts, should that be done in the same way.

It is the opinion of the Committee that uniformity in spelling should be observed in the text of these Standards and in the proof-texts attached to them. But for the proof-texts it recommends that they be printed to conform precisely, in text, punctuation and spelling, to the best recognized standard of printing the English Bible in England, or to the best and standard edition of the English Bible printed by the American Bible Society.

4. The Committee reiterates the recommendation of the Report of 1891 (see Assembly's Minutes, 1891, pp. 131, 132) concerning the editing of the proof-texts as the same appears on pp. 6 and 7 of the Sample Pamphlet.

5. The action of the Assembly of 1893, that concluded the consideration of the revision of the Confession of Faith that was initiated in 1889, leaves the situation the same as that of 1888, when the Committee on Proof-texts was appointed. Having now submitted a finished work, and that work, as represented in the Sample Pamphlet, having in the appointed way been challenged in only one instance as to the fitness of the proof-texts it has prepared, the Committee supposes that the time has come for finally disposing of its work, and that the Committee may be discharged.

Should the Assembly approve the work submitted, it may appear to some members that its adoption should be referred to the Presbyteries. It seems expedient, therefore, to call to mind the process by which the proof-texts that have been used for a century were adopted. A statement of this, given in the Report of 1891 (Minutes, p. 132), appears on pp. 7–9 of the Sample Pamphlet. An authorized record of it is in Moore's Digest, Book i, Chap. i, 9 a. b. c. These proof-texts were the work of a Committee appointed by the Assembly of 1792, which the Assembly of 1794 approved and confided to a Committee especially appointed for the purpose, which was to prepare the same for the press, agree with the printer for publication, and superintend the printing and vending of the same. The second Committee was obviously the expedient of that time for doing what the Church has since then created the Board of Publication to do. This was doing as had been done with the original Westminster proof-texts, which were reported by the Westminster Assembly to Parliament and adopted by the latter.

These precedents make it plain that the adoption of the present work should take place in the same way, viz., by action of the Assembly to that effect. Adopted in that way, the proof-texts will continue to have the same relation to the text of the Standards that such proof-texts have always had. And this, it is supposed, was the intention in undertaking the present work.

Understanding the matter so, your Committee cherishes the hope that its work will now be adopted by this Assembly and that the Committee may be discharged. It has existed and labored for six years; an unexpected duration. In that period God has called to heaven two of the members appointed on this Committee, viz., Drs. Crosby and Welch. It is reason for wonder and gratitude that all but one of those appointed in 1888 still survive. The unexpected duration of this work has providentially brought us to the exact centennial of the adoption of the proof-texts that have hitherto been printed with the Standards of our Church. This is a very interesting coincidence, which every one may point out in his own way. The Assembly will say whether it shall be signalized by beginning another century with the proof-texts as revised and amended by the work of this Committee.

The Committee respectfully offers for adoption the following recommendations:

1. That the General Assembly adopt the proof-texts for the Confession of Faith, the Larger Catechism and the Shorter Catechism as the same have been prepared by the Committee on Proof-texts, and authorize the same to be printed henceforth instead of those heretofore authorized to be printed with the Church's Standards.

2. That the General Assembly require the editing of the said proof-texts to conform precisely in text and punctuation to the best and standard edition of the English Bible printed by the American Bible Society, except where the Board of Publication shall order otherwise.

3. That the General Assembly require the said proof-texts to be printed with the text of the Confession of Faith and of the Larger Catechism in the way recommended by the Committee on Proof-texts in its Report to the Assembly of 1891 (see Minutes, pp. 131, 132), and as the same is set forth, pp. 6, 7, of the Sample Pamphlet; and with the text of the Shorter Catechism as they appear in the Sample Pamphlet that accompanies this Report, subject to the standard of printing the Bible that the Assembly shall adopt.

4. That this Report be spread on the minutes of the General Assembly.

5. That the Committee on Proof-texts be discharged.

In behalf of the Committee,

SAMUEL T. LOWRIE, Chairman.

It was ordered that it be a Standing Rule of the Assembly, that all Overtures must be presented to the Assembly, not later than the fifth day of its sessions.

The Special Committee, upon the subject of the duties of the Stated Clerk, presented its Report, which was unanimously adopted, and is as follows:

The Chairmen of the Standing Committees on Mileage and Finance, to whom, as a Special Committee, was referred for consideration and report the subject of the duties of the Stated Clerk, respectfully report as follows:

They have carefully examined into the subject referred to them; and they find that the duties of the Stated Clerk have been steadily increasing in number and variety, and in the laborious character of the work imposed by them. At the present time, the Stated Clerk is required to transcribe for the press the "Minutes" ordered to be published from year to year; to superintend the printing of the "Minutes," and papers ordered to be printed; to distribute the "Minutes" to persons entitled to them; to have charge of all the books and papers of the General Assembly; to give attested copies of all minutes and other documents; to receive all Memorials, Overtures, and other papers addressed to the Assembly; to distribute the bound volumes of the Reports of the Boards; to have charge of the entire railroad arrangements for the transportation of Commissioners; to transmit all Overtures to the Presbyteries and receive the answers; under the direction of the Moderator, to prepare and carry forward the business of the Assembly, including the printing of the Roll, etc., during its sessions; to carry on the correspondence of the Assembly; to report to the Assembly upon the statistics of the Church; to perform all the duties of Treasurer, and to transact such other business directly pertaining to his office, as the Assembly may from time to time appoint.

Besides performing these duties, your Committee are of the opinion that the Stated Clerk might advantageously be employed as Secretary, and Custodian of the correspondence, of the ad interim Committees, without membership therein, and recommend that he be so designated.

Not only are these duties arduous and exacting, but their nature is such as to call for special qualifications of a high order in the incumbent of the office. The work from March until November is continuous; while during the remainder of the year the correspondence of the Assembly, and other work pertaining to the office, engages more or less attention daily. Your Committee learns that the official correspondence of the Stated Clerk last year embraced in round numbers 9600 communications. The duties above described now make such demands upon the Stated Clerk, as apparently to preclude the acceptance by him of any pastoral charge, and thus practically to employ his entire time. In view of the facts stated, your Committee regard the compensation heretofore allowed to his office as wholly inadequate. They therefore recommend that, for the services hereinbefore specified and recommended, the compensation be fixed at the sum of three thousand dollars ($3000) per annum, payable upon December 31, for the calendar year then closing.

Your Committee are also of opinion, that permanent quarters for the accommodation of the Stated Clerk, and the preservation of the records of the Assembly, should be arranged for. They therefore recommend that the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, be requested to assign to the Stated Clerk such rooms, not needed for their own use, as will afford suitable accommodations as an office and a document room, the expense of fitting up such rooms to be defrayed out of the Contingent Fund.

FRANKLIN L. SHEPPARD,
JAMES YEREANCE,

The Committee on Finance presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Finance present the following Report:

The following accounts have been submitted and have been carefully examined by us:

1. The account of Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., as Treasurer of the General Assembly for the year ending May 9, 1894, shows:

A balance on hand May 8, 1893,	$25,996 67
Receipts during the year,	58,074 74
		$84,071 41
Disbursements made,	$48,286 68
Balance on hand May 9, 1894,	35,784 73
		84,071 41

We have carefully examined the vouchers for said disbursements, have audited the accounts and do now recommend their approval. We find said accounts have been carefully and accurately kept in every particular. The funds of the General Assembly were deposited by the Treasurer so as to realize the sum of $1236.88 as interest therefor during the last year.

2. We have also examined the accounts of said Treasurer for the publishing and distribution of the Reports of the various Boards of the Church for the last fiscal year. It appears therefrom that the total cost of such work was $2304.48, which was charged to and collected from the several Boards in proportion to the number of pages occupied by each; as appears in the respective Reports of the various Boards.

3. Your Committee have also examined the statement of the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, of their receipts and disbursements for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1894, and the Report of said Board for said time. No vouchers were submitted with said statements and Reports, but there were appended thereto the certificates of the Committee on Finance of said Board and of the Auditing Committee, to the effect that they had examined the Treasurer's account and the securities mentioned in the same and had found them to be correct.

The total amount of principal in the hands of Trustees is $546,154.96, which is invested as follows:

Mortgages,	$511,855 00
Stocks, bonds and other securities,	22,808 15
Advances to secure bequests,	3,955 59
Balance of cash on hand uninvested March 31, 1894,	7,536 22
Total,	$546,154 96

Your Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Treasurer of the General Assembly, be authorized to invest so much of the funds of the General Assembly as shall remain in his hands, after the adjournment of the Assembly, as may seem to him advisable, and in securities concerning whose value there can be no doubt, for a term not exceeding one year.

Your Committee further recommend:

1. That the accounts of Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Treasurer of the General Assembly, be approved.

2. That the thanks of the General Assembly are due and are hereby tendered to the Treasurer for his able and efficient services, as well as for the clearness and accuracy of his various accounts.

3. That the thanks of the General Assembly are due, and are hereby tendered to the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for their faithful care of the accumulated assets of the Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JAMES YEREANCE, Chairman.

The Special Committee appointed to report an Overture to be transmitted to the Presbyteries, providing for a new chapter in the Book of Discipline, submitted a Report, which was received and adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee directed to prepare an Overture for submission to the Presbyteries, recommending an amendment by addition to the Book of Discipline, on the subject of the complaints of judicatories of the same rank against each other, respectfully recommend the following:

Shall an additional chapter be added to the Book of Discipline concerning the grievances of judicatories against judicatories, as follows:

"CHAPTER XIV. OF DIFFERENCES BETWEEN JUDICATORIES.

"120. Any judicatory deeming itself aggrieved by the action of any other judicatory of the same rank, may present a memorial to the judicatory immediately superior to the judicatory charged with the grievance and to which the latter judicatory is subject, after the manner prescribed in the sub-chapter on Complaints (Sections 83–93, Book of Discipline), save only that with regard to the limitation of time, notice of said memorial shall be lodged with the Stated Clerks both of the judicatory charged with the grievance and of its next superior judicatory, within one year from the commission of the said alleged grievance.

"121. When any judicatory deems itself aggrieved by another judicatory and determines to present a memorial as provided for in the preceding section, it shall appoint a Committee to conduct the case in all its stages, in whatever judicatory, until the final issue be reached.

"122. The judicatory with which the memorial is lodged, if it sustain the same, may reverse in whole or in part the matter of grievance, and shall direct the lower judicatory how to dispose of the case, and may enforce its orders. Either party may appeal to the next higher judicatory, except as limited by Chap. xi, Sec. 4, of the Form of Government."

Respectfully submitted, E. R. Craven,
David R. Breed,
Ralph E. Prime.

The Committee on Church Unity presented its Report on the Federation of the Churches, and the Plan contained therein was directed to be sent by the Stated Clerk to the Presbyteries, for their information and advice. The Report is as follows:

The Committee on Church Unity beg leave to report. They have held two meetings during the year, the first in Philadelphia, on the 12th of April, at which there were present the Chairman, with the Rev. Drs. William H. Roberts and R. M. Patterson. The meeting was called for the special purpose of considering the plan of Federation of the Reformed Churches of the United States holding the Presbyterian System. The Committees of seven of the Supreme Judicatories of these Churches met with your Committee, viz., the General Synod of the Dutch Reformed Church in America; the General Synod of the German Reformed Church in the United States; the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church; the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church; the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly; the United Presbyterian General Assembly; and the Associate Reformed Synod of the South. After earnest and prayerful consideration, it was agreed unanimously to propose for adoption by the several appointing bodies the following plan of federation, which is respectfully submitted to the Assembly for consideration and action:

Plan of Federation.

The following is the Plan of Federation which the Committees of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, the Cumberland

Presbyterian General Assembly, the Synod of the (Dutch) Reformed Church in America, the Synod of the (German) Reformed Church in the United States, the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, United Presbyterian General Assembly, and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, at their meeting in Philadelphia on the 12th inst., agreed to recommend to their appointing bodies for adoption:

For the glory of God, and for the greater unity and advancement of the Church of which the Lord Jesus Christ is the Head, the Reformed Churches in the United States holding the Presbyterian System, adopt the following articles of Federal Union:

1. Every denomination entering into this union shall retain its distinct individuality, as well as every power, jurisdiction and right which is not by this constitution expressly delegated to the body hereby constituted.

2. The acts, proceedings and records of the duly constituted authorities of each of the denominations shall be received in all the other denominations, and in the Federal Council, as of full credit and with proper respect.

3. For the prosecution of work that can be better done in union than separately, an Ecclesiastical Assembly is hereby constituted, which shall be known by the name and style of The Federal Council of the Reformed Churches in the United States of America holding the Presbyterian System.

4. The Federal Council shall consist of four ministers and four elders from each of the constituent denominations, who shall be chosen, with alternates, under the direction of their respective supreme judicatories, in such manner as those judicatories shall respectively determine.

5. The Federal Council shall promote the coöperation of the federated denominations in their home and foreign missionary work, and shall keep watch on current religious, moral and social movements, and take such action as may concentrate the influence of all the Churches in the maintenance of the truth that our nation is a Protestant Christian nation, and of all that is therein involved.

6. The Federal Council may advise and recommend in all matters pertaining to the general welfare of the kingdom of Christ, but shall not exercise authority, except such as is conferred upon it by this instrument, or such as may be conferred upon it by the federated bodies. It shall not interfere with the creed, worship or government of the federated denominations. In the conduct of its meetings it shall respect their conscientious views. All matters of discipline shall be left to the exclusive and final judgment of the ecclesiastical authorities of the denominations in which the same may arise.

7. The Federal Council shall have the power of opening and maintaining a friendly correspondence with the highest assemblies of other religious denominations for the purpose of promoting union and concert of action in general or common interests.

8. All differences which may arise among the federated bodies, or any of them, in regard to matters within the jurisdiction of the Federal Council, shall be determined by such executive agencies as may be created by the Federal Council, with the right of appeal to the Federal Council for final adjudication.

9. The officers of the Federal Council shall be a President, Vice-President, Clerk and Treasurer.

10. The Federal Council shall meet annually, and on its own adjournment, at such time and place as may be determined. Special meetings may be called by a unanimous vote of the officers of the Council on thirty days' notice.

11. The expenses of the Council shall be met by a contingent fund to be provided by a pro rata apportionment on the basis of the number of communicants in each denomination; and the expenses of the delegates to the Council shall be paid from this fund.

12. Amendments to these articles may be proposed by the Federal Council, or by any of the supreme judicatories of the Churches in the Federation; but the approval of all those judicatories shall be necessary for their adoption.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Correspondence beg leave to submit the following Report.

They have received a letter conveying the fraternal salutations of the General Synod of the Lutheran Church, over the signature of its accredited delegate, the Rev. J. F. Shaffer, D.D., who was providentially hindered from personal attendance upon the Assembly.

They recommend that the reply herewith presented be sent, and that it be printed in the Appendix.

They have received from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church a communication with reference to participating with them in the preparation of a new metrical version of the Book of the Psalms. They recommend that the following reply be sent:

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church:

While heartily sympathizing in every effort towards closer fellowship in our common work, we deem it inexpedient at present to coöperate in the revision of the metrical version of the Psalms.

They have received a copy of a Bill now pending in Congress, which involves large appropriations of public funds for religious institutions. They recommend that this Assembly hereby heartily reaffirms the action of the Assembly of 1892 (Minutes, p. 46), and of the Assembly of 1893 (Minutes, p. 115).

They furthermore recommend, that believing the gift of public moneys for the support of religious institutions is not only fatally prejudicial to the national welfare, but is also in conflict with the First Amendment to our National Constitution, and in view of the enormous and portentous grants of financial aid which are persistently bestowed by the Government upon the Romish Church, this Assembly does hereby protest most earnestly against any donation of National, State, or municipal funds, for ecclesiastical uses, by whomsoever sought, or upon whatsoever pretext.

They recommend that the following persons be accredited as the Representatives of the General Assembly to the Sixth General Council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, to be convened in Glasgow, Scotland, during the summer of 1896, and that they be empowered to name the remainder of the delegation.

Rev. Drs. S. A. Mutchmore, W. H. Roberts, William E. Moore, Willis G. Craig, and Elders—Ralph E. Prime, Oscar E. Boyd, and W. W. Wallace.

They recommend that the Rev. Samuel McLanahan be accredited as the Representative of the Assembly to convey fraternal salutations to the General Synod of the Lutheran Church at its Biennial Meeting, to be held in Hagerstown, Md., June, 1895.

They recommend that the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the Assembly's annual apportionment of the expenses of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HOWARD DUFFIELD, Chairman.

The Rev. T. Ralston Smith, D.D., delegate from this General Assembly to the Jubilee General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, reported for himself and the other delegates that they had been received most cordially, and had performed the duty assigned them. The Report was approved and ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

The Rev. James G. Mason, D.D., delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, reported by letter the performance of the duty assigned him, and his cordial reception by the Synod. The Report was approved.

The Stated Clerk was directed to send the Memorial on sectarian appropriation of funds, to the Constitutional Convention in session at Albany, N. Y., and also to the Congress of the United States.

The Committee on the Presbyterian Exhibit at the Columbian Exposition presented its Report, which, after explanations by the Stated Clerk, and others, attesting the accuracy of last year's record, was approved and is as follows:

Your Committee on a Presbyterian Exhibit at the World's Columbian Exposition would respectfully report:

At the date of the report made to the Assembly in session at Washington, May, 1893, the exhibit designed to illustrate the work of our branch of the Presbyterian Church, which had been collected by and for your Committee, was being installed in the space assigned to it by the Exposition authorities.

In accordance with the direction of that Assembly, your Committee, when the Exposition authorities decided to open the Exposition on Sunday, made application for permission to withdraw the exhibit. The regulations of the Exposition authorities, accepted by your Committee as by all other intending exhibitors, prescribed that the exhibits should remain in place during the continuance of the Exposition. In making application for space, your Committee, in accordance with the direction of the Portland Assembly of 1892, had stipulated that the exhibit should be closed on Sunday, should the Exposition be opened on that day. The Exposition authorities declined to permit the exhibit to be removed, except one or two articles of especial value. The exhibit, therefore, remained in the boxes in which it had been forwarded, with a notice posted at the entrance to the space assigned for it, stating that the exhibit had been withdrawn in accordance with the orders of the General Assembly.

After the Exposition had been opened several successive Sundays, the authorities ordered that it should be closed on that day. Your Committee promptly took steps to complete the collection of the exhibit and to have it properly displayed. Additional contributions for this purpose were made. In consequence of court decisions the Exposition was again opened on Sunday, and your Committee at once ceased its attempts to have the exhibit made.

At the close of the Exposition the articles contributed for the exhibit were returned to the owners. An edition of 10,000 copies of a historical pamphlet prepared for the Committee, by Rev. H. D. Jenkins, D.D., for distribution in connection with the exhibit, was offered to all the Presbyteries of the Church, and distributed to most of them.

In accordance with the action of the General Assembly of 1893, the accounts and vouchers for expenditures made by your Committee were forwarded to the Treasurer of the Assembly and audited by him. Your Committee received from him the sum of $741.40, in payment of deficit consequent on failure to make the exhibit. Your Committee received, besides this, from all sources, the sum of $1998.35. The expenses of the exhibit were $1984.75, as follows: For the Historical Pamphlet $948.50; for construction $485.01; for care of booth $105; for salary of agent $300, and for printing and incidentals $146.24. This last item exceeded the estimates made to the Treasurer of the Assembly by $12.35. The Committee returned to subscribers, at their request, $755.

The Committee has endeavored to carry out the instructions given it by the successive Assemblies under the direction of which it has acted. That the final result was failure to secure the presentation of an adequate representation of the work of our Church at the great Exposition is a source of regret to its members. Having completed the work assigned it, the Committee respectfully asks that it be discharged.

For the Committee,

G. E. MORROW, Chairman.

The Committee was discharged, with thanks.

The Special Committee on a Consensus Creed presented its Report, which was received and adopted, and the Committee was continued. The Report is as follows:

The Assembly's Committee on a Consensus Creed respectfully reports that they have been and are in conference with Committees appointed by the General Synods of the Reformed Church in America, the Reformed Church in the United States, and the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church; that their work is not completed, and that, therefore, they ask to be continued.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Secretary.

The Permanent Committee to Supervise all Editions of the Constitution issued by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Permanent Committee to Supervise all Editions of the Constitution respectfully report:

1. That a new edition of the Constitution has been issued by the Board of Publication containing all changes authoritatively made by the Church to date, and also containing Constitutional Rule No. 1, entitled "Local Evangelists."

2. The great Standards of the Church are two in number, viz., the Holy Scripture and the Constitution of the Church, the latter being founded upon the former. It is respectfully requested that the Committee be authorized and directed to insert the words "Subordinate Standards" before the words "The Confession of Faith" in the title to the Constitution. If this change be made the title will read, "The Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, containing the Subordinate Standards, viz., the Confession of Faith, the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, the Form of Government, the Book of Discipline and the Directory for the Worship of God."

3. The Committee respectfully request that the Board of Publication be authorized and directed, on official information furnished by the Stated Clerk, to append to the Constitution such general administrative acts of the Assembly as from time to time may be enacted by the Assembly by virtue of its Constitutional legislative power; and that these Acts be printed under the head, "Acts of the General Assembly." For instance, the General Assembly of 1891 passed an Act prescribing the methods of adopting and declaring amendments to the Constitution of the Church. Acts such as this differ from authoritative interpretations of the Constitution, and also from judicial decisions. It is believed that the work of the Church will be facilitated by their publication in the manner suggested.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS,
WILLIAM E. MOORE,
E. R. CRAVEN.

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly on the binding and distributing of the Annual Reports of the Boards as follows:

1. The Reports for the year 1893 were distributed in accordance with the directions of the General Assembly, and a statement of the expense involved is herewith submitted.

2. It is recommended that the Annual Reports of the Boards for the year 1894 be printed and distributed as heretofore, under the direction of the Stated Clerk, the expenses to be borne by the several Boards in proportion to the space occupied by their Report in the bound volumes.

3. It is recommended that the Boards be requested and urged to transmit their Reports to the Stated Clerk on or before June 15, 1894. Unless this be done the Stated Clerk cannot distribute the Reports prior to August 1.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

Rev. N. D. Hillis, D.D., for himself and others presented a Protest against the action of the Assembly upon the Report of the Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries. The Protest was read, received, and admitted to record as follows:

The undersigned enter respectful and earnest protest against the action of this Assembly in adopting the majority report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries. We protest against this action:

1. Because the General Assembly of 1829 declared that the plan of "direct control of theological seminaries is not within the rightful jurisdiction of the General Assembly" (Minutes, 1829, Report made by Charles Hodge and Archibald Alexander).

2. Because the General Assembly of 1870 declared that "as to any project by which the entire control and administration of our theological seminaries—for example, as to the election of Trustees—can be transferred to the General Assembly on any principle of complete uniformity, your Committee regard it as wholly impracticable, and the attempt to accomplish it altogether undesirable."

3. Because by a proper construction of the Constitution of the Church, the question as to who is an approved divine or professor of theology belongs primarily to the Presbytery. This has been the interpretation placed upon the Constitution by past Assemblies without a single exception.

4. Because the effect of the proposed method of control will be to reflect upon any seminary which might decline to accede to this request.

5. Because in the powers of the Assembly as defined in Chap. xii, Sec. 5, there is no power given to the Assembly to appoint any person or persons to appear for it in the civil courts, and to invoke their interference. In our judgment to accomplish the end proposed by the Committee, there would be required the action of the Presbyteries granting to the Assembly such right.

The Committee to answer the protest of N. D. Hillis, D.D., and others, presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee appointed to prepare the General Assembly's answer to the protest presented by N. D. Hillis, John H. Osborne and others against the action of the Assembly with respect to the Report of the Special Committee of Conference with Theological Seminaries, would respectfully submit the following Report:

1. The terms upon which the General Assembly takes into ecclesiastical connection and gives endorsement to the confidence and patronage of the students of our churches, civil corporations hereafter organized for giving theological education are such, that we see no valid ground for protest; there being no interference with the power of Presbytery or Synod, and no assumption of any authority; the General Assembly having the right to fix the terms upon which it shall grant its approval.

2. The proposed changes in existing seminaries can only be obtained by the free and full consent of such seminaries. If refused, the seminaries stand as they now do towards the Church. If they consent, who has the right to object? There is no interference with the powers of Presbytery or Synod, in such consent being granted by independent civil corporations.

An answer to the statements of the protest in their order is as follows:

1. The action of the General Assembly of 1829 with respect to the direct control of theological seminaries, in adopting a Report made by Charles Hodge and Archibald Alexander, applies to a different matter than that to which the protestants object.

2. To the second item of the protest it is sufficient to reply that, what may have been impracticable in 1870, is no proof that it is impracticable now, and what is desirable.

3. The affirmation of the protest that the question as to who is an approved divine or professor of theology belongs primarily to the Presbytery, does not absolutely exclude the supervision of the General Assembly.

4. The proposed method of control cannot reflect upon any seminary which may decline to accede to the Assembly's plan, because it is simply the judgment of the Assembly conveyed by the Committee of Conference, which they are at liberty either to decline or to accept.

5. It is a sufficient answer to the constitutional objection introduced by the protestants, to call attention to the fact that it is the constitutional prerogative of the Assembly to superintend the concerns of the whole Church. This power of superintendence, certainly gives the Assembly the right to appoint any person or persons to appear for it in the civil courts and to invoke their interference.

In behalf of the Committee,

GEORGE W. F. BIRCH, Chairman.

The following letter of Miss Rachael L. Kennedy was received and directed to be put on record:

"To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church now in Session at Saratoga:

"Having submitted to your venerable body the protest of my cousin, Mr. Robert L. Maitland, and myself against the proposed sale of the Lennox Mansion, the present Mission premises, No. 53 Fifth avenue, as contrary to our views at the time of its purchase, and believing that the sale of said premises will be an unjust act, and your body having approved of the action of its Board, and without yielding my convictions of the unwisdom of the proposed new building, I desire to say that while placing the entire responsibility for this movement where it belongs, I yet earnestly hope that the cause of Christ in Home and Foreign Missions will not suffer because of any act or statement of mine.

"RACHAEL L. KENNEDY."

The Permanent Committee on the Next Place of Meeting presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Permanent Committee on the Next Place of Meeting respectfully report that they have received two invitations for the next meeting of the General Assembly, viz., from the First Presbyterian Church of Seattle, Washington, and from the Third Presbyterian Church of Pittsburgh, Pa. It is not feasible for the Assembly to accept the generous invitation to Seattle, Washington, owing to the inadequacy of the funds on hand to meet the expenses of so long a journey. It is, therefore, recommended that this invitation be declined with thanks.

The General Assembly has not met in the city of Pittsburgh for seventeen years. The invitation from that city is presented with hearty unanimity, and pledges have been made by those entitled to represent the churches, to the effect that two hundred Commissioners will be provided for in Pittsburgh free of charge.

The Committee, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the next General Assembly meet in the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Resolved, 2. That the pastor and elders of the Third Church, with the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, be the Committee of Arrangements, with power to add to their number, the pastor of the church to be the Chairman of the Committee.

The Special Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes of the General Assembly presented its Report, which was received and approved, as follows:

The Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes of the General Assembly respectfully reports to the General Assembly of 1894 that the work has been completed to the year 1869, inclusive. The state of the work at present is as follows:

The Minutes of the Old School General Assembly, from 1838–1869, have been reprinted in four volumes, and the Minutes of the New School General Assembly for the same period have been reprinted in two volumes. The Minutes of the Supreme Judicatories of the Church are therefore complete in reprinted form, from 1706 to 1869, with the exception that the volume containing the Minutes of the General Presbytery and the General Synod, 1706–1788, needs an Index. The Committee respectfully requests authority to proceed with the preparation of the Index for the said volume. The expenses of this republication have been borne, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly, by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and the Committee desires to place on record its appreciation of the generous aid and efficient service given in the whole work of the reprinting of the Minutes by the Board, and by its officers.

The Committee would also request authority to place on the title-pages of the volumes of the Minutes of the two General Assemblies, existing from 1838 to 1869, the words, "Old School Branch," and "New School Branch," in order to distinguish clearly between the two.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS,
WILLIAM E. MOORE.

The United Christian Commission presented its Report, which was received and the recommendations adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Christian Commission beg leave to report to the General Assembly that they have given diligent attention to the objects of their appointment, in endeavoring to improve the moral and religious condition of the Army and Navy by methods approved by this Assembly. At their last meeting in Washington, early in the month, a Memorial was adopted, a printed copy of which is appended to this Report.

We recommend:

1. That the Assembly approve of the proceedings of the Commission, especially in its efforts to increase the number and efficiency of chaplains, to insure greater privacy to the soldiers in the barracks, and to remove temptations to vicious indulgences, to which in so many instances they are now exposed.

2. That Rev. Joseph T. Smith, D.D., Rev. W. A. Bartlett, D.D., Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., and Elder George H. Beatson, be appointed to represent the Assembly in the Christian Commission for the next year.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH T. SMITH, President.

The Committee of Canvass of the Votes on the Overture on Judicial Commissions presented its Report, which was received and the recommendation adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Committee of Canvass of the Answers of the Presbyteries to Overtures 1 and 2 on the subject of Judicial Commissions, sent down by the General Assembly of 1893, respectfully report as follows:

The following Presbyteries have answered:

In the affirmative, 129 Presbyteries, viz.: Albany, Alton, Athens, Austin, Baltimore, Bellefontaine, Benicia, Binghamton, Black Hills, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boston, Boulder, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Butler, Cape Fear, Carlisle, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Chemung, Chester, Chicago, Chillicothe, Choctaw, Cimarron, Columbia, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota, Dayton, Denver, Detroit, Duluth, East Florida, Emporia, Fargo, Flint, Fort Wayne, Genesee, Geneva, Grand Rapids, Great Falls, Hastings, Highland, Hudson, Huron, Indianapolis, Iowa, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kearney, Kittanning, Knox, Lackawanna, Lake Superior, Long Island, Lehigh, Los Angeles, Louisville, Lyons, Mahoning, Mankato, Marion, Milwaukee, Muncie, Nassau, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Albany, New Brunswick, New Castle, New York, Niagara, Niobrara, North Texas, Oklahoma, Olympia, Omaha, Osborne, Otsego, Ottawa, Ozark, Peoria, Petoskey, Philadelphia North, Pittsburgh, Platte, Portland, Portsmouth, Pueblo, Puget Sound, Rochester, Rock River, Sacramento, Saginaw, San José, Santa Fé, St. Cloud, St. Louis, Sequoyah, Siam, Solomon, Southern Dakota, Southern Oregon, South Florida, Spokane, Steuben, Steubenville, Stockton, Topeka, Transylvania, Trinity, Union, Utah, Utica, Vincennes, Walla Walla, Waterloo, Westchester, West Jersey, Westminster, White River, White Water, Winnebago, Wooster, Yadkin, Zacatecas, Zanesville.

In the negative, 40 Presbyteries, viz.: Aberdeen, Allegheny, Atlantic, Bismarck, Boise, Butte, Chippewa, Cincinnati, Clarion, Cleveland, Corning, East Oregon, Ebenezer, Helena, Huntingdon, Iowa City, Jersey City, Lima, Logansport, Mattoon, Maumee, Minneapolis, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Northumberland, Oakland, Palmyra, Parkersburg, Philadelphia, Red River, Redstone, St. Paul, San Francisco, Schuyler, Sioux City, Troy, Wellsborough, Willamette, Winona.

Five Presbyteries have excepted as to different parts of the Overtures, viz.: Dubuque, Newark, St. Clairsville, St. Lawrence and Syracuse.

Eleven Presbyteries report that no action was taken by them on the Overtures, viz.: Buffalo, Central Dakota, Elizabeth, Erie, Fort Dodge, Gunnison, Kendall, Newton, Shenango, Southern Virginia and Washington.

Thirty-eight Presbyteries have not been heard from in the matter of these Overtures.

Therefore, in accordance with Form of Government, Chap. xxiii, Secs. 1 and 6, since a majority of the two hundred and twenty-three Presbyteries now enrolled have formally approved the Overtures, the following resolutions are proposed for adoption, in compliance with the Act of the Assembly of 1891, p. 142, [see Manual of Assembly, p. 13]:

Resolved, 1. That by virtue of the authority conferred upon it by the Form of Government, Chap. xxiii, Sec. 6, this General Assembly hereby declares the Overtures on Judicial Commissions, sent down by the General Assembly of 1893, to have been adopted, and to be a part of the Constitution.

Resolved, 2. That Overture No. 1, having been adopted, be substituted in the Book of Discipline for Chap. xiii, Sec. 118, of the said Book, in the words following:

"CHAPTER XIII. JUDICIAL COMMISSIONS.

"118. The General Assembly, each Synod, and each Presbytery under its care, shall have power to appoint Judicial Commissions from their respective bodies, consisting of Ministers and Elders, in number not less than eighteen (18) from the General Assembly, not less than twelve (12) from any Synod, and not less than seven (7) from any Presbytery.

"119. All judicial cases may be submitted to such Commissions, and their decisions shall be subject to reversal only by the superior judicatory or judicatories, except in matters of law, which shall be referred to the appointing judicatory for adjudication; and also all matters of Constitution and doctrine may be reviewed in the appointing body and by the superior judicatory or judicatories.

"120. Such Commissions shall sit at the same time and place as the body appointing them, and their findings shall be entered upon the minutes of the appointing body; Provided, however, that a Commission appointed by a Presbytery may also sit during the intervals between the meetings of the appointing Presbytery. The quorum of any such Commission shall not be less in number than three-fourths of the members appointed, and shall be the same in all other respects as the quorum of the appointing judicatory."

Resolved, 3. That Overture No. 2, having been adopted, the following changes be made in Chap. x, Sec. 8, of the Form of Government, viz.:

After the word "appeals" insert the words "complaints and references."

After the words "Church Sessions" strike out the words "and references."

After the words "in an orderly manner," insert the following clause: "and, in the trial of judicial cases, the Presbytery shall have power to appoint and act by Judicial Commissions."

Resolved, 4. That the Stated Clerk be directed and empowered to make the changes in the Form of Government and Book of Discipline above ordered.

In behalf of the Committee,

WILLIAM DURANT, Chairman.

The Report having been adopted, the Moderator announced that the amendments therein contained were now a part of the Constitution of the Church.

The Special Committee on the Jacksonville Church presented its Report, which was adopted, and the Committee discharged with thanks. The Report is as follows:

The General Assembly's Special Committee on the Jacksonville Church respectfully present their final Report as follows:

The total receipts have been $7215.37. The amount of the mortgage upon the church was $6000, with accumulated interest of $1076.43. In addition there have been certain expenses which have been paid by the Committee out of the small balance in their hands, such as the preparation, printing and stereotyping of the final Report. It is recommended that the printed Report be distributed to the subscribers independently, and that the direction to print the same in the Minutes be not carried out.

The Committee would further report that the mortgage on the Church has been transferred to the Board of the Church Erection Fund, and is held against the church property without interest. They would also report that a number of the principal subscribers have lodged with the Board of the Church Erection Fund personal letters specifying that their gifts were conditioned upon the transfer of the mortgage to the said Board. These conditional bequests amount to the sum of $2925. It is also proper to add that all the subscriptions were secured upon the understanding that the mortgage would be transferred, as above stated.

Congratulating the Church upon the termination of their labors, the Committee request that they be discharged.

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN HALL, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk presented a Report which was approved, and is as follows:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly that:

1. The Synod of Montana was duly constituted in compliance with the act of the General Assembly of 1893, erecting the same.

2. Since the meeting of the General Assembly in 1893 the Presbyteries of Birmingham, Cherokee Nation and Muskogee have been dissolved, and the Presbyteries of Butte, Cimarron, Great Falls, Helena, Oklahoma and Sequoyah have been erected. Three of the Presbyteries erected were created by act of the General Assembly in 1893, viz., Butte, Great Falls and Helena.

3. The Stated Clerk respectfully presents the "Manual of the General Assembly," the preparation and printing of which was ordered by the Assembly of 1893.

4. The Stated Clerk would request authority from the Assembly to prepare a list of the dates of the Stated Meetings of Presbyteries, so far as the information can be secured.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

Rev. John Fox, D.D., on behalf of himself and others, presented a protest against certain action of the Assembly, as recorded in the Report of the Committee upon Temperance. The protest was received and admitted to record, and is as follows:

The undersigned respectfully protest against so much of the action of the General Assembly on temperance as declares, "That no political party has the right to expect the support of Christian men so long as that party stands committed to the license party, or refuses to put itself on record against the saloon." We deem this action an unwise interference with a political question, and believe that it cannot fail to be regarded by many of our people as hindering their free and conscientious discharge of their duties as voters.

The Standing Committee on Mileage presented its Report, which was received and its recommendations adopted.

The Standing Committee on Mileage respectfully submit the following Report:

RECEIPTS.

From Apportionment,	Mileage Fund,	$32,690 70
" "	Entertainment Fund,	11,922 37
" "	Contingent Fund,	12,307 52
Total,		$56,920 59

DISBURSEMENTS.

Bills of Commissioners for Mileage,	$27,941 66
Entertainment Fund paid to Stated Clerk,	11,922 37
Contingent Fund paid to Stated Clerk,	12,307 52
Clerk hire and stationery,	52 10
Balance of Mileage Fund, in hand,	4,696 94
Total,	$56,920 59

Two hundred and twenty-three Presbyteries are upon the roll, an increase of two during the year. Ten of these are not represented in this body. The remaining two hundred and thirteen Presbyteries are represented by five hundred and eighty-three Commissioners, a number larger by sixteen than attended the last General Assembly. Thirty Presbyteries, being Foreign Mission, Indian and Freedmen's Presbyteries, are exempt from payment. Notwithstanding this, many of these have contributed with praiseworthy liberality to the funds apportioned by the General Assembly. These Presbyteries are the following: Atlantic, Cape Fear, Catawba, Dakota, Fairfield, Knox, Sequoyah, Southern Virginia, White River and Yadkin.

The observance of the principle of apportionment recommended by the Assembly to our Presbyteries has now become general; and the exceptions are so conspicuous as to cause the Committee regret that it is obliged to record them by name. They are as follows:

The Presb tery of Bellefontaine has contributed only to the Contingent Fund. The Presbytery of Clarion has contributed to the Mileage and Contingent Funds, but has paid nothing to the Entertainment Fund. The Presbyteries of Corning, Huntingdon, Shenango and White Water have paid the Mileage and Contingent Funds in all and part of the Entertainment Fund.* The Presbytery of Lehigh has paid the Entertainment and Contingent apportionment in full, and part of the Mileage apportionment. The Presbyteries of Bellefontaine, Lehigh, Shenango and Troy have drawn nothing from the Mileage Fund.

The necessity that the Presbyteries should uniformly observe this wisely ordered and now well-established system, has been so repeatedly argued in the Reports of former Mileage Committees, that your present Committee would simply emphasize previous recommendations. It is earnestly hoped that all the Presbyteries will hereafter loyally join in observing what is so manifestly needful for the common good.

An Overture from the Presbytery of Rochester, calling attention to the surplus fund in the treasury of the Assembly, and asking, if possible, a reduction of the apportionment to six cents per member, has been referred to this Committee.

The Committee reports thereupon that the surplus fund is, in round numbers, $20,000 less than it was two years ago, having been greatly reduced by the expenses of the Portland Assembly, and that had it not been for the generosity of the citizens of Portland, who raised some $20,000 in that city for the expenses of the Assembly, the surplus would now be little more than $15,000.

Your Committee feel that it is wise for the Assembly to have at its command a reserve fund, sufficiently large to enable it to visit any part of the country in which the interests of our Church might be helped by its presence; and that at least until the treasury shall have recovered from the expenditures occasioned by the Portland Assembly, your Committee deem it inexpedient to reduce an apportionment that is so generally satisfactory, that the Overture referred to is the only one that has been received upon this subject.

Your Committee make the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly again enjoin upon all the Presbyteries the importance of contributing in full to all the Mileage, Entertainment, and Contingent Funds.

2. That the apportionment for next year be fixed at 7 cents per communicant, to be distributed as follows:

To the Mileage Fund, 4 cents; to the Entertainment Fund, 1½ cents, and to the Contingent Fund, 1½ cents.

3. That the Stated Clerk be authorized, at his discretion, to pay to Commissioners any further sums that he may consider justly due by reason of increased railway charges, over their estimated expenses, that may be incurred upon their way home.

4. That the thanks of the General Assembly be extended to such transportation companies as have given to Commissioners a reduced rate of fare; and that its acknowledgments be tendered to the Stated Clerk for his diligence and success in obtaining favorable arrangements.

5. That the Presbyteries be recommended to forward the amount of their apportionments to the Stated Clerk at least two weeks prior to the meeting of the General Assembly.

6. That the Chairman of the Mileage Committee be directed to pay over to the Stated Clerk the balance of the Mileage Fund, $4696.94, now in his hands.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANKLIN L. SHEPPARD, Chairman.

The Narrative was presented and read by the Chairman of the Committee on that subject, Rev. Samuel M. Ware, D.D. The Necrology for the year ending April 30, 1894, was read by the Stated Clerk. The Narrative, together with the Necrology, were ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the "Minutes," and the Assembly was led in prayer by Ruling Elder Peter Carter.

The Standing Committees on the Records of the Synods severally reported, and on their Reports the Minutes of the following Synods were approved without exception, as being "correctly kept and in accord with the Constitution of the Church," viz.: Atlantic, Baltimore, California, Catawba, China, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Indian Territory, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Utah, Washington and Wisconsin.

The Records of the Synod of Michigan were approved, with the exception that the Minute on page 29, taking exception to the Records of the Presbytery of Grand Rapids, does not show the matter of error alleged against the Records of said Presbytery.

The Records of the Synod of Tennessee were approved with the exception that the unrepresented churches are not recorded.

The Records of the Synod of South Dakota were approved with the exception that the Report of the Committee on Home Missions, after being adopted, was recorded only "substantially," instead of in full.

The Records of the Synod of Texas were approved, with the exception that the Minutes of this Synod were not presented last year to the Assembly for examination and review.

The Records of the Synod of North Dakota were not presented for review.

The time of this session was extended until the business of the Assembly should be concluded.

The Stated Clerk was unanimously authorized to cast the vote of the Assembly for the following persons as Trustees of the Board of the Church Erection Fund: David R. Frazer, D.D., Charles T. Haley, David Magee, R. P. H. Vail, D.D.; Elders—Frederick W. Baldwin, Robert Jaffray, Hezekiah King, and to fill vacancies, N. W. Conklin, D.D., W. A. Holliday. The Clerk cast the vote as authorized, and the Moderator announced that the persons named in the ballot had been duly elected Trustees of the Board of the Church Erection Fund.

The following resolutions were severally adopted:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed, as usual, to publish the "Minutes" of the Assembly.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the "Minutes" to such Presbyteries only as have paid in full their quotas to the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk forward a copy each of the "Minutes" and "Reports" to the Ruling Elders who are Commissioners to this Assembly; provided the Ruling Elders forward to the Clerk their post-office addresses, and that the Presbyteries which they represent have paid their full quotas to the Mileage and Contingent Funds.

Resolved, That the Moderator be authorized to fill, by appointment, any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees or Delegations.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries, and settle all accounts connected with the entertainment of the Assembly.

The Standing Committee on Leave of Absence * presented its Report, stating that for satisfactory reasons leave of absence had been granted to certain Commissioners. The Report was approved, was ordered to be printed in the "Minutes," and the names of the absentees with leave are as follows:

The following resolution was adopted unanimously by a rising vote, and was put by the Stated Clerk:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly are due and are hereby tendered to the Moderator, Rev. Samuel A. Mutchmore, D.D., for the wisdom, fairness and ability, with which he has presided over the deliberations of this body, and which have helped to so early an adjournment.

The following additional resolutions of thanks were adopted.

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of the Assembly are tendered to the Stated, Permanent and Temporary Clerks, for their fidelity and efficiency.

Resolved, 2. That the cordial thanks of the Assembly are tendered to Rev. William Durant, the Rev. Albert H. Trick, and the Sessions and the people of their churches, and all associated with them on the Committee of Arrangements, particularly Rev. James N. Crocker, D.D., and Rev. Alexander Proudfit, for their efficiency and generous hospitality.

Resolved, 3. That our thanks are hereby tendered to The Saratogian, for the fullness and accuracy of its reports of the proceedings of the Assembly.

Resolved, 4. That our thanks are tendered to the railroad corporations that have made concessions to the Assembly in the rates of fares; also, to the proprietors of the Springs, who have furnished without charge the refreshing waters to the Commissioners, and especially to the proprietor of the Victoria Spring; also, to the Committee of Citizens for their unwearying efforts for the convenience and comfort of the delegates; also, to the proprietors of the hotels and houses entertaining the Assembly, for the reduced rates of entertainment; also, to the officers of the First National Bank for banking facilities; also, to those members of the Local Committee of Arrangements who have had charge of the Assembly post-office, and to the United States Postmaster in this village; also, to the pages who have served the Assembly throughout its sessions, and also to Mr. D. K. Wilson, the Agent in Saratoga, of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company.

Resolved, 5. That we return thanks unto Almighty God, with heartfelt gratitude for His paternal care over the Assembly, whose sessions have not been marred by sickness, or disturbed by afflictive providences.

The minutes of to-day's sessions were read and approved.

After solemn praise and thanksgiving, the business of the Assembly having been completed, and the vote taken for the dissolution of the Assembly, the Moderator declared the Assembly dissolved, required another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet on the third Thursday of May, A.D. 1895, in the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., and closed with prayer and the apostolic benediction.

I. Narrative, Necrology, Correspondence, etc.

NARRATIVE

OF THE STATE OF RELIGION WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE YEAR ENDING APRIL 30, 1894.

Your Committee has examined with great care and a good degree of delight the Narratives from 202 Presbyteries and one Synod. Twenty-one Presbyteries failed to get their Reports into our hands; twelve of these however are located on the Foreign Missionary field. Coming as they do from all parts of the earth, they give us a large and splendid view of what the Lord has been pleased to do in and for us as a Church. Doubtless there is a great deal that has been accomplished of which no record can be made, for very much as to the actual state of religion escapes from the facts and figures of these Reports and cannot be expressed in any manner at all.

The Narratives as a whole breathe the spirit of faith in God and confidence in His promises. Their testimony is that of the dying Joshua, who, when taking a last retrospect of his labors as the leader of God's Israel, said, "Not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof." The successor of Moses failed, and his people failed in accomplishing much that they undertook, but their weakness was in themselves and not in God. In like manner, if our pastors and people have not measured up to their ideal of duty, it is not because of any unfaithfulness of God; their weakness is in their lack of faith and trust.

The Narratives, nearly all of which were on the printed form recommended by the General Assembly, agreed very remarkably in exhibiting a high degree of excellence as to the spiritual life and work of the churches in all the various Presbyteries.

1. The first topic on the printed form concerns

Public Worship.

It is gratifying to know that regular public worship on the Lord's day has been almost universally maintained throughout the entire year. Here and there of course a few churches have been without preaching altogether, but the per cent. is evidently small. The attendance upon public worship by the people is usually spoken of as growing and so encouraging, and, where it is otherwise, the causes assigned are generally beyond the power of pastors to remedy. The Reports as to the attendance of the children and youth upon the Lord's day public services have in them some expressions of regret that so few parents realize the importance of taking their children with them when they repair to God's house for worship. In some Presbyteries special effort is being made to induce the children of the Sabbath-schools to attend the church services also; this is greatly to be commended. The testimony is not uniform as to the influence of Christian Endeavor Societies in this particular direction; many, yes, far the greater part of the Reports, state that they are helpful in leading the young people to a more regular attendance upon preaching services, while a few complain that they keep them away because they consider the Christian Endeavor prayer meeting sufficient. This, however, only emphasizes the need of a more careful watchfulness on the part of pastors and Sessions over their young people.

2. The second topic concerns

Sabbath-schools.

The work of the Sabbath-schools is both hopeful and helpful, as well as full of encouragement. Almost everywhere the Sabbath-school is a power for good. It reaches out and takes hold of families that could not otherwise be reached. By means of its missions our churches are going into the neglected and sin-cursed parts of our large cities, and doing a work that is of the greatest importance and of the most far-reaching influence. The Shorter Catechism is not very generally taught in a regular and systematic way as a part of the instruction of the schools; this is not as it should be. However, the supplies and lesson helps published by our Board are almost universally used and very greatly appreciated.

3. The third topic is in regard to Meetings for Prayer.

Almost everywhere the churches report the regular maintenance of the midweek service for prayer and social worship. In a few country churches, however, no such meetings are held. Missionary services are held in many churches regularly; in some the weekly prayer meeting once a month is devoted to this cause, but in most no definite plan seems to be followed. The Narratives indicate a very fair interest in most of the churches, and what amounts to enthusiasm in a few. It is not a little remarkable that from the statements in our possession we find that the interest is much better sustained in those congregations which observe the monthly concert of prayer for missions than in those which do not. Many other meetings for prayer are held in a number of places, such as cottage prayer meetings, women's prayer meetings and prayer meetings for young people and children. These are all certainly indications of a goodly degree of spiritual life and power.

4. But what shall we say as to Family Religion.

Your Committee is bound by the facts to say that family worship and home training of children in the doctrines of the Gospel are not as generally observed as their importance demands. Too often parents forget that the home is a converting ordinance; that parents are the divinely appointed instructors of their children, and that these obligations cannot be shifted or laid upon other persons. The large number of infant baptisms, however, indicates that many parents are ready to claim the benefits of God's covenant and bind themselves by covenant vows to bring up their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. The Narratives in most Presbyteries state that the large number of baptized children who are admitted to the Lord's Supper is indicative of the fact that God does honor His covenant, and that it is held in high esteem by the parents of the Church.

5. The fifth topic is Benevolence.

Again in the matter of Christian benevolence the Narratives are particularly encouraging. Our people are evidently a generous folk. Their giving is becoming more systematic, and the people are adopting definite plans for their offerings in support of the Gospel both in the local churches and abroad. The number of churches contributing to the Boards is larger than ever before. The financial obligations of the various congregations are generally met with promptness. It is a matter of profound gratitude to God that our Church has been led to such large generosity in a year of so much distress and suffering arising from the widespread depression in business affairs. The wonder is that our Boards did not come to this Assembly with larger debts, that many of our Christian institutions founded and supported by the Church have not been closed or discontinued. But such is not the case; on the contrary, the work has been prosecuted all along its various lines with greater zeal and economy, so that considered from a financial point of view the great work of our Zion is in a splendid condition.

6. Organization and Church Work.

To properly organize a church for the most efficient work it is necessary to combine the various elements of the congregation in such a way that all are set to work. To this end numerous societies and bands have been organized. The Narratives speak of Women's Societies for Home and Foreign Missions, and for Missions to Freedmen, in nearly all the churches. In a large number of congregations there are Christian Endeavor Societies and Junior Christian Endeavors, and various kinds of bands for children. Great interest is manifested in all these organizations, and the results reported are decidedly good. But above all these and including them, is the divinely instituted church itself, which by its ordained ministry and eldership is doing a noble work for the good of man and the glory of God. The church itself with its divinely commissioned officers must not be minimized or lost sight of in the multitude of organizations in its bosom. Church authorities should be careful to hold the reins of their organized work in their own hands, and by wise and loving counsel give direction and help to all their workers.

7. Statistics.

Some statistics furnished your Committee by the Stated Clerk of this Assembly are worthy of special notice.

	1893.	1894.
I. Additions to membership:
1. By profession of faith,	59,660	71,979*
2. By certificates,	39,298	41,130
II. Whole number of communicants,	855,089	890,626*
III. Sabbath-school members,	909,062	955,111*
IV. Contributions:
1. For general work,	$14,916,311	$13,888,275*
2. General Assembly Fund,	82,726	83,000*
3. Gifts to Theological Seminaries and other gifts (see p. 11),	353,867	350,000*
Total,	$15,352,904	$14,321,275*

It will be seen at a glance that this is a very interesting table of statistics. It shows how signally God has blessed our beloved Church during the past year. The increase of membership by profession alone is only 21 short of 72,000, an advance of 12,319 above the increase of last year. The significance of this needs no comment.

*This is in part an estimate. For the actual figures see the Summary of Statistics.

How long will it be before we shall add a round 100,000 yearly on profession of faith? The actual ratio of increase last year, counting out all who came in by certificate, was but little short of 9 per cent. In some of the Synods it was more than 12 per cent. The whole number of communicants is now 890,626.* Of these 189,167 belong to the Synod of Pennsylvania; New York follows next with 173,978; Ohio takes the third place with 92,603; New Jersey holds the fourth position, reporting 64,984; while Illinois is fifth in numbers with 60,404. These five great Synods contain more than 65 per cent. of the membership of the whole Church, while from them comes over 70 per cent. of the total contributions of money for all purposes. Who can prophesy what will be the numbers and contributions of the Presbyterian Church when the most of our young and rapidly growing Synods of the West shall have become as large and wealthy as these mother Synods of the East? Surely we have bright prospects as well as splendid blessings, for which we give God all the glory.

In behalf of the Committee,

SAMUEL M. WARE, Chairman.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS,

Stated Clerk.

LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 9, 1894.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

HONORED BRETHREN:—The Executive Commission, Western Section, of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System," respectfully reports to your venerable body as follows:

Since the date of the last Report two meetings of the Commission have been held, one in Cincinnati, Ohio, October, 1893, and the other in Philadelphia, Pa., April, 1894. After due consideration the Commission deemed it wise, in order to further the interests of the Alliance, to meet in other cities in addition to New York. The success of the meetings in Cincinnati and Philadelphia is the best proof of the wisdom of the new policy.

The Commission would further report that the Sixth General Council of the Alliance will be held in Glasgow, Scotland, during the summer of 1896. The basis of representation in the Council is as follows: "For each 100 congregations or less, two delegates, up to 1000 congregations; above 1000 congregations, one delegate for each additional 100 up to 2000 congregations; above 2000 congregations, one delegate for each additional 250 congregations." It is suggested that your venerable body take action looking towards the appointment of delegates to this Council.

The apportionment of expenses due from your Church for the present year is $765. Will you kindly take action providing for the payment of this apportionment, and direct that it be forwarded to F. K. Hipple, Esq., Treasurer of the Alliance, 1340 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

With a view to the more full expression of the kindly sentiment of the Reformed Churches each towards the other, and of their spiritual unity, it gives us pleasure to state that the Executive Commission has appointed the Rev. W. U. Murkland, D.D., of Baltimore, Md., as a delegate to bear to your venerable body the fraternal greetings of the Alliance.

One matter, which does not fall directly within the sphere of the work of the Commission, is yet of general interest, viz., the proposed Federation of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States of America. We rejoice that the plan of this proposed Federation has been adopted by the Committees of Conference appointed by the several Churches, and it is our hope that the action of the Committees may be followed by a like unanimous action on the part of the supreme Judicatories of the Churches.

With best wishes for the prosperity of the cause of Christ in your midst as a Church, and through you in all the world.

Yours fraternally,

TALBOT W. CHAMBERS, Chairman.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATES TO THE JUBILEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE FREE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y., May 25, 1894.

The undersigned beg leave to report respectfully to the General Assembly their performance of the duty assigned them by the General Assembly of 1892, in their appointment as delegates to the Jubilee Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, which met last year.

They greatly regret that one of the principals, the Rev. Alexander Alison, D.D., was unavoidably prevented from attending, and express their pleasure in the fact that Elder John Paton, an alternate, was present in Edinburgh and took an active and worthy share in the representation of our Church.

The Semi-centennial of the Free Church was celebrated by an august and distinguished gathering, reviving the memories and the enthusiasm of the great historic events of 1843, magnifying the heroism of those days, emphasizing the lessons of the past half century, and, in a spirit as sober and devout as it was vehement and hopeful, anticipating the responsibilities and tasks of the future.

Your delegates not only enjoyed abundant private and social courtesies, but, in the discharge of their official duty, were enthusiastically welcomed by a crowded Assembly and an immense body of visitors, literally filling to its utmost capacity the grand and spacious Assembly Hall. Each member of the delegation addressed the Assembly, and was listened to with earnest attention as he conveyed the congratulations of the Church in America, recited the reasons for a mutual sympathy between the two bodies and expressed the widespread Christian hope and desire for the continued prosperity of the Free Church and for the enlargement of its numbers, power and influence.

Such an interchange of courtesies between the two Assemblies seemed at once natural and propitious, and it cannot fail to quicken, by the blessing of God, the interest of each in the other, an interest which is founded on the common principles illustrated by the history of both Churches.

ROBERT CHRISTIE,
T. RALSTON SMITH.

LETTER FROM THE DELEGATE OF THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

DELAWARE, O., May 14, 1894.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Session at Saratoga Springs, in the State of New York, beginning May 16, 1894.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—I was appointed by the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the United States of America, at its last biennial meeting, at Canton, Ohio, from May 24 to June 1, 1893, to bear the fraternal greetings of that body to you who are now here in Assembly met.

All through these intervening months I entertained the hope that I might be with you in person to enjoy your deliberations and to be profited by your Convention. But Providence had determined otherwise. I must therefore content myself by conveying to you the fraternal greetings of the body I represent by the method here employed.

The General Synod is the oldest of the four General bodies that compose the Lutheran Church of the United States. The General Synod, though the oldest, is not the largest of the General bodies. This is so because in the year 1866 the body was divided, at which time the General Council was formed. The other two General bodies are known as the General Synod South (the outgrowth of the late war) and the General Conference. Besides these there are a number of independent Synods, that is, Synods not belonging to any General body.

The whole number of Lutherans in the United States is one million three hundred and five thousand three hundred and nineteen (1,305,319). Of these the General Synod has 173,452. This body is almost wholly English speaking. It has however some German congregations.

The various Lutheran bodies are alike in this: they all subscribe to that matchless creed, called the "Augsburg Confession." The General Synod subscribes to this and nothing more; the other bodies to this and something more, viz., those symbolical books which they claim as the only true development of the Confession and that it, the Confession, must be accepted in the sense there (in the symbolical books) laid down.

The body from which I bring greetings to you thus expresses its position in the Constitution governing it: "This General Synod, resting on the Word of God as the sole authority in matters of faith, on its infallible warrant rejects the Romish doctrine of the real presence or transubstantiation, and with it the mass and all the ceremonies distinctive of the mass; denies any power in the sacraments as an opus operatum, or that the blessing of baptism and the Lord's supper can be received without faith . . . . holds that there is no priesthood on earth but that of all believers, and that God only can forgive sins; and maintains the divine obligation of the Sabbath."

The General Synod takes the "Word of God as the only infallible rule of faith and practice and the Augsburg Confession as a correct exhibition of the fundamental doctrines of the divine Word; and of the faith of our Church as founded upon that Word."

The General Synod practices altar fellowship and interchange of pulpits, and teaches that the truth is not to be "held in unrighteousness" of life. "Christ in us" is to be emphasized as well as "Christ for us."

The benevolent operations of our Church are steadily on the increase. Our Foreign Missions are located in Southern India and in Liberia, Africa. Growing enthusiasm accomplishes the work of our Home Boards. For further information on the practical doings of our General Synod churches, we refer you to the Minutes of our last General Synod, which I have herewith sent to your Stated Clerk.

I assure you, my dear brethren, that we as a General Synod understand, appreciate and admire the marvelous magnitude of the work you are doing in all the various departments of Church work. In all these your denomination challenges the admiration of all intelligent and right-thinking men. In a just estimate, your denomination, in all the benevolent and practical operations of Church work, is without a peer among the denominations.

The paramount feature, in which I rejoice, as a likeness in the General Assembly and the General Synod is, that the chief aim of each is the salvation of souls, the bringing of the world to Christ.

It is the desire of the General Synod to still further foster these friendly relations existing between us. Therefore accept these fraternal Christian greetings that we sincerely convey to you in the name of the General Synod of the Lutheran Church. And it is the desire of this body that you appoint some one to represent your Church at our next meeting, June 5, 1895, at Hagerstown, Md. May Heaven's benediction rest upon your present General Assembly in all of its deliberations. May the power of the Holy Ghost be manifest in all you do, is my sincere prayer.

J. F. SHAFFER.

LETTER TO THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

To the Rev. J. F. Shaffer, D.D., Delaware, O.:

BELOVED BROTHER:—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, beg to acknowledge to you, and through you to the General Synod of the Lutheran Church, the receipt of the fraternal greetings from your General Synod to the Presbyterian Assembly now in session in this city.

The General Assembly appreciates the magnificent history of the Lutheran Church. We recognize that it has been the unmoved rock, against which, in many lands, have dashed the waves of an arrogant apostasy.

We rejoice that your Church has always stood for God's truth, as manifested to man in His Word. Your avowed doctrine of man's sinfulness, and the full atonement in Christ, is yet to win a sin-benumbed world back again to its God.

We stand with you in the one great purpose of the world's evangelization; and it gives us great joy to hear your words of kindly greeting.

The General Assembly beg to assure you, and your General Synod, of our earnest sympathy in all your work, and our gratitude to God for your large measure of success.

Though circumstances lead us into different paths of labor for the Master, these paths, we rejoice to believe, shall at last end at one door.

In behalf of the General Assembly.

S. A. MUTCHMORE, Moderator.

THE APPEAL IN THE CASE OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AGAINST THE REV. H. P. SMITH, D.D.

THE NOTICE OF APPEAL.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 19, 1893.

To the Stated Clerk of the Synod of Ohio:

I hereby give notice of my appeal to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America against the decision and final judgment of the Synod of Ohio reaffirming the judgment of the Presbytery of Cincinnati, by which I was found guilty of Charges II and III of the original charges and specifications, and by which also I was suspended from the ministry of the Presbyterian Church.

In accordance with the Book of Discipline, the following errors in the action of the Synod are specified as grounds of this appeal:

1. The Synod erred in not sustaining my first specification of error in my appeal from the Presbytery of Cincinnati, which was as follows: "allowing members of the Presbytery to sit in judgment in the case after they had published opinions on my guilt."

2. The Synod erred in not sustaining my second specification in my appeal as aforesaid, to wit: "refusing to sustain my objections to the preliminary proceedings."

3. The Synod erred in not sustaining the third specification, to wit: "not sustaining my objections to the sufficiency of Charge II in form and legal effect."

4. The Synod erred in not sustaining the fourth specification, to wit: "not sustaining my objections to the sufficiency of Charge III in form and legal effect."

5. The Synod erred in not sustaining my fifth specification, to wit: "not sustaining my objections to the various specifications under Charge III as insufficient in form and legal effect."

6. The Synod erred in not sustaining my sixth specification, to wit: "declining to receive testimony."

7. The Synod erred in not sustaining my seventh specification, to wit: "allowing the vote of a member of the court to be recorded and counted in his absence."

8. The Synod erred in not sustaining my eighth specification, to wit: "sustaining Charge II and finding me guilty."

9. The Synod erred in not sustaining my ninth specification, to wit: "the action of the court sustaining Specifications 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, 11, under Charge II, was against the evidence, and not supported by sufficient evidence."

10. The Synod erred in not sustaining my tenth specification, to wit: "sustaining Charge III and finding me guilty."

11. The Synod erred in not sustaining my eleventh specification, to wit: "sustaining the specifications under Charge III."

12. The Synod erred in not sustaining my twelfth specification, to wit: "imposing on me the penalty of suspension from the ministry, which penalty would be excessive even if I were guilty of the offenses charged."

These errors in the action of the Synod of Ohio are specified as reasons why this appeal should be made to the General Assembly.

HENRY PRESERVED SMITH, Appellant.

THE APPEAL.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

I, the undersigned, one of the original parties in the above case, hereby appeal to your venerable body against the decision and final judgment of the Synod of Ohio, rendered October 13, 1893, as shown in the records of the Synod as follows:

"No one of the specifications of error having been sustained and no error having been found in the record, the Moderator declared the judgment of the inferior judicatory to be affirmed." (Minutes of the Synod of Ohio, 1893, p. 173).

In pursuance of this appeal I beg leave to submit the following statements:

In March, 1891, at the request of the Presbyterian Ministerial Association, I read before the Association a paper on the subject of the Inspiration of the Scriptures.

Owing to the general interest in the subject, this paper was afterwards published, together with a paper written by the late Prof. Llewelyn J. Evans, and also read before the Ministerial Association, the two together making a pamphlet entitled "Biblical Scholarship and Inspiration."

On September 21, 1892, the Presbytery adopted the following resolution reported by a Committee previously appointed to consider the subject of Erroneous Teaching in our Theological Seminaries:

"Resolved, That a Committee consisting of three—two ministers and one elder—be appointed to formulate charges and specifications against the Rev. Henry Preserved Smith, D.D., a member of this Presbytery, based upon his pamphlet on Biblical Scholarship and Inspiration, and his other public utterances and publications, with citations of testimony all in due form, as in such cases made and provided in our Church; and report the same to an adjourned meeting of this Presbytery, to be held in the First Presbyterian Church, Cincinnati, on the third Monday of October next, at 9.30 o'clock A.M.; said Committee to have in charge the prosecution of the case in all its stages, in behalf of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America."

In pursuance of this resolution a Committee was appointed, consisting of the Rev. William McKibbin, D.D., the Rev. T. O. Lowe, and Mr. D. H. Shields, and said Committee presented charges and specifications to the Presbytery at the adjourned meeting, October 17, 1892. Said charges and specifications, after being read, were put into the hands of the accused, with citations returnable on the second Monday of November following.

On the date appointed, November 14, 1892, Presbytery met and entered upon judicial process and adjourned from time to time until Monday, December 19, 1892. After argument on the sufficiency of the charges and specifications in form and legal effect, the Committee amended the same; after which the amended charges and specifications were sustained as sufficient in form and legal effect. The accused then pleaded not guilty, testimony was taken, and the parties were heard.

On December 12, the Presbytery found the accused guilty of the charges numbered II and III of the original charges and specifications, which charges are as follows:

CHARGE II.

The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America charges the Rev. Henry Preserved Smith, D.D., being a minister in said Church and a member of the Presbytery of Cincinnati, with teaching, in a pamphlet entitled "Biblical Scholarship and Inspiration," contrary to a fundamental doctrine of the Word of God and the Confession of Faith, that the Holy Spirit did not so control the inspired writers in their composition of the Holy Scriptures as to make their utterances absolutely truthful, i. e., free from error when interpreted in their natural and intended sense.

CHARGE III.

The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America charges the Rev. Henry Preserved Smith, D.D., a minister in said Church, a member of the Presbytery of Cincinnati, in a pamphlet entitled "Biblical Scholarship and Inspiration," while alleging that the Holy Scriptures are inspired, and an infallible rule of faith and practice, with denying in fact their inspiration in the sense in which inspiration is attributed to the Holy Scriptures, by the Holy Scriptures themselves and by the Confession of Faith.

On December 13, Presbytery suspended the accused from the ministry in the following action:

"Charges II and III have thus been proved, and Dr. Smith is found guilty of both charges.

"Therefore, the judgment of the Presbytery, sitting as a Court, is, that the Rev. Henry Preserved Smith, D.D., be, and hereby is, suspended from the ministry of the Presbyterian Church until such time as he shall make manifest, to the satisfaction of Presbytery, his renunciation of the errors he has been found to hold, and his solemn purpose no longer to teach or propagate them."

Deeming myself aggrieved by this sentence and unjustly deprived of my rights and privileges as a minister of Jesus Christ, I gave due notice of appeal to the Synod of Ohio, and filed the same with the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery within the time required by the Book of Discipline. At the meeting of the Synod of Ohio, held in the Second Presbyterian Church, Cincinnati, October 10 to 13, 1893, I presented my appeal with specifications of the errors of the Presbytery. These errors as specified in the appeal to the Synod are as follows:

"1. The Court erred in allowing members of Presbytery to sit in judgment on the case after they had published opinions on my guilt: and erred in overruling my objections to three members whose utterances were brought to the attention of the Court as a reason for their not sitting in judgment on the case.

"2. The Court erred in refusing to sustain my objections to the preliminary proceedings. These objections affect the regularity of the action of the Court in appointing a Committee of Prosecution, as follows:

"(a) The prosecution was resolved upon in pursuance of the report of a Committee not empowered to deal with this subject.

"(b) The prosecution was resolved upon in pursuance of a partisan and prejudiced report.

"(c) The prosecution was resolved upon without inquiry whether it were necessary for the ends of discipline to investigate the alleged offense.

"(d) The prosecution was begun without any effort, by conference with me, to avoid the necessity of actual process.

"3. The Court erred in not sustaining my objections to the sufficiency of Charge II in form and legal effect. These objections are, in brief, the following:

"(a) While it charges me with teaching contrary to a fundamental doctrine of the Word of God and of the Confession, it is not supported by any showing that the doctrine supposed to be impugned is a fundamental doctrine of the Scriptures or of the Confession.

"(b) It charges an offense which is not contrary to the Word of God or of the Confession.

"4. The Court erred in not sustaining my objections to the sufficiency of Charge III in form and legal effect, as follows:

"(a) It is not definite or specific. It charges as an offense, denying the inspiration of the Scriptures in the sense in which inspiration is attributed to the Scriptures by the Scriptures themselves and the Confession. Yet the charge nowhere defines this sense.

"(b) Charge III is identical with Charge II.

"5. The Presbytery erred in not sustaining my objections to the various specifications under Charge III, as insufficient in form and legal effect, as follows;

"(a) Specification 1 is evidently founded on a mere inference of the prosecution.

"(b) Specification 2 is identical in substance with Charge II.

"(c) Specification 3 is identical in substance with Specification 4 of Charge II.

"(d) Specification 4 is the same in substance with Specification 2 of Charge II.

"(e) Said specifications do not contain allegations of fact sufficient to support Charge III.

"6. The Court erred in declining to receive testimony in that, after part of a printed document had been offered and received in evidence by the prosecution. the whole of the same document was not received by the Court when offered by me.

"7. The Court erred in allowing the vote of a member of the Court to be recorded and counted in his absence.

"8. The Court erred in sustaining the second charge and finding me guilty.

"9. The action of the Court sustaining the Specifications 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, 11, under Charge II, was against the evidence and not supported by sufficient evidence.

"10. The Court erred in sustaining Charge III, and finding me guilty.

"11. The Court erred in sustaining the specifications under Charge III as follows:

"(a) Specification 1 is not proved by the evidence cited.

"(b) Specification 3 is not relevant to the charge.

"(c) Specification 4 is grossly exaggerated in language.

"12. The Court erred in imposing on me the penalty of suspension from the ministry, which penalty would be excessive even if I were guilty of the offenses charged."

The appeal with these specifications of error was found in order by the Synod, after which the Judgment, the Notice of Appeal and the Appeal were read and the Synod decided that the Appeal should be entertained. After the parties were heard and opportunity to be heard had been given to the members of the Synod, the Synod proceeded to vote on each one of the above twelve specifications of error. No one of these was sustained, the highest vote to sustain being 51, against 78 not to sustain. Thereupon the Moderator, as already recited, declared the judgment of the Presbytery of Cincinnati to be affirmed.

Having obtained no relief from the Synod of Ohio, I now appeal to the General Assembly, the highest Court of the Church. I pray your venerable body to review the action of the Synod by which the decision of the Presbytery was confirmed. I pray you to issue the case in accordance with justice and the constitution of the Church, to reverse the decision of the lower Court and to restore me to the exercise of my ministry, from which I have been excluded, having in submission to the discipline of the Church suffered this privation for the space of eighteen months.

In support of this appeal, as already recited in the Notice of Appeal, I allege twelve errors in the action of the Synod, each being a refusal on the part of Synod to correct erroneous action taken by the Presbytery of Cincinnati.

1. The Synod erred in not sustaining my first specification of error in my appeal from the Presbytery of Cincinnati, which was as follows: "allowing members of the Presbytery to sit in judgment in the case after they had published opinions on my guilt."

2. The Synod erred in not sustaining my second specification of error in my appeal as aforesaid, to wit: "refusing to sustain my objections to the preliminary proceedings."

3. The Synod erred in not sustaining my third specification of error, to wit: "not sustaining my objections to the sufficiency of Charge II in form and legal effect."

4. The Synod erred in not sustaining my fourth specification of error, to wit: "not sustaining my objections to the sufficiency of Charge III in form and legal effect."

5. The Synod erred in not sustaining my fifth specification of error, to wit: "not sustaining my objections to the various specifications under Charge III, as insufficient in form and legal effect."

6. The Synod erred in not sustaining my sixth specification of error, to wit: "declining to receive testimony."

7. The Synod erred in not sustaining my seventh specification of error, to wit: "allowing the vote of a member of the Court to be recorded and counted in his absence."

8. The Synod erred in not sustaining my eighth specification of error, to wit: "sustaining Charge II and finding me guilty."

9. The Synod erred in not sustaining my ninth specification of error, to wit: "the action of the Court sustaining Specifications 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, 11, under Charge II, was against the evidence and not supported by sufficient evidence."

10. The Synod erred in not sustaining my tenth specification of error, to wit: "sustaining Charge III, and finding me guilty."

11. The Synod erred in not sustaining my eleventh specification of error, to wit: "sustaining the specifications under Charge III."

12. The Synod erred in not sustaining my twelfth specification of error, to wit: "imposing on me the penalty of suspension from the ministry, which penalty would be excessive even if I were guilty of the offenses charged."

These errors as alleged, having been committed by the Presbytery of Cincinnati, and having been confirmed by the Synod of Ohio, are brought to the notice of your venerable body and submitted to your judgment, in the hope that your action may be in accordance with justice and right, and may promote the peace and purity of the Church.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., May 17, 1894.

The above appeal was duly filed with me this day.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS,
Stated Clerk.

REPORT OF THE MINORITY OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE WITH THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.*

The General Assembly of 1892, in appointing its Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries, gave as a reason for the appointment of that Committee, "That the Assembly is persuaded that the Church should have direct connection with and control over its Theological Seminaries." The minority of your Committee beg leave respectfully to submit to the Assembly the following statements and reasons, why, while assenting to much in the Report of the Committee of Conference with the Theological Seminaries, we cannot agree with many of its conclusions.

*See for the Report of the Committee, p. 56.

The Report of the Committee, as will be seen, dwells chiefly upon and provides for "direct connection with and control over the Theological Seminaries of the Church," by the General Assembly.

The minority of your Committee would respectfully call the attention of the Assembly to the fact, that this question of direct Assembly control, has been passed upon by the General Assembly, under circumstances which assure us that its action was well considered.

In 1828 (Minutes (reprint), p. 243), we find the following: "The Committee to which was referred a memorial from the West Lexington Presbytery, on the subject of Theological Seminaries, in which is submitted a plan for the attainment—

"First, Of entire uniformity in the government and course of study in the theological schools of our Church; and

"Second, The most unqualified dependence upon the General Assembly as a bond of union between all the churches and all her seminaries, in order to secure, to the satisfaction of the memorialists, the future peace and purity of the Church, by securing unity of sentiment and consequently of effort among all the ministers of the Presbyterian Church in these United States, made the following Report, which was adopted, viz.:

"The subject of this memorial is too serious in its character, and too important in its bearing and its consequences, to be discussed at so late a period of the Assembly's sessions, and inasmuch as it would materially affect the rights of individuals, of Presbyteries, and indeed of the whole Presbyterian Church, and would also call for important alterations in the Constitution, the Committee deem it inexpedient for this Assembly to enter upon the consideration of the proposals submitted in the document, and recommend that the memorial be referred to the consideration of the next General Assembly."

It will be observed that the Assembly of 1828 did not find in the Constitution, which defines the powers of the General Assembly, the authority for such control over the theological schools of our Church, as was desired by the memorialists. To grant their request, would "call for important alterations in the Constitution," which it is needless to say have never been made.

The memorial was taken up in the next Assembly (1829), "and committed to the Rev. Archibald Alexander, D.D., the Rev. Samuel Miller, D.D., and the Rev. Charles Hodge, to consider and report on the same to the next General Assembly" (Minutes 1829 (reprint), p. 270). It will be noted that these three were Professors in the Theological Seminary at Princeton, and the most eminently fitted, of all the ministers of our Church, to make a wise decision upon the matters proposed.

The next year they presented their Report, which was adopted, viz.:

"That the said memorial sets forth the evils which, in the opinion of the memorialists, threaten the Church from the operation of numerous Theological Seminaries existing independently of the General Assembly, and adopting different systems of government, and different courses of study. To counteract these evils it proposes, that the General Assembly should take all the Theological Seminaries throughout our bounds under its immediate and absolute control, and prescribe a course of study which shall be uniform in them all.

"These are the prominent points of the memorial under consideration. Your Committee are ready to acknowledge, that there are evils of a very formidable character, which are likely to arise from the indefinite multiplication of Theological Seminaries, under the care of a single Synod or Presbytery. They fear, that the standard of theological education, in the Presbyterian Church, will ultimately fall far below that maintained in some other Christian denominations, and thus the respectability and usefulness of our clergy be greatly impaired. They believe, also, that much good, that might have resulted from having a larger portion of our young men brought into personal acquaintance with each other, and educated upon the same plan, must now be lost; and that we must content ourselves with less of harmony of feeling and unity of sentiment than might, under other circumstances, have been secured. Believing, however, that it is perfectly competent to every Presbytery or Synod, to adopt what plan they may think best, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the Church, for the education of their own young men; and finding that the Assembly has long sanctioned their so doing, your Committee are of opinion that this subject is not within the rightful jurisdiction of the General Assembly; and that even if it were, it would, under existing circumstances, be highly inexpedient to adopt the course proposed by the memorialists. They therefore beg to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject."

Again, the first General Assembly of the Reunited Church, which through the Committee of Reunion of both Churches had had the whole matter of the relations of the Theological Seminaries to the Church under consideration for three years, adopted the exhaustive Report of its Committee on Theological Seminaries (Minutes 1870, pp. 60–70). That Report says, inter alia—"as to any project by which the entire control, and administration of all our Theological Seminaries—for example, as to the election of Trustees—can be transferred to the General Assembly, on any principle of complete uniformity, your Committee regard it as wholly impracticable, and the attempt to accomplish it altogether undesirable. To bring it about, should it be undertaken, would require an amount of legislation, in six or seven different States, which would be portentous" (p. 62). They further say: "It is self-evident, as your Committee are agreed, that a body so large as the General Assembly, and composed of men resident, most of them, at so great a distance from the several seminaries, is not so competent to arrange for their interests and usefulness, as those having local and personal interests with them" (p. 63).

The Report of the majority proposes to give direct control over all the seminaries to the General Assembly, by providing that the election of Trustees, Directors, or Commissioners, or whatever the bodies governing the instruction and property be named, shall be subject to the approval of the General Assembly; no election to take effect until approved by the General Assembly.

What the General Assembly of 1870 said as to the unfitness of the Assembly, for the reasons given, to arrange for the interests of the several seminaries, applies with equal force to the exercise of the power they would give the Assembly, of approval or disapproval of the election of Trustees and Directors.

In so large a body as the Assembly, and with so many candidates for confirmation, personal knowledge will be impossible to all but a very few. Even the Committee which reports their names, may have in it none who are personally cognizant of the qualifications of the scores whose names are each year brought before a new Assembly. The term "direct control" cannot possibly apply to the Assembly's action in these most important cases, since that action is really the result of the "direct control" of less than half a dozen out of a body of six hundred.

It is not necessary to pile up citations to show that the Assembly has uniformly and unvaryingly referred the care of theological students and of their instruction to the Presbyteries—which is indeed one of the reserved rights of the Presbyteries.

There is no prudence nor good judgment in setting aside the tried and the good for a novelty that is good only in theory, and which can be plainly shown to be both defective and dangerous.

Theological instruction in Bible ages was that which our General Synod, in 1761, reaffirmed, the resort of the student for instruction to "some minister of approved character for his skill in theology." Thus the prophet Samuel was taught, thus Elisha was taught, thus the twelve apostles, and thus also Paul by Gamaliel and Apollos by the godly Aquila. Thus all our great reformers, divines and theologians were taught. The principle here involved is voluntary instruction in theology by approved divines. The schools of the prophets were voluntary gatherings of students around a voluntary teacher. The monastic system, under the direct control of a central authority, led to the corruption of the faith and the oppression of the people. The centralization of ecclesiastical authority was the root of papal corruption and cruelty, and is antagonistic to the law and to the spirit of Presbyterianism.

In the nature of things the Assembly cannot itself exercise the authority over the seminaries that is demanded for it. Hence, the only real question is whether it will leave this responsibility as it is in the hands of the many, or shall centralize it in the hands of a few.

Our Church has approved of voluntary instruction in specific terms. It has also approved the voluntary schools of the prophets over which it assumed no direct control. The Presbyterian Church recognizes no hierarchial orders in its ministry, either as to responsibility or authority. Prophets, teachers and evangelists are all of the one order of the ministry, exercising different gifts. All these are under one law, all responsible to one system of courts, constitutionally established and impartially administered. The first experiment in direct control was made by the establishment, by a bare majority, of Assembly control in Princeton. It was never satisfactory. It always involved discomfort to the school, and friction. It was wisely abandoned for the Biblical plan which has been pursued by the true Church, and under which Christ gave such a noble succession of reformers, theologians and ministers of the Word.

Under the present wise and beneficent system the Church has an indirect but perfectly efficient authority and control over theological instruction, which operates without friction, without oppression, without repressing individual and local enthusiasm, and without interfering with voluntary consecration of means and talents.

First. The Assembly has the inherent right of visitation and inquiry in and concerning all her Theological Seminaries. The power of visitation is an inherent right of Presbyterian government (Form of Government, Chap. x, Sec. 8) "for the purpose of inquiring and redressing the evils which may have arisen."

Each of the judicatories has this power under circumstances pointed out in the book, e. g., when the judicatory of original jurisdiction has failed of its duty, or for any reason is unable to perform it (see Discipline, Secs. 75 and 76).

In our judgment the General Assembly has the power of visitation in the case of any of the agencies through which, under the Constitution, it conducts its work; over the seminaries to which the Church entrusts the training of its candidates for the ministry, as well as over the Boards to which she entrusts her works of evangelization. Section 76 of the Book of Discipline vindicates the right and power of a superior judicatory when "well advised" of neglect or omission, or irregularities on the part of an inferior judicatory, to "visit" it, and prescribes the course of procedure. As we conceive, this applies also to the Theological Seminaries, on authentic advice as to the insufficiency or unsoundness of the teaching, or any other censurable failure or conduct.

Second. The Assembly has the right to consider the reports submitted to it by the various seminaries, which reports it annually approves or disapproves. On that approval or disapproval the seminary stands or falls. The disapproval of a seminary is practically fatal to it as a Presbyterian institution.

Third. Its students come to it for aid and advice. They will not attend a seminary which is under its disapproval. It will not aid a student financially, or otherwise, who defies its advice.

Fourth. The Church examines candidates for the ministry, before, during, and at the close of their studies, and decides whether they are qualified in character, knowledge and doctrine.

Fifth. Every student and every minister is immediately responsible to the Church for his conduct and teaching, in which he has both the protection and the government of the Church.

These are high and conclusive powers. They are efficient for all the purposes of the Church. To extend them would be wholly unnecessary and therefore unwise. As they are, they give freedom to individual types of mind and of character, and they foster and develop enthusiasm and consecration.

Sixth. Three of the seminaries were wholly independent of Assembly control prior to the compact of 1870. Nothing was conceded by the compact but the right to veto the election of a professor. If the direct or indirect control of the funds had been insisted upon, either through a Board of Trustees elected by the Assembly, or through making the election of Trustees or Directors depend upon the approval of the Assembly, it is safe to say it would have been an effectual bar to union. To insist upon it now, after the union has been accomplished, with the clearly involved disapproval of any seminary declining to yield to the insistence, would be a flagrant impropriety and breach of faith. We cannot demand of these seminaries now, in order to their good standing, what was not demanded when the union was consummated. In what doubtful aspect would it place the Assembly to demand the surrender to itself of the property of the seminaries, to which property it has no legal or moral claim, and to inflict punishment on them for resisting the unreasonable demand.

Finally. The instruction given in the Theological Seminaries is already under the control of the Presbyterian Church, in the only constitutional way in which control should be exercised, viz., through judicial process by our regular Church courts. Any attempt to set aside this system in part, and as to class of ministers, is rash and revolutionary. Every argument that can be adduced in favor of direct Assembly control over professors would be equally cogent in favor of direct Assembly control over pastors.

The scheme for direct Assembly control is without a shadow of warrant in our form of government, and is a severe reflection on, if not a virtual repudiation of the system of responsible and representative graded courts, which is at once our pride and joy.

The scheme proposes a practical subversion of invested and established rights—first, of those whose means have founded our seminaries, who gave to them as they were, based on the historic plan; second, of the ministerial rights of the professors who would be subjected to irresponsible attack in the Assembly, and to a trial without lawful process.

The Assembly does not need to be told that it cannot, as an Assembly, exercise direct and wise control of the seminaries, that it must entrust this work to temporary and ephemeral Committees, and that these Committees, necessarily deficient of the knowledge possessed of each seminary by its Board, would in the exercise of autocratic authority provoke resistance and conflict. We respectfully ask comparison of such a scheme with the present established order, an order which is in harmony with the spirit and the traditions of the Church and with Scriptural example.

The control of the Church over the teaching in the seminaries, lies in its jurisdiction through its several judicatories, over every minister in its communion. It would certainly be in the power of the General Assembly, as a condition of its approval of any seminary, to require that all its stated teachers shall be ministers in good standing, and members of some one of the Presbyteries of the Synod within whose bounds that seminary is located. We cannot agree with the majority that the direct control of the Church is necessarily vested in the Assembly, save as the final judge.

We therefore recommend that no change in the established order be proposed by the Assembly to the seminaries, except such as may in some instances be necessary to strengthen and further establish it, such as these:

1. That the seminaries be advised to adhere to the recommendation of the General Synod of 1761, in the selection for each Chair of "some minister of approved character for his skill in theology." In other words, to fill their Chairs with ministers who are under the control of, and subject to, the discipline of the courts of the Church, and who will submit to such control.

2. That if anything be lacking in the charter of any seminary, by which lack its property might be alienated from its use in supporting Presbyterian theological instruction, such seminary be advised to strengthen its charter at that point so that such alienation shall be forever impossible.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CO-OPERATION OF CHURCHES.

Your Committee herewith present their Third Annual Report. In previous years our work has been to secure the information necessary to intelligent action by the Assembly. We presented statistics to the Assembly of 1892 which seemed to indicate a large field and a steady call for coöperation.

Two of the recommendations adopted at that meeting had reference to the relations of the Board of Home Missions to the subject of Church coöperation. The Board was directed by the Assembly to instruct its Synodical missionaries and their missionary agents to increased carefulness in the organization of new churches, and that where doubt may exist as to the propriety of the organization of a new church, such organization shall be effected only after full conference with the representatives of other local churches, with the Presbytery and the Board of Home Missions. The Board of Home Missions has issued its instructions in accordance with the above recommendation. It is believed that our Synodical missionaries will act fully up to these instructions, and, if so, it is manifest that, so far, our Church will be relieved from criticisms of too much merely denominational zeal.

We feel constrained to call attention again to the rule of the Board to examine strictly into the condition of churches that are not making progress towards self-support. We are persuaded that there is a long list of such churches, and that the pressure should be stringent upon them to show good and sufficient reasons for their lack of growth. There are too many new and promising fields calling for help to make it wise to have a large body of unsuccessful churches in continual dependence on the Board. There, doubtless, are cases where it is the duty of the Church to carry weak churches for an indefinite number of years. But it must be remembered that the Board of Home Missions was organized to help churches to self-support, and not to support perpetually churches which have in them no elements of independence.

The Assembly of 1892 recommended that the officers of the Board of Home Missions invite a conference of the executive officers of allied denominations for the purpose of devising some plan for future operations in the matter of closer coöperation of churches. In accordance with that recommendation such conference was held at the Mission Rooms, 53 Fifth avenue, New York city, on December 5, 1892, and was attended by representatives of the Presbyterian Board, the American Home Missionary Society of the Congregational Church, and the Board of Domestic Missions of the Reformed Church in America, and by members of your Committee. The results of the deliberations were formulated at a subsequent meeting of the conference, and are as follows:

"Each of the Boards or Societies represented, has on record rules for the government of its agents in their interdenominational relations on missionary fields.

"The Presbyterian Home Missionary is required by the printed terms of his commission to 'avoid interfering improperly with existing organizations, or multiplying churches from mere sectarian considerations.'

"The Congregationalists, in their printed statement of principles furnished to their superintendents and missionaries, say: 'It is the invariable rule of the Society not to plant a Congregational church or mission on ground which, in the proper sense of the word, is cared for by other evangelical denominations.'

"The rule adopted by the Board of the Reformed Church is 'not to gather a congregation in any community when the field is fully occupied by other evangelical churches.'

"The Committee endorse these rules as wise, and sufficient to cover the whole ground, and need only to be applied as circumstances arise.

"The Committee, therefore, recommend:

"1. That these rules be emphasized as of universal application.

"2. That exceptional cases which may arise shall be referred to Committees of Conference on the field, consisting of the Chairmen of the Local Home Missionary Committees of the denominations concerned, together with the Synodical missionaries and the Home Missionary superintendents.

"3. In case of disagreement on the field, the question in dispute shall be referred to the Secretaries of the Home Missionary Societies in New York.

"In regard to the feasibility of uniting small churches, it is recommended that each Board or Society inquire of its field agents what churches, if any, belonging to the different denominations can be served by one pastor or supply, the missionary grant in that case to be equitably divided between the several Boards, and the churches to retain their denominational relations; also that inquiry be made what church or churches should be discontinued, and its members be advised to unite with some other evangelical church."

What results may be expected from the platform of Comity thus agreed upon between these denominations? Manifestly, very little, if it shall be a merely paper platform. But the efficient administration of the principles announced would reduce to a minimum the strictures as to Home Mission rivalries. The practical question is this: How shall such administration be secured? The rules which the Boards of these conferring denominations announce agree in declaring that sectarian considerations shall not rule in the organization of new churches, but that the prime question to be considered is whether (in the language of the Congregational Body) "the ground, in the proper sense of the word, is cared for by other evangelical denominations," or, in the language of the Reformed Church, whether "the ground is fully occupied by other evangelical churches." The end sought by these rules is the wise and Christian end of economizing forces and avoiding rivalry and friction. It would seem at first glance that the administration of them would be easy and efficient. But, manifestly, in rapidly growing communities no fast and hard rule can be applied. It is often a delicate and difficult question when the ground is fully occupied, when a field is properly cared for. Thus, churches must be built not only for the present, but for the future. In many western countries all Mission Boards might agree that half the existing organizations are sufficient for to-day, and yet each be wise and brotherly in occupying the ground, for, in a year or two, all the churches will be full and prosperous. Or, again, a church may hold the ground without fully occupying it, and its inefficiency or lifelessness may make another church a necessity, even beyond the actual demands of the population. It is to meet cases of this kind that the rules of the Boards are framed as they are, with the guarding or qualifying clauses to which we have referred.

From the nature of these rules, which must be made flexible to meet the various necessities of the Mission field, there is chance for differences of opinion among brethren equally desirous to meet the conditions of efficient and brotherly coöperation. Until human judgment becomes inerrant, no amount of right Christian feeling can wholly prevent differences of opinion, which may result in improper interference. How shall this be provided against? It might be attempted by the action of ecclesiastical courts; but the disagreement is not about principles, and does not need general action. The principles are accepted. It is their application that presents the problem. This must be sought locally. It has, therefore, seemed to your Committee, when disagreements arise which would result in violations of the settled fraternal policy of these Boards, or where there is uncertainty as to the right course to be pursued, there should be a council in each mission field, composed of the Chairmen of the Local Home Missionary Committees of the denominations concerned, together with the Synodical Missionaries and Home Missionary Superintendents. To them, all doubtful questions arising out of the interdenominational relation of churches to each other should be referred. In case of the failure of such council to reach a harmonious conclusion, the matters in dispute should be referred for settlement to the executive officers of the Home Missionary Societies, at their headquarters. There would seem to be no good reason to doubt that among brethren actuated by supreme devotion to the cause of Christ, and each desirous of eliminating all mere sectarian considerations from the great Home Mission problems, that such conferences as are herein provided for would be efficient in obviating misunderstandings and reducing unworthy rivalries to their lowest terms.

But at last the whole scheme depends on the conscientious activity of the proposed council. It is, however, so simply constituted there would seem to be no great obstacle in the way of a fair degree of efficiency. Thus, for example, in a given region—let us say in Ohio or Wisconsin—there is a Presbytery, a Congregational Association, and a Reformed Classis. If there is a grievance on that field, by reason of unwarranted aggression on the part of one of these denominations, all that the aggrieved party need do is to notify the missionary agent or the chairman of the local committee, whether in a Presbytery or Association, and he will at once call together the Council for conference. If in remote regions where the Council cannot conveniently meet, the end may be reached by correspondence. It would seem to be sufficient, therefore, for each Mission Board to keep prominently before the local Committees and agents the importance of the matter and the functions of the Council.

The question has been asked, "Why were there only three denominations represented at the Conference?" It may be replied that several others were invited; a number expressed an interest in the object sought, but for various reasons were not able to be present at the time named. It has seemed to us important that there should be, from time to time, further conferences in the same direction, and that an effort should be made to have as many of the evangelical denominations represented as agree to the principles announced and are willing to join in giving them effect; for the principles governing the three Churches which have been in conference are of universal application and there should be an endeavor to have them generally considered. During the past year there has been no attempt to hold such a conference, partly because it was known to your Committee that the Committee on Church Unity and Federation was conducting correspondence whose aim included Home Missionary coöperation, and partly and chiefly because we desired to see the tentative plan entered into between a few of the closely allied denominations, tried long enough to indicate the practicability of an extension of the plan to other bodies. In this regard we are happy to say that we are now able to report definite progress. The two denominations with which our own has been associated during the past year in trying to prove the efficiency of close coöperation in home missionary work are the Southern Presbyterian and Congregationalist.

It will be remembered that a Joint Committee of the Churches North and South reported a plan of coöperation to their respective Assemblies in 1889. This was adopted by both Assemblies. As to coöperation in the home field, these Churches agreed as follows:

1. Where Presbyteries belonging to the two Assemblies cover the same ground, they are advised to endeavor, either as Presbyteries or through their Committees, to agree as brethren to have the efforts of one church expended in certain fields and the efforts of the other church expended in certain other fields within their common bounds, so as to prevent hurtful rivalry or antagonism.

2. Where there are weak churches which, standing alone, cannot support a minister, but which can be grouped with churches connected with the other Assembly so as to form one ministerial charge, Presbyteries having jurisdiction are advised to allow such churches to be grouped under a minister from either body to whom their respective Presbyteries are willing to give them in charge, and to have their contributions to the general benevolent funds passed through the channels appointed by their respective Assemblies; and, where such churches are sufficiently near, they are recommended (a majority of each congregation agreeing) to consolidate and form one congregation with such Presbyterial connections as may be most agreeable to the membership.

While this plan has not been carried out to the extent that is both desirable and possible, suggestive progress has been made within the last year or two, by which our Home Board has been enabled to make the grouping alluded to with Southern churches in four States and in seven fields, viz.: Four in Florida, where two groupings have been made with Northern ministers supplying and two with Southern ministers supplying; also groupings of Northern and Southern churches, one each in Tennessee, Texas and Alabama, under Southern pastors, supported in part by our Home Board.

In each case, so far as we know, this grouping has resulted not only in saving of funds but in harmony and spiritual blessing. In the success of these groupings there is suggestion of the practicability of a large extension of this coöperation between the Northern and Southern Church.

So far there has been but one case of grouping with our Congregational brethren. It is in the Presbytery of East Oregon, where a Congregational minister supplies one of our churches grouped with a neighboring Congregational Church. But here, also, the blessing resulting from this coöperation has not only justified the arrangement in that case, but suggests a wide field for such comity between our own Church and other Congregational Churches.

Carrying out the spirit of the recommendations presented in your Committee's Report to the last Assembly with reference to conferences on the field, in cases of dispute and failing to agree on the field reference of the matters in dispute to the executive offices of the denominations concerned, it may be said that in this matter also a beginning has been made in the way of giving thorough effect to the plan which has been submitted to the Assembly. Two such cases are reported in the Northwest; one within the bounds of the Presbytery of South Superior, between the missionary agents of the Presbyterian and Congregational bodies, and another in North Dakota, between the same bodies. The conferences on the field being unable to come to an agreement, the matter was referred to the executive offices of the two Home Missionary Societies concerned. In the one case our Home Board, in a generous spirit of conciliation, yielded its claim to the field; in the other, the executive officers, failing to come to an agreement, the principle of the survival of the fittest was invoked, and it resulted quite naturally in the Presbyterian Church holding the ground.

Several cases of temporary arrangement have been made in other fields, all pointing in the direction of the feasibility of permanent groupings.

In view of the foregoing considerations, your Committee offer the following recommendations:

1. That the rules and recommendations of the Home Mission Conference, called by request of the General Assembly, are hereby approved and emphasized.

2. That the attention of the Home Board and of the Presbyteries is called to the local conferences between the allied denominations provided for in those rules, and they are requested to give them effect by coöperating with the agents of other denominations in forming the Committees of Conference.

3. That the Board of Home Missions be allowed so to amend its rules governing the commissioning of missionaries under its care as to include ministers in good standing in coöperating bodies which may desire groupings according to the plan of coöperation herein proposed.

4. That Presbyteries be directed to inquire whether there are churches in their field belonging to these coöperating denominations which can be united under one ministry in the manner proposed, or whether there are churches which, in their judgment, should be disbanded, and their members advised to unite with some other evangelical church.

5. That the Committee be continued and directed to secure occasional Conferences of the Mission Boards of such allied denominations as may be willing to coöperate in the general plan, and, in order to secure the permanence of the work under proper denominational sanction and control, that the coöperating societies be advised to make annual reports to their respective denominations.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES L. THOMPSON,

Chairman.

II. Theological Seminaries.

I. PRINCETON SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Directors.

The Board of Directors of Princeton Theological Seminary presents to the General Assembly the following as its Eighty-second Annual Report:

Since our last Annual Report one hundred and one students have been matriculated, namely:

Andrew Lucas Whitfield, "
Calvin Wight, a graduate of College of New Jersey.
Clarence Russell Williams, " University of Pennsylvania.

Of these there were admitted as resident graduates, R. L. Alter, A. W. Hayes and T. W. Pearson, graduates of the Western Theological Seminary; S. Ishimoto, a teacher in Meiji Gaku-in, Japan; W. C. McCullough and J. W. Morrow, graduates of Assembly's College, Ireland; A. W. Mahon, a graduate of Pine Hill; and J. S. Stevenson, a graduate of the University of Edinburgh.

In the Senior class were enrolled J. T. Boyer, after two years, and G. E. Moore, after three years in the Danville Theological Seminary; W. F. Colclough, after two years in the Congregational College, of Canada, at Montreal: S. Gillespie, after two years in Assembly's College, Belfast; J. McG. Knipe, after two years in Xenia Theological Seminary; G. A. McEwen, after one year each at Omaha and San Francisco Theological Seminaries.

Of matriculating students who were admitted to the Middle class, C. E. Bixler and C. Wight had completed the Junior year at the Chicago Theological Seminary; F. F. Donson, at Union Theological Seminary, New York city; O. Harter and T. H. Medd, in the Theological Department of Ursinus College; F. D. P. Hickman, at San Francisco Theological Seminary, and J. W. Hoffman, J. W. Taylor and C. R. Williams, at Yale Divinity School; H. S. McMullan, at New College, Edinburgh; W. Moore and E. L. Tiffany, at Lane Theological Seminary; and W. L. Walker, at Columbia Theological Seminary.

Of the matriculants who are not graduates of college, E. L. Tiffany is a graduate of the Eclectic Medical College of Cincinnati; E. McC. Calvin studied for three years at Parsons College, and is a licentiate of the Presbytery of Olympia; and R. J. Hunter studied four years, less half a term, at Davidson College; C. H. Kajiwara took a special course at the College of New Jersey; R. C. McAdie studied for two years at London and Edinburgh Universities; A. W. Mahon three years at Dalhousie; and A. L. Whitfield two years at Trinity College, Texas.

The number of students reported in the annual catalogue as in attendance, including the fellows, is as follows:

Graduate students,	19
Senior Class,	61
Middle Class,	73
Junior Class,	69
Special Students,	10
Total,	232

The members of the two lower classes are somewhat straightened for lack of the customary employment during the vacation. The Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work has commissioned but one of our students for the summer, and the Home Board finds itself financially unable to employ any Middlers. Most of the graduating class who desired to enter immediately upon pastoral work have accepted calls. Nine men have offered themselves to our own Board or other Missionary Societies for foreign work. One member of the graduating class, James Monroe Boger, a graduate of Biddle University, an earnest man whose work in Elizabeth during the past twelve months is highly spoken of, after illness of a few months, has entered upon eternal service.

A series of evangelistic meetings was conducted in the town at the beginning of the year by Mr. Mills, in which our students, as a whole, participated. The insight they derived into methods, the experience many of them had in hitherto untried personal work with the unconverted and the churchless, the blessing which accompanied their efforts, and rested upon themselves, form a grateful remembrance to them, and are expected by them to be a lasting benefit.

The lectures delivered by Prof. Graham Taylor, and by the Stone Lecturer, Rev. Frederick H. Wines, accidentally more numerous than had been expected when they were planned, were most opportune. Both lecturers attracted large audiences, and held their unflagging attention. A feature of the occasion was the personal intercourse of the lecturers with the students for the purposes of discussion, an innovation which met with a hearty response.

Dr. William Imbrie delivered the lectures on Missions, on the Students' Foundation. His course forms a valuable chapter in Church history.

The George S. Green fellow of 1893, George Livingstone Robinson, has been appointed fellow for the coming year; also, the George S. Green fellowship, open to competition this spring, has been awarded to George Leslie Johnston, and the Alumni fellowship and Archibald Robertson scholarship in New Testament studies to Louis Burton Crane, with honorable mention of Francis Palmer. The prizes open to competition to members of the Senior class have been awarded as follows: the first Carter prize of fifty dollars' worth of books for the best thesis on an assigned subject in Old Testament literature or exegesis, to Samuel Gillespie; the second, of ten dollars' worth of books, to Harry Kremers, and the third to Oliver Johnson; Scribner prizes of like value and for like work in the New Testament department have been awarded, the first, to Wallace Maxwell Hamilton; the second, to Emil Simon Toensmeier, and the third, to Jacob Twyman Boyer.

Of the prizes open to the Middle class, the Stanton prize of fifty dollars for the best thesis on an assigned subject in Old Testament literature or exegesis has been awarded to Ira McConaughy; the first Maitland prize of one hundred dollars for like work in the New Testament department, to William Edward Biederwolf, and the second, of fifty dollars, to James Henry Dunham.

Robert Patterson Byers and George Johnson received the prizes offered to Juniors for passing the best examination in Hebrew, at the opening of the present session.

Since the date of the last Report, certificates of graduation have been given to fifty-seven persons, fifty-five of whom were members of the graduating class of 1894. They are:

Hon. James A. Beaver, LL.D., Bellefonte, Pa.
Hon. John Scott, Philadelphia.
Logan C. Murray, Esq., New York City.

A vacancy caused by the resignation of William L. Dubois, Esq., of Philadelphia, was filled also on May 7, 1894, by the election of Ethelbert D. Warfield, LL.D., of Easton, Pa., to fill a term to expire in May, 1896.

In our Report of last year it was stated that the Rev. William Brenton Greene, Jr., D.D., had been unanimously elected Stuart Professor of the Relations of Philosophy and Science to the Christian Religion. Dr. Greene was duly inaugurated in that professorship on September 22, 1893.

It was also further stated in our last Report that a gentleman had been chosen to fill our new Professorship of Biblical Theology and had accepted the invitation. It is now our pleasant duty to report further that on May 8, 1894, the Rev. Gerhardus Vos, Ph.D., D.D., was duly inaugurated into that professorship. Once more, through the divine blessing, the chairs in our Seminary Course of Instruction are all filled.

All of which, by order of the Board of Directors, is respectfully reported.

WILLIAM E. SCHENCK,

II. AUBURN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Report to the General Assembly.

The Governing Boards of the Theological Seminary of Auburn, in the State of New York, report as follows, for the year ending May 10, 1894, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

I. THE GOVERNING BOARDS.

A. The Officers of the Board of Commissioners for the ensuing year are:

Rev. T. Ralston Smith, D.D., President.
Rev. Frederick W. Palmer, of Auburn, Stated Clerk.
Rev. Albert B. Robinson, Clerk.
Rev. Henry T. Scholl, Assistant Clerk.

B. The Board of Trustees is constituted as follows:

1. Class whose term of office expires in 1895:

Rev. Levi Parsons, D.D., Mount Morris, N. Y.
Mr. Edward C. Selover, Auburn, N. Y.
Mr. Robert A. Nelson, Auburn, N. Y.
Hon. William E. Hughitt, Auburn, N. Y.
Robert L. Drummond, Esq., Auburn, N. Y.

2. Class whose term of office expires in 1896:

Mr. Henry A. Morgan, Aurora, N. Y.
Mr. James Seymour, Jr., Auburn, N. Y.
Rev. George B. Spalding, D.D., Syracuse, N. Y.
Rev. Andrew V. V. Raymond, D.D., Schenectady, N. Y.
Rev. John McC. Holmes, D.D., Albany, N. Y.

3. Class whose term of office expires in 1897:

Hon. Charles C. Dwight, LL.D., Auburn, N. Y.
Rev. J. J. Porter, D.D., Watertown, N. Y.
George C. Buell, Esq., Rochester, N. Y.
Rev. William H. Hubbard, Auburn, N. Y.
Rev. M. Woolsey Stryker, D.D., LL.D., Clinton, N. Y.

The PRESIDENT of the Board of Trustees is the Rev. Levi Parsons, D.D.; the VICE-PRESIDENT is the Hon. Charles C. Dwight, LL.D.; the SECRETARY is Mr. James Seymour, Jr., of Auburn, N. Y.

The PRESIDENT of the Seminary is the Rev. Henry M. Booth, D.D.; the TREASURER is Mr. William H. Meaker; the AUDITOR is Mr. Edward C. Selover.

II. THE FACULTY.

The BOARD OF INSTRUCTION, for the year, has been constituted as follows:

The Rev. HENRY MATTHIAS BOOTH, D.D., President and Professor of Practical Theology.
The Rev. SAMUEL MILES HOPKINS, D.D., Emeritus Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity.
The Rev. EZRA ABEL HUNTINGTON, D.D., LL.D., Emeritus Professor of Biblical Criticism.
The Rev. WILLIS JUDSON BEECHER, D.D., Professor of the Hebrew Language and Literature.
The Rev. ANSON JUDD UPSON, D.D., LL.D., Emeritus Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology.
The Rev. JAMES STEVENSON RIGGS, D.D., Taylor, Seymour and Ivison, Professor of Biblical Criticism.
The Rev. TIMOTHY GRENVILLE DARLING, D.D., Richards Professor of Christian Theology.
The Rev. ARTHUR STEPHEN HOYT, D.D., Bellamy and Edwards Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology.
The Rev. THEODORE WELD HOPKINS, Hyde Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity.
The Rev. ARTHUR STEPHEN HOYT, D.D., Librarian.

At a meeting of the Board of Commissioners, held June 21, 1893, Prof. James S. Riggs, heretofore occupying the unendowed Chair of Biblical Greek, was elected Taylor, Seymour and Ivison Professor of Biblical Criticism. At the same time, the Rev. Theodore Weld Hopkins, of the Presbytery of Rochester, was elected Hyde Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity. These appointments are hereby reported to the General Assembly.

THE CHAIR OF PRACTICAL THEOLOGY.

By the founding of this Chair, and the transfer to it of the subject of Church Polity, the Hyde Professor is enabled to give his entire attention to instruction in Ecclesiastical History. The Bellamy and Edwards Professor, being relieved of the work in Pastoral Theology, is enabled to give more time to Homiletics, and to introduce Christian Sociology as a new subject of instruction. In the new Chair itself, Propædeutic, Ecclesiology, Church Polity, the Sacraments, Pastoral Theology, and the English Bible are treated with more fullness than has hitherto been practicable.

III. WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., present to the General Assembly the following as their Sixty-seventh Annual Report. Since the last Annual Report, the following students have been matriculated:

Frank R. Allison,
Ulysses S. Bartz,
Harvey Brokaw,
George G. Burns,
Summer Cotton,
R. J. Diven,
Paul D. Gardner,
P. H. Gordon,
Joseph Hamilton,
J. C. Lane,
A. W. Liggett,
J. R. McCartney,
U. W. McMillen,
C. N. Moore,
W. A. Scott,
J. A. Stevenson,
J. M. Fravis,
Joseph Zoll,
William A. Atkinson,
Shadrach V. Bedickian,
William A. Brown,
Henry T. Chislom,
Maclain W. Davis,
S. C. Elder,
A. A. Giffen,
D. A. Greene,
J. A. Kelso,
E. E. Lashley,
A. B. McCormick,
W. F. McKee,
U. L. Montgomery,
E. E. Patterson,
J. H. Speer,
A. T. Taylor,
F. E. Vernon.

Of the above number, thirty-one entered the Junior class, one of them, Mr. J. A. Kelso, from the same class in McCormick Theological Seminary. E. E. Lashley and Paul D. Gardner entered the Middle class from McCormick Theological Seminary. U. W. McMillen entered the same class from Union Seminary, N. Y. Messrs. Jos. Hamilton and A. T. Taylor, graduates of Princeton Theological Seminary, entered as fourth-year students.

The entire roll of students for the current year is as follows:

Post Graduates,	2
Seniors,	25
Middlers,	39
Juniors,	32
Total,	98

Two included in the above number were matriculated after the issue of the Annual Catalogue.

Of the ninety-eight students on the roll, ninety-two are graduates from the classical course in College. The remaining six pursued classical courses and entered the Seminary as regulars.

The session just closed has been one of steady and faithful work on the part of the young men, and the Faculty reports evidences of large success in their attainments.

The Seminary has been remarkably free from interruptions in study by reason of sickness. No serious case has occurred. Two members of the Middle class found it best to intermit their studies for a year; and a third gave up the latter part of the year. They all expect to resume the course at the next session.

The Foreign Missionary Society has maintained its weekly meetings, during the session, and made them interesting by papers and addresses from their own number, and by addresses by members of the Faculty and from Foreign Missionaries who were in the country. Two young men of the Senior class, Messrs. Howard Campbell and John P. Irwin, are under appointment for the foreign field; and others of the lower classes are working forward to like work in heathen lands. Quite a number of the graduating class have accepted calls to pastorates in our own land, and one of their number will, for a year or more, prosecute a course of study abroad. A large majority of the students have been busy on the Lord's Day in Christian labors, preaching to vacant churches, conducting mission enterprises and teaching in Sunday-schools.

Some valuable additions have been made to the library, mainly in modern publications, and in Teubner's edition of the Latin and Greek Classics. The Trustees, by request of the Faculty, and through the aid of private subscriptions, have by some alterations in the Library building provided for the use of the students an admirable Reading and Consulting Room where the main works of reference may be found.

The Thursday Conference hour has been mainly occupied, through the year, with special lectures given by members of the Faculty.

The following is a list of those who have completed a three years' course of study and have received, in the regular way, the usual diploma:

Y. Y. Auraham,
David Caldwell,
Edward A. Culley,
Oscar J. Gregg,
Clarke D. A. Hoon,
John Prescott Irwin,
Martin E. Koonce,
John L. Lowes,
Harry Nesbit,
Richard J. Roberts,
Samuel A. Stewart,
John M. Thompson,
Harvey A. Zimmerman,
C. A. Austin,
Howard Campbell,
Robert F. Getty,
Thomas W. Hine,
James E. Hutchison,
William M. Jennings,
Samuel B. Linhart,
William T. McKee,
Thomas P. Potts,
Wilson H. Sloan,
James M. Spargrave.

The closing exercises this year were held on the evening of May 3, in the First Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh. Rev. George T. Purves, D.D., Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis in Princeton Theological Seminary, delivered the Annual Address to the graduating class. During the year Major William B. Negley, a member of the Board of Directors, was removed by death. The place made vacant by the death of Major Negley was filled by the election of Mr. Wilson A Shaw as a member of the Board. The outgoing class of Directors of 1894 was reëlected and made the class of 1898.

IV. LANE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Annual Report of the Board of Trustees.

In accordance with an established and appropriate usage, the Board of Trustees of the Lane Theological Seminary, located at Cincinnati, O., respectfully present to the General Assembly the following Report for the Seminary year ending May 3, 1894:

I. CONSTITUTION OF THE BOARD.

This Board was constituted under a special charter, granted by the State of Ohio in February, 1829, as "a body politic and corporate, with perpetual succession, by the name and style of the 'Trustees of the Lane Seminary.'" Under this charter the Board was vested "with full power and authority to acquire, hold, possess, use, occupy, and enjoy by purchase, gift, grant or devise" any property that might be "necessary and convenient to said Institution, the transaction of its business, and the endowment of the same;" also, to "make, ordain, and establish, and put into execution, such By-Laws, ordinances, rules, and regulations as shall be necessary and proper for the good government of said Institution and the prudent and efficient management of its affairs."

More specifically the Board was empowered and obligated by this State charter (1) "to perpetuate its own body by filling all vacancies;" (2) to have "the direction, management, and control of the estate, business, property, funds, and prudential concerns of said Institution, and the administration of its affairs;" (3) "to appoint all professors, tutors, teachers" in the Institution, all of whom "shall hold their respective offices and places therein during the pleasure of said Board," and shall "perform such duties and exercise such powers as the said Trustees from time to time may order and direct." It is further provided and required under this charter (4) "that all the professors, tutors, teachers, and instructors in said Institution shall be members of the Presbyterian Church in good standing, under the care of the General Assembly of that Church in the United States."

Under this civil charter, whose fundamental requisitions are explicit, and are regarded by high legal authority as unchangeable under the present Constitution of the State, this Board now exists, being vested absolutely with all the trusts and heritages which the charter expressly imposes, and which the members of the Board have severally assumed in accepting their official appointment. With few exceptions, all of the Trustees from the beginning until now have been ministers or elders and members of the Presbyterian Church; so also have been all of the professors and other resident or permanent instructors appointed by the Board. The Board has always acted, and is now acting, under the distinct sense of its obligation as a corporation created by civil law to comply at every point with the terms and conditions under which it was at first created. At the same time, while the Board has never regarded itself as an ecclesiastical body, competent to sit in judgment on the Church standing of professors or other instructors, it has always acted, and is now acting, under an equally distinct sense of its duty to administer this entire trust for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church, according to the interests and objects contemplated at the time of the original organization.

As now constituted, this Board consists of thirteen ministers and eight laymen (of whom five are elders) as follows:

Rev. GEORGE M. MAXWELL, D.D., President.
Hon. EMERSON E. WHITE, LL.D., }
THORNTON M. HINKLE, Esq., } Vice-Presidents.
Rev. W. O. THOMPSON, D.D., }
LOWE EMERSON, Esq., Corresponding Secretary.
RICHARD FOLSOM, Esq., Recording Secretary.
MATTHEW ADDY, Esq., Treasurer.
GEORGE I. KING, Esq., Superintendent and Assistant Treasurer.

Rev. J. F. Tuttle, D.D., LL.D., . . .	Crawfordsville, Ind.
Rev. J. G. Monfort, D D., LL.D., . .	Cincinnati.
Rev. W. E. Moore, D.D., LL.D., . .	Columbus.
Hon. Dan P. Eells, ...	Cleveland.
E. R. Monfort, LL.D., ...	Cincinnati.

Rev. J. King Gibson,	South Charleston.
Rev. George H. Fullerton, D.D.,	Springfield.
Rev. Alexander N. Carson, D.D.,	St. Paul, Minn.
Rev. Douglass P. Putnam,	Logansport, Ind.
Rev. Prof. Edgar W. Work, A.M.,	Wooster.
Rev. John W. Simpson, D.D.,	Marietta.
Rev. Alexander B. Riggs, D.D.,	Cincinnati.
Rev. Matthias L. Haines, D.D.,	Indianapolis, Ind.

II. FACULTY AND INSTRUCTION.

Since the meeting of the last General Assembly, Henry P. Smith, D.D., has resigned the Professorship of Hebrew and Old Testament Exegesis, and the Rev. Arthur C. McGiffert, the Professorship of Church History. These resignations left Rev. Edward D. Morris, D.D., LL.D., in the Chair of Systematic Theology, as the only professor in the Institution. The action of the General Assembly at Washington, withholding pecuniary aid from students attending Lane Seminary, left the Board in doubt respecting the attendance of students the next year; but it resolved to keep the Seminary open, and, to this end, Professor Morris was directed to give such instruction as he might be able to give, and, in connection with the Executive Committee of the Board, to make for the year such provisions for additional instruction as might be found to be practicable in the circumstances, at an expense not to exceed $2000.

Under this arrangement, Rev. Kemper Fullerton, A.M., a graduate of Princeton College, and also a graduate and Fellow of Union Theological Seminary, was engaged as an Instructor in the Hebrew and Greek Languages and Biblical Literature. Seventeen non-resident lecturers, representing the various departments of practical Church work and also several closely related colleges and universities, were secured to give instruction in various branches specified in the curriculum of the Seminary, namely:

IN THE BIBLICAL DEPARTMENT.

Rev. Alexander B. Riggs, D.D., Cincinnati—weekly.
Rev. George M. Maxwell, D.D., Wyoming—twelve lectures.
Rev. George S. Burroughs, D.D., President of Wabash College, Indiana—eight lectures.
Rev. Talbot W. Chambers, D.D., LL.D., New York City—four lectures.
Rev. William A. Williams, D.D., President of Franklin College, O.—four lectures.

IN THE DEPARTMENT OF CHURCH HISTORY.

Prof. Henry W. Hulbert, A.M., Marietta, O.—eighteen lectures.
Rev. Thomas Doggett, D.D., Bryan, O.—five lectures.

IN THE DEPARTMENT OF PRACTICAL THEOLOGY.

Rev. George H. Fullerton, D.D., Springfield, O.—nine lectures.
Rev. William E. Moore, D.D., LL.D., Columbus, O.—eight lectures.
Rev. Henry A. Nelson, D.D., Philadelphia—five lectures.
Rev. William F. McCauley, Dayton, O.—four lectures.
Rev. William O. Thompson, D.D., President of Miami University, O.—three lectures.
Rev. Prof. George M. Knox, D.D., Japan—three lectures.
Rev. Sylvester M. Scovel, D.D., President of Wooster University, O.—eight lectures.
Hon. Jacob D. Cox, LL.D., Dean of the Cincinnati Law School—three lectures.
Rev. Charles S. Pomeroy, D.D., Cleveland, O.—four letters.
Prof. J. M. Chapman, Instructor in Elocution, Wabash College—ten lessons.

It may be added that the results of this somewhat novel experiment have been satisfactory, beyond all anticipation. The amount of such instruction given has been unprecedented in the history of our Theological Seminaries: and the vital importance of the subjects discussed, the practical character of the several discussions, and the quickening influence flowing from contact in such a way with so many matured and cultured minds, have formed a contribution to the training of the year that cannot well be overestimated. The experiment has certainly shown the possibility of thus providing satisfactory instruction in most of the subjects formerly included in the chair of "Practical Theology," at an expense less than one-third of the salary of a resident professor, with other obvious advantages. The Board has decided to make such non-resident instruction, in those subjects for which it is especially fitted, an important feature in the Seminary curriculum for the future; and negotiations are already in progress looking to provisions for such instructions in completer and more systematic form the coming year. Nor is the Board without hope that such provisions, within proper limits, will constitute one of the special attractions of the Seminary in time to come.

III. STUDENTS IN ATTENDANCE.

But two students have completed the appointed course of study during this year—Mr. Will M. Burgess and Mr. Melville M. Rankin.

The following students have been admitted:

To the Middle Class, George L. Bickerstaph, Alonzo P. Wilkinson, and Franklin A. Yanger, making, with those previously admitted, six regular students in the class; and (to attend theological lectures) Dr. Thomas A. Bickerstaph, preparing to be a medical missionary.

To the Junior Class, Arthur Rockwell Addy, Elmer A. Bess, Loren K. Grimes, Thomas A. Harman,* Robert B. Irwin, William H. Kersting, Rev. William J. Mills, William P. Pheley, George P. Popoff, John K. Sawyers, Richard S. Schwedler,* Norman C. Shirey; and to attend Junior year theological lectures, Rev. John H. Artape; and, pursuing preparatory studies, H. Grant Dusenberry.

It is thus seen that the number of students in attendance this year is greater than the number enrolled the previous year; and it is believed that the students in the Seminary have not for years past given more general expression of satisfaction with their instruction or been more zealous in their offers of personal aid in securing students; and the prospect for a larger attendance next year is already encouraging.

IV. SEMINARY ENDOWMENT AND FUNDS.

Buildings and grounds, including Seminary and Library buildings and campus,	$162,000 00
General Endowment, including the grounds leased, dwelling houses, etc.,	242,334 50
Scholarship funds,	67,633 44
Library funds,	19,600 00
Receipts for the year, including balance April 1, 1893,	†22,448 67
Expenditures for the year,	‡20,419 22
Balance on hand April 1, 1894,	2,029 45

The library has been renovated and enlarged during the year, and now contains 17,380 volumes. The collection is a very valuable one, and it is hoped that in the future the library may be made a more important adjunct in the preparation of the students for their holy office.

The scholarship funds are only adequate to the needs of the students in the most favorable circumstances. The Seminary was especially embarrassed last year by the action of the General Assembly, prohibiting the granting of aid by the Board of Education to students attending seminaries not approved by the Assembly; but the Board's conditional removal of this prohibition last autumn from young men pursuing their studies here, though too late to benefit all of the students, enabled a few of them to receive valuable aid from that source. The Trustees of Lane are happy to say that, with this limited aid and the contributions of friends, the Seminary has been able to redeem all its pledges of assistance to students.

* First half of the year only.

† This includes $1440 of endowment money that cannot be used to pay running expenses.

‡ The general expenses were $16,888.12, including taxes, $2845.75; house repairs, $2286.96; street and sidewalk expenditures, $784.36.

The permanent scholarship funds (a number of which fall short of the full amount, $2000, required for a scholarship) bear the names of their donors, as follows:

1. Sawyer Scholarship, founded by Nathaniel Sawyer.
2. Ward Scholarship, founded by Miss Jane Ward, Newark, N. J.
3. Condit Scholarship, founded by Miss Jane Ward, Newark, N. J.
4. Gandis Scholarship, founded by Daniel Gandis, Indianapolis, Ind.

5–6. Woodbury Scholarships (2), founded by D. L. Woodbury, Columbus.

7–21. Preserved Smith Scholarships (14), founded by Preserved Smith, Dayton.

22. Columbus Scholarship, founded by Second Presbyterian Church, Columbus.
23. Robert Browne Scholarship, founded by Robert Browne, Cincinnati.
24. D. Howe Allen Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Prof. Allen, Cincinnati.
25. Lafayette Scholarship (incomplete).
26. Ripley Scholarship (incomplete).
27. Rockville Scholarship (incomplete).
28. Stage Scholarship, founded by B. F. Stage, Columbus.
29. Aletta Whitlock Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Aletta Whitlock, Lockland.
30. Fairchild Scholarship, founded by Rev. E. B. Fairchild, D.D.
31. Stephen Whitlock Scholarship, founded by S. Whitlock, Lockland.
32. Shedd Scholarship, founded by Rev. Henry Shedd, Mt. Gilead.
33. Isabella Browne Scholarship, founded by Mrs. I. Browne, Cincinnati.
34. John J. Ferson Scholarship, founded by Mrs. C. M. Ferson, Columbus.
35. Beech Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Ambrose Beech, Monroe, Mich.
36. Laura Beaver De Witt Scholarship, founded by Rev. Dr. and Mrs. John DeWitt.

V. STATEMENT AND OVERTURE.

Allusion has already been made to the serious embarrassment occasioned by the action of the General Assembly at Washington with reference to Lane Seminary. The Trustees feel constrained to express their deep regret that this action was taken by the General Assembly, and its approval and commendation of the Seminary formally withheld, without any conference with this Board or notice of its intent; and this regret is deepened by the belief that this painful action would not have been taken on a proper presentation of all the facts in the case. The Assembly would certainly not have condemned, even indirectly, the unwillingness of this Board, a purely civil corporation, to pass judgment on the ecclesiastical standing of a professor in its employ (Moore's Digest, pp 634-635, b) and especially its unwillingness to decide ecclesiastical questions, not settled by legislation or judicial decision, against a highly esteemed professor under trial in the courts of the Church—a professor whose instruction in the class-room had always been above criticism, and whose family had been the largest benefactor of the Seminary for more than thirty years.

It must suffice, under present circumstances, to say that this Board has not been conscious of any unfaithfulness to the sacred trust committed to it, or of disloyalty in any form to the Presbyterian Church in whose interest that trust has always been zealously administered; and though made by its charter a civil corporation, without ecclesiastical authority, and independent of ecclesiastical control, it will continue, as it has done in the past, faithfully and loyally to regard the rights and the welfare of the Presbyterian Church, and will steadfastly endeavor to administer its trust, so far as the obligations imposed by its charter will permit, in such ways as shall promote the best interests of this Church. The Board earnestly desires to fill its Faculty, so far as its present reduced income will permit, and otherwise to do all in its power to make Lane Seminary an efficient agency for training up from year to year a ministry adequately equipped for the service of the Church.

On the other hand, the Board takes it for granted that successive General Assemblies will, in all their relations with this Seminary, have steadfast regard for the several obligations imposed by the Union of 1869, and by the special compacts of 1870 and 1871; and will claim no authority or jurisdiction beyond what is recognized and conveyed in these compacts.

In this belief and expectation, the Board declares its intention to adhere on its part to the terms of the resolution adopted by it in August, 1870, and accepted as satisfactory by the Assembly of 1871 (Minutes, p. 580) namely:

"Every election of a Professor in this Institution shall be reported to the next General Assembly, and if the said Assembly shall by vote express its disapprobation of the election, the professorship in question shall be ipso facto vacant from and after such vote of the General Assembly; it being understood, in such case, that it is not the pleasure of this Board that such Professor shall continue in office."

The Board therefore respectfully overtures the General Assembly soon to be convened at Saratoga—

First. To take such action as will restore Lane Seminary, as to ecclesiastical standing, to an entire equality with the other seminaries of our Church, and will assure to it all the rights and privileges which it has enjoyed within the Church from the beginning of its history.

Secondly. To approve the action taken by the Board of Education in respect to the aiding of students in Lane Seminary, and to authorize such aid in the future on the same terms and conditions as are required of students in the other seminaries of our Church.

This Board earnestly believes that such action by the General Assembly will do much to quiet undesirable agitation, and to secure peace and prosperity to the precious interests committed by the Master to its keeping. And, confidently relying on such favorable action by the Assembly, the Board has this day appointed Rev. Kemper Fullerton, A.M., as an instructor in the Hebrew and Greek Languages and Literatures for the coming year, and has also elected the Rev. Henry W. Hulbert, A.M., now Professor of Political Science and History in Marietta College, to the Chair of Church History.

Adopted by the Board of Trustees of Lane Seminary, May 2, 1894.

Most respectfully submitted,

GEORGE M. MAXWELL, President.

RICHARD FOLSOM, Recording Secretary.

V. UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

["The Assembly disavows all responsibility for the teaching of Union Seminary, and declines to receive any report from its Board until satisfactory relations are established."—Minutes, 1893, p. 161.]

VI. DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

1. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

THE Board of Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary respectfully presents to the General Assembly the following as its Forty-first Annual Report.

I. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The class of Directors whose term of service expires at this time has been elected for another term of three years, with the exception of Mr. George Denny, who has ceased to attend the meetings of the Board. Mr. Kilburn W. Smith, of Louisville, Ky., has been put in place of Mr. Denny. In the class whose term expires in May, 1895, the Rev. J. H. Herbener has been elected in place of the Rev. S. M. Hamilton, D.D., resigned; and in place of the Hon. O. P. Temple, of the same class, also resigned. Mr. John B. Minnis, of Knoxville, Tenn.; and in place of W. J. Hendrick, Esq., resigned. Andrew M. J. Cochran, Esq., of Maysville, Ky.

The officers and members of the Board at the present time are as follows:

Rev. JAMES T. LAPSLEY, D.D., President.
Rev. WILLIAM C. CONDIT, D.D., First Vice-President.
Prof. A. B. NELSON, M D., Second Vice-President.
Rev. STEPHEN YERKES, D.D., Secretary.

Ministers.	Elders.
Term expires in May, 1895:
H. H. Allen, D.D.,	G. E. Wiseman,
R. R. Sutherland, D.D.,	W. H. Wherritt,
William C. Condit, D.D.,	L. T. Chiles,
Maurice Waller,	Andrew M. J. Cochran,
J. H. Herbener,	John B. Minnis.
Term expires in May, 1896:
James T. Lapsley, D.D.,	D. J. Curry,
Faye Walker, D.D.,	A. B. Nelson, M.D.,
William S. Fulton, D.D.,	John A. Simpson,
William C. Young, D.D.. LL.D.,	H. V. Loving,
S. W. Boardman, D.D., LL.D.,	L. B. Todd, M.D.
Term expires in May, 1897:
James P. Hendrick, D.D.,	J. C. Maxwell, M.D.,
William O. Goodloe, D.D.,	Andrew J. Grundy,
James R. Collier, D.D.,	F. B. Trussell, Esq.,
J. W. C. Willoughby, D.D.,	E. W. C. Humphrey, Esq.,
William J. Trimble, D.D.,	Kilburn W. Smith.

II. FACULTY.

STEPHEN YERKES, D.D., New Testament Literature and Exegesis.
JOHN M. WORRALL, D.D., Biblical and Ecclesiastical History and Church Government.
CLAUDE B. H. MARTIN, D.D., Systematic Theology and Study of the English Bible.
JOHN L. MCKEE, D.D., Elocution and Mission Work.
WILLIAM C. YOUNG, D.D., LL.D., Homiletics and Pastoral Theology.
CLARENCE K. CRAWFORD, A.M., Old Testament Languages and Exegesis, and Biblical Antiquities.

No change has been made in the body of instructors since our last Report. The Rev. Claude B. H. Martin, D.D., elected a year ago to the Chair of Systematic Theology and Study of the English Bible, was formally inaugurated at Maysville, Ky., the 12th of last October, in the presence of the Synod of Kentucky, and a large congregation of the citizens of that place. The Rev. William C. Condit, D.D., First Vice-President of the Board, presided on the occasion, and administered the pledge of office, and the Rev. J. P. Hendrick, D.D., delivered the charge to the newly inducted professor.

The Seminary is now fully equipped in all respects for good work, and we do cordially commend it to the favorable consideration of young men who are looking forward to the Gospel ministry, and to the prayers and support of God's people.

III. STUDENTS.

Since the date of our last Report the following fifteen students have been matriculated:

William W. Baxter,
Henry C. Buell,
Thomas M. Cornelison,
Thomas Crossley,
Archie R. Griggs,
Edward H. Hudson,
Donald M. Grant,
Burton H. Jones,
Alexander H. Lindsay,
John W. McComb,
Percy G. McCormack,
James L. McWilliams,
Rhuel H. Merrill,
Carl Paul Metzler,
Wiley V. Thompson.

All these entered the Junior class with the exception of William W. Baxter, who, under certain conditions, was admitted to the Middle class by dismission from McCormick Theological Seminary. Seven of the fourteen others, not having taken a complete collegiate course and graduated, have devoted only a part of their time to the studies of the Junior year—some more, some less—intending to finish the work of the year at a future day. Some of them had gone over a large part of the college curriculum with the exception of Greek.

The four members of the Senior class having now completed the three years' course of study and been recommended by the Faculty, and having passed a very satisfactory examination in the presence of the Board, have to-day received the Certificate of the Seminary. Three of them enter at once on the public ministry of the Word, two in Kentucky and one in Missouri. The fourth one, having spent four years already in the College and Seminary, will return and remain a year longer, so as to finish the College curriculum and review a small part of the Seminary course. Their names are:

Henry Albert Brown, ...	Covington, Ky.
John Tate Curtis, ...	Knoxville, Tenn.
Henry N. Faulconer, ...	Danville, Ky.
Allen D. Seelig, ...	Frankfort, O.

The professors report favorably in regard to the deportment of the students and their attention to study. Most of them have been engaged during the session in some kind of Christian work on the Lord's day, in preaching or in Sabbath-school instruction, in Danville, or its vicinity.

The whole number of students for the year has been twenty-three—four in the Senior class, five in the Middle class, and fourteen in the Junior class. Yet only one-half of the two lower classes have been occupied entirely and exclusively with Seminary studies. In the years 1875–76 and 1876–77, twenty and twenty-two students respectively were in attendance, so that the number present this year is larger than for any year since the session of 1860–61. And the Faculty are of the opinion that thirty at least will be in attendance next session. These evidences of returning prosperity fill our hearts with hope and gladness, and with thankfulness to Him who is the source of all good.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS.

The library has been enlarged but little the past year, only a few volumes and pamphlets being added by donation. The Seminary has no distinct fund set apart for the increase of the library. This is one of the two special wants of the Institution at the present time, the other being an increase of the Scholarship Fund. Our library in its present condition is very valuable and of considerable extent, but is deficient in the more modern publications. In view of this fact, the Boards of Directors and Trustees determined at this meeting to appropriate a small sum annually from the general fund for the increase of the library.

The Report of the Board of Trustees will acquaint the General Assembly with the financial condition of the Seminary, and the income and expenditures of the past year.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES T. LAPSLEY, President.

STEPHEN YERKES, Secretary.

2. FACULTY.

During the year now closing, the Faculty has been constituted as follows, viz.:

*Rev. George Burrowes, D.D., Emeritus Gray Professor of Hebrew and Greek Exegesis.
Rev. William Alexander, D.D., California Professor of Church History and General Introduction.
Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., Montgomery Professor of Apologetics and Missions.
Rev. Thomas Franklin Day, A.M., Gray Professor of Hebrew and Greek Exegesis.

*Died April 19, 1894.

Rev. HENRY COLLIN MINTON, D.D., Stuart Professor of Systematic Theology.
Rev. WARREN HALL LANDON, D.D., Ladd Professor of Practical Theology.
Prof. CHARLES GURDON BUCK, Severin Instructor in Vocal Culture and Sacred Music.

Since our last Annual Report to the General Assembly, the Seminary has suffered a severe loss in the departure out of this life of two of its most valued and honored friends and benefactors. Mr. Alexander Montgomery, of San Francisco, left this world on the 4th day of November, 1893. He was by far the largest individual giver to the funds of the Seminary. His gifts before his death amounted to not less than the sum of $300,000. By the terms of his last will and testament, the Seminary is made the residuary legatee of his large estate. The precise amount that will be realized from this bequest cannot yet be stated, but it is expected to bring to the Institution a very munificent sum. It is probable that when the estate is finally settled, it will turn out that Mr. Montgomery is the largest individual giver of money so far to theological education in the history of the Presbyterian Church in this land, indeed, probably of any Church in this land. He was a native of the north of Ireland, a scion of that sturdy and God-fearing race which has done so much for our country and our Church. He was a pioneer of California, and through all the severe struggles and awful perils of early days on this coast, he carried the stalwart convictions and hallowed influences of his childhood and his ancestry, and these bore fruit in his latter years, and shall bear fruit unto God in the ages to come. A beautiful Memorial Chapel, provided for by him before his death, and now going up on the Seminary grounds, is at once a mausoleum and a memorial of this munificent friend of our Church and of theological education.

The Rev. George Burrowes, D.D., departed out of this world on the 19th day of April, 1894, aged 83 years. He was one of the founders of our Seminary, as he was from the first till his death one of its honored and beloved Professors. He was a venerable and venerated man of God, much beloved and respected by all who knew him, a man of great learning, of beautiful Christian spirit and character, amiable, earnest, devout, a scholarly exegete, an able teacher, a sincere and humble believer in Jesus Christ. He died in the Lord, and his works shall follow him.

3. STUDENTS.

During the year the following named students have been in attendance:

These last named have passed their examinations and have received certificates of graduation.

4. Location.

The Seminary is located at Sunnyside, San Anselmo, an hour's ride from San Francisco. The situation is peculiarly romantic and beautiful, close to the ocean, in the midst of mountains, one of the most charming spots as regards scenery and health in the world. The landed property consists of fourteen acres of ground, on which are located the Seminary buildings and the Professors' houses. The Seminary buildings are of stone, and will compare favorably with those of similar institutions.

5. Library.

The Library has over 18,000 volumes, comprising a valuable collection of standard works on theology, exegesis, ecclesiology, history, and allied subjects. Donations of books have been received during the year from Rev. A. J. Compton, of Oakdale; H. B. Gage, of Riverside, and Theodore F. Burnham, of Vallejo. Additions have also been made by purchase of a respectable number of recent publications.

6. Statistical and Financial.

The statistical and financial statements are as follows:

5. GENERAL STATEMENT.

The attendance upon the School for the past year is thirty-six.

Those students named in the seventh year in the foregoing list, to wit: Messrs. B. Bracker, G. L. Hoefker, F. Kroesche, Aug. C. Kroesche, and John DeBeer, having completed the full course of study, were awarded Certificates of Graduation, April 24, 1894, and have entered upon the full work of the ministry. These young men are full of zeal for the salvation of their brethren, their kinsmen according to the flesh.

The Board rejoices in the fact that it has closed its books not only without debt, but with a small balance in the treasury. God has added His blessing to two agencies in operation during the past year: the one, a monthly bulletin, under the laborious and judicious direction of the Rev. William O. Ruston, D.D.; the other, the fiscal agency so wisely pushed by the Rev. Charles E. Schaible. Thereby the School is making hosts of new and appreciative friends, who by many small contributions have brought it through the most perilous year in its history in a manner somewhat worthy of its great importance to this Central West.

This frank statement to the Mother Church should not quiet the conscience of the Church as to our permanent needs. We need $50,000 permanent endowment, and need it at once. We reported one Chair vacant last year because our policy is averse to debt. This aversion to debt leads the Board to consent to do its work with an insufficient staff of professors. We need additions to this staff and need them sorely. We lay back upon the Church this grave responsibility of leaving us to work on decade after decade with this insufficient equipment, whereby our work is hindered, our lines are shortened and our stakes are rendered insecure. Shall it continue thus with such a magnificent field before us, the barest fringe of which in Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Missouri we have been able to touch. We are unable to do anything to the real purpose for the hundreds of thousands of Germans in our rapidly growing cities thus far. Yet we are feeling our way along just as rapidly as men and means will permit us. It is something for the great Presbyterian Church to think of, that, with something over a score and a half of years of history through which this School has passed, it has never yet successfully challenged the large-hearted liberality of her sons and daughters outside of the German Presbyterians whom it has brought to birth. These have stood nobly by it, and year after year, with touching fidelity, have given the sums for its current support which kept it in life and motion.

In behalf of the Board,

Respectfully submitted,

ADAM W. RINGLAND, President.

XI. GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF NEWARK, N. J.

Annual Report of the Board of Directors.

"The German Theological School of Newark, N. J.," is under the care of the Presbytery of Newark. By the direction of the Presbytery, the Board of Directors present to the General Assembly their Report for the year ending April 30, 1894.

1. The Board of Directors.

1893–1896.

Elijah R. Craven, D.D., LL.D.,	Philip Doremus,
A. Nelson Hollifield, D.D.,	Samuel L. Pinneo.
Lyman W. Allen,
Paul F. Sutphen, D.D.,

1894–1897.

Charles E. Knox, D.D.,	William Rankin,
John A. Liggett, D.D.,	Peter Carter.
Robert Aikman, D.D.,
W. C. Roberts, D.D., LL.D.,

2. The Faculty.

Rev. Charles E. Knox, D.D., President and Professor of Homiletics, Church Government and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. George C. Seibert, Ph.D., D.D., Professor of Greek Exegesis and Systematic Theology.
Rev. Frederick Ernst Hausser, Ph.D., Professor of Hebrew Exegesis and Church History.
Rev. Karl Frederick Hagenmeyer, Tutor in the Academic Department.

3. The Students.

There have been in attendance during the year forty-eight regular students and two hospitants, making fifty in all: twenty-two in the Theological Department, twenty-two in the Academic, four in the Special Course, one hospitant in the Theological Department, and one hospitant in the Academic Department.

The number of the graduating class in June, 1893, was seven. Six students are in the present Senior class. It is intended to add a fourth year to the Theological Department, to be designated "The Pastoral Year," the object of which is to give practical training in City Mission Work, in connection with class-room instruction, in the midst of our great and growing metropolitan foreign population.

Nine students have been promoted from the Academic to the Theological Department, and one student has been received into the Junior Theological class. The two students reported last year as in Semi-Theological and Semi-Academic studies have been admitted to the Theological Department; one of them, an ordained minister, was compelled however to withdraw, on account of the demands of pastoral work.

Thirteen students have been admitted into the Academic Course. One Bohemian has withdrawn from the regular Academic Course and two Bohemians from the Special Course, while two Bohemians have entered the Special Course. One Italian has withdrawn from the Special Course. Two Bohemians and two Italians now constitute the Special Course.

The forty-eight regular students comprise forty-four Germans, two Bohemians and two Italians.

4. The Finances.

The Endowment.—The total endowment, including the funds invested in the Seminary property, was on April 30, 1893,	$68,287 90
To this has been added during the year,	14,358 50
Total April 30, 1894,	$82,646 40

These endowment funds are distributed in property and securities as follows:

The Bloomfield Seminary Property,	$18,378 96
New Lot Purchased,	4,000 00
Real Estate Donated,	8,224 38
Bonds and Mortgages,	20,392 00
Railroad Stocks and Bonds,	28,527 75
Loan, bearing interest,	15 00
In Savings Banks,	710 18
Cash in Bank,	2,277 50
Payment of unpaid subscriptions for the Seminary Property,	75 00
Library Fund,	45 63
Total,	$82,646 40

These funds have been contributed for the following objects, or designated to them by the Board of Directors:

For the General Purposes of Endowment,	$23,024 19
" " New Seminary Lot,	4,000 00
" " President's Chair,	14,881 22
" " Newark Professorship,	24,390 75
" " German Professorship,	2,694 24
" " Mary Crane Scholarship,	3,000 00
" " Fairchild Scholarship,	2,650 00
" " American Ministers' Scholarship,	450 00
" " Mrs. Eliza Knox Williams Scholarship,	1,000 00
" " President's House (land),	6,000 00
" " Ladies' Scholarship,	56 00
" " Library Endowment,	500 00
Total,	$82,646 40

Current Expenses and Current Income.

The total expense of the year has been, . . .	$10,570 42
The total amount received by the Treasurer has been,	9,678 75
Leaving a deficit of	$891 67
The total deficit on April 30, 1893, ...	$5,935 27
The total deficit April 30, 1894, ...	6,826 94

5. General Statements.

A subscription of $500 for the Endowment was specially designated as the beginning of a Library Fund. The balance of the amount received during the year for permanent funds has been appropriated to the endowment of the President's Chair. It is hoped that this subscription may be prosecuted till the Chair shall be fully endowed.

We need now at once another English professor.

We need also another German professor.

A new building, with proper appointments, would greatly stimulate the interest of the German people, as well as enlarge the interest of the Americans.

There is a temporary decrease in immigration. During the past year the Italian immigrants have led in numbers the incoming population. The religious movement among the Italians has been in some respects remarkable. An unusual impulse has been manifested in the use of a religious liberty new to them, and in accepting the opportunities of a spiritual enlightenment. If these people are to come under the leadership of preachers and officers who are half emerged from Papal ecclesiasticism and doctrine, a reaction of interest may occur and our opportunity be lost. But, if godly pastors well instructed in the Protestant doctrine, and in the New Testament polity, can be provided for them in time, an important and extended movement may follow. So it may be also among the Bohemian people in America.

As our Seminary was founded as a German Theological School, all regular funds are devoted to the instruction of German students. Special gifts for this special course would enable us to increase the number of such students, and to give them a more complete education. It would be well if some benefactor would provide an Italian House, or an Italian and Bohemian House, and if some provision could be made for further instruction in the Italian and Bohemian languages.

While the general immigration is moving more slowly, we should make ample preparations for that vast increase which will certainly arrive when the period of material prosperity again returns to the country.

As the population of America shall become more and more dense, the problems which have been considered purely European, will undoubtedly become problems for America to solve. If our Church has been slow and short-sighted in the past in respect to this great problem, we should make use of our present opportunity to prepare more amply for the future.

Aside from the financial limitations occasioned by the general condition of the country during the past year, the Seminary has made excellent progress. It should at once be placed in a position to embrace the opportunities plainly before us. If animated with a true spirituality, and borne on the prayers and earnest sympathies of the Church, its Christian power may become very large and far reaching.

For the Board of Directors,

CHARLES E. KNOX, President.

The Academical year began on the 21st of September, 1893, and closed the 17th of April, 1894. The opening address was delivered by Rev. Gilbert T. Woodhull, D.D., on "The Four Gospels as Historical Portraits of our Lord, with Illustrations of Modern Criticism."

The annual sermon was preached by Rev. Robert F. Sample, D.D., on the 15th of April, 1894: 1 Cor. i. 23, "We preach Christ crucified." He made a profound impression on his hearers, as he set forth Christ, the substance and the sum and the end of preaching.

The annual examinations showed commendable diligence and success on the part of the students in the various departments of study.

At a meeting of the Presbytery of Chester, on the 3d of April, 1894, after a most thorough and satisfactory examination, Messrs. Powhatan Bagnall, Daniel B. Anderson, James R. Barrett, Edward W. Coberth, Lylburn L. Downing, and William H. Peden, were ordained as Evangelists, being under appointment to Mission fields.

5. Inauguration of Professors.

The General Assembly of 1893 having approved of the election of Rev. Robert L. Stewart, as Professor of Pastoral Theology, Evidences of Christianity, and Biblical Archæology, and of the Rev. J. Aspinwall Hodge, D.D., as Professor of Instruction in the English Version of the Bible, the 23d day of January, 1894, was designated as the time for their inauguration. On that day, in the presence of the Board of Trustees, and Faculty, and students, and a large assemblage of friends, each of the Professors-elect subscribed the following pledge:

"In the presence of God and of the Trustees of this University, I do solemnly and ex animo adopt, receive, and subscribe the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America as the confession of my faith, or as a summary and just exhibition of that system of doctrine and religious belief which is contained in Holy Scripture, and therein revealed by God to man for his salvation; and I do solemnly ex animo profess to receive the form of government of said Church as agreeable to the inspired oracles; and I do solemnly promise and engage not to inculcate, teach, or insinuate anything which shall appear to me to contradict or contravene, either directly or impliedly, anything taught in the said Confession of Faith or Catechisms; nor to oppose any of the fundamental principles of Presbyterian Church Government while I shall continue a Professor in this University."

The charge to Prof. Stewart was delivered by Rev. William A. Holliday, D.D.; and that to Prof. Hodge was delivered by Rev. George T. Purves, D.D. A copy of the inaugural addresses is herewith sent to the Assembly.

After the close of the last Academical year, the Rev. David E. Shaw, A.M., Professor of Hebrew and Church History, with his wife went to Scotland for a few months of rest and travel. While there he sent to the Board of Trustees a letter resigning his professorship, and expressing his intention to reëngage in pastoral work. He has, since his return to this country, carried his intention into effect, and is now delightfully settled over the Lower West Nottingham congregation, in the Presbytery of New Castle, not far from Lincoln University. Prof. Shaw very kindly expresses his continued interest in the educational work to which he gave his unstinted labors and his untiring faithfulness. His reward must be from the Lord. Lincoln University can only add to her departing professors, and their families, the blessing of the poor. But we have reason to believe, that many a mission field in our country will feel the uplifting influence of his ample scholarship and his eager devotion.

To make good this loss in our Faculty of Theology, our attention was directed by the professors of Princeton Theological Seminary to Mr. William D. Kersmill, a graduate from that Institution, as well as from Toronto University, Dominion of Canada, and now an ordained minister enrolled in the Presbytery of Chester. He has been engaged during the Academical year just closed in the professorial work formerly conducted by Prof. Shaw. After a year of such intimate associations, the Trustees and Faculty and students unite in desiring his permanent connection with Lincoln University. The Board of Trustees, subject to the approval of the General Assembly, at their annual meeting, on the 17th day of April, 1894, unanimously elected Mr. Kersmill to the vacant professorship. We therefore respectfully ask the General Assembly, during its approaching sessions, to consider, and, if their way be clear, to confirm Prof. William Deas Kersmill's election to the Henry A. Kerr Professorship of Hebrew and Church History.

The Rev. William R. Bingham, D.D., has continued to give instruction during the past year in Systematic Theology.

The business depression which has fallen upon the whole country has greatly reduced the amount of our collections. The interest received from the Pierce estate has also been less than our expectations. The necessity of repairs has also increased our current expenses. We close the year, therefore, with an embarrassing debt, which will necessitate the reduction of the number of our students next year, unless our friends out of their bounty supply our deficiency.

It is impossible for us to present a statistical report according to the schedules adopted by the Assembly for its Theological Schools, because this Institution has a Collegiate, as well as a Theological Department, and both have an undivided interest in the great bulk of our property.

Our habit has been to report the gross property and income of the Institution, and the number of students in each department. The professorships, scholarships, library, chapel, and all public buildings are owned and used in common, and an attempted exhibition of their proportional distribution would be misleading.

The cost to the University of aiding twenty-nine students during the year has been $3238. The total number of students in all departments has been two hundred and five, of whom about one-half are candidates for the ministry.

We have not been able to carry into effect any of our desired improvements or enlargements. Our hope deferred waits with patience and expectation. The influence of this Institution would be greatly increased by the complete and separate endowment of the Theological department; but in the meantime all our resources are used to raise up a large body of educated Christian leaders, especially ministers of the Gospel, for our colored fellow-citizens of the household of faith.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Faculty,

ISAAC N. RENDALL,
President of Lincoln University.

The closing scholastic year has been more fruitful than any of the preceding ones in the history of Biddle University, of good in the work of Christian higher education, and especially in training candidates for the ministry.

The closing exercises of the School of Theology will take place Wednesday, June 6, and the College commencement the same day. There has been an increase of six students over the attendance of last year, and with four exceptions all have taken a regular course of training. It is also noteworthy that the School of Theology for the first time in its history has begun to attract students, graduates from other colleges than Biddle, and thus its influence is widening and deepening.

The enrollment in the University this year is 277, an increase of forty over last year's attendance.

Notwithstanding the financial depression which has prevailed, the attendance has been sustained better than in former years, thus guaranteeing enlarged numbers in the higher schools and classes in the coming years. It is here that supplementary aid for poor students shows to greatest advantage.

Preparation for the work of the Christian ministry is maintained as the leading feature of the policy at Biddle. The number having the ministry in view is now about seventy, all but a few the Presbyterian ministry. There have been forty professions of religion among the students the past year, and about five-sixths of the entire number are professing Christians.

Industrial Education, with enlarged facilities, has been extended so as to include several trades additional, so that with the head and the heart the hand is also being trained.

The hope of enlarged dormitory accommodations was not realized, and so the unfortunate crowding of students with cramped accommodations had to be continued and two of the recitation rooms had to be given up to this use, all to the detriment of important interests of the school. But the hope is now upon a better foundation, and it is proposed that ere the opening in next October the new dormitory shall be an accomplished fact.

We close this Report with the following from that of last year:

"The Presbyterian Church, through this institution, has advanced beyond the settled question of the capacity of the Afro-American mind, to grapple successfully with the intricacies and subtle problems of classical and scientific learning, towards the solution of that other question, namely, his fitness for controlling the destinies of a great centre of Christian higher education. Thus far only the seal of divine approval is visible, and the results have been such as should encourage the Church in her efforts, under God, to lead this people upward to the plane of highest Christian development. This statement has been emphasized anew by the enlarged usefulness and greater efficiency attained."

Respectfully submitted,

D. J. SANDERS, President.

2. Faculty.

The Board of Directors at the annual meeting, April 4, 1894, established the Chairs of "Apologetics" and "The English Bible," and elected Rev. Alexander G. Wilson, D.D., to the former, and Rev. J. M. Wilson, D.D., to the latter. The Board asks the Assembly to approve the election of these professors.

Rev. William Harsha, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology.
Rev. Stephen Phelps, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical, Homiletical and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. John Gordon, D.D., Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.
Rev. Matthew B. Lowrie, D.D., Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis.
Rev. Charles G. Sterling, Ph.D., Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis.
Rev. Alexander G. Wilson, D.D., Professor of Apologetics.
Rev. James M. Wilson, D.D., Professor of English Bible.

Professors Lowrie and Sterling were duly inaugurated September 5, 1893.

3. Students.

There have been twenty-one students in attendance during the year. The following were matriculated this year:

Allen W. Comstock,	A. M. Hendee,
Adolph Kadletz,	John C. Giffen,
E. W. Miles,	F. I. Lyman,
	L. W. Scudder.

Mr. Hendee came from Danville Seminary.

Six Seniors graduated April 5, and were granted Certificates. They are:

Charles H. Bandy,	E. Allen Enders,
Alexander Litherland,	Hugh McNinch,
Bishop C. Swank,	Ernest W. Symonds.

LOAN FUND.

The Board at its annual meeting established a fund for the aid of students called the "Students' Loan Fund." Money contributed to this fund is to be loaned to students without interest, to be paid back in five annual installments. Two scholarships have already been provided. The plan of giving aid hitherto is continued.

4. FINANCES.

Collected for Current Expenses, ...	$2,812 17
Disbursements, ...	2,814 31
Notes and Unpaid Subscriptions, ...	1,852 50
Outstanding Obligations, ...	2,211 21

The real estate which was offered the Seminary on condition of certain buildings being erected in a specified time reverted to the donor because sufficient funds had not been secured. This offer may be renewed, and others made so soon as the Institution is able to erect a building.

5. CONSTITUTION.

The legal organization of the Seminary awaits the action of the General Assembly in regard to Theological Seminaries, with a view to conform the organization to such action. The time of opening the Seminary has been changed to the third Tuesday of September, and the closing to the third Thursday of April. The date of the annual meeting was changed to the third Thursday of April.

6. MISCELLANEOUS.

The building at Ninth and Farnam streets, whose use was generously tendered the Seminary by Mr. S. H. H. Clark, furnished dormitory and classroom accommodations. The year closed with examinations at which Examining Committees were present from the Board, the Synods of Nebraska and Iowa. The graduation exercises took place on the evening of April 5, in the First Church. Every feature of the work is encouraging. The only real lack is money, of which some is needed to supplement the generous gifts of the individuals and churches already supporting the institution and specially to erect buildings.

The great importance of this work and its claims upon the interests of the whole Presbyterian Church, justify the Board in asking the endorsement and aid of the General Assembly in securing funds for the permanent endowment of this Seminary, and the Assembly is hereby requested to make such recommendations in this direction as in their judgment may be deemed advisable.

W. F. RINGLAND, President.

J. M. WILSON, Secretary.

Abstract of the Twenty-fourth Annual Report.

The Board of Home Missions respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Twenty-fourth Annual Report, which covers the ninety-second year of the Home Mission work of our Church.

* Of the Presbytery of New York. † Of the Presbytery of Brooklyn. ‡ Of the Presbytery of Newark. § Of the Presbytery of Elizabeth. ‖ Of the Presbytery of Morris and Orange.  Of the Presbytery of New Brunswick. †† Of the Presbytery of Jersey City.
* Deceased.

God has dealt very graciously with the Board and its members throughout the year, and His signal blessing has rested upon the work in all its departments.

Fruitful revivals are reported from all parts of our country. A larger number has been gathered into our churches than in any previous year.

Finances.

The Board is compelled to come before the Assembly with a larger debt than it ever before reported. For the fifth year in succession the receipts have fallen short of the necessary expenditures.

The financial depression which rested upon the country made the necessity of retrenchment apparent at the outset. Appropriations for the support of work already in hand were made sparingly, upon the lowest possible scale. The most conservative policy was adopted with regard to new work. Only $38,945.75 was thus expended during the year. More than half of this was for the Indian work transferred to us from the Foreign Board. Much of the balance was saved by churches rising towards self-support. The total increase in appropriations on account of new work was about $13,000. As the summer advanced the current demands on the treasury outran the receipts. The Board, by a wise foresight, so managed its securities and credit as to provide for the prompt payment of all the missionaries during the trying months which followed. So general was the depression over the country that many churches were unable to meet the obligations to their ministers which they had assumed in good faith in better times. These ministers were thus left to depend upon the portion of their support promised by the Board. Many requests were therefore made for increase of appropriation, which the Board was compelled to refuse. Under such conditions delayed payments would have entailed untold hardship and suffering.

A larger number of churches have contributed to our treasury than in any previous year of the Board's history. The aid-receiving churches responded most nobly. The heroism of the missionaries enduring hardness and their active efforts in the Board's behalf contributed largely towards the measure of success attained. Not a few relinquished in part their well-earned and sorely-needed salaries.

Notwithstanding these vigorous and sustained efforts the Board is compelled to report an indebtedness of $157,047.26* on Home Missions, and $101,598.29 on teachers and chapels, making a total of $258,645.55.

The Board has sent to every Presbytery a blank calling for estimates of the needs of the work within their bounds for the coming year. Returns show the estimates to be, for church work, $624,588, and for mission school work, $364,533.60. Add to these sums the debt now resting on the Board, and we have an aggregate of $1,238,341.40 to be raised from all sources during the year upon which we have entered. This would be an increase of 37 per cent. upon the receipts of last year.

Monthly Payments.

The General Assembly of 1893 referred certain Overtures on Monthly Payments to the Board, accompanying them with the following action:

"Resolved, That the Overtures for the monthly payment of salaries be referred to the Board of Home Missions, with the recommendation that they act upon them favorably, provided they find it practicable."

After careful consideration of this resolution of the General Assembly, and with the earnest wish, in the conduct of the business of the Board, to consider as far as possible its suggestions and the needs of the missionaries, we find that it is not practicable at present to make the suggested change in the mode of payment.

As a controlling reason for this reply, we would further represent that the present indebtedness of the Board and the limited space at our command for office room will not, in our opinion, warrant such a large increase in our clerical force as will be necessary to substitute monthly for quarterly payments.

* Including $9,425.75 borrowed from Sustentation.

Columbian Exposition.

The Board regarded strictly the will of the Assembly in the matter of exhibits at the World's Fair. Some provision had been made for illustrating the Board's work and setting forth its history. But the Board withheld its exhibits, and declined to participate in any way, because of the failure of the Management to close the gates of the Exposition on the Sabbath day.

The New Presbyterian Building.

The Boards of Home and Foreign Missions are about to erect on the property purchased last spring, on the corner of Twentieth street and Fifth avenue, a large building for their own needs, with additional office accommodations, which will be rented to suitable tenants.

The project represents the result of a careful business consideration of the whole problem of office accommodation, which problem has been considered in every detail, and with a view to practical economy.

In selecting this location, rather than rebuilding on the present site, the Boards acted through special Committees, and after consultation with the best real estate experts in the city, who pronounced the property at Twentieth street and Fifth avenue of exceptional value for rental purposes, and likely to produce larger revenue for many years than the property corner of Twelfth street. A Special Committee of both Boards, with Mr. John S. Kennedy as Chairman, has in charge the development of the details.

The Boards desire it to be distinctly understood that not one penny of the moneys contributed for their current work will be diverted for use in connection with this project.

Forces.

Missionaries are divided into five classes:

1. Synodical Missionaries.—These are charged with the care of dependent churches, and work not organized in destitute places within the bounds of their Synods respectively.

2. Pastors-at-Large.—These have no supervision except that which is inseparable from the pastoral office. They are appointed by their respective Presbyteries to minister to the vacant churches for which no other provision can be made.

3. Ministers of Dependent Churches and Mission Stations.—These comprise the bulk of the mission army of our country. They are the foundation layers of society, the commonwealth builders of our country, and the conquering army of the kingdom of Christ.

During the year there have been under appointment 1821, distributed as to States and Territories as follows:

Alabama,	3	Iowa,	121
Alaska,	8	Kansas,	126
Arizona,	9	Kentucky,	18
Arkansas,	2	Maine,	2
California,	102	Maryland,	6

4. Helpers.—God's blessing upon our work among the Indians and Mexicans has created a demand for ministers which the Board is not able to supply. Our missionaries in these fields have been compelled to call to their assistance worthy and capable young men from among their converts—training them as much as possible in their limited time and with their limited facilities. Great good has been accomplished by these consecrated young servants of the Master.

5. Mission Teachers.—These missionaries work in the schools maintained by the Woman's Executive Committee among the exceptional populations of our country. They are the forerunners of the ministers of the Gospel. They gather schools, then Sabbath-schools, then congregations, and thus do most thoroughly and economically the preliminary work needful for church organization. And after the organization of the churches they are faithful and indispensable assistants of the ministers.

Economy.

It is the policy of the Board to secure the grouping of neighboring churches and stations as far as a wise economy will allow, with the double purpose of covering the field as far as an inadequate supply of men will permit, and securing for them the maximum of support from the field for the relief of the Board's treasury. In this policy the Presbyteries most heartily concur and coöperate. In effecting this arrangement the Synodical missionary renders most valuable assistance.

The Board has held steadfastly to its rules of comity and to the instructions of the General Assembly.

The General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A. and of the Presbyterian Church U. S., in 1888, desiring to establish and maintain fraternal coöperation in Christian work, appointed a joint Committee to prepare and report a statement of principles to govern the same. This report was adopted by both Assemblies in 1889.

In accordance with this act five such groups have been formed; one in Texas, three in Florida, and one in Alabama. These groups were formed by the Presbyteries within whose bounds the churches are respectively located, and the Board's appropriations were made upon application of their Presbyteries. A very considerable sum of money has been saved by these groupings.

Following the spirit of the above advice of our General Assembly, and that of its subsequent instructions on the matter of comity with other denominations, the Board has taken a longer step in the direction of interdenominational grouping by granting an application from the Presbytery of East Oregon asking aid to the Church of Pendleton, grouped with a Congregational Church, in the support of Rev. C. F. Whittlesey, a Congregational minister. This was done in the interests of economy as well as denominational comity. This was only tentative, but the good fellowship between these two churches which has resulted, and the manifest blessing of God which has attended it, have seemed to justify the arrangement.

The Field.

Six of the strongest Synods have undertaken to support their dependent churches without aid from the Board, and without diminishing their contributions to its treasury. They are New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Baltimore, Ohio, and Indiana.

New Jersey alone has reached this expectation. Her field is compact. Her strong churches are distributed over the State in closer touch with her weaker ones. Great credit is due to the skill displayed in the management of the work and the finances. The loyalty of the churches of New Jersey to the Board is clearly manifest in their constantly increasing contributions to its treasury.

Pennsylvania was one of the earliest to adopt a plan of sustentation. She has increased her contributions to the Board from $65,183.86 to $103,226.24 in ten years, while advancing in the attempt to support her own dependent churches.

New York followed Pennsylvania in the adoption of a sustentation plan, and with a similar experience. The stronger churches of this Synod are supporting extensive local work, such as chapels and city missions, the contributions to which do not appear in the Report of the Synodical Fund.

The Synod of Baltimore has relieved the Board of much, but not all, of the work within its bounds.

In Ohio several Presbyteries have made encouraging progress in an attempt to support their own work. Provision has been made for Synodical aid to the weaker Presbyteries, but much work within the State depends upon the Board.

When the Indiana plan was adopted the contributions from this Synod had never equaled the amount required by the aid-receiving churches. This was a brave and generous effort at self-support, and has resulted in doubling the contributions of the churches of that State, supplying many churches which were vacant and sending a surplus of $381.26 to the Board.

New England.

Religious destitution exists in parts of New England. The rural life of that historic section of our country has changed. Manufacturing villages have grown into cities with heterogeneous populations. The loss of the old population is felt by the old churches, while the gain by immigration represents other denominations, either by actual membership or affinity. One hundred thousand Scotch, as many Germans, a greater number of Canadian French, some of whom are of Huguenot ancestry, but most of whom are Catholic, press their claims to recognition upon the churches of their choice.

Our work is almost exclusively among the Scotch, Irish, and people from the Provinces. We have, however, two German churches, one in Manchester, N. H., the other in Lawrence, Mass. Earnest calls are made for German churches in other cities. By the neglect of the Protestant denominations the Roman Catholic Church is rapidly becoming the leading Church of New England.

The Southern States.

Great opportunities are open to us in the Southern States. The two branches of our Church, working together in some parts and separately in others, are not able to meet the demand. The Board has missionaries in all the States except Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, and Louisiana.

The Middle States at a comparatively recent date comprised our "West." They have suffered much from the lack of ministers. Churches have perished that might have risen into power but for that hateful word retrenchment.

But in spite of depression of business and retrenchment of the Board our work in the main has enjoyed an advancing and upward movement.

The results have been gratifying in the number of conversions and the financial record of the year.

The States of the plains comprise a vast region, stretching from British America to Mexico, as large as France, the German Empire and Spain combined. Though they have a population of 5,602,090, many of the pioneers are still in active life. The history of our churches in this vast region reads like a romance. In 1870, we had a few scattered churches in Nebraska—none in the Dakotas—a Synod in Kansas, which included Indian Territory, Oklahoma and Texas, and scarcely had a definite boundary in the West and Southwest, and still was numerically small. We have now a Synod in each of these six States.

The effect of retrenchment is to cause the loss of desirable points, to leave destitute places to suffer, but it helps to force other churches to self-support and many to increase their contributions to the Board. The agricultural industry has become so diversified and reliable by means of artesian well irrigation that the people feel the hard times less than they otherwise would.

There is a deeper spirituality pervading the churches and the results are becoming manifest in the enlarged activity of the membership as well as in the increased numbers. The interest in general mission work may be seen in the numerous candidates for the ministry coming to the front and in the actual going forth to foreign lands of a number of our active workers.

Money spent in church work in these States is always well spent. Religious life is expansive and fruitful. Restrained by the Board's retrenchment, but few churches were organized, but there are fields waiting to be entered. But retrenchment has not been an unmixed evil in these States.

Indian Territory has a population of 125,000, a large per cent. of whom are whites of various social grades. A still larger per cent. are of mixed blood. The "full-bloods" are a small minority. It seems absurd that five nations should exist within the boundaries of one nation and be at once subject to it and at the same time sufficiently independent to maintain treaty relations with it. These people have virtually ceased to be Indians, and the name of Indian as applied to them must soon be abolished. Their civilization may be of an inferior sort, but it will improve as the advantages and responsibilities of citizenship come upon them. Their schools are improving, their churches are growing and their dwelling places are coming to be homes, and that beautiful and valuable region of coal and timber and fertile prairie will sustain a prosperous and happy people.

On Saturday, October 16, 1893, at the noon hour, at the signal of a gun-shot, 100,000 people rushed upon the Cherokee strip and in a moment gave it the population of a State. Cities were located, and populated, and six counties formed before nightfall. Thus enlarged, Oklahoma presents increasing and urgent demands for ministers and churches. With a soil of unsurpassed fertility and a salubrious climate it promises to become a great State.

Texas, the greatest of our States, is larger than the German Empire and has 2,500,000 population.

In this great State, with its appalling needs, we have but 29 ministers, supplying 34 churches, and our sister Presbyterian Church has less than 100 ministers in charge of about 150 churches. But what are these among so many?

Rocky Mountain States and Territories.

This is the greatest in area of the sections into which our country is divided, and probably greatest in natural resources. The majestic mountains are God's provision for watering the valleys and plains.

If it be true, as every authority on the subject asserts, that about one-half of this western region of mountains and the valleys and plains which they irrigate, is arable, and the other half comprises forests, grazing lands and mineral mountains, we must expect at an early day a denser population than we have in the States eastward. The vastly greater resources and the superior facilities for developing them and for populating the country explain their rapid growth. We may expect greater things in the immediate future.

So far from being aggressive in missionary operations, the Board has had to decline every month important calls for the means of grace. The effects of the Board's retrenchment have been keenly felt all over this region in many ways.

While its mining interests have suffered, its three other great industries, viz., agriculture, stock raising, and lumbering, have sustained it. The churches have prospered. Communities have grown, but the supply of ministers is inadequate. The last Assembly divided the Presbytery of Montana into three Presbyteries and constituted them a Synod.

Idaho and Utah comprise the Synod of Utah. The two Presbyteries, Boise and Kendall, cover the greater part of the State of Idaho. The Presbytery of Utah is coextensive with that territory.

The religious interest has been unusually marked in a number of our mission fields. More than 200 conversions are reported.

When men fail to build treasure cities on this side of Jordan they are apt to turn their thoughts to the other side.

New Mexico and Arizona, though occupied by Mexicans for more than three hundred years and still dominated by them, are beginning to feel the impulse of progress. Our work has moved steadily forward. Four churches were organized, with an aggregate membership of 81. Three of these churches were Spanish. The Presbytery of Santa Fé is composed of 7 ministers and 20 churches. Most of these churches are Spanish and are ministered to by 11 evangelists and helpers.

Pacific States.

Washington.—Population poured into this State too fast for the business developments. The depression of last year impoverished a large number of people. Churches early felt the calamity. Out of 92 white and 11 Indian churches only three are self-supporting. Twenty churches are without ministers. "Every one of these," says Dr. Gunn, "is worthy of being maintained." There have been during the winter many of the most remarkable revivals ever seen in any part of the country. From estimates of these meetings it is safe to say that the roll of the entire Synod will be enlarged at least 10 and perhaps 20 per cent.

Oregon is rich in undeveloped mineral wealth. Extensive fruit lands, with the finest climate for the business, have induced large investments. No sweeping revival is reported, but there is a general awakening throughout the Synod. By retrenchment we are neglecting our share of the responsibility for the evangelization of the State. Whole communities are growing up in practical heathenism, and the longer left the more difficult to reach.

In California the supply of ministers does not often fail. Our churches have had varying degrees of prosperity. The State, stretching over many degrees of latitude, its contour varying from snow-capped mountain to semi-tropical valley, gives it a diversified climate and varied productions. There are compensating or balancing occupations which to a good degree prevent a general depression over the State. We ought to be doing four times the work we are doing there.

Rev. F. D. Seward says: "New England had the Mayflower and California had its Vigilance Committees, which were an imperative necessity. The Atlantic slope was settled with families, California with gold hunters at the first, and though things are entirely changed now the effects are seen still. Sin is brazen-faced, and yet it recognizes the frown of public opinion which is appearing in some places. The fact that all church property is taxed the same as other property shows how seriously public sentiment has been against the Gospel."

The Jews.

The year just closed will be memorable in the annals of Home Mission work as recording the Board's first effort to reach these people of history and promise. The step was taken in response to an application from the Presbytery of New York. Two or three hundred thousand of the Children of Israel are now residents of the city of New York and are exercising a profound influence upon its corporate life. Many of them have recently come from lands where Christianity has appeared to them in the light of an enemy and an oppressor. Their migration to this country and contact with our institutions have modified their prejudices and induced an earnest spirit of inquiry. Thousands of them are now hearing, from week to week, the story of a Messiah already come, and are searching the Scriptures to see whether these things are so. The significance of this movement cannot fail to impress those who believe that prophecy and providence have inseparably linked the future of the Jews with the future of the kingdom of God. The Board of Home Missions, realizing the obligation which such an opportunity imposes, undertook to prosecute a work among this people upon conditions expressed in the following resolution:

Resolved, That in view of the present financial condition of the Board and its commitments to missionaries already on the field, whose salaries are still in arrears, the Board has not the power to make an appropriation to the salary of the Rev. H. P. Faust, but will assume that responsibility for a year, provided the Presbytery will see that the churches under its control are urgently appealed to to secure this amount.

Foreigners.

The depressed condition of business has checked immigration and influenced a considerable number of foreigners to return to their native countries. But we have more than 9,000,000 foreign-born residents in the United States. Every thoughtful man must have some conception of the perils that must arise from the presence in our country of such multitudes of people, a large per cent. of whom were reared under institutions alien and antagonistic to our own. We shall continue to see the evils and fear the perils until these people become Americanized and Christianized. The cities dominate the nation. They are the centres of thought, the sources of enterprise and the originators of great popular movements for good or evil. They largely control in forming party principles and governmental policy; and they control the wealth of the country. What the cities are the country will be in all the phases of national life. Our safety lies, in a great measure, in the evangelization of the foreign elements in our great centres of population.

Woman's Work.

It would require volumes to adequately set forth the work which is nourished and propelled by the Woman's Executive Committee. The results of their well-directed and wisely managed efforts among the exceptional populations of our country have more than justified the most sanguine hopes. They have proved that the Indian may be made a valuable citizen and a good Christian; that the benighted and superstitious Mexican may be lifted to a more elevated tone of intellectual and moral life; that the strangely misguided Mormon may yet be seen clothed and in his right mind; that the unfortunate whites among the mountains of the South possess the material out of which to make most valuable men and women, and that the far-away Alaskans have warm hearts which are responsive to the Gospel message. The appalling destitution in some of our large cities presents a legitimate field for the Woman's Executive Committee. In accordance with the recommendation of the Assembly of 1893, a plan for mission schools in cities, but under certain necessary restrictions, has been formed, by which these schools shall be under the supervision of a local Committee who shall be wholly responsible for their financial support.

The Outlook.

The mission field offers great opportunities and the seminaries are providing the men, but our treasury fails us. For four consecutive years the Board has been restrained by debt from aggressive work, while all the processes of national growth have been everywhere active. Our work has outgrown us. The cities, spreading out and forming possible but unoccupied parishes; the agricultural West winning conquests over desolate regions by means of extensive systems of irrigation, and inviting multitudes to attractive homes; the Northwest with county after county without the stated means of grace; the Southwest with its unchurched millions; the Papal populations of our country, to whom the Bible is a sealed mystery; the neglected poor in the mountain fastnesses of the South; the savage Indian tribes, doomed to a slow extinction in their primitive ignorance, but without their primitive virtues; communities of foreigners all over the land, segregated by their ignorance of our language—all call upon us for instruction in the way of salvation, but call in vain. It would be gratifying if other denominations could take up the work which we neglect, but they are restrained as we are. The outlook in this aspect is depressing in the prospective need of the help which these vast fields would soon be able to return. The Board receives an important part of its revenue from the fields which it has developed and cultivated in the last generation. We need to open up new sources of supply for our treasury and these neglected cities and developing States promise, under Gospel influences, to become such sources.

ABSTRACT OF FIFTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The history of another year's efforts on the part of the Presbyterian Church to obey the Master's last great command for the world's evangelization is written; and while we are well aware that the record is by no means what the Great Head of the Church had a right to expect of His people, yet the narrative of these operations, the Fifty-seventh Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, together with the volume of Minutes of its transactions during the year, is herewith submitted to the General Assembly with profound gratitude to God for all the favor He has caused to rest on these labors in His Name.

There is reason for thankfulness that though serious illness has in one or more instances affected the attendance of members of the Board, yet the lives of all have been mercifully spared, and the privilege of administering this great enterprise of the Church has been graciously continued. Two new members have been elected to fill the vacancies in the Board: The Rev. Howard Duffield, D.D., and Mr. John T. Underwood, whose election the General Assembly is respectfully requested to confirm, they having been chosen under the conditions of the unamended Charter of the Board.

AMENDMENTS TO CHARTER.

In accordance with the directions of the General Assembly at Washington, in regard to amendments of the Board's Charter, an Act was drafted embodying the proposed amendments, together with one or two others relating to the number necessary to a quorum, which Act was duly passed by the Legislature of New York at its recent session, and signed by the Governor, and is now, therefore, in force.

By the provisions of the Charter as amended, the members of the Board are to be elected by the General Assembly, "provided, however, that the members of the Board as at present constituted shall continue to hold office until their successors have been appointed by the General Assembly."

It is respectfully recommended that the General Assembly declare the present members of the Board as the members under the amended charter, their terms to expire as follows:

Term to expire June 1, 1895: Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., Rev. J. D. Wells, D.D., Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D.D., Rev. David Gregg, D.D., Mr. William A. Booth, Mr. E. M. Kingsley, Mr. Alexander Maitland.

Term to expire June 1, 1897: Rev. R. R. Booth, D.D., Rev. W. R. Richards, D.D., Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., Edward Wells, Esq., Mr. G. S. Coe, Mr. D. R. James.

Rev. C. H. Parkhurst, D.D., regretfully declines, because of the pressure of other duties, to continue longer as a member of the Board, leaving a vacancy in the class whose term expires June 1, 1897.

SECRETARIAL ADJUSTMENTS.

Mr. William Henry Grant, who had kindly taken charge of Dr. Mitchell's correspondence during his illness and for some months after his death, resigned this work in the fall. The Rev. George D. Baker, D.D., of Philadelphia, having been called to the vacant Secretaryship and having declined, it seemed best to readjust the work of the offices by distributing the correspondence of Dr. Mitchell among the three Corresponding Secretaries, and assigning to a Recording Secretary the keeping of the Board's Minutes, correspondence with candidates, and certain other responsibilities affecting the home work of Missions. The Rev. Benjamin Labaree, D.D., was appointed to this office. After thirty-three years of invaluable service as a Missionary to Persia, the condition of his daughter's health renders his return to the field impossible. Dr. Labaree has entered upon this new work with an understanding of Mission problems and conditions which renders his judgment peculiarly valuable in the deliberations of the office. Mr. Grant has continued to give his time and strength freely, partly to the library and partly in preparing for the use of the churches lectures upon China, India and Persia, accompanied by stereopticon slides. The Rev. James S. Dennis, D.D., has continued to conduct the Foreign Mission Department of The Church at Home and Abroad, and made it most acceptable to the Church.

The Rev. Thomas Marshall, D.D., the Board's Field Secretary, still renders very efficient service in the Western sections of the country, and reports a deepening interest in the cause of Foreign Missions and commendable advance towards the mark of "an offering from every member of the Church."

THE TREASURY.

The extraordinary financial conditions of the country during the recent months, causing the most serious disturbance in all economic and benevolent enterprises alike, have brought embarrassment and losses upon very many of the regular contributors to the Board, resulting in a painful falling off in its receipts. This has thrown upon the administration very grave responsibilities.

The Board stood pledged at the outset of the year for the amount of $1,015,000, appropriations made for the operations of the various Missions during the year which is now closed. During the year many requests have come from the field for additional appropriations, some of which have been made and met by special gifts. Happily for the condition of the Board, the purchasing power of gold in countries where silver is the coin has enabled the Board to meet many of its disbursements for less than the amount estimated, so that as a final result the gold appropriations for the year have been $995,921.70, a less amount than the original appropriation. The receipts, however, for the year have been only $843,411.67, including surplus of May 1, 1893, of $1858.72, leaving a deficit of $152,510.03.

The present system of the Board in its finances furnishes an additional opportunity for saving by carefully calculating the amounts unused on the field in the preceding year which were not and could not be known in New York at the time the books were closed on April 30, 1893. On this account the deficit is decreased $49,912.24, so that the actual debt resting upon the Board in beginning the year is $102,597.79.

It seems just to call attention to the fact that the Board has recognized the financial disturbances of the year and has been so conservative as to actually reduce its expenditures $12,202.90 as compared with the preceding year. To be prudent indicates no lack of faith, and the Board looks to the Church now for a speedy increase of gifts, as the embarrassments of the country disappear. A full statement of the receipts and disbursements of the year will be found in the Treasurer's Report on pages 284–88.

MITCHELL MEMORIAL FUND.

In compliance with the recommendation of the General Assembly at Washington that a memorial offering be made in honor of the lamented Dr. Arthur Mitchell, to be known as the "Mitchell Memorial Laos Fund," special offerings were solicited in this behalf, and while the responses have not been as numerous nor as large as we could wish, owing to the financial conditions of the times, we are happy to report that the amount of donations to this very interesting purpose aggregates $13,188.54.

DECEASED MISSIONARIES.

Six of the missionaries of the Church have passed on to their eternal reward during the year. Mrs. Menkel, wife of Capt. Peter Menkel, of the Gaboon and Corisco Mission, an endeared fellow laborer, entered into rest June 13, 1893. The death of the Rev. John L. Nevius, D.D., which occurred on October 19, 1893, removed one of the most eminently successful foreign workers of any nationality in the Chinese Empire. On November 1, 1893, a greatly beloved and useful servant of the Master, Mary Lennington, wife of the Rev. W. A. Waddell, finished her earthly labors at Sao Paulo, Brazil. Upon November 5, Mrs. Lingle, wife of the Rev. W. H. Lingle, of the Canton Mission, China, was released from a protracted illness, most patiently borne. At Ealing, Eng., December 4, Eliza, widow of the late Rev. John Newton, D.D., of Lahore, India, died in her seventieth year. The Rev. George H. Ferris, a most indefatigable worker for sixteen years in the Western India Mission, finished his earthly services on the 7th of March, 1894. Some highly valued native workers have also fallen by the way in the course of the year, whose places it will be most difficult to fill. Nor can we omit to allude to the noble spirits in some of the fields who have illustrated by triumphant martyr deaths the sustaining power of the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ.

NEW MISSIONARIES.

Fifty-four new missionaries were sent to the field last year, of whom nineteen were men, fifteen were wives of missionaries, and twenty were single ladies. The whole number of foreign missionaries in connection with the Board is 635; while the number of native agents of all classes is 1741, including 165 ordained ministers.

DEPUTATION TO MEXICO.

In response to frequent requests from the Mission to Mexico for some representative of the Board to visit the field and share in the councils of the missionaries in their endeavors to solve some of the serious problems that confront them in their work, the Board appointed the Rev. William R. Richards, D.D., and Mr. Robert E. Speer, to visit the Mexico Mission at the time of its Annual Meeting in January, 1894. They left New York January 1, and after arriving in Mexico visited nearly all of the stations in the Northern and Southern Missions under the care of this Board, together with a large number of the outstations, conferring freely with the missionaries, the native pastors and the churches, and participating in the discussions of the Annual Meeting which assembled in Mexico City, January 23, all greatly to the satisfaction and helpfulness of the brethren in the field as well as of the Board at home.

CONFERENCE OF FOREIGN BOARDS.

It was the privilege of this Board to be represented in a Conference of representatives of nearly all the Protestant Evangelical Foreign Missionary Boards in the United States and Canada, which was held at the rooms of the Methodist Mission House, New York, January 17, 1894, similar to the conference which was held last year in the Presbyterian Missions House and reported to the Assembly, at which several most valuable papers upon practical questions affecting Foreign Missionary work were read, followed by suggestive and helpful discussions. The Minutes of the Conference have been published and deserve wide circulation for the information they contain on the most approved methods of conducting missionary work. At the instance of this Conference the officers of all the represented bodies have issued an impressive appeal to the churches concerning the world's evangelization.

APPEAL OF DR. KERR.

The General Assembly having at Washington referred to the Board the complaint of John G. Kerr, M.D., against the Board's action relating to his project for the establishing of an asylum for the insane at Canton, the Board after further correspondence with the Canton Mission, and in the exercise of the discretion vested in it by the action of the General Assembly in its reference of the matter back to the Board, again decided that it could not conscientiously encourage outside efforts of this kind, less spiritual in their character, and tending to divert contributions from their regular purposes.

WOMEN'S BOARDS AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S AID.

The assiduous efforts of the women of the Church, through their various Boards and societies, have never been more highly appreciated than in the past year, when the treasury has been subject to so severe a strain. Their contributions have amounted to $324,003.11.

The receipts from the Sabbath-schools and Christian Endeavor Societies have continued an important item of our annual income.

THE WOOSTER HOMES.

The Wooster Homes are now quite thoroughly organized and efficiently equipped for the kindly purposes for which they were so generously established, and have proved a welcome home for some children whose parents are engaged in the missionary service in distant countries.

AMERICAN BIBLE AND TRACT SOCIETIES.

The operations of the American Bible Society continue to be intimately blended with the labors of our Presbyterian missionaries in many lands. Notable among their services during the past year should be mentioned the costly edition of the revised Syriac Bible for the Nestorians, and editions of the New Testament in whole and in part in different African dialects. The American Tract Society has also lent cordial and most valuable assistance to our Missions in the creation and distribution of Christian literature.

NEW BUILDING.

The Boards of Foreign Missions and Home Missions contemplate erecting a new building as their headquarters in New York city, a joint statement in regard to which will be presented from the two Boards.

ENCOURAGING RETROSPECT OF THE WORK ABROAD.

In the retrospect of the year's work in the foreign field there is renewed evidence of the fidelity, consecrated energy, and generally wise measures on the part of the missionaries under commission, and of the immense usefulness of the native assistants who have been gathered around them. The great Captain of this salvation army has in many signal ways set His seal of approval upon the proclamation of the Word through them in the past twelve months. It is inspiring to faith and holy effort to learn from the report of the Laos Mission that the regular Church work in all its variety of form shows progress. "Record of defeat is not heard. It is victory in every quarter." "Never has so much evangelistic work been possible, never so much territory been covered."

A notable feature of the Mission to Siam is the number of extensive tours accomplished, carrying the Gospel into provinces that have never been visited by missionaries of Christ before, selling to eager purchasers thousands of portions of God's Word and Christian books and tracts. In China there is general quiet, with only here and there a petty local disturbance affecting the missionary work. Adequate impression cannot be given of the accumulating proofs of the progress and power of the Gospel, especially in the lives of those who have been led to receive it. There is reason to hope that the proposed new treaty between the United States Government and China will soon come into effect, and remove many of the obstacles now lying in the way of the progress of Christ's kingdom among the Chinese.

The missionary force in the Island of Hainan, China, has been constituted as a separate Mission and a new epoch of aggressive work entered upon, full of encouragement. The Island is not occupied by any other missionary body, and the Spirit of the Lord is manifestly with our Presbyterian workers. The missionaries of Korea are making vigorous endeavors to open this "hermit nation" to the knowledge of the Gospel; strategic points are occupied, active measures are pushed, but it is still the day of small things.

Uncertainties as to how the present agitation regarding foreigners in Japan will issue, together with certain ecclesiastical and theological disturbances, are still sources of some anxiety and embarrassment to our missionary workers in that land, but the Church of Christ marches on, gaining in numbers and, we believe, in spiritual power.

India attracts increasing attention from the growing restlessness of its people. Careful students of the situation discern significant changes, political and religious, as close at hand; many natives, Hindoos and Mohammedans, predict the increasing power of Christianity in the Empire, and it is not strange that the missionaries themselves regard it as a time when extraordinary responsibilty rests upon the Church of Christ for an advance movement along all lines of missionary enterprise.

The outbreaks of Mohammedan violence in parts of Persia, and other forms of opposition to the Gospel, have added greatly to the burdens of the missionaries, and have necessitated special caution in some forms of aggressive effort. Yet the churches report a cheering growth in membership during the year, and the work of touring in the regions outside has been pushed with unprecedented energy.

All missionary operations in the Turkish Empire are suffering from political and national complications that seriously embarrass, but do not dampen the ardor of the workers in our important field of Syria.

The delightful ingatherings of souls in the Gaboon and Corisco Mission are a joyous crown to the labors of the year. The advance of Christian light into the interior, though at great personal sacrifice of comfort and health to the enthusiastic and resolute missionary workers, and the readiness with which the Gospel is received by the natives, are auspicious of large conquests soon to be won for the Church in those dark regions.

The visit of the deputation to Mexico already referred to, together with the reports of the missionaries, give grounds to believe that the Mission is entering upon a new epoch of substantial progress on all the most important lines of Church development. The opposing conditions to the Gospel in Roman Catholic countries remain unchanged, but the little churches already gathered out of the Romish darkness in the South America Missions, are the earnest of multitudes of souls whom we may believe are waiting to be won to a purer Christian faith and Church.

In the aggregate, the additions to the Mission churches during the year have been 3,141, and the whole number of present communicants is 30,453.

The fiscal year of the Missions closes on April 30. At that date the accounts of the Treasurers on the field are made up, and any balance unused is reported to the Board. Owing to inability—because of death or other unforeseen cause—to carry out some form of work for which appropriation was made, a balance is left in each of the Station Treasurer's hands. As these cannot be accurately determined until after April 30, the total amount is entered in the year following that in which the saving actually occurs.

New York, May 11, 1894.

PROPERTY—TWENTIETH STREET AND FIFTH AVENUE, N. Y.

This property was bought by the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions, jointly, in March, 1893, but for special reasons title was not taken nor payment made until June 1, 1893.

The record of the cash transaction of the Foreign Board is as follows:

Purchase price, ½ of $670,000,		$335,000
Paid from:
Part of legacy of Mrs. R. L. Stuart,	$170,000
Gift of Mr. John S. Kennedy,	5,000
Loan on property, 4½%,	160,000
		335,000

The property was bought with an outstanding lease which provided a 5% net rental on the purchase price. The tenants paid a bonus of $10,000 to be relieved of the lease on May 1, 1894, and the current account of the property to April 30, 1894, is as follows:

	DR.	CR.
By ½ rental to April 30, 1894,		$16,750 00
" ½ payment to cancel lease,		5,000 00
" gift of Mr. John S. Kennedy (less applied to purchase account),		3,000 00

ABSTRACT OF THE SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Education presents its Annual Report to the General Assembly, sincerely grateful to God that it has reached the conclusion of its seventy-fifth year under circumstances both happy and prosperous. While the contributions from the Churches, Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies are $8600 less than during the previous year and the contributions from miscellaneous sources $2200 less, yet the number of students has increased and the Board has been enabled to give to each student in college or seminary $100, being $20 more than the allowance the previous year, although $10 less than the amount suggested by the last General Assembly. The Board is happy to report that, with the help of legacies and by the use of a portion of its reserve, it has closed its account without debt, except to its own funds.

At the annual election of officers held in June last, the Corresponding Secretary of the Board, the Rev. D. W. Poor, D.D., declined a reëlection. After seventeen years of faithful service, he felt it necessary to retire from active work. The Rev. Edward B. Hodge, D.D., was chosen as his successor on the 30th of October last. At the request of the Board, the Rev. Dr. Poor continued to discharge the duties of Corresponding Secretary until the beginning of December, when he was relieved by his successor. The Rev. George D. Baker, D.D., was reëlected President; the Rev. James M. Crowell, D.D., was reëlected Vice-President, and Mr. Jacob Wilson was reëlected Treasurer.

It is with sincere sorrow that we are obliged to report the death of James F. Gayley, M.D., after a service, faithfully given, of thirty-one years; and also of a most promising clerk, Mr. J. Duncan Brooks. Another serious loss occurred in the resignation of Rev. J. H. Munro, D.D., who felt compelled to retire on account of the multiplicity of duties resting upon him.

The Board, having been enjoined by the General Assembly of 1893, to give aid to such students only as may be in attendance upon seminaries approved by the Assembly, and having been officially notified that approval had been withheld from Union Seminary, and also from Lane Seminary, on account of the retention of Dr. Briggs in one, and Dr. Henry P. Smith in the other, after they had been suspended from the ministry, sent to students under its care the action of the General Assembly. On the 14th of September last, official notice was received by the Board that the Trustees of Lane Seminary had rescinded their action with reference to Prof. Smith and accepted his resignation. Accordingly, on the 25th of September, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted and sent forth for the advice of all persons concerned :

"While the Board does not presume to pass upon the sufficiency of this action, complicated as the Board understands it to be by additional action taken by the Trustees of Lane Seminary touching their relations to the General Assembly, the power of decision in the case being vested in the General Assembly alone, yet believing that in the specific matter for which the seminary was disapproved the authority of the Assembly has been acknowledged by the Lane Trustees, and led by proper and kindly consideration for the needs of the candidates for the ministry who are entrusted to its care by the Church, the Board adopts the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That this Board, upon recommendation duly made by the Presbyteries, will vote the customary aid given theological students to students in Lane Seminary, pending further instructions by the next General Assembly.

"Resolved, That this action be sent to the Chairmen of Committees on Education in the Presbyteries, to students heretofore under care of the Board in Lane Seminary, and to the Trustees of Lane Seminary, and that it be reported in full to the next General Assembly, with such additional statements as may be necessary."

The request made by the General Assembly of 1893 that the Board consider anew the question of giving aid to students in their academic course, with the understanding that funds for the purpose should be obtained by withholding aid from students in the latter part of their seminary career, was referred to a Committee for careful study. This Committee afterwards presented a report, which was unanimously adopted, and published in The Church at Home and Abroad for December. It expresses the profound conviction that to no students is aid more wisely and helpfully given than to those who are in the middle and senior years of the theological seminaries, and that it would be next to disastrous to withdraw assistance at that stage of their studies. The action adopted by the Board, however, leaves it free to give assistance in extraordinary cases, such as the sons of ministers, and candidates that are preparing to labor among the exceptional portions of the population of our country. Attention is called to the fact that there are fewer English-speaking people coming to us now than in former years, fewer Protestants, fewer persons moved by religious considerations. The Board has done what it could to provide for the emergency by freely aiding all well-recommended students in our German Theological Schools at Dubuque and Bloomfield, and the colored students preparing for the ministry at Biddle University, Lincoln University, and other similar institutions of learning. The Board has colored students to the number of 101 on its roll. It feels that it is a special privilege to assist these sons of Africa in their struggles to elevate their long down-trodden race. The Board has not felt at liberty to comply with certain requests made for loans of money to students from the simple fact that all moneys are contributed to the Board with the stipulation that the student aided is not to regard what he receives as a loan, but as the Church's cheerful contribution to facilitate and expedite his preparation for the ministry. [See Rules of the Board 3, Section 9.]

Five students have been dropped from our roll during the year on account of deficiency in scholarship; one because of bad conduct, and four because they have married while under the care of the Board.

It is a satisfaction to be able to report that the Board has had under its care during the past year 913 students, an increase of forty-five over the number reported last year. At the same time it is important that it should be known that the growth of the Church itself has far outstripped the relative increase of candidates since the organization of the Board in 1819. In the decade from 1830 to 1840 the number of candidates in proportion to the number of communicants in our Church was as one to 387. In 1894 we have only one candidate for every 1000 communicants. In 1830 we had one candidate for every 24,800 of the population of the United States. In 1894 we have only one candidate for every 69,000 of our population, and at a time when the doors are open for us to enter all parts of the wide, wide world.

The Board recalls with gratitude at the close of seventy-five years the remarkable history recorded in its favor. It points with delight to the remarkable success it has had in providing during these years so largely for the needs of the Church in the prosecution of its work in this country and in foreign lands. It takes pleasure in the success it has had in helping to raise and maintain the standard of ministerial education, and reminds the Church of the splendid contributions made during these years to her literature on the subject of the importance and dignity of the ministry, the nature of a call to the sacred office, and similar topics. It observes with the greatest satisfaction the benefits which the Church is reaping from that plan of systematic beneficence which is owing in part to its own studies upon the subject, and the recommendation made to the General Assembly in 1854. The future is anticipated with the utmost interest, and the hope is cherished that the Church will steadfastly persevere in the policy, to which experience has abundantly testified, of insisting that her candidates shall have in every respect the best possible preparation.

Abstract of the Fifty-sixth Annual Report.

The year just closed, notwithstanding the financial stringency that has prevailed throughout the country, has been one of prosperity in which all the Departments have participated.

I. SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

The work of this Department has been continued along the following lines:

1. The organization of Sabbath-schools in localities of our country destitute of the means of grace.
2. The upbuilding of weak and struggling Sabbath-schools.
3. The distribution of Bibles, hymn books, books, tracts, lesson helps, and Sabbath-school papers to churches, Sabbath-schools, families, and individuals by grants and sales.
4. The visitation of families and individuals not reached by other Christian agencies.
5. The improvement of Presbyterian Sabbath-schools.
6. The collection, arrangement, and publication of the Sabbath-school statistics of the Presbyteries and Synods in the "Minutes" of the General Assembly.

1. Sabbath-school Organization.

This is effected principally through the agency of Sabbath-school missionaries.

Our missionary agents have been divided during the past year into two classes—Permanent and Student Sabbath-school Missionaries. The Permanent Missionaries are divided into two classes—Synodical and Presbyterial.

Synodical Sabbath-school Missionaries.

These have the supervision of the Sabbath-school missionaries laboring in their respective Synods, and they also perform the work of Presbyterial missionaries in their respective Presbyteries. They are themselves under the supervision of the Synodical Committees on Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and also of the Presbyterial Committees on Publication and Sabbath-school Work of the several Presbyteries within whose bounds they labor.

Twelve Synodical missionaries have thus far been appointed, and all of these are now in commission.

PRESBYTERIAL SABBATH-SCHOOL MISSIONARIES.

These are appointed by the Board to labor within the bounds of designated Presbyteries with the authorization and under the direction of those judicatories or their appropriate committees.

Seventy-four Presbyterial missionaries have been employed during the past year within the bounds of twenty Synods.

STUDENT MISSIONARIES.

By the request of the Presbyteries in whose bounds they labored seventy-one student missionaries were employed by the Board during the summer vacation of 1893, to labor in various mission fields under the immediate direction of the Committees of these Presbyteries and of the permanent missionaries.

REVIEW OF THE YEAR'S WORK.

Our missionaries organized during the past year 870 new schools. The number organized under the standing offer of the Board to supply, free of cost, hymn books, lesson helps, papers, and Bibles to any person organizing a Presbyterian Sabbath-school, was 82, making a total of 952. The number of reorganizations reported was 348.

The total number of teachers and scholars gathered into these schools was 45,174. The missionaries visited and otherwise aided 3649 Sabbath-schools, delivered 9644 addresses, and traveled 591,956 miles.

LEADING FEATURES OF THE WORK.

A special feature of the missionary work of this Board has been the placing of a large share of the burden of its support upon existing Sabbath-schools. Appeal has been made to the young in behalf of the young—to Sabbath-schools in behalf of Sabbath-schools—and the response has been prompt and generous.

A second is fidelity to the polity of our Church. Our missionaries labor under the supervision of the Presbyteries, and, wherever practicable, place new schools under the care of the Sessions of neighboring churches.

A third is the exercise of genuine catholicity. Our missionaries are instructed whenever they find it impracticable to effect the organization of a school in connection with our own Church, to organize one if possible in connection with some other Evangelical denomination, or on the union basis.

RELATION OF THE WORK TO THE CHURCH.

Two points are to be noticed: The first, that it is the pioneer of Home Missions; the second, that, in actual results, it is materially building up and strengthening our Church.

2. UPBUILDING OF NEWLY ORGANIZED SCHOOLS.

Under the peculiar conditions of the Sabbath-school Missionary enterprise it is only reasonable to expect that there will be a varying amount of apparently wasted effort; but, on the whole, there is abundant cause for gratitude that so large a proportion of the work is permanent.

The aim of the Board has been permanently to establish Sabbath-schools, and not simply to organize them. The obstacles are principally the following: The difficulty of finding suitable men to act as superintendents; the impossibility, in some localities, of finding a sufficient number of suitable teachers; the blockades of snow that, in many northern regions, make the roads impassable during the winter; the spiritual indifference that prevails in many communities; and, in a few localities, generally prevailing lawlessness and strife amongst the people.

Missionaries are instructed to labor for permanency in results. They are forbidden to organize schools without the express authorization of the Presbyteries within whose bounds they labor. They are directed to place every new school under the care of the Session of the nearest Presbyterian Church; and, in case there is no neighboring Session, to commend it to the Committee of Presbytery. They are directed to continue correspondence with the superintendents, and to revisit from time to time the schools they have established. They are also instructed, when any of the schools which they have planted cease to exist, to use all their power to reorganize them. Within the last four years 1023 lapsed schools have been reported as reorganized.

ANNUAL CENSUS.

It is customary each year to take a census of the schools organized during the preceding year. From the census recently taken it appears that of the 854 schools organized from April 1, 1892, to April 1, 1893, 735 have been heard from. Of these 515 are alive, of which 172 are "summer schools"—that is, are closed in the winter. Two hundred and twenty have ceased to exist, while 119 have not been heard from. It also appears that from the schools of that year 32 churches have already grown, and, looking at other similar reports, it will be seen, that for the last four years, each week a church has grown from Sabbath-schools organized by our missionaries.

3. DISTRIBUTION OF LITERATURE.

The number of pages of tracts and periodicals distributed by our missionaries, in their house-to-house visitations, during the year, was 2,613,548. The number directly granted by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee was 14,730,850; total, 17,344,398. In addition to these grants there were distributed 59,583 volumes of Christian literature, of which 6320 were Bibles and Testaments. Of this number the missionaries gave away, other than Bibles, 32,219 and sold 5207. The number of volumes directly donated by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee was 15,837. The net value of the grants—that is, the exact cost to the Department—was $18,598.19.

The number of grants made to Sabbath-schools was 1866; the number made to churches and individuals was 590, a total of 2456.

Every day in the year the Board has given away, other than Bibles, 206 volumes, and 50,263 pages of tracts and religious papers.

4. VISITATION OF FAMILIES.

Vast numbers of our population are living in new settlements and in country districts, in many instances at great distance from railroads and from churches or Sabbath-schools. The only organized effort put forth by our Church to reach families that are beyond the influence of minister, church or school is the Sabbath-school Missionary Work of this Board. The Sabbath-school missionary pushes the line of Gospel effort to the very front. Within the past year our missionaries have visited 70,411 families, in whose homes they have left the Gospel of Christ in the memory of those to whom they have spoken and with whom they have prayed, and in the books, papers and tracts they have distributed.

During the winter of 1893–94, our missionaries were enabled, through the generosity of churches, Sabbath-schools, benevolent societies and individuals, to supply with needed clothing thousands of poor children. The money valuation placed on these donations was about $7000. Through this help thousands were enabled to attend the day and Sabbath-schools who would otherwise have been prevented by the severity of the weather.

5. Improvement of Sabbath-schools.

In the endeavor to improve our schools the following principles have been kept in view, and effort has been made to have them reduced to practice:

1. The Sabbath-school is to be regarded as the Church engaged in studying and teaching the Bible. It, as well as the other activities of the Church, is under the government of the Session.
2. Each Church, wherever practicable, should financially support its Sabbath-school.
3. Each Church should endeavor to furnish the means of training an adequate corps of competent teachers for its school.
4. All Sabbath-school scholars should be trained to give systematically and intelligently to the Boards of the Church.
5. All Sabbath-school scholars should be trained to attend the regular services of the Church.
6. The methods, expedients, and machinery employed in a school should be subordinated to its spiritual life and edification.

METHODS EMPLOYED.

As conducive to improvement, the following methods have been employed:

I. BIBLE TEACHERS' INSTITUTES.

The effort to introduce into our schools the system of Bible Teachers' Institutes. This effort has attained gratifying success.

II. SYNODICAL AND PRESBYTERIAL INSTITUTES.

The promotion of Synodical and Presbyterial Conventions and Institutes. To this special attention is given.

III. QUARTERLY MISSIONARY LETTERS.

The sending to each contributing Sabbath-school of a Quarterly Letter written by the missionary to whom the collections of that school have been assigned as furnishing part of his support.

IV. CATECHISM BIBLES.

The continuance of the offer to present an Oxford Bible to each person who may be properly certified as having at one time perfectly recited the Shorter Catechism. During the year 1,937 persons have met all the requirements. Since this offer was first made, six years ago, 10,253 Bibles have been awarded.

The offer of these Bibles will be continued during the coming year. Blank certificates will be furnished to all pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents on application to the Superintendent of this department.

V. UNITED MOVEMENT FOR GATHERING IN THE YOUTH OF THE COUNTRY.

The continued effort to engage our Sabbath-schools in a diligent search after neglected children and youth in their respective neighborhoods. Blank books for visitors, printed instructions and suggestions, cards of welcome, and suitable tracts have been supplied to every Presbyterian Sabbath-school that promised to engage in the enterprise.

VI. CHILDREN'S DAY.

The preparation and distribution of supplies for the observance of Children's Day. This anniversary continues to increase in popularity.

On Children's Day, 1893, Churches and Sabbath-schools contributed about $50,000 to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Work of this Board. Continuing to emphasize the duty of bringing the millions of youth in this land into the Sabbath-school who are now outside of it, an urgent call has again been issued to our Sabbath-schools to contribute on next Children's Day the sum of $100,000 to Presbyterian Sabbath-school Missions.

VII. GRADING OF SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

In the belief that only as a Sabbath-school is graded does it deserve to be called a school; that a wise method of grading stimulates the scholars to study; and that such a method, judiciously administered, will in measure enable the school to retain its older scholars, it has been attempted to induce our schools to adopt such a method.

As the proper grading of schools is largely dependent upon a wisely arranged lesson system, the effort has been made to provide an appropriate system.

A text-book of Supplemental Lessons for the Primary class is already published. Text-books for the Normal Department have also been published, namely, The Westminster Normal Class Outlines, for the Junior and Middle courses, and Vols. i and ii of The Bible Teachers' Guide.

A brief outline, entitled, The Westminster System of Graded Supplemental Lessons, and also text-books for the four years of the Junior Intermediate Department, are in the course of publication.

VIII. THE HOME CLASS DEPARTMENT.

The object of the department of the Sabbath-school thus entitled is to systematize and develop the weekly study of the International Lessons at home by those who are unable to attend the public exercises of the school.

According to the plan suggested, and already in many instances adopted, the "Home Classes" are to be placed on the roll of the school. The members of these classes are to study the current Bible Lesson at least half an hour each week as individuals (or in family or neighborhood classes); to keep an accurate record of the study of each week; to report such study to the "Visitor," and to make a weekly offering to the benevolent objects of the school. The material for the supply of this department has been issued by the Board.

6. PRESBYTERIAN SABBATH-SCHOOL STATISTICS.

The remaining function of this Department is the collection and tabulation of the statistics of Presbyterian Sabbath-schools, a summary of which is presented in the "Minutes" of the General Assembly. The following is a synoptical comparison between the statistics of 1888 and those of 1893:

MEMBERSHIP.

	1888.	1893.
Number of reporting Sabbath-schools,	5,137	6,863
Number of officers and teachers,	81,202	99,162
Number of officers, teachers, and scholars,	837,737	916,161

RELATION TO CHURCH.

Total number of scholars in full communion of Church,	95,635	160,948
Total number of baptized scholars,	93,673	166,754
Number of scholars received during year into full communion of Church,	23,762	30,613

	1888.	1893.
Number of schools in which Shorter Catechism is taught	3,285	3,775
Number of schools using Westminster Lesson Leaf,	3,892	5,193
Number of books in Library,	714,610	837,231

CONTRIBUTIONS.

To Sabbath-school Work of Presbyterian Board,	$22,961	$57,229
To other Boards of Church,	153,457	131,154
To other benevolent objects,	170,334	102,596
To support of the School,	205,736	392,767

The figures under the heading "Relation to Church" are, as has been stated in several reports, very imperfect, on account of the incompleteness of the returns. It is earnestly desired that full reports be made by the Presbyteries.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

There have been received for the current funds of this Department $124,162.71, of which $23,870.33 came from the Business Department, being two-thirds of the net profits of that Department for the year. The receipts from all sources were $1805.05 more than those of last year. It is an interesting and encouraging fact that the contributions from churches, Sabbath-schools, and individuals were $1803.58 in advance of those reported to the last General Assembly.

Three legacies, amounting in the aggregate to $58,218.35, have also been received and invested. Each of these comes from a Christian woman—from Mrs. Mary Stuart, of New York city, $55,711.80; from Mrs. Harriet J. Rogers, of Southampton, N. Y., $1079.41; from Mrs. Mary Woods, of Wheeling, W. Va., $1427.14.

The total expenditures of the year were $135,041.34, or in excess of receipts for the year, other than those contributed by the Business Department, by $34,748.96. The expenditures were also in excess of those of last year by $14,965.95, and in excess of receipts from all sources by $10,878.63. In consequence of this excess of expenditures over receipts the balance on hand at the beginning of the fiscal year was less than that reported a year ago by the amount last mentioned.

MISSIONARY BIBLE FUND.

The balance in the hands of the Treasurer belonging to this fund April 1, 1893, was $2364.04; the receipts last year were $339.13; total, $2703.17. The receipts were from interest on invested funds held in trust by the Board for the free distribution of Bibles. The amount expended was $896, leaving a balance April 2, 1894, of $1807.17.

The entire fund is held by the Treasurer for the purchase of Bibles that are to be gratuitously distributed, subject to the order of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department.

RESULTS OF SIX YEARS' WORK.

Number of Sabbath schools organized by missionaries,	5,875
Number of persons gathered into these schools,	261,764
Number of Sabbath-schools reorganized,	1,023
Number of Sabbath-schools organized under offer of the Board,	690
Number of grants made to churches, Sabbath-schools, and individuals,	12,459

PERIODICALS.

Our periodicals, consisting of Lesson Helps and Illustrated Papers, continue to meet with favor, not in our own country alone, but in Canada and beyond the sea; not in our own denomination only, but in many other churches.

LESSON HELPS.

The Westminster Teacher is issued monthly. It is prepared specifically for the teachers and officers of Sabbath-schools, and is used also by many Bible-class scholars. It contains full expositions of the International Bible Lessons. Its aim is not merely to furnish critical notes, but specially to aid teachers in applying the truths of the Scriptures to the consciences and lives of the pupils. This magazine is published in octavo form, each number containing 40 to 48 pages. Price, single copy by mail, per annum, 60 cents; school subscriptions, to one address, 50 cents per copy.

The Westminster Question Book is a complete manual or hand-book for the study of the International Bible Lessons for the year. It contains Scripture Texts, Home Readings, Golden Texts, Lesson Plans, Shorter Catechism, Notes on the Lesson, Questions, Maps, and Practical Suggestions. It thus gives, in a convenient and compact form, the basis for the year's work. Price, $12 per hundred, net; single copies by mail, 15 cents.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is adapted to older scholars, and is used also in advanced and Bible classes. It is issued quarterly, and each number contains full lesson-work for the three months, with Order of Service, Map, Bible Dictionary, Class-record for marking by scholars, Hymns and Tunes and other valuable matter. It is to be greatly enlarged and improved in all its features at the beginning of July. Each number will then contain forty pages. It is a fact deserving special mention that the orders for this periodical, for the quarter beginning July 1, have been so numerous as to demand an edition of 400,000 copies—the largest edition of a single number of a periodical that has ever been printed by the Board. Though so much enlarged, the price remains the same as before—$12 for 100 copies to one address for one year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly is a new periodical, the first number to be issued July 1. Part of the matter is the same as in the Senior Quarterly, but the questions and the working out of the lessons are different—adapted to a younger grade of scholars. It will contain 36 pages, and will be furnished at the same rate as the Senior Quarterly—$12 for 100 copies to one address for one year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly is adapted to the little people in the primary classes. The edition to be published for the quarter beginning July 1 will be 10,000 copies in advance of that published for the corresponding quarter of last year—an increase demanded by the increased number of orders. Price, school subscriptions, to one address, 100 copies per year, $8, or 8 cents for each scholar.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf is prepared with special reference to intermediate and younger scholars. It is issued monthly, but is so arranged that, if desired, the leaves can be separated and distributed to scholars weekly. Each leaf contains one lesson complete, with Scripture, Golden Text, Catechism, Notes, Questions, and Practical Teachings. Price, school subscriptions, to one address, 100 copies per year, $5, or 5 cents yearly for each scholar.

The Westminster Primary Lessons is a neat leaf adapted to the little people. It is issued weekly, in the same form and at the same price as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

The Westminster Lesson Card is a new periodical. It was issued first at the beginning of 1894, but it has already reached a great circulation. Of the issue of the first quarter 73,000 sets were subscribed for; subscriptions for 88,000 sets of the issue for the second quarter have already been received and orders are still coming in. It contains a lithographic picture, illustrating the lesson of the day, with Lesson Title, Golden Text, Lesson Hymn, Questions, etc. It is adapted in grade to the younger children and Primary classes. The price is 16 cents a year, or 4 cents a quarter.

The German Lesson Leaf is prepared specifically for the Sabbath-schools of our German congregations, and is greatly appreciated by them It is published monthly. The price is the same as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

ILLUSTRATED PAPERS.

Forward has as its aim the furnishing of articles of an instructive and entertaining character. It is designed for young people in intermediate and Bible classes, and is adapted for reading in the home. It is attractively illustrated, each number containing 12 pages. It is published twice each month, but may be taken once or twice a month, as subscribers desire. School subscriptions, to one address, once a month, 100 copies per year, $15; twice a month, 100 copies per year, $30.

The Sabbath-school Visitor is adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward. It is an illustrated four-page paper, each number containing attractive and interesting matter adapted to children. It is published twice a month. It may, however, be taken once or twice a month, as preferred. School subscriptions, to one address, once a month, 100 copies per year, $10; twice a month, 100 copies per year, $20.

The Morning Star is of the same quality, grade, and style as The Visitor, but is only half the size. It is issued twice a month, as desired. School subscriptions, to one address, once a month, 100 copies per year, $5; twice a month, 100 copies per year, $10.

The Sunbeam is issued weekly, and is finely illustrated. School subscriptions, $20 per 100 copies for the year. No subscriptions taken for less than a month.

Forward, The Sabbath-school Visitor, and The Morning Star, each being published twice a month, schools that so desire may have four papers each month. The older scholars can receive Forward and The Visitor each twice; and the younger pupils, The Visitor and The Morning Star each twice. Then for the little people Sunbeam comes every Sabbath in the year.

NEW HYMNAL.

It is with great pleasure reported that the preparation of the book is well under way. The work has been earnestly and laboriously prosecuted by a Committee of the Board. The best Hymnals of this country, England, and Scotland have been carefully cross-indexed and collated, and a large body of hymnody, outside of these, reviewed. The selection of the hymns and their classification have been largely accomplished. The editorial work upon the book has been committed, under the supervision of the Committee, to one of its members, the Rev. Louis F. Benson, who has temporarily relinquished pastoral work to give his whole time to this. The book will be pushed forward with all practicable speed, and it is the expectation of the Committee that the New Hymnal will be, in all respects, abreast of the best work which has been done in hymnology either in this country or Great Britian.

The Committee, it is proper to add, is under instructions to report to the Board, from time to time, the progress and results of their work for examination and review.

III. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

This department conducts all the business operations of the Board. Of these the most important are, first, the manufacture of books, tracts and periodicals, and, secondly, the placing of the publications on the market.

PUBLICATIONS.

There have been published during the year 1,042,045 books and tracts, and 22,032,874 periodicals, which, together with 8250 copies of the Annual Report,* make an aggregate of 23,083,169 publications for the year.

PLACING ON THE MARKET.

This work is performed by advertising in the leading papers of our own and affiliated denominations throughout the country, and through the agency of the main store in Philadelphia, and twenty-four depositories and branch houses, nineteen of which are in our own land, four in British America, and one in England. These agencies, at the present time, are as follows:

DEPOSITORIES AND BRANCH HOUSES.

Baltimore, Md., S. W. Harman, 320 North Charles Street.
Boston, Mass., H. D. Noyes & Co., 13½ Bromfield Street.
Buffalo, N. Y., Otto Ulbrich, 395 Main Street.

* This refers to the number of copies of the Report for the year ending March 31, 1893.

Truro, N. S., D. H. Smith & Co.
Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell & Co., 504 Main Street.
London, England, 14 Paternoster Square, terms on application.

These houses, with the exception of the one in London, furnish all our publications at the Board's prices.

Our periodicals are still further brought to the attention of churches and Sabbath-schools by circulars addressed to pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents. Our missionaries also bring all classes of our publications to the notice of those who dwell in missionary districts.

SALES.

The sales for the year in books and tracts were $94,703.36. This amount, as it includes credit sales, does not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received. The amount received during the year for the sale of periodicals was $156,765.76.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The receipts during the year from all sources, inclusive of those for The Church at Home and Abroad and the Missionary Bible Fund, were $274,195.88. To this should be added the balance in the treasury at the beginning of the year, $105,934.73, making a total of $380,130.61. The expenditures during the year were $257,457.22. The balance is $122,672.89, of which $116,827.15 belongs to the Business Department, $4038.57 to The Church at Home and Abroad, and $1807.17 to the Missionary Bible Fund.

FREE LIBRARIES.

The Board, during the year, distributed 385 Free Libraries, containing 34,355 volumes, to needy ministers, churches, Sabbath-schools, and other deserving objects, in 37 States and Territories, at the inventory value of $8,437.99.

NET PROFITS.

The net profits of the year were $35,805.49. Of this sum two-thirds, or $23,870.33, has been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund. The remaining third, or $11,935.16, has been added to capital.

CAPITAL.

This, at the beginning of the year, was $420,009.88. This amount was reduced, during the year, to $411,475.67, by the donation of "Free Libraries" and other books. the inventory value of which was $8534.21. In consequence of the addition of one-third of the profits of the year, or $11,935.16, it is now reported as $423,410.83.

Renewed attention is called to the fact that a large part of the capital is represented by the real estate of the Board, which yields no income, but is given up to the use of the various agencies of the Church, while the expenses of maintenance of the entire building are paid out of the earnings of the Board.

IV. THE CHURCH AT HOME AND ABROAD.

At the request of the Committee appointed by the General Assembly, the Board continues to be the publisher of The Church at Home and Abroad. The relations of the Board to this magazine are different, however, from those which it sustains to the other periodicals which it publishes.

The editor of the magazine is selected by the Assembly's Committee, and he works under its general direction, as does also the Board itself in this particular. The Board is an agent rather than the principal in its publication, and assumes no pecuniary responsibility in reference thereto.

No charge has been made by the Board for anything except actual expenditures directly on account of the magazine, and every effort has been adopted, through the machinery of the Board, to further the success of the enterprise.

The amount of receipts* on account of the magazine for the year was $18,353.10. The number of copies published was 233,632.

A balance of $4038.57 now stands to the credit of this magazine in the books of the Treasurer.

* This includes the amounts received from the subscribers and from the several Boards.

OFFICE: 53 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK.

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Taking the year as a whole, the number of applications was diminished, showing that many congregations, aware of the difficulties before them, postponed their building until a better day; but this diminution in demand occurred almost entirely in the latter half of the year. Ordinarily there is more building during the summer months forming the first half of the fiscal year, but this year the difference was very marked. Taking the six previous years, 53 per cent. of the applications came in during the six months ending with September 30; this year nearly 66 per cent. of all received were during these months. Moreover, in the early part of the year instances occurred of applications from churches which, when planning to build, had every reason to expect to be able to complete their work by their own unaided efforts, but who found themselves crippled after the work was too far advanced to be stopped or curtailed.

To this general statement of the conditions under which the work has been carried on during the year should be added the fact that, when the year opened, the Board had on file twenty-four applications postponed on account of lack of funds from the previous year and aggregating in amount $14,466. In effect, this sum represented the net deficiency of the previous year, burdened with which the present year began. The Board feels, therefore, that it has reason for gratification that it has been enabled, owing to the smaller number of applications, to reduce this deficiency and actually to close this year under conditions slightly more favorable than a year ago.

The income of the Board from all sources was as follows:

Balance unappropriated,		$303 82
Contributions from churches,	$52,024 49
Individual contributions,	1,611 13
Legacies,	8,143 77
Interest on invested funds,	13,473 52
Sale of church buildings,	7,557 65
Appropriations returned,	1,249 85
Receipts from insurance,	3,063 79
Special contributions,	7,763 92
		94,888 12
From Stuart Legacy for Loan Fund,	$195,000 00
Installments from churches for Loan Fund,	965 00
Interest on Loan Fund,	1,771 47
		197,736 47
From Stuart Legacy for Manse Fund,	$25,000 00
Contributions for Manse Fund,	1,624 05
Repayments to Manse Fund,	7,348 75
Interest, Manse Fund,	359 84
Special contributions, Manse Fund,	182 11
Sale of Manse Property on account,	74 35
		34,589 10
		$327,483 51

There have been received during the year 214 applications, of which 168 have been for grants or loans for church buildings and 46 for manses. The amounts asked have been as follows: from the General Fund, $79,280; from the Loan Fund, $72,050, and from the Manse Fund, $22,925, making a total of $174,255. While the amount is thus larger than ever before, exceeding even that of last year by $7672, it is a gratifying indication of advance and growing strength and independence that the increase is entirely in the requests for loans, while the applications for actual grants have somewhat diminished in number. The more advance can be made in this direction, the more assured will be the sense of responsibility and independence and thus the permanence of the churches.

Appropriations.

1. The General Fund.—Appropriations have been made from this Fund to 158 churches, and to an amount aggregating $80,010, an advance upon last year of two in the number of churches, and $1293 in amount.

These appropriations have been distributed among 28 Synods, 92 Presbyteries and 32 States and Territories.

The comparative distribution has been unusually equal. Nebraska has received 13 appropriations, Pennsylvania 12, California 11, Washington and Indian Territory 9 each, Minnesota 8, and Colorado, Catawba, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, New York and Oregon 7 each.

2. The Loan Fund.—From this fund loans have been made to 16 churches, the aggregate amount thus loaned being $59,250.

These loans have been very widely and evenly distributed over the country, viz., four in the East (Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania), four in the Central States (Indiana 3, Michigan 1), two in the Mississippi Valley (Missouri), three in the Northwest (Wisconsin 1, Minnesota 2), and three upon the Pacific Slope (Idaho, Washington, California).

3. The Manse Fund.—Eleven applications for loans from this fund came over from the previous year, being postponed because available means were exhausted. To these have been added 46 new ones, making in all 57, aggregating $27,075, which have been before the Board. To 40 of these loans, amounting to $15,904, have been made.

These loans have been distributed among 19 Synods and 39 Presbyteries. Geographically, more than one-half are upon the eastern side of the Mississippi river, and of those upon the west nearly one-half again are in the comparatively Eastern States of Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri. There remains a great work to do in this department in the broad field—still further West—embracing nearly two-thirds of our land.

From the statements that have been made it will be seen that, notwithstanding the financial difficulties of the past year, the aggregate of the work of the Board has been greater than ever before, and also, as might be expected in a developing and maturing Church, that the relative proportions of the different departments are somewhat changed.

While it is not probable that the number of infant churches needing grants will much diminish for many years, it is certain that the number of older churches asking for loans, both for church edifices and for manses, will constantly increase.

This year the number reached in all departments is 236, and the aggregate amount pledged for their aid $165,000.

For the first time in the history of the Board, it has felt constrained to allow its appropriations for the year somewhat to exceed its income. It has done this in view of the fact that the deficiency has been caused by a shrinking in the aggregate contributions of the churches, which, it is hoped and believed, is but a temporary and perhaps inevitable result of the universal financial distress. Should such shrinkage continue, or even if the contributions should remain stationary, the result would mean disaster to the oldest and most important work.

Abstract of the Thirty-ninth Annual Report.

THE ROLL.

The number on the roll of the Board upon the recommendation of the Presbyteries during the year from April 1, 1893, to April 1, 1894, was 754: that is, ministers, 294; widows of ministers, 406; orphan families, 26; four women missionaries, one widow of a medical missionary, and 23 guests, also recommended by Presbyteries and provided for at the Ministers' House at Perth Amboy, N. J., in lieu of receiving a remittance in money. The Presbyterial recommendations in their behalf came from 178 Presbyteries. There were placed upon the roll during the past year 105 new names—61 ministers and 40 widows, two orphan families and two women missionaries. Forty-four names have been removed from the roll by death—33 ministers and 11 widows. The withdrawals from other causes make the number of persons actually upon the roll, recommended by the Presbyteries and receiving a remittance in money or in lieu thereof a residence at Perth Amboy, as given above, 754, an increase of 32 over last year. Of course, there are very many more than 754 persons who share in these appropriations. Seventy-nine ministers applied for aid under the new rule of the Assembly (1889) which provides that: "Every honorably retired minister over 70 years of age, who is in need and who has served our Church as a missionary, or as a pastor or stated supply, for a period in the aggregate of not less than 30 years, shall be entitled by such service to draw from the Board of Ministerial Relief an annual sum for his support, without the necessity of being annually recommended therefor by the Presbytery." The maximum sum to be paid by the Board upon such application duly certified by the Stated Clerk of Presbytery, was fixed by the Assembly at $300, and 61 out of these 79 venerable men certified to the Presbytery their need of this sum annually for their support in their helpless old age. The others applied for sums ranging from $100 to $250. The entire annual sum appropriated to these 79 aged ministers amounted to $21,740, an average of a little more than $275 to each family. The oldest of them is in his 95th year; 29 are over 80. The average age is over 78, and the average number of years spent in the ministry is nearly 48.

THE TREASURY.

The Board reports that, notwithstanding the stringency of the times, all the appropriations asked for by the Presbyteries (and coming within the lines of its administration as marked out by the Assembly) were paid promptly and in full. The entire amount was $159,576.37, an increase of $7084 over the appropriations of the previous year. The income of the Board derived from all sources during the year just closed—collections from churches, Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, individual donations and the interest of our Permanent Fund—amounted to $152,003.85, and the entire expenditures to $171,361.97, leaving a deficit of $19,358.12 in the operations of the year. The comparative table given on page 7 of the Report shows that the contributions, instead of keeping pace with the enlarged drafts made by the Presbyteries, fell off from those of the previous year $10,244.17.

Doubtless this unprecedented falling off in contributions was due in part to the stringency of the times which obliged so many people to diminish their gifts to all the benevolent agencies of the Church. Others—not carefully discriminating between the claims of this Board as the agency by which the Church discharges in part its duty to the ministry by caring for its disabled servants, and the sacred claims of other agencies for caring for the poor in general---have sent the offering, which in other years they had reserved for the Board, to these latter agencies which the exceptionally hard times have everywhere multiplied for the aid of the suffering and dependent poor. Those deeply interested in the work of this Board have felt the special force of similar claims made on behalf of ministers or their families in great need, but who could not be recommended by the Presbyteries to the Board for aid by reason of their being beyond the limits set by the General Assembly to our work. There is often in the manse hard and bitter want, although the pastor or missionary may not be disabled from his sacred calling in the way and to the extent of coming within the provisions of the Board. Such cases justly and profoundly move the sympathies of God's people, and call forth gifts for their relief which otherwise would be placed in the treasury of this Board to be distributed according to the rules of the Assembly. But the general falling off both in church collections and individual gifts is doubtless mainly due to the erroneous impression, widely prevailing, that the Board has enough money to meet the growing demands of the Presbyteries upon its treasury. The cause of Ministerial Relief "lies deservedly near the heart of the Church," as the report of the Assembly's Standing Committee at Washington, last May, declares; and therefore the Presbyteries which drew upon our treasury last year for nearly one hundred and sixty thousand dollars, would not have sent us, to meet these drafts, collections from their churches amounting to less than ninety thousand dollars, had the pastors and elders foreseen there would be a "deficit" of nearly twenty thousand dollars! To this mistaken reliance upon the permanent fund of the Board must be due the fact that so many churches sent (as will be seen by the detailed statement of their contributions given in the Report) sums so disproportionate to their ability to give; and that 3798 churches took up no collection whatever for the cause last year! This is an increase of two hundred and seventeen in the number of "delinquent" churches over that of the year previous.

OUTLOOK FOR THE COMING YEAR.

Last year at Washington the Board reported a slight deficit (about one hundred and fifty dollars) in the operations of the year. This was easily made up from the balance of $24,063.36 with which the year began. This year there has been another deficit. But it has now reached the alarming figures of $19,358, and the balance which the Board has carried over from year to year since 1887 is now nearly gone. The number upon the roll of the Board will not decrease the coming year, or even remain the same. It is not likely the limit has been yet reached, when the number of withdrawals from the roll each year by death or other causes will balance the number of new cases. And the amounts sent to each family already are inadequate. These cannot be reduced, without doing a great wrong to those who in their better days have given so much to the Church. The Board can only distribute what is placed in its hands. The only thing, therefore, to be done is to enlarge the contributions. The Board is confident that, when this situation is clearly understood, its treasury will be replenished to meet the drafts which the Presbyteries are making upon it in behalf of the suffering brethren within their bounds. Delinquent churches, however feeble, will fall into line with the giving churches; and in wealthy congregations the most strenuous effort will be made by the Sessions to enlarge their collections so as to fully represent their ability to give. Certainly, should a reliance upon the Permanent Fund weaken the sense of obligation on the part of the Church to make an annual offering for the cause of its disabled ministers and their dependent families, the very object for which the Fund was established will be defeated. The ability of the Board to meet the obligations of the Church to its wards, instead of being increased with the increasing demands, will, as in the year just closed, be lessened by a falling off in the total of receipts. Not only this, but it will be a calamity to the churches if they come to regard themselves as relieved of the duty of making, year by year, their individual offerings to this tender and sacred cause.

LADIES' AID SOCIETIES.

A list of these societies sending boxes to the families upon our roll is given on p. 21 of the Report. The estimated value of these is $4758.23. The estimated value of the boxes sent last year was $6950.21.

LEGACIES AND PERMANENT FUND.

During the past year $78,786.34 were received by the Board in legacies, a detailed statement of which is given on p. 46 of the Report. For the past ten years the average is $36,690.47. The Permanent Fund now amounts to $1,386,776.74, of which $1,100,876.55 are held by the Board, and $285,900.19 by the Trustees of the General Assembly in trust for the Board. From this amount should be deducted the sum of $26,809.90, upon which the Board pays interest during the lives of the donors.

The Report contains the Treasurer's statement in full, the receipts from each church and Sabbath-school, and the gifts sent directly to our treasury by individuals; also the usual comparative tables prepared by order of the Assembly, showing (1) the amount of the "collections" paid into the treasury by each Presbytery; (2) the amount drawn out for the ministers, widows and orphans within its bounds, and "recommended" by it to the Board, and (3) the number of contributing and non-contributing churches. Copies may be had on application at the office, 1334 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

All of which is respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

No. 516 Market Street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Abstract of the Twenty-eighth Annual Report.

THE WORK OF THE YEAR.

We are able to close our books with our treasury in a better condition than it was at this time last year, and with a showing of funds received that surpasses any previous year in the history of the Board.

On June 1, Rev. Joseph T. Gibson resigned as Office Secretary and Treasurer, a position he had faithfully and efficiently filled for four years. Rev. John J. Beacom, D.D., was elected to the position of Treasurer of the Board, and assumed the responsibilities of the office on the 1st of July.

The Treasurer, from his Annual Report, submits the following comparative statement:

COMPARISON OF RECEIPTS OF 1894 WITH 1893.

From churches, 1894,	$55,503 16
" " 1893,	62,132 63	Decrease,	$6,629 47
Sabbath-schools, 1894,	2,454 92
" " 1893,	3,003 54	Decrease,	548 62
Individuals, 1894,	6,876 86
" 1893,	7,375 78	Decrease,	498 92
Woman's Executive Committee, 1894,	39,157 45
" " " 1893,	37,801 29	Increase,	1,356 16
Legacies, 1894,	75,808 46
" 1893,	37,374 73	Increase,	38,433 73

We note in the above a falling off in receipts from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals from previous years, to the amount of $7677.01, and an increase from Woman's societies and legacies of $39,789.89. We also used less of invested funds by $11,989.85 than last year, as follows:

Sale of Invested Funds, 1894,	$6,738 00
" " 1893,	18,727 85	Decrease,	$11,989 85

The number of churches contributing was 3780, an increase over the previous year of 256. That the amount was less may be accounted for by the stringency of the times, and partly from the fact that the day set apart by the General Assembly for the collection from churches, viz., the first Sabbath of December, was one of the most disagreeable Sabbaths of the year, in Ohio, Pennsylvania and parts of New York and New Jersey.

COMPARISON OF EXPENSES OF 1894 WITH 1893.

Salary account to field, 1894,	$106,432 62
" " " 1893,	94,638 82	Increase,	$11,793 80
General work, 1894,	20,665 23
" " 1893,	18,817 53	Increase,	1,847 70
Scholarships in boarding schools, 1894,	11,520 15
Scholarships in boarding schools, 1893,	9,514 98	Increase,	2,005 17
Real estate, building and improvements, 1894,	36,145 73
Real estate, building and improvements, 1893,	54,917 36	Decrease,	18,771 63
Salary of officers, 1894,	5,491 66
" " 1893,	7,291 67	Decrease,	1,800 01
Insurance, 1894,	3,846 35
" 1893,	332 55	Increase,	3,513 80

The above shows $15,646.67 more expended in salaries on the field, general work and boarding schools, while in real estate, buildings and improvements $18,771.63 less, and in salary of officers $1800.01 less. The fact that the insurance is $3513.80 more than the previous year is because our policies are taken out for three years, and last year was the year of renewal.

The total amount received from outside sources was $187,872.15, and if we include $6738, which was the proceeds of sale of funds temporarily invested, the entire amount at our disposal for the year was $194,610.15. The total expenditures for the year, not including payment of notes outstanding at the beginning of the year, was $192,322.40.

The amount contributed this year by the ladies' societies exceeds last year's amount by $1356.16. This increase in the face of the unusual discouragements of the past year is significant. It indicates a growing realization by the women of the Church of the importance and urgency of this part of their missionary work.

To this list of boarding schools should be added several other schools of the higher grade, such as Holbrook Street Academy, Danville, Va.; Grant Academy, Spartanburg, S. C., and Yadkin Academy at Mebane, N. C. In the boarding schools, including both day pupils and boarders, we have 3900 scholars. The total in all the schools of all grades, as stated above, is 11,424.

The Annual Reports of the churches will show a good degree of activity and prosperity. Several churches have experienced gracious outpourings of the Holy Spirit, resulting in large ingatherings of redeemed souls. A larger number of new men are seeking work with us this spring than ever before in one year. They are men of ability, education and piety, and give promise of great usefulness.

New church buildings have been completed at Wedgefield and Anderson, S. C., Newnan, Ga., Wilson, Rockingham and Asheville, N. C., and at Ridgeway, and near Great Creek, and at Richmond, Va. The church at Richmond and the one at Asheville have manses. A church building at Durham, N. C., is about completed. The people at Fayetteville, N. C., have about fulfilled the condition on which they will secure the promise of $600 from the Board for a new house of worship. The churches at Columbia and Pine Bluff, Ark., were both destroyed by fire. The latter was also used as a school. Both buildings were insured. The Salem church building on Wadmalow Island was swept away by a cyclone. The people still meet regularly on the spot where their church once stood and hold open-air meetings when the weather permits.

We are convinced more and more of the wisdom of our policy of letting a good Christian education go hand in hand with the preaching of the Gospel, and confidently expect that the future outcome of the peculiar condition of things in the South, whatever it may be, will vindicate the foresight of our beloved Church, and justify in the eyes of posterity the expenditure of every dollar we have ever given or shall give for the evangelization and enlightenment of the Negro race.

TREASURER'S ADDRESS, P. O. Box 294, Chicago, Ill.

ABSTRACT OF ELEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

CONDENSED STATEMENT.

The College Board closed an anxious year without diminishing its grants to aided institutions and without a deficit.

When the financial storm burst upon the country the Board's officers conferred with eminent financiers East and West and laid foreplans which have been, by the goodness of God, successful.

Two thousand two hundred churches and Sabbath-schools sent offerings to our treasury last year, and 797 more gave directly to our aided institutions; but 4295, or more than one-half of all our churches, and among them many able ones, made no offering for this work of such vital, immediate and far-reaching importance to our Church and our Lord's kingdom; and very few gave to the Board one-half of that proportion of their beneficent gifts (namely, six per centum), which the General Assembly has said ought to be given to it.

Receipts from legacies and individuals have fallen off this year. The General Fund receipts from interest were much less than in the previous year, accumulated interest on an undivided legacy, and interest on Property Funds then temporarily invested, but paid out this year, making the difference.

THE PROPERTY FUND

Has done notable work for the Church this year. Gifts to it were not large, being only $10,658; but funds remaining from the previous year were used effectively.

Thirty thousand dollars were given to fourteen institutions on such conditions that their local friends were stimulated to give enough to pay off $83,567 of indebtedness resting upon property valued at $626,868. Each dollar given by the Board secured the payment of $2.78 of indebtedness resting on $20.89 worth of property.

Of these fourteen institutions ten were enabled by the Board's gifts of $21,500 to secure enough from local friends to pay off their entire indebtedness, amounting to $52,367, thus wiping out all indebtedness from property valued at $468,576. Each dollar given by the Board secured the payment of $2.43 of debt, releasing from burden and danger $21.79 worth of property.

The four other institutions aided from the Property Fund are not entirely free from debt; but two are practically free, their small indebtedness being covered by trustworthy securities in legal form for twice the amounts of their debts; one will probably free itself soon; and it is hoped the fourth will work its way out.

Ten institutions freed from debt, two assured freedom very soon, and two more set in the way towards it, is not a bad record for a year of financial panic.

A STUDY OF STATISTICS.

The statistical table suggests interesting things.

College Students.—Of 3729 students enrolled by our thirty-eight aided institutions this year 563 are in college classes. That is 15 per cent. of the whole number. Our institutions are raising their grade of work.

Conversions.—Two hundred and twenty-one students were credibly converted between September 1, 1893, and April 1, 1894. Our aided institutions began this school year with about 2109 students who were not church members, 221 of whom were converted up to April 1, with three months of work yet to be heard from.

Meaning to be Ministers.—Two hundred and thirty-three students have given themselves to the ministry, 6.2 per cent of the whole number.

The catalogues (for 1893–4) of nine of our Theological Seminaries report 820 students for the ministry. Fifty-six, or 6.8 per cent. of the whole number, are from State institutions—high schools, normals and universities. Six hundred and fifty-eight, or 80.2 per cent. of the whole number, are from Christian colleges. Whence shall we get ministers, so imperatively needed by our Church in increasing numbers, without our own schools and colleges?

Two hundred and eighty-four theological students, or 34.6 per cent. of the whole number, are from the region west of the Ohio river. But that territory contains 45.2 per cent. of our Church membership in the United States. It ought to furnish candidates for the ministry in the same proportion; which would be 442 to match the Eastern region's 536. Unless the West can be brought up to that mark the number of ministers, now so far below our needs, must become proportionally less every decade. But every student of the subject knows that the only imaginable way of bringing the West towards the mark is the multiplication and maintenance of our academies and colleges; for they are practically our only hope for candidates in the West. But this work will not be done unless the College Board be better supplied with funds.

The sincere piety in our aided institutions, the many conversions and choices of the ministry, are due, after giving large credit to consecrated teachers, in no small part to Systematic Bible Study.—Two thousand nine hundred and fourteen students, or 78.1 per cent. of the whole number, are in such Bible classes as are part of the regular curricula. The previous year the percentage was but 69.8. Next year will show farther large increase; for the Board will not continue to aid institutions which do not increasingly make the Bible a chief text-book.

Abstract of the Fifteenth Annual Report.

The General Assembly's Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence presents herewith its Fifteenth Annual Report:

To individuals, churches, denominations and nations there come in the providence of God times of test. Upon such a time we have fallen in the year just ended. Not for a generation has there been direr financial distress. It has severely tested the faith of God's people, and their love for His work.

The tables accompanying this Report will indicate very clearly how the test has been met. They present in existing conditions a most gratifying showing. In many instances there has been actual advancement over the preceding year of prosperity.

Throughout the Church the principles advocated by this Committee, judging from the Reports received from Synods and Presbyteries, are now accepted as the teaching of the Scriptures, as they have found also an abiding place in our Directory of Worship.

Of course it is true that many churches seem still to care for none of these things. Their number is appallingly large. Many pastors and Sessions appear indifferent to the work beyond their own local limits. Nevertheless advancement is easily perceptible. The sentiment of the Church is rapidly crystallizing towards the recent action of one of our Presbyteries, which refuses to recognize a pastor as in good and regular standing who neglects to instruct his people in the great missionary work of the Church, and give them opportunity to aid in it.

The number of contributing churches as compared with last year is as follows:

NUMBER OF CONTRIBUTING CHURCHES.

	1893.	1894.	Increase.	Decrease.	Non-contributing.
Home Missions	5,387	5,699	312		1,593
Foreign Missions	*5,134	5,134			2,158
Education	3,246	3,269	23		4,023
Sabbath-school Work	4,328	4,381	53		2,911
Church Erection	3,424	3,488	64		3,804
Ministerial Relief	3,232	3,255	23		4,037
Freedmen	3,524	3,780	256		3,512
Aid for Colleges, etc.	2,881	3,003	122		4,289
Total	31,156	32,009	853
Increase		853	853

It would be gratifying to report a gain also in the amounts given to the Boards from the living Church. In the stringency which has befallen the land this could hardly be expected. The wonder is that the decrease has been so small.

* The Board closes its year May 1, hence number of contributing churches could not be obtained in time for this Report.

The following table exhibits the gifts of the living Church :

RECEIPTS FROM CHURCHES AND INDIVIDUALS.

	1893.	1894.	Increase.	Decrease.
Home Missions	$732,454	$674,929		$57,525
Foreign Missions	730,885	670,895		59,990
Education	63,311	52,432		10,879
Sabbath-school Work	91,759	93,562	$1,803
Church Erection	69,209	63,206		6,003
Ministerial Relief	99,279	89,035		10,244
Freedmen	110,815	109,980		835
Aid for Colleges, etc.	63,066	41,803		21,263
Total	$1,960,778	$1,795,842	$1,803	$166,739
Decrease		$164,936		$164,936

In the table of total receipts which follows the decrease mentioned above disappears, and in its place we are glad to note an actual gain. This is due mainly to the legacies which the Boards have received as follows: Home Missions, $121,525; Foreign Missions, $72,802.44; Education, $63,030.62; Sabbath-school Work, $58,218.35; Church Erection, $228,143.77; Ministerial Relief, $78,787.24; Freedmen, $75,808.46; Aid for Colleges, $151.31—a total of $698,467.19. This is certainly a munificent sum. May we not consider it an evidence that God is caring in a special manner for His own work, and that He will not suffer it to fail if we perform faithfully our part? It is true our two largest Boards, Home and Foreign Missions, have fallen behind the receipts of last year—the former $64,765, and the latter $171,692, but their work is too dear to God and His people to permit them long to remain in a crippled condition.

Increase		$36,342	$36,342

The work of the Committee for the past year has been as in previous years mainly that of education. Four new documents, Nos. 32, 33, 34 and 35, have been issued. Of these the last two were prize essays, written by students in our theological seminaries on the subject of "Christian Stewardship." All of these documents, as well as Nos. 20 and 31, have been electrotyped, thus avoiding danger of the fate which has befallen the other documents of the Committee, of getting "out of print." About 100,000 copies of these documents have been sent to churches and individuals throughout the land for free distribution.

The publication of The Christian Steward has continued throughout the year.

Some months ago the Committee saw its way to increase very greatly the influence and usefulness of The Steward. A movement was on foot to issue, in coöperation with the Boards of the Church, a large edition of a paper setting forth the work and needs of the Boards, to be distributed among all of our families throughout the entire land. Your Committee felt that this movement was in perfect harmony with the work it was doing in stimulating the gifts of the Church to our great benevolent Boards. Accordingly it offered The Steward as the medium for the carrying out of this important enterprise. The offer was accepted by those in charge of the movement, and by the Secretaries of the Boards in conference with them. As a result the paper was enlarged to the size of a city daily of eight pages, and 500,000 copies of this special issue were sent out—to each church half as many copies as it had members on its roll, as reported in the minutes of 1893.

Having assumed this enlarged form, and sent it out (the only way in which it could be sent out at "second-class" rates) as "sample copies," the Committee could not in fairness to the subscribers it might thus gain or in good faith with the Postal Department, return to the original size of the paper. Accordingly it has been continued until the present in its enlarged form. Its circulation has increased to about fifty thousand copies monthly.

The question now arises regarding its continuance. Some have looked upon it with apprehension as to its effect upon The Church at Home and Abroad. Your Committee has never entertained that fear. On the contrary it has believed and still believes that the paper may prove a decided help to the magazine. It has sought to make it such a help. In the half-million issue of January advertising space was freely given to The Church at Home and Abroad equal to that for which other advertisers paid six hundred dollars. But the main help to the magazine which your Committee has hoped to make the paper lies in the line of arousing interest in the work of the Boards among churches and in families unreached by the former. Four hundred and fifty thousand Presbyterian families do not read the magazine. These are the field in which The Steward should circulate. If it succeeds in developing an interest in our missionary work among any of these families, they are the prospective subscribers to the magazine.

One reason why your Committee was willing to undertake the enormous labor involved in the monthly issue of a large paper was to give to the Assembly and to the Church a demonstration that these four hundred and fifty thousand families can be instructed concerning our missionary operations at little or no expense to the Boards or to the Church. The Christian Steward, including the June number, has sent out about 800,000 copies of the enlarged form, charging for them at the rate of half a cent per copy, or five cents per year.

Every bill has been paid, with no outstanding obligations, from the receipts of the paper; and there are several hundred dollars in its treasury to continue the work of publication. Our Boards agreed to make good any deficit in the half-million edition, issued in their special interest, but not one of them was called upon for a dime, for there was no deficit. The experience of your Committee in the issuance of The Steward for the last six months is proof positive that the project is rational and feasible.

But who shall do the work, if the General Assembly should in its wisdom order it done? Certainly not this Committee. The Chairman, upon whom the burden has from the start naturally rested, has other duties, which are sufficient for any one man. He has been ably assisted during these last six months by the Rev. W. H. Hubbard, of Auburn, N. Y., without whose help he could not have carried on the work. But Dr. Hubbard is also a busy man in caring for the nearly one thousand members of his church and the three thousand persons whose names appear upon the roll of his parish. The periodical should be in the hands of those whose special business is to arouse the Church to enthusiastic coöperation with the Boards? Why not, therefore, in the hands of the Boards themselves? If your Committee might be permitted a suggestion in this respect, it would say that in its judgment the two Boards, Home and Foreign Missions, into whose treasuries go nearly three-fourths of the benevolent offerings of the Church, should have the management of the paper.

Last year your Committee suggested a plan whereby the total amount of money needed by our Boards could be equitably apportioned among the Presbyteries. The valuation of church property, as ascertained by the United States census of 1890-91, and reprinted for our own Church in the Assembly's "Minutes" of 1892, pp. 751–755, was suggested as a fair basis for such an apportionment. Three per cent. of this valuation in each Presbytery would yield an amount sufficient to carry forward with vigor the work committed to our hands. The Assembly of 1893 adopted the following recommendation of its Standing Committee on Benevolence:

"The Assembly calls upon all pastors and other officers of the Church to study carefully the apportionment table presented in the Report of our Special Committee, for the purpose of suggesting a new method of raising funds; that it directs our Committees on Systematic Beneficence in Synods and Presbyteries to give it special consideration, and to report their views of the practicability of its plan to the Chairman of the Special Committee, Rev. Rufus S. Green, D.D., as soon as possible after the autumn meetings," ("Minutes," 1893, p. 122).

This recommendation of the Assembly received attention in many Synods and Presbyteries, and in many others was not considered. In so far as your Committee has learned, the plan, wherever considered, was received with favor, although in some instances the only action taken was to direct attention to and urge the study of your Committee's tables.

Your Committee is encouraged accordingly to bring this important subject again to the attention of the General Assembly. It is a business-like method of meeting a pressing difficulty. It bears oppressively upon no section or class. It is just and fair to all, with rare exceptions, which can be treated as exceptions. It asks those who have much to give much, as they ought, and those who have little to give only in accordance with their little. It is not an assessment, but rather an intelligent announcement of what the Assembly ought to expect from each of its Presbyteries, and what Presbytery ought to expect from each of its churches, in carrying forward our great benevolent and missionary work.

An illustration of the practical working of a similar apportionment plan may be seen in the Synod of New Jersey in its scheme of Synodical Sustentation. The Committee having the work in charge estimates at the beginning of the year the amount of money needed for the coming twelve months. This amount is apportioned among its several Presbyteries. The amount apportioned to a given Presbytery is apportioned among the churches of that Presbytery. In this way the whole amount is raised. For years this method has been followed in New Jersey, and the work has been done so easily and successfully that there is no longer a word of criticism against it even by those who most earnestly opposed its inauguration.

There is no reason why the principle of apportionment cannot with equal success be applied to the entire Church for all of its Boards. Your Committee earnestly urges General Assembly to give to this subject the attention to which its importance entitles it, and would respectfully suggest the adoption of the following or similar resolutions, viz.:

1. The General Assembly expects each of its Synods, Presbyteries and Churches to give its just share of the funds needed to prosecute the work of the Boards of the Church.

2. The amount which a Synod, Presbytery or church is able to expend upon itself, in the erection of edifices and in congregational expenses, is in the judgment of the Assembly a fair basis upon which to estimate what should be given to benevolent work beyond local bounds.

3. The Assembly accordingly directs its Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence to apportion the amount needed by our Boards for the coming year among the Presbyteries, after consultation with the corresponding Committees of Synods, upon the basis of the valuation of church property and the amounts expended for congregational expenses.

4. The Assembly requests the Committee on Systematic Beneficence in each Presbytery to take the figures thus furnished it, and with the sanction of Presbytery to make a corresponding apportionment among its churches.

Omitting much that it would like to say, your Committee desires in closing its Report to repeat the basal principles upon which in its belief the superstructure of the Church's beneficence rests:

1. The consecration of property as well as self to God.
2. Our property—all of it—should be used for His glory.
3. A part of our property—a generous percentage of income—should be specifically devoted to Christian work.
4. That the acceptable worship of God includes alms as well as prayers, and that the two should go together as provided in our Directory of Worship, Chapter vi.
5. That the Boards of the Church are the Providential means whereby all, except the favored few who can go in person, must carry out Christ's command to disciple all nations.
6. That this command rests as bindingly upon him who remains at home as upon him who devotes his life to missionary work.
7. That every church and every individual Christian should therefore deem it a privilege, as well as a duty, to contribute according to ability to each of the Boards which represent the great benevolent and missionary work of the Church.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

We give thanks to God for His protection of the members of the Committee, and for His favor upon their work.

The Book of "Minutes" is also herewith presented.

Two members, Rev. W. F. Crafts and Mr. Thomas H. Rabe, on account of removal, have resigned. In the room of Rev. Mr. Crafts the Committee chose Rev. C. W. Wykoff to act until the meeting of the General Assembly. Rev. Joseph B. Turner, having resigned the office of Recording Secretary, Mr. George Irwin was elected to fill his place.

FUNDS.

Our Treasurer's Annual Statement is also presented herewith. The whole amount received is somewhat greater than that reported last year.

Appended to this Report will also be found that of the

which is auxiliary to the General Assembly's Permanent Committee. Their Report will indicate the progress made in organizing our Presbyterian women for Temperance effort.

Since on woman's heart falls so crushingly the wretchedness wrought by strong drink, it seems entirely befitting that she should have an important place in the Temperance forces. Her peculiar fitness for such service has been demonstrated in the last two decades. Most heartily, therefore, do we commend to the favorable regard of the General Assembly this auspicious beginning, and bespeak for this Association the coöperation of Presbyteries and Sessions in their effort to extend their organization. "Help those women which labored with us in the Gospel."

The instruments through which the Permanent Committee principally works are

THE PEN AND THE PRESS.

A somewhat extensive correspondence in the interests of the work has been maintained with Chairmen of Temperance Committees and other brethren in our various Synods and Presbyteries, and with representative men in the work in other bodies; and such use has been made of the printing press as our limited resources allowed. For several years the Committee has been issuing various tracts and leaflets with its own imprint. In addition to those previously reported there have been issued during the year the following, viz.: No. 36, "The Saloon," by Rev. J. T. Killen, the publication of which was requested by the Synod of North Dakota; No. 37, "I Know When to Stop," by Mrs. Grace Livingston Hill, a tract especially suited for circulation among the young; No. 38, "The Temperance Pledge," by Rev. F. J. Collier, D.D., being a plea for the use of the total abstinence pledge; No. 39, "Pledge Roll."

The Committee has also availed itself of the periodical press. Besides The Church at Home and Abroad and The Christian Steward, nearly every one of our Church papers has kindly favored us with the use of its columns, as have also various other papers, both religious and secular. Several circulars have been issued, one of which was designed to promote the observance of the General Assembly's recommendation of a Temperance Sabbath. Printed matter to the amount of 1,300,000 pages has been issued, and willing hands have been found ready to circulate it in almost every State in which our Church is represented.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S PETITION TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

Upon representations made by the Permanent Committee to the General Assembly at Washington, it was by that body

"Resolved, That in view of statements, well-authenticated, of the fatal effects of the introduction of intoxicating liquors by American traders among the natives of New Hebrides, Africa, the territory of Alaska, we earnestly petition our national Government to enter into such international regulations with other leading nations as shall secure the entire suppression of this traffic."

It is gratifying to be permitted to report that in deference to the earnest protest of the General Assembly and of other Christian bodies and individuals, the prohibitory laws of Alaska were not repealed. It has become notorious, however, that the law is generally disregarded, and more effective measures are imperatively required for the protection of our national wards in that territory. A bill looking to that result has been introduced in the Senate of the United States, and its passage by Congress should be pressed. The representations which the Committee made to the General Assembly regarding the liquor traffic in the islands of the South Pacific were based on information which came to us through the mails from Sydney, N. S. W., and which was subsequently confirmed by Rev. John G. Paton, D.D., both by letter and in personal interview.

In pursuance of the General Assembly's action a letter was addressed to the President of the United States, to which the Secretary of State made reply as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, November 23, 1893.

Rev. John F. Hill, Secretary of the Permanent Committee on Temperance of the Presbyterian Church in U. S. A., Pittsburgh, Pa.

SIR:—Your letter of the 15th inst., addressed to the President relative to the evils resulting from the sale of intoxicating liquors to the natives of the New Hebrides, has been referred to this Department.

In reply I have to refer you to the volume of Foreign Relations for 1892, on pages 198, 287 and 320 of which you will find information as to the present state of the negotiations on the subject.

Thanking you for the valuable information contained in your letter relative to the state of affairs in the Pacific Islands, I am, sir,

Your obedient servant,

W. Q. GRESHAM.

We report, therefore, that the negotiations are still pending. Besides the references to the volume on Foreign Relations, printed information accompanied Secretary Gresham's letter, from all which we learn that Great Britain had presented to our Government the proposed project for "An international declaration for the protection of natives in the islands of the Pacific Ocean, by prohibiting the supply to them of arms, ammunition and intoxicating liquors, and providing penalties for any infringement of such prohibition." Our Government responded, declaring its interest in the humane purpose of the proposed convention, and promising assent if certain amendments could be had, of which, one, at least, seems manifestly indispensable to the efficiency of the scheme. The responsibility, therefore, for the delay seems to rest, not as has been published to the world, on America, but on Great Britain. Both our last administration and the present have been in sympathy with the project.

To the gratification of every humane heart President Cleveland, in his last annual message, cited the attention of Congress to the ravages wrought by American rum in Africa, and urged that such legislation be had as might be requisite for the protection of those helpless people against their relentless foe.

We have had occasion heretofore to deplore our national shortcomings in this matter; it is with gratitude to God that we discover the evidence, and record the conviction, that no charge of dereliction in this regard can now be brought against our National Executive. It remains for Congress to enact the appropriate laws.

THE TEMPERANCE NARRATIVES.

This year, as heretofore, the Committee has sought to reach every Session in the entire Church with a series of questions and a circular letter. Our object is twofold, viz., to collect material for our Annual Report, and also to stimulate Temperance work, "stirring up the pure minds of the brethren by way of remembrance." As to the second-named object, there is evidence that our work is not in vain. We have to deplore, however, that this year, as hitherto, the harvest of Temperance Narratives which comes from this sowing is disappointingly meagre.

Inquiry has been made of each Session as to the engagement by the church in Temperance work; whether any form of organization for this work within the church is had; what forms the work assumes, and whether the subject receives appropriate attention in the pulpit. Almost all the replies bring the answer that the church is working, the pastor preaches Temperance, and it is taught in the Sabbath-school. Many, but not a majority, report some sort of organization within the church to forward the work—mostly Young People's Society.

In a majority of the reporting Presbyteries, a portion of the churches observed a Temperance day, either that especially recommended by the General Assembly, or at some other more convenient time. The entire number of contributions to the treasury of the Committee was 253. The contributing churches are found within the bounds of 103 Presbyteries.

To your Committee the following seem to be among the most cheering features in the exhibit which these reports furnish:

1. The general representation that Temperance is receiving attention in the utterances of the pulpit.

2. In almost all Sabbath-schools, at least four times in the year, some phase of this subject as exhibited in God's Word is the theme of study and instruction.

3. The reports from every quarter represent the Young People's Societies as taking up this work with enthusiasm and energy.

4. The gradual intensifying of a public sentiment condemnatory not only of the saloon, but of social drinking, and even moderate drinking, is a significant and cheering fact.

5. It augurs well for the future of this cause that the pledge is coming into use again. This Committee has sought to promote this result, and responsive to requests from East, South and West, has sent out many thousand copies of our Temperance Covenant.

The circulation of the pledge implies agitation, education, urging of the motives to total abstinence—moral suasion—and this is work which should be prosecuted without intermission in every church.

In this great conflict with the powers of darkness the tide of battle seems for years past to have been turning against us. In the contest for legal suppression of the traffic we have been on the aggressive, and hoped to go on conquering and to conquer, but we have been driven to the defensive, and have been unable to hold our ground. No doubt the defeat of prohibition in Michigan, Pennsylvania, Nebraska and various other States may be due in part to the more thorough organization of the liquor power, to bribery and corruption, to the demoralization consequent on our civil war, and to the vast influx of foreigners; but more probably than to any other cause are those failures due to the neglect of educative measures. The great victories of 1850-5, when fourteen States enacted prohibitory laws, were possible because preceded by many years of agitation, diligent Temperance teaching and cultivation of public sentiment. But the victorious hosts paused to rest on their laurels. Having secured prohibitory laws there was a relaxing of effort, an abatement of former diligence in total abstinence education and training.

The generation which won those victories had been thoroughly imbued with Temperance principles, but it is passing away. A generation is taking its place whose early training in this regard was defective. And now when prohibitory amendments in our State Constitution are sought, they fail for want of votes, or if prohibitory laws are passed there is no sufficient substratum of Temperance conviction in the community to sustain and enforce them.

A considerable number of the Reports deprecate the relinquishment, by the churches, of this work to other hands, expressing the conviction that both the Church and the cause of Temperance are losers by such transfer. These voluntary societies, such as the great temperance organizations of Christian women, the National Temperance Society and other like agencies, have rendered invaluable service, and each has its important work. But none will more heartily rejoice than the most active members of these societies to see the Church herself adopt Temperance work among her regular activities.

The enactment in nearly all the States of the Union of laws requiring that the children in the public schools shall receive Scientific Temperance instruction, is truly matter for thanksgiving to God. To the wise, persistent and prayerful labors of one Christian woman, Mrs. Mary H. Hunt, this marvelous achievement is almost entirely due. It was observed that in all the display of educational work at the World's Columbian Exposition, no exhibit attracted more thoughtful attention than that of Scientific Temperance. Educational officials from almost every civilized nation represented at the Fair made a careful study of what they termed our "Educational method for the prevention of intemperance," and sent recommendations to their countries, with copies of our Temperance Education laws, specimens of our text-books, and methods of study.

More than 13,000,000 children in our country now under Temperance Education laws! We may almost hear the united voice of this vast, advancing throng, "Tremble, King Alcohol; we shall grow up!"

Almost universal is the complaint that the civil authorities fail to enforce the restrictive provisions of the liquor laws. We are told that "the authorities are indifferent;" are "themselves of the liquor element;" "have regard to pecuniary and political interests;" "public sentiment does not demand enforcement." Some Reports tell of fewer saloons and less drinking, attributing the change to "hard times." It is manifest that license laws do not "restrict" to any appreciable extent. It is also true that from Iowa and Kansas there comes complaint of imperfect enforcement of their prohibitory laws.

The series of questions sent out by the Committee concluded as follows:

XI. The utter futility of the high license scheme having been strongly emphasized by last year's reports, will you indicate what legislative action relative to the liquor traffic your people would now be prepared to support?

XII. Suggest what further action relative to any phase of this whole subject you would desire to see our General Assembly take?

The answers to the eleventh question are in the main "prohibition," "constitutional prohibition," "no license," "anything in direction of prohibition." Many say "local option." From New York—"Local option by counties." From Ohio—"The Haskell local option law." One "questions the premise," thinks "high license has not been a failure." It is gratifying to find that the unequivocal utterances of the General Assembly, both as to total abstinence and as to the utter prohibition of the traffic, meet with so general and hearty approval.

The responses to No. 12 are such as these: "Keep on the same line," "reiterate strongest deliverances," "keep hammering away." One desires that the Assembly declare "that the traffic cannot be licensed without sin."

Is not the licensing of the saloon, then, essentially wrong?

1. It cannot but be immoral for the State to raise revenue from the vices of its citizens.

2. By the license system the State does what it can to give respectability to the liquor traffic, and so wields its influence against the correct education of the young and the formation and maintenance of a just public sentiment regarding this vile trade.

3. The license system debauches public conscience. It entrenches the liquor traffic behind the selfishness of tax-paying citizens. The license fee coming into the public treasury makes every property holder financially interested in the liquor business.

4. The claims made for the license system that it regulates the traffic, and by high fees reduces the amount of liquors sold, cannot be established.

No license fees imposed on the vender, or tax upon the liquors has abated intemperance. Before the United States had yet imposed an internal revenue tax the product of the whole country was, in 1860, 60,000,000 gallons, while in 1893, with a tax of 90 cents per gallon, it amounted to 99,145,899 gallons.

The quantity of fermented liquors has increased from 62,205,375 gallons in 1863 to 1,071,183,827 in 1893, an increase per capita of from 1.68 gallons in 1863 to over 16 gallons in 1893. The internal revenue tax is $1 per barrel.

If by any more explicit and emphatic utterances the Assembly can promote the abolishment of the pernicious system, your Committee believe that such result would be the hastening on of the day of redemption.

While there has been no legislation in the past year that can be quoted as favorable to the cause of Temperance, the friends of the cause have been much gratified with the Supreme Court decision in the Indianapolis case, according to which even the license shall not be a shield to the saloon keeper against action for damages resulting to property, from his business.

Our brethren over the line in Ontario and Nova Scotia are rejoicing in the hope which recent votes inspire that they shall ere long be able to shake off this vampire. We would rejoice with them and bid them Godspeed in their struggle.

Though it was not at the instance of this Committee that the last General Assembly recommended to the churches the observance of the third Sabbath of September as a Temperance Sabbath, yet we were in very hearty accord with the plan. It has already proven helpful to the cause, and if again recommended will without doubt be much more generally observed. Synods and Presbyteries have taken favorable action regarding it, and we trust that such day as may seem best shall be designated, with earnest recommendation that it be made a time of importunate prayer to God that He will bring to naught the enemy's schemes, and that all the Lord's people may be imbued with both zeal and wisdom for this work. And let God's people pray and labor hopefully. Discouragement ill becomes the followers of such a Captain. The prospect is as bright as the promises of God.

The term of office of the following members of this Permanent Committee expires at this time:

Ministers, Rev. J. J. Beacom, D.D., Rev. John F. Hill; Elder, O. L. Miller, M.D.

It will devolve upon the Assembly to fill these vacancies, together with two others, caused by the resignation of Rev. W. F. Crafts and Thomas H. Rabe, Esq.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Permanent Committee,

J. J. BEACOM, Chairman.

JOHN F. HILL, Cor. Secretary.

APPENDIX.

THE THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE PRESBYTERIAN WOMAN'S TEMPERANCE ASSOCIATION.

Regular monthly business meetings have been held at 1334 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, on the last Wednesday in each month, except during July and August.

Popular meetings have been held which have assumed the form of educational meetings, ladies from various churches having been specially invited, and our work in its various phases presented to them by the members of our Committee, and, in this way, practical work has been done and many women have become interested and are now working in their several churches. In February, we had an admirable address from Mrs. G. R. Alden, better known as "Pansy," and in March we were addressed by the Hon. John Wanamaker. Both these meetings were largely attended.

During the year the Presbytery of Kingston, Tennessee, and the Synod of Tennessee have fallen into line and both report organization, making a total of thirty-seven Presbyteries and seven Synods organized, and two Presbyteries and three Synods willing to organize, but, as yet, no Committees have been reported.

One great cause for thankfulness was the success of the request presented by our Committee at the last meeting of the General Assembly, which resulted in setting apart the third Sabbath in September, in each year, as Temperance day. In a number of our churches Temperance sermons were preached and special instructions given in the Sabbath-schools, and several collections were forwarded to the General Assembly's Permanent Committee on Temperance, which we hope will be considerably increased during the coming year.

Our Committee on Literature reports the distribution of twenty-seven thousand eight hundred and seventy-two pages, and the circulation of about five hundred pledge cards, a number of the latter having been signed. We feel sure that more literature has been distributed which has not been reported to our Committee. It is scarcely possible to give exact reports of work accomplished, but we feel that the year just closing has been one of progress, and we thank God and take courage.

During the year about sixty-six postals and eighty letters have been written in the interest of our work; twenty-seven packages of literature, amounting to about three hundred and fifty each, of our Church constitutions, cards and sessional petitions, besides a number of printed addresses, pledges, etc., have been sent to members of Committees and others desiring them.

We return thanks to the Permanent Committee for supplies of literature and pledge cards, and to all friends who have aided us in any way. As we depend entirely upon the collections taken at our monthly meetings and the contributions of our friends for funds to carry on our work, we gratefully acknowledge all contributions received. We have no membership fees.

Our great hope for the ultimate success of our cause is in the children and youth in our churches and Sabbath-schools, and we would urge all to work earnestly with and for the children, teaching them scientifically the injurious results which flow from the use of intoxicants, stimulants and narcotics, so that, in the coming years, when they shall have become the men and women of our churches and communities, they will be established in the principles of total abstinence and prohibition, and the generations following will be free from the terrible curse of the rum traffic.

Many replies have come to us from the women appointed on Presbyterial Committees, saying that they have not been able to accomplish anything. In some cases they cannot obtain a hearing, in others it is urged that there are too many organizations already, and many have resigned because of these discouragements. To all such we would say, have good faith and go forward, knowing that in His Name we will triumph. As Moses said to Joshua, when he was discouraged, so we would say to all needing encouragement: "Be strong and of a good courage, and the Lord, He it is that doth go before thee; He will be with thee; He will not fail thee, neither forsake thee; fear not, neither be dismayed."

Respectfully submitted,

S. S. STERRETT,

Corresponding Secretary.

The undersigned, having examined the Cash Account of Frank K. Hipple, Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, from April 1, 1893, to March 31, 1894, inclusive, and compared the vouchers, with the payments charged, find the same correct; leaving a balance in the Treasury of nine thousand three hundred and sixty-eight dollars and seventy-seven cents ($9368.77), of which seven thousand five hundred and thirty-six dollars and twenty-two cents ($7536.22) is principal, and one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two dollars and fifty-five cents ($1832.55) is income, verified by deposit in bank.

SAMUEL C. PERKINS,
B. L. AGNEW,
JOHN H. CONVERSE,
Committee on Accounts.

The undersigned have examined the Bonds and Mortgages and other evidences of property belonging to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as set forth in the Treasurer's statement herewith, and find the same in proper order, and amounting in the aggregate, at the close of the fiscal year, March 31, 1894, to five hundred and thirty-eight thousand six hundred and eighteen dollars and seventy-four cents ($538,618.74), adding to which seven thousand five hundred and thirty-six dollars and twenty-two cents ($7536.22) cash balance of principal for investment, makes total Permanent Fund on hand at close of fiscal year five hundred and forty-six thousand one hundred and fifty-four dollars and ninety-six cents ($546,154.96).

The investments are registered in the name of the Corporation, excepting $8000 in Corporation Bonds which are coupons, being securities specifically bequeathed to the Corporation, and which are kept in the vaults of The Real Estate Trust Company of Philadelphia.

CHARLES M. LUKENS,
R. DALE RENSON,
ANDREW BLAIR,
Committee on Finance.

The Committee on Finance, in compliance with the first item of Article iv, of the By-Laws, respectfully report to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the state of investments, as set forth in the foregoing table.

CHARLES M. LUKENS,
R. DALE RENSON,
ANDREW BLAIR,
Committee on Finance.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

SPECIAL attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877 and 1884. As amended it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.—N. B. It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to four cents for mileage, and one and one-half cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all five and one-half cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an

ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one and one-half cents per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage Fund, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee.

☞ See, also, Minutes of 1894, p. 180.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1894 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly), to every ordained minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the Foreign Presbyteries.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangements of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up, and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 385 of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. A blank for the Narrative was adopted by the General Assembly of 1891, and a copy will be forwarded to every Stated Clerk. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at least ten days before the meeting of that body. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church. The blank for the Congregational Narratives, ordered by the Assembly of 1885, can be had from the Board of Publication.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.*

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞ 353, Minutes, 1894, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) ☞Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other minister; if the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll. If the Church uses in worship a language other than English, indicate the fact by words such as German, Welsh, etc.☜

(4) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g., P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; A. P., for an Associate Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-school Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a Theological Seminary or College; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary or Stated Clerk; D. Sec., for District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H. R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and W. C., for other Ministers without charge.

(5) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviation P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; and V., for one that is vacant.

*These rules were adopted as a whole by the General Assembly of 1891. See "Minutes," p. 181.

(6) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7) In the Additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the Baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the order of the columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (p. 589) as modified by the Assemblies of 1873, 1874, 1883 and 1887, as follows:

1. Home Missions. To include all moneys collected, whether for the Board, or for any Home Missionary operations, including Presbyterial Mission Schools, value of boxes, Ladies' Societies, etc.

2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the Gospel in foreign lands.

3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; and for Theological Seminaries.

4. Sabbath-school Work. To include all moneys contributed to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for their Missionary work, Sabbath-schools included, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositories.

5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.

6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled Ministers, and Missionaries, and in aid of their families.

7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise.

8. Synodical Aid. To include all Contributions to the Synods for Synodical Sustentation.

9. Aid for Colleges. All given for Presbyterian Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether established for the education of males or females.

10. General Assembly. To include all given for ecclesiastical expenses, whether in Presbytery, Synod, or General Assembly.

11. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the Church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts, and current expenses.

12. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections, for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(9) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but of the candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(10) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(11) Annex a Statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations, organizations, receptions and dissolutions of Churches; also, any changes in the names of Churches; and the decease (with age, date and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report.

(12) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(13) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian name of every minister (an initial letter is not a name); and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible.

☞ Forward the Statistical Report by April 25,* but if anything should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent at the earliest date possible to the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D.

* See "Minutes," 1890, p. 37.

IX. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES.

1. The General Assembly meets invariably on the third Thursday of May, annually, at 11 o'clock A.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Permanent Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of its sessions.

4. The evenings of the days of session are assigned to popular meetings in the following order:

The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

The evening of Monday, the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.

The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.

The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.

The evening of Friday, the eighth day, to the cause of Temperance.

The evening of the second Sunday to Aid for Colleges and Academies.

5. The reports of the Standing Committees shall be considered at the times herein designated, viz.:

Ministerial Relief, Saturday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Freedmen, Monday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Education, Monday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Home Missions, Tuesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Aid for Colleges and Academies, Tuesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Foreign Missions, Wednesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Church Erection, second Thursday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Benevolence, second Thursday, at 7.30 o'clock P.M.

Temperance, second Friday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

6. That the Standing Committees on Home Missions and Foreign Missions have each two and a half hours; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance and Aid for Colleges, have each one and a half hours. That the Secretaries and the Chairmen of the Standing and Special Committees be requested to make their statements within the limits of half an hour.

7. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures, and other miscellaneous papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and then deliver them for distribution or reference to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures. All complaints and appeals, however, shall be transmitted by the Stated Clerk directly to the Judicial Committee.

8. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly, shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session.

9. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the reports of Special Committees appointed at previous Assemblies to report at that meeting.

10. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning [1886, p. 113].

11. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution, hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

12. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its report, that these minutes may be reviewed by the Assembly on the report of the appropriate Standing Committee [1885, p. 690].

13. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them to the place of meeting of each Assembly, prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

14. In all regions where, through the organization of Union Presbyteries, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each mission organized as such under our Board of Foreign Missions may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile in this country to and during the Assembly and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247].

15. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is an executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108].

16. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church during the interval between the Assemblies, may be filled until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly, by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

17. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees [1892, p. 209].

18. All resolutions for the appropriation of money, outside the Boards, should be brought before the Finance Committee, before action by the Assembly [1892, p. 199].

19. The recommendation of any particular congregation to the benevolence of the denomination, by the General Assembly, is not to be understood as creating either a legal or a moral obligation upon the Assembly for the payment of the amount recommended to be contributed by the churches [1892, p. 36, 1893, p. 41].

20. All Overtures must be presented to the Assembly not later than the fifth day of its sessions.

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

[The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. The rules were amended by the General Assemblies of 1885 and 1887.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present, being a commissioner, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the standing committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members; but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he do not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper indorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. This committee shall report the papers retained by it as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the Judicatory.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its session, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion, to amend an amendment to an amendment, shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, namely: A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule the "yeas and nays" shall not be called, except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order; or for the purpose of correcting mistakes or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business, which in their judgment ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. In all cases before a judicatory, where there is an accuser or prosecutor, it is expedient that there be a committee of the judicatory appointed (provided the number of members be sufficient to admit it without inconvenience), who shall be called the "Judicial Committee," and whose duty it shall be to digest and arrange all the papers, and to prescribe, under the direction of the judicatory, the whole order of proceedings. The members of this committee shall be entitled, notwithstanding their performance of this duty, to sit and vote in the cause as members of the judicatory.

XLII. But in cases of process on the ground of general rumor, where there is, of course, no particular accuser, there may be a committee appointed (if convenient), who shall be called the "Committee of Prosecution," and who shall conduct the whole course on the part of the prosecution. The members of this committee shall not be permitted to sit in judgment in the case.

XLIII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIV. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.

NOTE.—The discrepancy between the sum of the two columns headed "No. of Officers and Teachers" and "No. of Scholars" and the total of column headed "No. of Officers, Teachers and Scholars" is due to the fact that many schools fill in only the last mentioned column. The figures under "Relation to Church," "Educational" and "Contributions" are only approximately accurate, owing to the imperfect Reports received in many cases.

JAMES A. WORDEN, Superintendent of Sabbath-school and Missionary Work.
